Out of this world TV: Season 4 of 'For All Mankind' enters new millennium

Whether it takes "one small step" or "one giant leap" to get to your couch, do it "For All Mankind." The hit Apple TV+ television series "For All Mankind" is back for a fourth season Friday, Nov. 10, after taking a year-and-a-half-long hiatus. With one Primetime Emmy win under its belt already, the sci-fi drama's newest season is comprised of another 10 episodes, thus bringing the total episode count for the series to a whopping 40.

The series first made (gravitational?) waves when it premiered on its home streamer in 2019. Marketed as an alternate version of 1969, in which "the Soviet Union beats the United States to the moon" (per IMDb), the series reimagines history and speculates how this one change in events could have sparked a whole new world order. Largely focused on the political and scientific ramifications of the then-U.S.S.R. making history on the moon, "For All Mankind" Season 1 leaned into the idea of a space race that "continues on for decades with still grander challenges and goals."

With the premiere of Season 2 in February 2021, the astronauts faced an all-new set of challenges that took place more than a decade after the moon landing. Having confronted everything from lunar ice and trespassers to gender debates in Season 1, the next two seasons promised higher stakes and bigger problems. And on this promise it surely delivered.

From natural disasters such as solar storms and generally harsh living conditions to personal qualms ranging from reckless and selfish behavior to ego-based contests and grand political motivations, there has never been a dull moment on the screen — or in the lives of "For All Mankind's" fictionalized astronauts and their families.

One of these astronauts is Edward Baldwin, played by "The Killing's" Joel Kinnaman. The head of the Baldwin family, which has seen some serious struggles throughout the show's three seasons to date, Ed is one of NASA's best astronauts and is rumored to have been based upon real-life Apollo 10 commander Thomas P. Stafford. While Ed has been supported by several family members over the years, including Karen (Shantel VanSanten, "Shooter"), Kelly (Cynthy Wu, "Holidate," 2020) and Shane (played by brothers Teddy and Tait Blum, "Big Little Lies" and "Shooter," respectively), the only confirmed Baldwin returning (other than Ed) is Kelly.

Joining Ed in space and on Earth are returning characters Ellen Wilson (Jodi Balfour, "Quarry"), Margo Madison (Wrenn Schmidt, "Nope," 2022), Danielle Poole (Krys Marshall, "Supergirl"), Helios Aerospace founder Dev Ayesa (Edi Gathegi, "The Blacklist") and Aleida Rosales (Coral Peña, "The Post," 2017).

Viewers who are already familiar with "For All Mankind" and who may be wondering what is to come in the newest season need look no further than the official trailer, as issued by Apple TV+ in mid-September. Time flies in "For All Mankind," and in a move that echoes the near-decade jump from Season 2 into Season 3 in June 2022, the fourth season of the series picks up eight years after the Season 3 finale.

"Rocketing into the new millennium in the eight years since Season 3," reads an Apple TV+ news release from Sept. 13, "Happy Valley has rapidly expanded its footprint on Mars by turning former foes into partners. Now 2003, the focus of the space program has turned to the capture and mining of extremely valuable, mineral-rich asteroids that could change the future of both Earth and Mars."

But Apple is quick to remind viewers of the darkness lurking in space as "simmering tensions between the residents of the now-sprawling international base threaten to undo everything they are working towards."

"Fargo" - Season 5 (FX/Hulu — Nov. 21/22, Season Premiere)

The newest season of this critically acclaimed FX anthology series is set in Minnesota and North Dakota in 2019. After an unexpected series of events lands Dorothy 'Dot' Lyon (Juno Temple) in hot water with the authorities, this seemingly typical Midwestern housewife is suddenly plunged back into a life she thought she had left behind. Jon Hamm, Joe Keery, Sam Spruell, David Rysdahl, Jennifer Jason Leigh, Richa Moorjani, Lamorne Morris and Dave Foley also star.

Season 7 of 'Christmas Cookie Challenge' pays homage to holiday classics

It's the season to get baking, and no one knows it better than Food Network. Packed with holiday cheer and tasty treats, an all-new season of "Christmas Cookie Challenge" is now airing on the network.

Hosted by former NFL player, current "Food Network Star" (Season 11), food truck owner and private chef Eddie Jackson, alongside writer, photographer, cookie-making mom and experienced cooking show host, Ree Drummond ("The Pioneer Woman"), this series follows as "confident and daring bakers compete to prove their holiday cookie-making skills," Food Network describes, promising that as four new bakers are introduced each episode, "tough-love judges are on hand to crown the holiday cookie master, [each of whom] will go home with a $10,000 prize!"

From gingerbread to snickerdoodles to swirly-twirly gumdrops, the series whips up cheer and inspires bakers back at home. The competing cookie makers are tasked with fun challenges, like crafting usable gingerbread puppet theaters, decorating snickerdoodles and even paying homage to classic Christmas films such as "Elf" (2003), starring Will Ferrell.

"Four of the finest cookie makers around get inspired by 'the seven levels of the candy cane forest' and 'the sea of swirly-twirly gumdrops," Food Network explains, "[creating] cookies that show the parts of Buddy's journey not featured in the movie. When it's over, one 'cotton-headed ninny muggin' will be sent home for the holidays, while the one who decorates the most fantastical journey will win an advantage for the next round."

"Their magical displays will have to incorporate ingredients from Buddy the Elf's favorite meal: maple syrup, chocolate syrup, candy-coated chocolates, chocolate breakfast pastries or cooked spaghetti," they say, encouraging some interesting flavors.

This current season will also feature an all-star episode, set to air Thursday, Nov. 16, on the network. During this "Champions" episode, Jackson and Drummond welcome eight former "Christmas Cookie Challenge" champions back to the kitchen, asking them to prove who is the best of the best.

"This time, the cookie makers are facing challenges so merrily massive that they'll be put into teams of two. First, the bakers must weave magic as they create Christmas cookie quilts. One team will have the rug pulled out from under them as they're eliminated. ... Then, the three remaining teams construct gigantic stadiums worthy of the finest North Pole games that also incorporate ingredients perfect for watching a snow bowl: eggnog, hot chocolate, apple cider or mulled wine" (per Food Network).

Keep the holidays extra sweet with "Christmas Cookie Challenge," airing new episodes Thursdays on Food Network.

Stephen Ames looks to add more hardware at Charles Schwab Cup

The final stage of the PGA Tour Champions tour gets underway as the 34th annual Charles Schwab Cup Championship tees off Nov. 9-12 at the Phoenix Country Golf Club, with ESPN and CBS providing all tournament coverage.

In what's been a year full of storylines and record-breaking performances for 59-year-old Stephen Ames, it's been a season like no other — an excellent way to enter this week's Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

Now a six-time winner on the senior circuit, Ames, who is a citizen of both Canada and the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago, has won four of his past 13 starts, including shooting 9-under 63 at this year's Boeing Classic, for a record-dominating seven-stroke victory over defending champion Miguel Angel Jimenez.

Ames managed to also tie the Boeing Classic record for the lowest score by a winner at 197.

Clearly in the zone, Ames is well aware of his strong play throughout, but with all the noise, the Canadian keeps his focus on simply enjoying the game he loves.

"For me, right now I'm just enjoying where I'm at with my games and trying to make the most of it as we go along." Ames said, speaking to reporters at the Shaw Charity Classic. "The confidence is there, there's no doubt about it. Knowing where I'm at and how to fix things instantly when I'm not on the course, how I'm feeling a little bit more relaxed and enjoying it ... yeah I'm in that zone right now, and it's helpful," said Ames.

While his performances since the Boeing Classic have slightly dipped over recent weeks, it would be naive to count out Ames in any way. Look for Stephen Ames to sprinkle some of his PGA Tour magic as he looks for his seventh career PGA Tour Champions victory and fifth tournament win of the season.

Matt LeBlanc

OF FRIENDS ON TBS

Q: I know Matt LeBlanc had a couple of series after "Friends." What has he been doing lately?

A: Not a lot professionally since his CBS sitcom "Man With a Plan" ended in 2020. He famously appeared with his former tellow stars in the 2021 streaming special "Friends: The Reunion," which still can be found on Max, and it's quite touching to watch the embraces and memories shared by him and the other five actors with whom he shared so much time – and success – over the decade-long run of that much-repeated show (which was seen originally on NBC). LeBlanc also was part of a 2021 "Top Gear" special that paid tribute to the late race driver Sabine Schmitz, who appeared often on that BBC series. LeBlanc's presence on that special acknowledged his own presence on "Top Gear" as a presenter on episodes that were spread over four seasons, after his participation as a guest. He was required to be in England to make the show, and he ultimately decided to leave that job and remain largely in the U.S. It's not new for LeBlanc to take extended breaks from television work. He also did that after the NBC run of the "Friends" spinoff "Joey," and what was planned as one year off became five, with the actor eventually returning (and playing a variation of himself) in the Showtime comedy series "Episodes." He won a Golden Globe Award for that show, then he spent four seasons on "Man With a Plan."

"Leo" (Nov. 21, Movie Premiere)

This coming-of-age animated musical comedy is about the last year of elementary school — as seen through the eyes of a class pet. Jaded 74-year-old lizard Leo (Adam Sandler) has been stuck in the same Florida classroom for decades with his terrarium-mate turtle (Bill Burr). When he learns he only has one year left to live, he plans to escape to experience life on the outside, but instead gets caught up in the problems of his anxious students — including an impossibly mean substitute teacher. It ends up being the strangest but most rewarding bucket list ever.

Harrison Ford makes another run with "The Fugitive"

If "The Fugitive" isn't the best movie based on a television series, it sure is close.

Not only does director Andrew Davis' 1993 version of the drama — which AMC shows Tuesday, Nov. 14, Wednesday, Nov. 15 and Saturday, Nov. 18 (just ahead of the film's 4K Ultra HD debut on Nov. 21) — hold true to the basics of the original show, it expands on them sensationally, adding significant depth to wrongly accused Dr. Richard Kimble's (Harrison Ford) perilous pursuit of the one-armed man (Andreas Katsulas) who killed his wife (Sela Ward).

David Janssen's demeanor was halting and brooding as TV's Kimble in the 1960s, and possibly in tribute to that, so is Ford's variation on the character ... but the longtime movie superstar has those qualities anyway, and they serve him well as Kimble remains determined to clear himself while desperately trying to evade the federal marshals led by Sam Gerard (Tommy Lee Jones,

Chicago makes a fabulous principal setting for the high-stakes cat-and-mouse game, with a sequence set in and around the annual St. Patrick's Day Parade (complete with green-tinted river) particularly effective. That certainly isn't the only impactful action scene offered by "The Fugitive," though, indicated early on as the prison transport bus carrying Kimble crashes and tumbles onto a train track. And, of course, a train is coming.

Two of the unsung heroes (actually, heroines) of "The Fugitive" are veteran casting directors Amanda Mackey and Cathy Sandrich Gelfond. Whatever its size, every role is cast perfectly, with several performers leaving especially big impressions after really only a moment or two including Julianne Moore, Nick Searcy and an early-in-her-career Jane Lynch. Jeroen Krabbe and Joe Pantoliano also are on the flawless team of actors here.

Roy Huggins, who created "The Fugitive" for United Artists Television (giving that studio one of its biggest hits) and ABC, was credited as the executive producer of the movie. It surely helps that the film had that very authentic lineage, and it didn't hurt that its makers probably wanted to do the original concept full justice with Huggins still actively connected.

72nd Miss Universe pageant continues deal with Roku Channel

Universal miss: Beauty, grace, humanitarianism and swimsuits: the "72nd Miss Universe" pageant broadcasts live from the National Gymnasium in San Salvador, El Salvador, Saturday, Nov. 18, on the Roku Channel.

Airing as part of an ongoing deal between The Miss Universe Organization (now owned by JKN Global Group PCL), The Roku Channel and Telemundo, the event marks the second live event for Roku and will be broadcast in English and Spanish on said networks, respectively.

This year marks some important changes for the organization, as this competition will be the first in 66 years in which the Miss Universe Organization has allowed married women and women with children to walk the stage once again: this welcomes Camila Avella (Colombia), Michelle Cohn (Guatemala) and Alexandra Stoyanova (Bulgaria), who otherwise would not have been able to compete.

The event also welcomes Rikki Kolle (Netherlands) and Marina Machete (Portugal), who will be the second and third transgender contestants taking part in the pageant (following Angela Ponce from Spain, in 2018).

It will also mark the debut of Pakistan to the competition (Erica Robin), and the returns of Denmark, Egypt, Guyana, Hungary, Ireland, Kazakhstan, Latvia, Mongolia, Norway and Zimbabwe, all of which have not entered the competition for at least two years.

Last year's winner — R'Bonney Nola Gabriel of the United States — will return to crown her successor at the end of the event. This year, the U.S. is entering 24-year-old Noelia Voigt of Park City, Utah.

The program features events that will eventually select a winner, a process including personal statements, interviews, evening gowns and swimwear.

BY CAROLINE COLLACUTT

The winner takes office immediately after coronation, becoming an ambassador for a year, spreading the organization's positive message and humanitarian works, including fighting for women's ethnic minority rights, racial issues, public health issues and environmental issues. Winners also receive a cash allowance and other perks, such as scholarships, modeling opportunities, beauty products, clothes, styling, fitness services and more.

The organization claims: "Miss Universe Organization exists to advocate for a future forgec by women — women with the courage to push the limits of what's possible, who are curious enough to make world-shaking discoveries and audacious enough to do this over and over. We believe that the future of humanity rests on reaching gender equity around the world."

Michael Caine

OF THE GREAT ESCAPER ON MISC.

Q: Is Michael Caine still working? What's his next project going to be?

A: His next project is going to be taking it easy, and enjoying being a granddad. The legendary English actor told the BBC last month that, at 90 years old, he's now officially retired.

He said so while doing press for what will now be his last movie, "The Great Escaper," a biographical drama about a war veteran who escapes his retirement home to attend the 70th anniversary of the D-Day landings in France. It was released in early October. It's been well received so far, and Caine said he's unlikely to get another leading-man role again at his age. "The only parts I'm likely to get now are old men, 90-year-old men, maybe 85. And I thought, 'Well, I might as well leave with all this — I've got wonderful reviews. What have I got to do to beat this?""

It caps off an incredible career that launched with small parts in war movies in the mid-1950s. But he really got on the map in the mid-'60s with young, heartthrob roles in hits like "The Ipcress File" (1965) and "Alfie" (1966).

He kept up an incredible work rate even into his 80s, appearing, for example, in three different films in 2020 alone (the fantasy drama "Come Away," the kid-friendly comedy "Four Kids and It" and the smash-hit sci-fi thriller "Tenet").

But he told People magazine a little while ago that becoming a grandfather changed his view of life and ultimately overshadowed his career. "I am completely besotted by my grandchildren. It's my best role, and I don't need any awards for it."

Joel Kinnaman

Q: I heard that Amazon had canceled "Hanna." So what's Joel Kinnaman doing now?

A: Don't worry about incredibly in-demand actor Joel Kinnaman — he's got a range of backups in place. His series "Hanna," an Amazon Prime action drama about a super-powered child assassin, was indeed canceled in 2021 after three

OF FOR ALL MANKIND ON APPLE TV+ seasons. But that was just one of the shows in which he had a lead role at the time. His other one, the alternate-history sci-fi drama "For All Mankind," is still on the go, with Season 4 just debuting on Apple TV+. He plays veteran astronaut Ed Baldwin on the series, which imagines an alternate world - and aeronautics industry - where the Soviet Union beat the U.S. to the moon in 1969.

But that's not the only project on his plate. His big-screen action thriller "Silent Night," directed by Hong Kong action auteur John Woo ("Hard Boiled," 1992), will arrive in cinemas in a couple of weeks.

And now, he's in the midst of filming the crime thriller "The Silent Hour," about a hearing-impaired detective who has to take on a team of corrupt cops trying to kill a deaf murder witness.

All-new series explores the dating lives of identical twins

Double date: When you're born a minute apart and look exactly the same, how different can you be, really? From Amazon Studios and ITV America's ITV Entertainment comes a new dating reality series — a social experiment unlike any other, delving into the dating world of identicals. The Amazon Freevee series "Twin Love" premieres Friday, Nov. 17, on Prime Video.

The series, hosted by professional wrestling duo Brie and Nikki Garcia ("WWE Smackdown!"), formerly the Bella Twins, welcomes a cast full of doubles. Amazon Prime describes: "Ten sets of twins will be split up and placed into two houses of 'identical' casts, where they'll begin a unique and compelling search for love. With double the fun and drama, the series will discover if their inherent similarities extend to their romantic desires."

"When separated from their twin brothers and sisters — some for the first time ever — will they pursue the same identical partners?" Amazon asks. "Or will their choices be dramatically different?" There's only one way to find out.

During this inaugural season, twins include: Whittnay and Brittnay James, who have both been single for over four years; Sabella and Hanna Radostitz, with matching tattoos for former boyfriends they now regret; Cameron and Ceara McKegney, a pair of opposites who still share in their quick-witted and entertaining personalities; Zoie and Baelee Bogart, twin sisters who have never been apart for more than a day; Morgan and Madison Ramsey, two self-proclaimed tomboys who mind their manners; Seth and Luke Banks, the chatterbox brothers, both golfers from a big family; Jair and Micquel Bernier, two confident and popular, party-going jocks; Matthew and Andrew Beatty, who have lived all over the world, making friends globally with their outgoing personalities; Samir and Samer Akel, twins born in Syria who moved to the United States 10 years ago, now successful restaurateurs; and David and Aaron Cabello, both high school dropouts who started their own business that quickly spread across America.

"THE EQUALIZER 3"

If it was rare for Denzel Washington to do a sequel to one of his earlier movies, it was equally rare for him to do a third chapter. Here, his literally troubleshooting character Robert McCall recovers from a violent mission in an Italian town, where he ultimately comes to the rescue of the citizens when they're threatened by vicious mobsters who want their property. The tale - not connected to Queen Latifah's current "Equalizer" series on CBS - reteams Washington with director Antoine Fugua, who not only made the earlier "Equalizer" films, but also guided the actor to an Oscar win for "Training Day." Washington is also reunited with co-star Dakota Fanning, with whom he appeared in "Man on Fire," and who plays a CIA operative alerted by McCall to the covert drug-dealing business of a Sicilian winery.

An "Equalizer" prequel movie reportedly is under consideration.  (R: AS, P, V) (Also on Blu-ray, 4K Ultra HD, Digital and On Demand)

Jaime Camil is game to host contests

Q: It's interesting to see Jaime Camil as a game-show host on CBS's "Loteria Loca." Has he ever done a job like that before? – Jennifer Bridge, via e-mail

A: In fact, he has. Though the actor arguably is bestknown from his 2014-19 run on The CW's "Jane the Virgin," he has done a variety of jobs during his entertainment career, one of which was his hosting the Mexican edition of the game "Le Gran Show" in 2010. Camil also has been a singer, has acted in telenovelas and has done cartoon voice-overs, but he maintains that he particularly enjoys stage work. He put his vocal talents to good use on Broadway as Billy Flynn in "Chicago" in 2016, and "West Side Story" and "Peter Pan" are among other theatrical productions that have featured him.

"THE NUN II"

Continuing the "Conjuring" horror franchise, this sequel – which, fairly recently, did good business theatrically - returns Taissa Farmiga, Jonas Bloquet and Bonnie Aarons to their original roles. The slaying of a priest in mid-1950s France brings Sister Irene (Farmiga) into direct contact with supernatural terror again, since her earlier experiences make her a candidate to investigate strange deaths across Europe that evidently have been caused by the demon she confronted before. Storm Reid ("The Last of Us") and Anna Popplewell also star, with Michael Chaves ("The Conjuring: The Devil Made Me Do It") back in the series as the director. Two more "Conjuring" veterans make surprise appearances before the film is over.  (R: AS, P, V) (Also on Blu-ray, 4K Ultra HD, Digital and On Demand)

"FOR ALL MANKIND: SEASON ONE"

An alternate version of the history of the so-called "space race" is offered by a Bluray release of this acclaimed Apple TV+ series, which is just beginning its fourth season on the streaming service and poses what might have happened if Russia had reached the moon first. Other real-life events also are reinvented as the saga follows a group of fictionalized American astronauts and support personnel (with many of the characters based on actual members of NASA) as they try to make up for lost time by intensifying efforts toward a lunar landing by the U.S. – with women and minorities included in the pool of participants. The ensemble cast includes Joel Kinnaman ("The Killing"), Michael Dornan, Sarah Jones, Shantel VanSanten ("FBI"), Jodi Balfour, Sonya Walger and Edi Gathegi. Among the show's creators and producers is noted sci-fi veteran Ronald D. Moore, who had a big hand in the "Battlestar Galactica" reboot.  (Not rated: AS, P)

BEST KENNEDY DRAMAS

"PT 109" (1963): John F. Kennedy – who is recalled in the new History documentary series: "Kennedy," starting Saturday, Nov. 18 – selected Cliff Robertson to play him in this earnest retelling of the then-president's time as a Navy lieutenant.

"The Missiles of October" (1974, TV): William Devane made a major leap toward stardom with his JFK portrayal in this Cuban Missile Crisis drama.

"Kennedy" (1983, TV): Almost a decade after playing RFK in "The Missiles of October," Martin Sheen credibly portrayed JFK in this miniseries.

"Robert Kennedy and His Times" (1985, TV): Brad Davis did a fine job as RFK in a miniseries about the politician's years as attorney general and senator.

"The Kennedys of Massachusetts" (1990, TV): As Joseph and Rose Kennedy, William Petersen and Annette O'Toole led an impressive cast in this miniseries about the entire clan.

"JFK" (1991): Arguably the best-known movie to have John F. Kennedy as its subject, director Oliver Stone's drama also sparked a firestorm with its take on the official account of the assassination.

"JFK: Reckless Youth" (1993, TV):
A decade before "Grey's Anatomy," Patrick
Dempsey took the challenge of portraying the younger years of the icon-to-be.

"Jackie Bouvier Kennedy Onassis" (2000, TV): Of the actresses who have played the former first lady, Joanne Whalley fared particularly well, with Tim Matheson making a fine JFK.

"Thirteen Days" (2000): The Cuban Missile Crisis also was the focus of this drama, with Bruce Greenwood as JFK in a cast led by Kevin Costner as presidential aide Kenneth O'Donnell.

"Bobby" (2006): That's "Bobby" as in Robert F. Kennedy, with writer, director and co-star Emilio Estevez delving into the effects of the assassination on others present at the Los Angeles hotel where it happened.

"The Kennedys" (2011, TV): Despite content concerns that saw this miniseries relocate from History to Reelz, the performances by Emmy winner Barry Pepper (as RFK) and nominee Greg Kinnear (as JFK) make it worthwhile.

"Parkland" (2013): The "Bobby"-like drama about events at the Dallas hospital where the November 1963 shooting victims were taken features many familiar faces, from Billy Bob Thornton and Marcia Gay Harden to Paul Giamatti and Colin Hanks (whose father Tom was one of the film's producers).

"Killing Kennedy" (2013, TV): The filmed version of the book co-authored by Bill O'Reilly boasts intriguing work not only by Rob Lowe as JFK, but also by Will Rothhaar as Lee Harvey Oswald.

"11.22.63" (2016, TV): What if the fateful day in question had gone differently? This drama based on a Stephen King book poses the query and speculates about the answer.

"Jackie" (2016): An Oscar nominee for the performance, Natalie Portman is compelling in her portrayal of Jacqueline Kennedy in the immediate aftermath of the JFK assassination.
