coverstory Missing no more: Procedural drama takes sinister turn in 'Found'

According to NamUS's October 2022 report, in the United States, approximately 600,000 people are reported as missing annually — no doubt a much higher number than many of us might expect.

As true crime aficionados and law enforcement can likely attest, only a fraction of these missing people are ever found, and with each passing hour, their cases become more and more dire. Thankfully, there are a handful of people in the world who are equipped with the skills and knowledge to help, and one such person — on screen, at least — is Gabi Mosely, the leading character in NBC's newest procedural drama "Found," premiering Tuesday, Oct. 3. Played by "Shameless" star Shanola Hampton, Gabi is a hard-working, determined public relations expert who specializes in finding Americans who have been reported as missing. As she leads a team of professionals in their shared noble work, Gabi does her best to parse her own past as a missing person. That said, Gabi's methods for dealing with her demons could arguably use a bit of work.

As viewers quickly learn, Gabi has turned the proverbial tables on her former captor and has taken him hostage for a change not exactly legal, but certainly satisfying. Now, despite her outwardly calm and put-together exterior, Gabi must hide the fact that she has a man, known only as "Sir" (played by "Saved by the Bell's" Mark-Paul Gosselaar), tied up in her very own basement while she seeks justice for the remainder of the missing Americans on the register.

To make matters even more intriguing, Gabi has a plan for Sir.

Convinced that, as a former abductor himself, Sir knows the ins and outs of the criminal psyche and its various resulting behaviors, Gabi enlists his help as a consultant. With each new case she brings home, Sir is forced to help her find the victims of these heinous abductions and turn the kidnappers over to the authorities for investigation, (hopefully) a guilty verdict and sentencing.

While "Found" was originally scheduled for a Feb. 19 premiere this year, NBC announced the show's postponement in mid-January, believing it to be better suited to an autumn release.

"After watching the first few episodes of 'Found,' it quickly became clear that our love for this show has continued to grow and grow with each step of the process," Susan Rovner, chairman of entertainment content for NBCUniversal television and streaming, said in a January news release.

"Our goal is always to find the absolute best home for all our series, and it's particularly the case with one as important as this," Rovner continu ' "" noving it to fall, we're able to better leverage our resources, including lead-in and marketing muscle, enabling us to launch 'Found' to the largest possible audience across all our platforms."

As a result of this shift, "Found" premieres immediately following a new Season 24 episode of the hit singing competition "The Voice" and joins other series on NBC's fall docket, including Season 2 of the sci-fi reboot "Quantum Leap," Season 5 of the Hawaii-set procedural "Magnum P.I." (both premiering Oct. 4), Season 3 of the Canadian medical drama "Transplant" (premiering on NBC Oct. 12) and new episodes of "The Wall" (beginning Nov. 3).

A new season of "Dateline" also premieres on the network, alongside new series "The Irrational" (which premiered Sept. 25) and rebroadcasts of the One Chicago and Law & Order franchise procedurals.

Ready, set, carve: 'Outrageous Pumpkins' searches for its next jack-o-lantern champion

Damaris Phillips ("Food Network Star" winner, Season 9) expands her search for the greatest of Great Pumpkin carvers as Season 4 of "Outrageous Pumpkins" continues, airing new episodes Sundays on Food Network.

During the season premiere — which aired Sunday, Sept. 24 — eight talented pumpkin carvers joined Phillips on the series' spooky carving stage, all eager to become the next "Outrageous Pumpkins" champion. The artists immediately began their first challenge: creating the most elaborate porch display in the neighborhood, showing off their unique artistic view in order to introduce themselves to judges Ralph Attanasia ("Cake Boss") and Terri Hardin ("Men in Black, 1997). Only the most distinct, creative and downright spooky will continue, as eliminations take place following each round.

This week's episode — the second of four — follows the remaining carvers as they try their hand at defying gravity. A summary listed on Food Network describes: "Host Damaris Phillips is all about everyone's favorite Halloween decoration, the jack-o'-lantern, so she tasks the carvers with creating topsy-turvy, gravity-defying stacks of jacks. Then in the 'Big Carve,' the competitors must impress judges Ralph Attanasia and Terri Hardin with a spooky jack-o'-lantern skeletal structure to stay safe from elimination."

As the season continues, Phillips challenges the artists to carve three-dimensional pop culture pumpkins and sculptures that highlight iconic fashion eras — even watching on as the final few bring (according to Food Network) "common literary phrases with a deadly twist to life for the judges."

From 3D to DC, the final five carvers must call for superhuman strength as they attempt to depict a scene from DC's "Batman," with the titular crime-fighter facing off against one of his iconic enemies as he tries to save Gotham City.

By the grand finale, only half of the competitors will remain, as the final four carvers must impress Attanasia and Hardin in not one, but two rounds. First, Phillips tasks the group with "creating the winning monster entry in the Miss/Mr. Underworld Pageant, complete with pageant talent," says Food Network, continuing: "Then, it's time for giants on parade as the competitors transform 2,000-pound Atlantic Giant pumpkins into a spooktacular Halloween parade float."

Whoever can complete this last, massive feat and impress judges best earns the championship title and all its glory, including a $25,000 cash prize and the coveted "Outrageous Pumpkins" championship belt — a worthy feat for any Halloween heavyweight.

Season 4 of "Outrageous Pumpkins" continues through October, with new episodes airing Sundays on Food Network.

playerprofile Chiefs, Kelce look to continue dominance over New York Jets

The 2023 Super Bowl champion Kansas City Chiefs are heading to the Big Apple this weekend as they get set to take on the New York Jets, Sunday Oct. 1, at MetLife Stadium, with all

The last time these two teams met, the Chiefs put on an absolute clinic, with quarterback Patrick Mahomes leading the way by throwing for 416 passing yards and translating those into five touchdowns as they defeated the Jets 35-9.

Going into this season - and with Aaron Rodgers ruled out for the remainder of the year after suffering a torn Achilles tendon in his first game of the season — the Jets will undeniably have their work cut out for them on all fronts, particularly on the defensive end.

Of the team's 416 passing yards, 109 yards were completed by none other than tight end Travis Kelce.

With an incredible start to the year, Kelce also added one touchdown on eight catches, with the Jets having no answer, and continuing to prove why he is a handful for so many opposing teams. Overall, the Chiefs continue to lead the series against the New York Jets 20-19-1, and with the Chiefs largely the same squad from their previous match, look for Kelce and co. to follow a similar gameplan.

Catch all your Sunday football action as the Chiefs take on Jets at MetLife Stadium in East Rutherford, New Jersey, on Oct. 1, with the broadcast airing live on ESPN.

"Movie: Totally Killer" (Oct. 6) 35 years after the shocking murder of three teens, the infamous "Sweet Sixteen Killer" returns on Halloween night to claim a fourth victim. 17-year-old Jamie (Kiernan Shipka) ignores her overprotective mom's (Julie Bowen) warning and comes face to face with the masked maniac and, on the run for her life, accidentally time travels back to 1987, the year of the original killings. Forced to navigate the unfamiliar and outrageous culture of the 1980s, Jamie teams up with her teen mom (Olivia Holt) to take down the killer once and for all before she's stuck in the past forever.

"The D'Amelio Show" - Season 3 (Available Now)

While the outside world beckons with bigger and better opportunities for the D'Amelios, their toughest challenges come from within their own relationships in this series' third sea-son. "Movie: Race to the Summit" (Oct. 4)

Ueli Steck was known as the fastest climber in the world until Dani Arnold broke his Eiger speed record in 2011. That incredible climb sparked a duel across the great north faces of the European Alps, many of which the pair climbed 'solo', without any safety equipment. This new documentary is directed by Nicholas de Taranto and Gotz Werner.

Rachel Boston

OF "THE MORE LOVE GROWS" (RECENTLY) ON HALLMARK MOVIES & MYSTERIES

P12 Friday, September 29, 2023 I ENTERTAINMENT GUIDE I Clay Today

Q: I've enjoyed Rachel Boston in many of her cable movies. Where did she get her start?

A: Seen most recently in "The More Love Grows" on Hallmark Movies & Mysteries, the actress has been starting to play mothers more frequently ... which is appropriate, since she became a first-time mom herself early in 2022. Her first big credit was the 2002-05 NBC series "American Dreams," inspired by the legendary music show "American Bandstand" and featuring Boston as Beth, who became the sister-in-law of "Bandstand" dancer Beth (Brittany Snow). Boston went on to do guest shots on many series including "NCIS," "Crossing Jordan," "Las Vegas," "Grey's Anatomy," "ER" and "Castle." She landed continuing roles on "In Plain Sight" and "Witches of East End," and in 2014, she began what has become her long association with the Hallmark brand, which started with the movie "A Ring by Spring" (still repeated fairly often). The Christmas season has yielded a particular amount of work for Boston, who has worked again for Hallmark in "Ice Sculpture Christmas," "Christmas in Angel Falls," "Check Inn to Christmas," "The Christmas Carousel" and "A Christmas Cookie Catastrophe." "Stop the Wedding," "The Last Bridesmaid" and "Dating the Delaneys" have been among Boston's other Hallmark projects; she also has made films for Lifetime occasionally. Additionally, Boston has had a recurring role on "SEAL Team" that enabled her to keep working while she was in later stages of her pregnancy, since her character on the series -Hannah Oliver - also was expecting, with high-school friend and Bravo Team member Sonny Quinn (A.J. Buckley) the father of her child.

die up there."

For multiple reasons, it's an appropriate time for "The Exorcist" to make a return.

The Halloween season is ideal for a showing of the 1973 scare classic - which AMC presents Saturday, Oct. 7, and the timing of the film's return also serves as a tribute to its director: William Friedkin, who died in August. (In fact, Turner Classic Movies also is slated to show the picture as part of a Friedkin tribute on Nov. 26.)

William Peter Blatty adapted his own Washington, D., C.-set best seller for the screen version, tracing the plight of young Regan MacNeil (Linda Blair, then a novice performer), an actress' (Ellen Burstyn) daughter who becomes a target of demonic possession. Friedkin and Blatty build the unsettling feeling gradually, initially presenting Regan as a happy and reasonably ordinary child ... until she crashes a party given by her mother

celebrityupdate BY ADAM THOMLISON Mariska Hargitay

OF LAW & ORDER: SPECIAL VICTIMS UNIT ON NBC

Q: Is Mariska Hargitay doing anything besides "Law & Order: SVU"? Some actors take other roles in the off-season.

A: Det. Olivia Benson keeps Mariska Hargitay busy enough as it is.

Hargitay has played Benson on "Law & Order: Special Victims Unit" since all the way back in 1999, but she also plays her on the various spinoffs, related shows and even a few comedy shows that bring her in for a gag.

She's appeared on three of the "Law & Order" spinoffs - most recently doing 13 episodes of "Organized Crime," which features Benson's old partner, Elliot Stabler (Christopher Meloni). She's also done two of the "One Chicago" shows, "Chicago P.D." and "Chicago Fire," thereby merging the two televised universes created by mega-producer Dick Wolf.

Her character is, of course, deadly serious, but Hargitay has been able to have fun with it a few times. She appeared in character on the short-lived Pop TV comedy series "Nightcap" in 2017, and then in 2019 on the more venerable "Saturday Night Live."

It's possible Hargitay feels like she already showed her range before joining "SVU." She appeared in dozens of TV shows and a few movies before landing the role.

For example, she did a lengthy arc on the prime-time soap "Falcon Crest" in 1988, starred in the short-lived sitcom "Can't Hurry Love" in 1995, and did an arc on the smash-hit med show "ER" in 1997. The big-screen roles were less prestigious, though she broke into the scene in a big way in 1984, with a role in the cult-classic gross-out film "Ghoulies" (1984).

reality ty BY CAROLINE COLLACUTT Caught on tape: 'AFV' nears 900 episodes with premiere of 34th season

With countless hosts, more than 850 episodes and decades of history on broadcast television, "America's Funniest Home Videos" returns with new episodes when Season 34 premieres Sunday, Oct. 1, on ABC.

As we prepare for the return of funny animal videos and pranks gone wrong, Season 1 of this series — the network's longest-running prime-time entertainment show — often feels like it aired in the not-so-distant past. "AFV," however, is now legally old enough to drive, to vote, to rent a car — and no matter how it changes and grows, it tickles our funny bones just the same way.

What started as a television special in 1989 (itself based on the Japanese variety show "Fun TV with Kato-chan and Ken-chan") quickly became a regular weekly series, as Bob Saget ("Full House") took the lead as host and welcomed American viewers to the quirky world of "AFV." Since its inception, the show's format has stayed mostly the same, shining a spotlight on everyday people as viewers, fans and pranksters alike submit hilarious home videos involving everything from outrageous physical comedy and wildly intelligent toddlers to "trick shots" gone wrong and marriage proposal mishaps.

The submitted clips are played in front of a live studio audience who then vote on the funniest videos of the week. Each episode, the first palace winner is awarded a cash prize and offered the opportunity to return for the series' next competition round, where they vie for a much larger prize — now, a purse set at $100,000. This continues until the end of the season, when previous winners compete for even more cash and an exclusive, all-inclusive vacation package.

Some little details, however, have changed. Saget retired after Season 8, when "AFV" then ran occasional special episodes hosted by various actors and comedians. Two years later, Tom Bergeron ("Hollywood Squares") took on the role, then acted as the face of "AFV" for the next 15 years.

celebrity pipeline BY Television work was right for Bob Barker

Q: I was saddened to learn that Bob Barker died. I know he hosted "Truth or Consequences" before "The Price Is Right," but did he host any other shows before that? – Ron Gordon, via e-mail

A: Not on television, but he had his own radio program originating from Southern California, after he had worked at stations in Missouri and Florida. It was while he was working at Los Angeles station KNX – still in operation as an all-news outlet – and interacting with audience members that he came to the attention of television host and producer Ralph Edwards, who was seeking someone to front the weekday-TV version of "Truth or Consequences." The offer went out to Barker, and the rest is genuine television history.

Q: Will Derek Hough be back on "Dancing With the Stars" for its new season? – Gail Hackett, Reading, Pa.

A: He will, and with a new responsibility, since he'll assume the position of head judge that previously was held by the late Len Goodman. Hough (who's a newlywed) is sure to have some interesting interaction with the hosts, too, since his sister Julianne will join returnee Alfonso Ribeiro to preside over the contest. (Tyra Banks has left the show.) ABC will return to carrying the program for its new season, with Disney+ continuing to present it as well.

"Love Me Tender" (1956): Presley's first movie role turned an average Civil War story into an event - and also got the picture's title altered, thanks to one of the tunes he crooned.

"Loving You" (1957): Mirroring Presley's own rise to stardom, this rags-to-riches drama boasts one of his most sensitive performances, before he entered the phase of having his songs hung on threadbare plots.

"Jailhouse Rock" (1957): The famous scene with Presley singing, and gyrating to, the title tune says it all about this classic. This is among the features Turner Classic Movies will show in a daytime marathon of Presley pictures Thursday, Oct. 5.

"Flaming Star" (1960): Guided by director Don Siegel, who later turned Clint Eastwood into Dirty Harry, Presley puts real effort into playing a man of two cultures that clash, putting him in a bind.

Always At Your Fingertips.

BEST ELVIS PRESLEY MOVIES (1956): Presley's an average Civil "Wild in the Country" (1961): Presley and playwright Clifford Odets weren't ultimate star vehicle gu ley and playwright Clifford Odets weren't a typical combination, but credit was due the still-early movie star for being ambitious enough to tackle sophisticated material that would challenge even the most experienced actor.

"Blue Hawaii" (1961): You couldn't hope for the islands to look lovelier than in this combination of Elvis showcase and travelogue, also intriguing for Presley raising his acting game opposite a veteran talent by the name of Angela Lansbury.

"Kid Galahad" (1962): Presley is sincere as a boxer who succeeds in the ring, though he desires a quieter life.

"Fun in Acapulco" (1963): Presley in his prime; Ursula Andress, fresh off being the first "Bond girl"; Mexican locations. What's not to like? "Viva Las Vegas" (1964): Presley's ultimate star vehicle gave him an ideal partner in Ann-Margret and pretty much set the blueprint (he races cars!) for numerous other Elvis movies.

"Roustabout" (1964): This arguably was the best of Presley's efforts once he got into more of a cookie-cutter mode (he's a cycle-riding carnival worker!) with his movies.

"Charro!" (1969): Commendably, Presley tried to turn his screen career around but pretty late in the game - by not singing a note in this mature Western.

"Elvis: That's the Way It Is" (1970): It's ironic that one of Presley's final movies offers one of his most dynamic screen appearances, before, during and after a Las Vegas concert performance.
