MIDDLEBURG – There were so many times the Clay County Regional Sports Complex could have easily been derailed by changing politics, challenging budgets and a worldwide pandemic.

But dozens of local and state leaders remained steadfast in turning 250 acres of scrubland into a premier destination for large-scale sports tournaments.

“More than a dozen tumbler had to fall into place for this to happen,” said former county commissioner Gayward Hendry.

The ambitious project on State Road 21 near SR 16 came to life on Friday, April 5, with a ribbon-cutting ceremony that included the original and current county commission that championed the $7 million project, as well as current Florida Rep. Sam Garrison, who said former Florida Sen. Rob Bradley and Fla. Rep. Travis Cummings, along with current Gov. Ron DeSantis made sure Phase 1 got past the finish line.

My foiled journey to the dark side of the Moon

The personal countdown for next eclipse in 2044 has already started

By Jack Randall
jack@claytodayonline.com

BOERNE, Texas – Overcast skies stood between the total solar eclipse spectacle and millions of disappointed eclipse-chasers nationwide last Monday.

You can count me in that statistic. No matter how much I had hoped, the blanket of gray clouds never lifted.

Ever since I looked up at my first total solar eclipse in 2017, I have been looking forward to the next one. It was a life-changing moment I would never forget, such as when the sky had reddened and darkened, almost like a dark room for film. When the moon finally rolled into place, I took off my eclipse glasses. The platinum ring of the cornea could be seen safely with the naked eye, and so too was a sky glittering with stars.

It was a spectacular slice of nightfall in the middle of the day.

Unfortunately, this was not the case during my most recent trip. Driving west

BCC approves new Fire Station 20 for GCS in 2025

By Jack Randall
jack@claytodayonline.com

GREEN COVE SPRINGS – The Board of County Commissioners unanimously approved an agreement with Ajax Building Company last Tuesday to construct new Fire Station 20.

The completion is scheduled for June 27, 2025, and the project's price tag will not exceed $11,648,151. The agreement approved the second phase of the construction agreement.

The new station will replace the current Fire Station 20, constructed in 1982 at 303 S. Oakridge Ave. in Green Cove Springs, just off of Idlewild Avenue. It is a small, one-story, 2,560-square-foot facility with three apparatus bays.

The new station will be just a few doors down. It's new location will be at the intersection of Idlewild Avenue and Southwest Street in Green Cove Springs, the former site of the Clay County Department of Health.

According to the proposal written by Ajax, "The project consists of an 18,847 square foot fire station to be located along Idlewild Avenue. The building will include a five-bay vehicle apparatus bay, bunk rooms, kitchen and offices."

The county's agreement with Ajax follows the BCC's expressed interest in prioritizing capital improvement funds to foster public safety.

During a BCC meeting in March, the dais moved forward with seeking bond issuance to ensure construction priorities are completed and completed quickly. If approved, the county would assume $64.5 million in debt for capital improvement projects including new firehouses.

"It's imperative to me to provide public safety access to our residents," Commissioner Betsy Condon said in March.

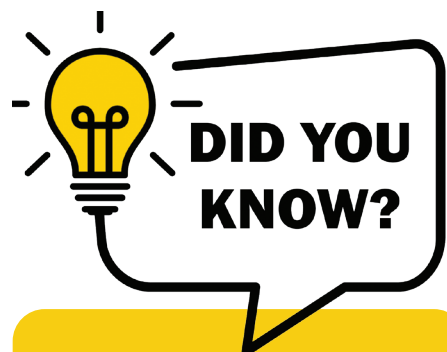

"Your homeowners insurance rates will go down if we can put these fire stations close to you," she said.

Every week, Clay Today will test your knowledge on various topics. This week, eclipses.

We spent hours, weeks and months preparing to squint through blackened glasses to see a partial eclipse last Monday. A lot of us spent a lot of adrenaline for a few minutes of guarded satisfaction. And it was worth it. But did you know the Choctaw Indians used to believe an eclipse happened when a mischievous black squirrel gnawed on the sun to cause an eclipse? Chippewas shot flaming arrows into the sky to rekindle the sun. In India, people immersed themselves in rivers up to their necks to implore the sun and moon to defend themselves against a dragon that swallowed the sun. West Africans of Benin believed the sun and moon were lovers who turned off the lights because they wanted privacy when they wanted to get together. And in Transylvania, where vampires come from, some think an eclipse causes the plague.

ORANGE PARK – According to the preliminary results published by the Clay County Supervisor of Elections Office, Kenneth Vogel garnered 394 votes out of 530 to win the election for Seat 4 on the Orange Park Town Council.

Vogel's opponent, Maddie Hilt, received the remaining 136 votes.

Vogel said he was out waving signs with his dad from when the polls opened at 7 a.m. until the polls closed at 7 p.m. He said he wished he remembered to wear sunscreen.

His dad was the first to tell him he won the election.

Vogel spoke to the Clay Today just afterward.

"I honestly wasn't watching the results. You either win or you don't," he said.

Newly-elected Town Councilman Kenneth Vogel (in blue) with his family.

He thanked the Town of Orange Park. "Thank you. It's a victory for all of us - not just me. I am excited for the town," he said.

Vogel owns Essential Electric LLC in Orange Park and is committed to keeping his hometown business family-friendly. He says he brings a creative, outside-the-box perspective intent on bolstering the town's community.

His campaign was built upon a range of issues, such as considering town-led ways to provide after-school programs and creative outlets for students revitalizing the town's public parks, and making them more accessible to the underprivileged.

Vogel will be joining Glenn Taylor on the town council, who won his election unopposed.

Picking the right plants, locations for your yard

By StatePoint Media
For Clay Today

The perfect landscape may start with a healthy, lush lawn, but for interest and depth, you'll also need to consider the surrounding plants.

Thankfully, it's easy to make considerable improvements to your backyard life using professional tips. Landscape designer Doug Scott has partnered with lawn care equipment manufacturer Exmark, to offer these tips for selecting and installing plants that will beautify your outdoor living areas.

Choosing plants

- Choose plants well-suited for your specific growing conditions. Knowing your growing zone is important. However, you should also be mindful of how conditions like sun exposure can change as you move around your yard.

- Choose the right size plants for the space. Remember that what you're planting today is much smaller than what it will be once it's matured. Always read a plant's care label to understand its optimal growing conditions and size at maturity.

- From a design perspective, think about texture, layers and drifts. When addressing the overall texture of your planting beds, choose plants that vary in form, size, color and leaf structure. This will create greater interest and a more visually appealing and enjoyable space in which to spend time.

For a lush look, think about layers when considering composition. Much like in a painting, you should have a background, middle ground, and foreground layers. Your background layer should consist of taller evergreen shrubs to provide something alive and green to look at all year long, no matter what's happening in front of them. Your middle ground layer should be lower than the background layer to create interest and is where you can add a contrasting evergreen shrub or pop of color with a perennial plant. Finally, your foreground layer should help transition the planting beds to your lawn space. You can accomplish this with smaller perennials, evergreens,

OPINIONS

Now that Clay Regional Sports Complex is done, let them come

MIDDLEBURG – Civic and elected leaders believed the sports teams would come if they built the Clay County Regional Sports Complex.

And they will.

The demand for the eight multipurpose fields on State Road 21, a mile north of SR 16, has been so intense the county's parks and recreation department has already had to juggle its schedule to keep up with demands.

A college lacrosse tournament for last weekend was rescheduled for later, which will make this weekend's Jaguars NFL FLAG Regional Tournaments the first events for the $7 million complex.

There will be 97 teams from 11 different divisions for children 9-through-13 competing in five-on-five games on April 13. Winners of each division will advance to the NFL FLAG Championships in Canton, Ohio, on July 18-21.

Then, on July 14, the NFL FLAG Jaguars Adult Regional Tournament will be played at the complex.

The two-day event will attract about 1,500 people. One of the rules for NFL FLAG is if a team has to travel more than 60 miles, it must book a local room through the league.

Not bad for an opening weekend.

"Tourism had an increase of nearly 10% In generated fees, which all add up to about nearly $300 per household in funding," said County Commissioner and Chairman of the Tourist Development Council. "That's money that our citizens don't have to pay because visitors come into our county. They have a great experience, spend their money in hotels and shops. Those are tax dollars from their transactions, services and benefits. Remember that about sports tourism, tourism in general. It's nice for them to visit, leave their money, and then go home. That's the way it works."

The county partnered with Airstream

Adventures to attract events in 2020. Headed by longtime sports marketing professional Alan Verlander, Airstream landed contracts for events like Motosurf, Inspire National Dance Competition, Minor League Golf Tour, American Cornhole League tournament, First Coast Rugby Classic Tournament, USA Cycling, Kayak Bass Fishing, Florida Roundnet (Spike Ball) Tournament and the Sunshine State Games.

Verlander was behind the NFL FLAG contracts, and he's already booked the Florida Prep Lacrosse Showcase, the United Flag Football League Championship and Spike the Ball Regional Championship. He said he's currently negotiating to bring two more Florida Lacrosse Showcases, seven-on-seven and five-on-five regional football championships, another United Flag Football League Championship, Col-lee Lacrosse Spring Break Round Robin, United Rugby Championship, High School and Middle School Cross Country Meets with more than 1,000 runners and Punt, Pass and Kick Championships.

The complex was officially opened on April 5. The first phase includes eight multipurpose fields, restrooms, a three-quarter-mile walking trail and paved parking for 350 cars. Five of the fields are lighted. The fields can host soccer, lacrosse, flag football, field hockey, spike ball and ultimate disk golf.

Carlton Construction President Matt Carlton said it took "approximately 30,000 man-hours" to complete the project.

The 250-acre complex borders land owned by the North Florida Land Trust. County Director of Tourism Kimberly Morgan said the county and NFLT will partner to build trails through the wilderness.

But make no mistake: Clay County Regional Sports Complex is good for business.

There are eight multi-purpose fields ready to host a variety of events, including the NFL FLAG Jaguars Region Tournaments on April 13 and 14.

"Florida sports tourism also supports nearly one million part-time and full-time jobs throughout the state every year," Cella said. "And we want Clay County to get our fair share of that business." And we'll leave the lights on for them.

annuals or creeping ground covers.

When addressing drifts, read the plant labels to know how large they'll grow. This can help ensure plants grow in together as they mature but are not overcrowded.

Installing them

1. Dig a hole that's about two times the diameter of the pot your plant's being transplanted from and about the depth of the pot.

2. Mend in compost or soil conditioner to give your plant the organic material it needs to thrive. If you'd like, add slow-release fertilizer and mix well.

3. Place your plant in the hole, ensuring it sits at or above the level it did in the pot.

4. Backfill with soil, stopping to add water when the hole is about halfway full.

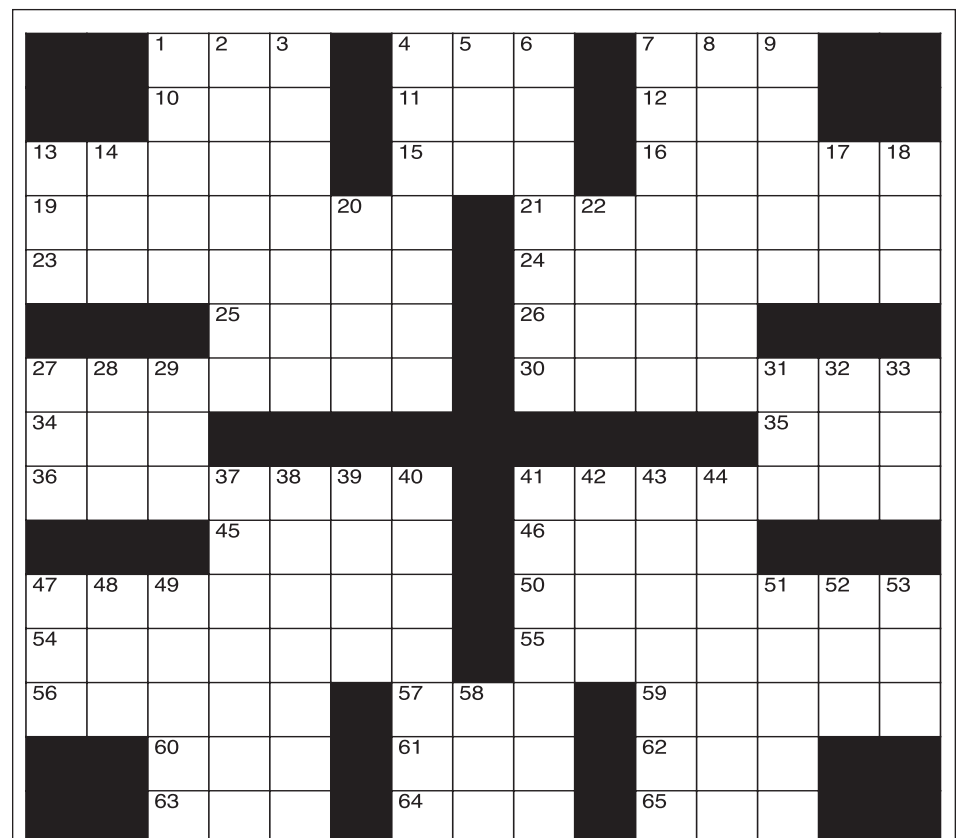

5. Fill the rest of the hole with soil, then firmly press down.

6. Soak your plant with more water.

7. Finish by adding mulch, ensuring it's pulled away from the base of your plant.

Scott offers more insights in "How to Choose Plants for Landscaping," a recent episode of "Done-in-a-Weekend Projects," an original series from Exmark. To watch the video, visit Backyard Life, part of a unique multimedia destination focusing on helping homeowners make the most of outdoor spaces.

"Now that you have the inspiration and know-how needed to choose and install plant material, you can create landscaping that reflects who you are and how you'd like to live outside," Scott said.

SJR State College hosts out-of-this-world eclipse party

For Clay Today

ORANGE PARK – More than 200 students and community members gathered for the Solar Eclipse Watch Party at the St. Johns River College’s Orange Park, Palatka and St. Augustine campuses.

Although Florida was not on the path of totality, enthusiasts hung out on campus to watch the eclipse at its peak, with 63% of the sun eclipsed by the moon. Attendees were treated to activities and cosmic snacks, including SunnyD drinks, Moon Pies, Milky Way candy bars and Starbursts.

SJR State science professor Jill Leggett, who traveled to Round Rock, Texas, to experience the eclipse, shared the photo she took during the eclipse’s peak.

“It is always awe-inspiring to see totality and is best summed up by: The Heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament shows His handiwork – Psalms 19:1,” Leggett said.

For Florida attendees, Leggett said witnessing a solar eclipse, even a partial one, can be a breathtaking experience that stays with students for a lifetime.

SJR STATE COLLEGE PHOTOS

SJR State College provided free eye protective glasses to safely view the solar eclipse.

“It can spark wonder about the universe and our place in it and offers a unique opportunity for immersive, interdisciplinary learning that can foster curiosity, critical thinking, and a deeper understanding of the world around us,” she said.

The SJR State Library provided special-purpose solar filter eclipse glasses from the Solar Eclipse Activities for Libraries program.

While we only saw a partial eclipse, it still captivated everyone at St. Johns River State College.

Tim Devin takes over as Director of Emergency Management

Orange Park High graduate returns to county where his career started

For Clay Today

GREEN COVE SPRINGS – Tim Devin was selected as the Emergency Management Director on Wednesday, April 3, replacing Mike Ladd, who retired to spend more time with his family.

Devin started with Emergency Management in November as the Director of Plans. Before that, he worked with Clay County Fire Rescue when the firefighters were volunteers in 1985.

“After my time in Clay, I started with Jacksonville Fire Rescue, and that’s when I really fell in love with Emergency Management,” Devin said, “One of my first deployments was for Hurricane Andrew in 1992. That was the start of my experience in working large-scale disasters.”

Devin was also the captain of the EMS training for Jacksonville Fire Rescue.

After that, his career spanned many

Emergency Management and Public Safety roles, affording him countless certifications, training and experiences that led to a seamless transition into his new title.

He said most natural and manmade emergencies haven’t changed, but how agencies adapt to different responses is constantly being evaluated. As wetlands and forests become housing and commercial projects, they erase buffers that protect people and property from the elements. And it means there are fewer areas for water retention.

“The challenge is to keep everyone notified,” Devin said. “We must stay on top of our social media platforms and website. It’s important to stay ahead of everything and stay prepared.”

Although Clay County isn’t a coastal county, Devin said it must be ready to assist any of the seven hospitals and other residents from Duval or St. Johns counties if required to evacuate patients ahead of a major storm. “I’ve traveled to disasters across the state, working with local, regional and state incident management teams,” Devin said. “I’m proud to bring that experience back to Clay County.”

After retiring from JFRD, Devin started doing emergency management consulting for large local healthcare facilities, including being hired as the Emergency Management Coordinator at HCA Florida Orange Park Hospital in 2017.

“Seeing the government and private sector sides made me more rounded,” he said.

He continues to be a member of multiple local and state committees and organizations dedicated to health, public safety and emergency management.

Devin is a 1988 graduate of Orange Park High. After starting his firefighting and emergency management career in Clay County, he’s now been full circle in his career to be back in the county.

The heart to serve in Clay County is shared by Devin’s family. His brother works with Clay County Fire Rescue; his son recently started with the same agency; and, his daughter is a cadet.

“It’s nice to be able to pass the experience I’ve gained to the next generation, to carry on that tradition,” Devin said, “I love what I do, and I’m proud to be doing it with my family.”

Ladd wanted to spend more time with his young family.

“I cannot express my thanks adequately for the support and sense of team during my tenure. TEAM CLAY and CLAY EM are comprised of exceptional people who routinely make outcomes better,” Ladd said, “It was my honor to work with them all.”

“I cannot think of anyone better suited to take the division forward. Tim is thorough in his approach, does his homework, and remains the steady rock in a scene of chaos”

Devin said he is looking forward to continuing those relationships built throughout the years with the county’s law enforcement, health officials and public safety, with one goal in mind – keeping Clay County prepared and safe when our residents need it most.

“Clay County has a great foundation,” he said, “I’ve worked around its members for 20-plus years. It’s expounding that foundation, continuing our partnerships, the sheriff’s office, the fire department, and the department of health.”

“The county is growing. We have an interstate that’s coming through, a bypass. It will bring tremendous growth for Clay County, so Emergency Management now has to take that extra step to ensure that we’re also ready for that growth,” Devin said. “The better we do here and the partnerships we have here, the better it is for the citizens.”

County Manager Howard Wanamaker, Fire Chief Lorin Mock and Acting Fire Chief David Motes thanked Ladd for his dedication to the division and the county during emergencies and storms when strong leadership and public safety are paramount.

Montee Cregg Jenkins

Montee Cregg Jenkins, 86, went to her heavenly home on April 1, 2024, following an unexpected health event.

Montee was born to the late Joseph C. Cregg and Ruth M. Cregg of Jacksonville, FL on January 17, 1938, the third of four children. Her husband, Edwin H. Jenkins, and a brother, Joseph "Sonny" Cregg, preceded her in death. She is survived by her son, Ed Jenkins (Katherine); grandchildren, K. Rebecca Jenkins, and Philip A. Jenkins (Karli); two great-grandsons, Elijah K. and Jonah M. Jenkins; her sister, Anna Weaver; and brother, David Cregg (Sammie).

Horses were a passion of Montee's from a very early age. She was a member of the Jacksonville Trail Riders Association where she participated in 100-mile trail rides. She also participated in barrel racing and then transitioned to hunter jumper competition during which time she started her own riding school where she taught many Jacksonville children. Over the years, of owning several horses, her riding interests turned to dressage where she really enjoyed the discipline of horse and rider in the art of dressage.

Montee was enthusiastic about her family genealogy. She made many trips to South Carolina to trace her family history and many hours spent on genealogical websites. Her history led her to become a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Sofia Fleming Island Chapter of Orange Park, FL and the United Daughters of the Confederacy, Ancient City Chapter of St Augustine, FL.

More recently Montee could be found gardening and feeding her birds both of which brought her immense pleasure.

Montee was a member of Grace Anglican Church where services will be held Monday, April 15, 2024, at 11 am. Burial will follow at Riverside Memorial Park at 1 pm.

Complex

"My role in the legislature for the last couple of years was to get a little bit of extra money to make this from a good facility to a great facility," Garrison said. "I want to thank first the governor. This doesn't happen if he disagrees with the $2 million we were talking about in the 2020 budget. You might recall that we had a little thing called COVID when that budget was passed, so the state budget was slashed to the bone. We didn't know what we were going to be living in. But the governor, because he loved the Clay County Fair so much, which is true, and because he trusted Travis and Rob, he kept that money in the budget. We owe a big thank you to Ron DeSantis. That's not just window dressing."

Garrison also said County Manager Howard Wanamaker and County Attorney Courtney Grimm also worked tirelessly to find grants.

The complex has eight multipurpose fields for soccer, lacrosse, flag football, field hockey, spike ball, and ultimate disk golf. It also has a three-quarter-mile walking trail, restrooms, and parking for 350 cars. In 2023, the county received $3 million in legislative matching funds and $2.5 million in legislative appropriations. The complex is a public/private partnership operated by the county. Depending on funding, there are plans for additional phases.

The complex is in County Commissioner Betsy Condon's district, along with the newly opened Clay County Outdoor Adventure Park gun range. Along with Camp Blanding and Mike Roess Gold Head Branch State Park, more than 80% of her district will remain undeveloped.

"You couldn't have asked for such a better day for this absolutely spectacular regional complex and park opening,"

Clay County Commissioner Betsy Condon, who represents the area that includes the sports complex, is proud the majority of her district won't be developed.

she said. "I'll tell you, ladies and gentlemen, good afternoon. I'm sure, just like you, I'm truly excited to be here for this Clay County Regional Sports Complex opening, brought together through a public/private partnership. Phase 1 of this complex was made possible through a $3 million matching grant from the Florida Department of Economic Opportunity and $2 million in legislative appropriations. The complex consists of eight multipurpose fields, restroom facilities, and covered shaded areas throughout a large parking area. As you can see, it is a beautiful three-quarter-mile walking trail. Access the fields through this area and along the ponds and sidewalks. Five of the eight fields are lit, making this complex ideal for hosting tournaments in the evening hours."

The first will be the Jaguars NFL FLAG Regional Tournament on April 13. That will include 97 five-on-five flag football teams for children 9-through-13. The 11 division winners will advance to the national championships in Canton, Ohio.

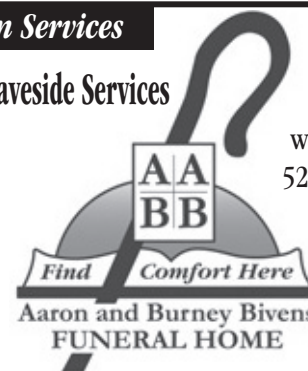

A day later, the complex will host the Jaguars NFL FLAG Adults Regional Tournament.

Proposal made to get Keystone Airport off septic system

By Jack Randall
jack@claytodayonline.com

KEYSTONE HEIGHTS – The Airport Utility Feasibility study, which estimates the cost of converting the Keystone Heights Airport from a septic to sewer system to be $22 million, was presented at the city council meeting on April 1.

The analysis began in 2022 and was funded by the city council, which contributed $110,000, and the airport authority, which contributed $25,000.

Currently, the Keystone Heights Airport uses well water for drinking and septic disposal for its wastewater.

The feasibility study stemmed from conversations with Clay County Utility Authority about extending a water and sewer line to the airport. AECOM, a consulting firm, prepared the report, which Bill Prange presented.

“It makes sense that if CCUA or another entity were to extend water and sewer to the airport, it would need to be designed and sized to serve any other development that might occur along the same corridor,” Prange said.

The report examines three types of water – potable, wastewater and fire protection – each with its own pressure and flow demand.

Prange said the estimated maximum demand for potable water would be 117 gallons per minute, and waste water would be 100 gallons a day. Fire protection would be dynamic – 2,250 gallons a minute at 20 psi at the low end and 6,000 gallons a minute at 109 psi at the high end.

The St. Johns River Water Management District said it would permit 864,000 gallons a year for fire protection from the Florida aquifer.

Prange said the demand for fire protection water, including fire sprinklers as an example, exceeds CCUA's current capabilities. He said the airport must seek an independent fire protection water system.

If implemented, Prange said the entire project could cost between $22 million and $23 million.

Councilmember Dan Lewandowski, who has a background in aerospace engineering, said he was impressed with the comprehensiveness of the proposals' technical analysis. But he was concerned with the price tag. Prange said that CCUA may be willing to contribute financially, now that it has actual figures regarding the airport's water needs. He also said the city council could take advantage of grants that financially assist efforts to retire septic systems and remove small well systems.

“Certainly, a plan like this helps us go after those kinds of sources if we show we have a plan and how much it's going to cost. We have a much greater chance of winning money than if we have no plan at all. So, this is a really great start,” Lewandowski said.

Because residents of Bradford County benefit from the airport, which is located on the county line, Lewandowski said it would be beneficial to reach out to them for their cooperation as well.

NWS Jacksonville renews Clay County's StormReady Certification

By Jessica Barreto
For Clay Today

CLAY COUNTY – The National Weather Service - Jacksonville presented Clay County Emergency Management with its renewed StormReady Certification.

The NWS StormReady program prepares communities with the communication and safety skills needed to save lives and property before, during, and after a weather event. StormReady communities are better prepared to save lives from severe weather through advanced planning, education and awareness.

StormReady takes a grassroots approach to assisting communities with developing plans to handle all kinds of extreme weather. Communities involved in the program are encouraged to take on new, proactive approaches to improving local hazardous weather operations.

The NWS inspected the Emergency Management program, interviewed staff, reviewed plans, and examined community outreach and preparedness education. Historically, we have held this certification and are proud to continue to be recognized with this distinction. To be StormReady, a community must:

Establish a 24-hour warning point and emergency operations center

Have more than one way to receive severe weather warnings and forecasts and to alert the public

Create a system that monitors weather conditions locally

Promote the importance of public readiness through community seminars

Develop a formal hazardous weather plan, which includes training severe weather spotters and holding emergency exercises.

Angie Enyedi with the NWS Jacksonville presents, EMS Manager Tim Devin and Clay County Manager Howard Wanamaker with the StormReady Certification.

HAPPENINGS AT THE CLAY COUNTY AGRICULTURAL FAIR

Clay County Agricultural Fair is open for fun

By Jack Randall
jack@claytodayonline.com

GREEN COVE SPRINGS – The first day of the fair had a tremendous turnout. From noon to dusk, fairgoers were in festive spirits.

Director of Tourism Kimberly Morgan says the Clay County Agricultural Fair is the No. 1 most popular event.

The fair's first day had beautiful sunny weather, which Morgan hoped would last for the next ten days while the fair was open.

Some of the fairgoers eagerly expressed what they were most excited about. One was excited to grab a bite of funnel cake. One was excited to ride the Fireball amusement ride now that she had finally gotten tall enough. One was excited to see the pigs and cows on display. One was excited to peruse the historical section at the Early Florida Village. One was excited to see Vanilla Ice perform "Ice Ice Baby."

Rylynn, 5, said she couldn't pick a favorite. "Everything" was her response, and she's completely valid – there's no wrong answers when selecting your favorite.

Clay County Fire Rescue presented colors during opening ceremonies.

Stepping into the fair you can expect exhilarating rides, food vendors, shopping stalls, prize and game vendors, animal enclosures, photo booths, concerts, entertainers and much, much more.

Don't miss the "the world's greatest county fair" while it's in town.

Rotarys provide PET Florida grant to powder coat trikes

For Clay Today

PENNEY FARMS – PET Florida, a non-profit enterprise producing hand-powered trikes for those who can't walk, has been gifted a major upgrade to its metal painting capabilities through a grant from several participating Rotary clubs. Their new technology is called powder coating, an electrostatic process that delivers superior protection to the metal parts and a safer environment when applied.

PET spokesman Dave Quirk said this improvement had been needed for a long time.

"The durability of coating these metal parts is really critical since our carts are often used by people living in third-world countries where they keep getting wet and driven over rough terrain," he said. "Until now, our approach to coating the metal parts has been effective but pretty primitive. We did our painting using spray cans – hundreds of them over every production year. Our new powder coating facility is a huge improvement in production cost, in the quality of the metal protection, and also in eliminating the fumes of the old spray process."

The impetus for this cooperative project was sparked by two volunteers at the PET production facility, both Rotarians. One is retired physician Tom Ritter, a shop regular who heads the metal painting section of the shop, and the other is retired naval officer Bo Norton, who has worked weekly in the shop for many years.

Coordinating the project with the various participating clubs involved was "Super Rotarian" Russ Miller. Participating clubs in Rotary District 6970 for North-east Florida were Orange Park, Orange Park Sunrise, Orange Park Sunset, Green Cove Springs, Fleming Island, and Interact Clay High.

Production labor and support staffing are provided entirely by volunteers, reducing costs to the parts alone. They are given to recipients at no charge.

Since its founding in 2001, PET Florida has produced and given 14,500 life-changing mobility carts to recipients in more than 50 countries.

Call Don Arnold at (847) 340-1345 for volunteer inquiries.

Scott said his favorite fair snack is deep-fried doughnuts. He also said he enjoys riding the Ferris wheel with his grandchildren. Cook was excited to walk around the fair and meet everyone. But she said she was going to pass on the rides this year.

HAPPENINGS AT THE CLAY COUNTY AGRICULTURAL FAIR

Heidi White doesn't waste time enjoying first day of Fair

By Don Coble
don@claytodayonline.com

GREEN COVE SPRINGS – As the Greatest Fair Fan, Heidi White was already guaranteed to be in front of the line when the Clay County Agricultural Fair opened on Day 1 Thursday.

But that didn't matter.

She, her husband David, and daughter Micheal Griffin were first to arrive at the Clay County Fairgrounds to be the first through the gates.

"We got here at noon," Micheal said. "We are part of opening day ceremonies, but we love the Fair so much, we wanted to get here early. It's a family tradition for us."

Heidi took her vacation at Walmart to visit the Fair as often as possible during its 11-day run. She said her first stop was the livestock barn.

"I like to look at the cows and see all the animals," she said. "I like to see if any of them have had babies. And, of course, I want to get a footlong corn dog. That's one of my favorite things about the Fair."

Heidi said that what makes the fair so special is the family atmosphere. She likes the variety of rides, but she's equally impressed with the agriculture displays, animals, music and food.

"I can bring my grandkids here and not worry about them," she said. "I love the family atmosphere. You can have fun and not worry about a thing."

The Fair is open daily through April 14.

GREEN COVE SPRINGS – It's called the Clay County "Agricultural" Fair for a reason, and horticulture is just one more aspect. Meandering through Reinhold Exhibit Hall 2, you'll notice that Clay County has quite the green thumb. Lilies, orchids cacti, bonsai trees and flowering plants of different sizes and colors have been carefully grown for your viewing, smelling pleasure. It was a perfect day to stroll through the exhibits in the Early Florida Village, before heading over to the Cattleman's Arena for a concert featuring Grace Tyler, Chapel Hart, and Tyler Farr. Chapel Hart put on an electrifying 80-minute performance, concluding with "You Can Have Him Jolene," the song that made them an overnight sensation on "America's Got Talent."

GREEN COVE SPRINGS – Perfect weather and the first weekend day were the perfect combination for a busy day of excitement, entertainment, agriculture education and fun at the Clay County Agricultural Fair. It was also the annual Sunflower Hours for people with visible and non-visible sensory issues.

Attendance for the Clay County Agricultural Fair picked up significantly Saturday, and with it, so did appetites along the food court midway.

Sunflower Hours was open to those with special lanyards and their families on Saturday, and it proved to be one of the highlights of the Fair.

SUNDAY FAIR FUN

GREEN COVE SPRINGS – There's never a bad time to have a good time, but Sunday seemed better than most to experience thrills and chills at the Clay County Agricultural Fair. In fact, it was the best Sunday in Fair history with a record crowd of 23,715 passing through the turnstiles. The Midway was busy and loud with screams and laughter as fair-goers enjoyed various rides and games from Deggeller Attractions and another sun-splashed day. Monday is Our Fair Cares Day, where guests are invited to bring canned and non-perishable goods, school and pet supplies to support the Clothes Closet and Food Pantry in Orange Park, the Clay County Education Foundation and the Clay County Animal Services.

MONDAY FAIR FUN

GREEN COVE SPRINGS - Bonnie Tyler's "Total Eclipse of the Heart" played on a loop almost unnoticed as guests wandered through the Midway, games, agricultural areas, Early Florida Village, the livestock barn and the exhibition hall Monday. But as the last solar eclipse until 2044 moved partially across Florida, fair-goers started to pay attention as they donned their eclipse glasses and peered toward the heavens.

Monday was Taste the Fair Day, sponsored by the Green Cove Springs Winn-Dixie store.

GREEN COVE SPRINGS - Clay County Sheriff's Office Sgt. Darren Bland was honored Monday as the Clay County Agricultural Fair's Hero of the Day. He was selected for his military service and distinguished service with the sheriff's office. The nightly presentation is at 5 p.m. in the Early Florida Village.

Our Fair Cares was a success for other beneficiaries. from page 1 on Interstate 10, I was well aware of the forecast. The odds were stacked against me, but I held out for the slim chance of an opening. I picked up my brother in Pensacola, and we continued until we reached San Antonio, where my family was already waiting for us. As I continued west, I noticed more than a few Florida license plate tags.

Why bother traveling halfway across the county just for the slim chance of seeing a total eclipse? Florida was able to see a partial one, isn't that enough?

The difference between a total and partial solar eclipse is night and day. Compared to a total, a partial solar eclipse pales in comparison. A partial eclipse is still cool (I enjoyed the one we had in 2023), but even a 99% eclipse does not compare to a 100% total, complete thing.

Where we were in San Antonio was just barely outside the zone of totality, so we traveled northwest to a nearby small town, Boerne, which is nestled in what is referred to as "Hill Country."

Specifically, we were along a highland ridge called the Balcones Escarpment, colloquially known as the corridor into the West. The craggy limestone hills separate Texan farmers on the east from Texan ranchers and cowboys to the west.

Unrelated, I saw a Texan on social media say that anyone wearing a cowboy hat to the east of I-35 (which travels tangentially to the Balcones Escarpment) is only cosplaying.

The eclipse was scheduled for 1:32 p.m. central time, and darkness touched down immediately after. Tragically, the cornea could not be viewed because of cloud coverage, which was a huge bummer. While we couldn't see the eclipse, we could see it in action. It was pitch black from 1:32 p.m. to 1:36 p.m.

Our vantage point overlooked San Antonio. While we couldn't see any stars, we saw the city's lights flicker in a dazzling display. It was like a glowing amalgam of gold miles down the mountainside. And then, when the moon rolled away, daylight filled the air once more, and the streetlights from downtown flickered off.

The next eclipse in the continental U.S. will be August 23, 2044, which also happens to be my 44th birthday. The path of totality will pass through Montana, North Dakota and South Dakota. I'll be having my birthday party in Great Falls, Montana, wearing my eclipse glasses and counting down to when I can finally take them off again.

The Lord's Prayer – Adoration

This week we look at the first in our series on “The Lord's Prayer, Adoration. In Matthew 6:9, Jesus lays the foundation for prayer by teaching us to begin with adoration. He instructs, “This, then, is how you should pray: ‘Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.’” This simple yet profound statement redirects our focus from our own needs to the greatness and holiness of God.

Adoration is the essence of worship—it's about expressing reverence, awe, and love for our Heavenly Father. It's not about asking for anything but rather acknowledging God's majesty and goodness simply because of who He is.

Psalms 103:1 beautifully captures the spirit of adoration, proclaiming, “Praise the Lord, my soul; all my inmost being, praise his holy name.” This verse reminds us that adoration isn't just about words; it's a posture of the heart. It's about engaging our entire being—mind, heart, and soul—in worshipful praise of God.

When we adore God, we shift our perspective from our own concerns to the splendor and glory of His presence. We exalt His name above all else, recognizing His sovereignty over the heavens and the earth. Adoration opens our hearts to the vastness of God's love and the beauty of His character.

Adoration deepens our intimacy with God. As we worship Him in spirit and in truth, we draw closer to His heart, experiencing the fullness of His presence and the richness of His grace. In the midst of life's challenges and uncertainties, adoration anchors us in the unchanging truth of God's love and faithfulness.

As we embark on our journey of prayer, let us never underestimate the power of adoration. Let us begin each prayer with hearts overflowing with praise and gratitude for our Heavenly Father. For in adoration, we encounter the very heart of God and find rest for our souls.

Club Challenge ready to show off new kitchen

By Don Coble
don@claytodayonline.com

ORANGE PARK – Challenge Enterprises is so eager to show how much work was completed to expand and improve its Club Challenge program it's opening its doors and inviting the public to “show everyone what's going on.”

Refurbishing a kitchen and dining room at the rear of the Challenge Enterprise Plaza has taken a year. It allowed the organization, which provides adult day care training, residential services, and employment services to people with different abilities, to move some of its services from the front of the building – all while supporting programs for people with intellectual, physical, and developmental disabilities. At the same time, staff assist families in navigating Florida's eligibility for services.

The new kitchen means people will gain experience finding jobs in the food industry, said CEO Katie Vineyard.

“We got some donations from companies like Clay Electric Round-Up,” she said. “We had some other donors to renovate the space, get new flooring, and paint, and then really, what we did was the kitchen. The kitchen looks similar to a commercial kitchen, so some club members could learn how to cook and other skills, perhaps leading to a job. The kitchen was fully renovated with cabinets, countertops and all new appliances.”

The ribbon-cutting and open house will be on April 16 at 3 p.m. Club Challenge's address is 550-B Stowe Ave. It's the same building as Challenge Enterprises on Kingsley Avenue, but the entrance for Club Challenge is at the back of the building.

Vineyard said the open house, which

“Tiger” (Disney+ — April 22, Docuseries Premiere)

Narrated by Priyanka Chopra Jonas, this DisneyNature series lifts the veil on our planet’s most revered and charismatic animal, inviting viewers to journey alongside Ambar, a young tigress raising her cubs in the fabled forests of India. Curious, rambunctious and at times a bit clumsy, the cubs have a lot to learn from their savvy mother who will do all she can to keep them safe from pythons, bears and marauding male tigers.

A whole new world: Post-apocalyptic action series ‘Fallout’ premieres

Ella Purnell in “Fallout”

One of the globe’s most successful video game franchises steps into the world of streaming series. The new action drama “Fallout,” based on the best-selling role-playing games, premieres Friday, April 12, on Prime Video.

Set 200 years after an apocalyptic event, residents of luxury bunker communities venture out onto a planet that has changed beyond belief. Ella Purnell (“Yellowjackets”) stars as Lucy, a young woman determined to leave behind the safety of the only life she’s ever known as a vault dweller to survive on the other side of the shelter’s walls on her own.

Per a Prime Video press release, “Fallout” follows vault dwellers “forced to return to the irradiated hellscape their ancestors left behind,” leaving them “shocked to discover an incredibly complex, gleefully weird, and highly violent universe waiting for them.” Signature “action, tongue-in-cheek gore and a twisted, post-apocalyptic setting” carry over from the games to the series.

Starring in “Fallout” are Aaron Moten (“Next”) as the Brotherhood of Steel squire, Maximus; Walton Goggins (“The Righteous Gemstones”) as the mutated, immortal bounty hunter known as The Ghoul; Moises Arias (“The King of Staten Island,” 2020) as Lucy’s brother, Norm; Kyle MacLachlan (“Twin Peaks”) as Hank, Lucy’s father and the overseer of the vault; Michael Emerson (“Evil”) as wanderer Wilzig; Mike Doyle (“New Amsterdam”) as Mr. Spencer; Johnny Pemberton (“Superstore”) as Thaddeus; Cherien Dabis (“Mo”) as Birdie; Matty Cardarople (“Reservation Dogs”) as Huey; Dave Register (“Heightened,” 2023) as Chet; Rodrigo Luzzi (“Dead Ringers”) as Reg; and Annabel O’Hagan (“Dear Edward”) as Steph.

Frances Turner (“The Boys”), Leslie Uggams (“American Fiction,” 2023), Sarita Choudhury (“And Just Like That...”), Zach Cherry (“Severance”) and Xelia Mendes-Jones (“The Wheel of Time”) also star in as yet unnamed roles.

In the official teaser trailer for “Fallout,” Lucy steps over the vault’s threshold and into a grim wasteland. Half-buried, wind-worn skeletons of humans and structures are the only things poking out of the dunes as far as the eye can see, though dangers lurk everywhere.

By the light of a campfire, Wilzig does his best to prepare Lucy for what is ahead of her, telling her, “if you insist on staying, then you will have to adapt.” Adapting is the name of the game in “Fallout.” Humans have either adapted to the safety of the bunkers for generations or have been shaped physically and emotionally by the brutal, barren dystopia left outside. Not to mention the critters evolved to thrive in the desolation — cockroaches the size of cats, a mutant bear and a giant axolotl with fingers for teeth are just a few featured creatures in the teaser.

Jonathan Nolan (“Westworld”) serves as executive producer of “Fallout” — with Kilter Films partner Lisa Joy (“The Peripheral”) — and directed the first three episodes. Co-creators Geneva Robertson-Dworet (“Captain Marvel,” 2023) and Graham Wagner (“Portlandia”) also executive produce the series.

On the clock: All-new series asks chefs to compete for 24-hours straight

Start your timers, but don't hold your breath. Putting chefs through a once-in-a-lifetime culinary marathon, the all-new cooking-competition series, "24 in 24: Last Chef Standing," premieres Sunday, April 14, on Food Network.

Hosted by Michael Symon ("Symon's Dinners Cooking Out") and Esther Choi ("Battle of the Brothers"), this supersized competition puts 24 chefs in a 24 hour, non-stop race, in which they'll have to face 24 different cooking challenges. Dubbed by the network as their "most ambitious and grueling culinary competition to date," Food Network describes the upcoming series as an extreme marathon demanding the skill, creativity and stamina required of elite chefs.

"This competition is as extreme as it sounds," Symon was quoted to say. "Chefs often talk about the 24/7 nature of our industry, but this is the first competition to truly capture that intensity."

His co-host Esther chimed in, adding: "it's a culinary battle like no other with surprising twists and curveballs along the way. It's a test of endurance, creativity, and collaboration that push these chefs to their limits."

After 24 hours, endless taste-tests and a series of heartbreaking eliminations, only one true champion will be left standing — one lucky winner determined by the season's judges: Eric Adjepong ("Alex Vs. America"), Maneet Chauhan ("Festive Cooking with Maneet"), Scott Conant ("Wildcard Kitchen"), Stephanie Izard ("Guy's Grocery Games: All-Star Invitational"), Jet Tila ("Kitchen Lab") and Brooke Williamson ("Beachside Brawl"), along with Bryan and Michael Voltaggio ("Battle of Brothers"). This masterful (and exhausted) chef will be awarded $50,000, the trip of a lifetime and, of course, ultimate bragging rights.

The 24 chefs in question range from Food Network stars and culinary icons to rising stars and competition "newbies," with an impressive list of names including Carlos Anthony ("Tournament of Champions"), Emilie Rose Bishop ("Guy's Grocery Games"), Josephine Clemens ("Peeled"), Kess Eshun ("Holiday Baking Championship"), Declan Horgan ("Superchef Grudge Match"), Airis Johnson ("Beat Bobby Flay"), Camille La Caer ("Chopped"), Mika Leon ("Guy's Grocery Games"),

Michael Symon co-hosts "24 in 24: Last Chef Standing"

Chris Oh ("Tournament of Champions"), Viet Pham ("Extreme Chef"), Marc Quiñones ("Cutthroat Kitchen"), Vijay Sadhu ("Cutthroat Kitchen"), Aarthi Sampath ("Tournament of Champions"), Martel Stone ("Beachside Brawl") and Marcel Vigneron ("America's Best Cook"), among many others.

With a hefty prize on the line — and plenty of hours on the clock — these chefs will have to prove their talent and their durability in "24 in 24: Last Chef Standing," premiering Sunday, April 14, on Food Network.

Hunky handyman: 'Bachelorette' star Tyler Cameron leads all-new renovation series

From charming Hannah Brown in Season 15 of "The Bachelorette" to building the construction business of his dreams, the infamous heartthrob, "Tyler C.," knows the importance of hard work. Bringing a stick-to-it attitude to each and every episode, this handy hunk now stars in the all-new series, "Going Home With Tyler Cameron," premiering Thursday, April 18, on Prime Video.

In a recently released statement, Amazon MGM Studios, producer of the series, wrote: "After the sudden loss of his mother, Tyler moved back to his hometown, Jupiter, Florida, to reunite with his family and finally achieve his goal of launching his business, Image One. With the help of his team members — house-flipping expert Robb Ritch and Miami-based interior designer Jessica Quintero — Tyler builds his company from the ground up, exceeding his clients' expectations one home renovation at a time.

"With each episode ending in the exciting reveal of Image One's latest stunning remodel," they continue, "the season culminates in the most important undertaking of them all — turning the house that Tyler's late mom left behind into the family home that she always dreamed of."

Throughout the process of building his company and managing his grief, Tyler will be joined by some familiar faces from "Bachelor Nation," including Matt James ("The Bachelor," Season 25), Rachael Kirkconnell ("The Bachelor," Season 25), Jason Tartick ("The Bachelorette," Season 14) and Hannah Brown, who has maintained a friendship with Tyler following their failing "Bachelorette" romance, and now risks a few chipped nails as she picks up a hammer to help out.

"This show has everything from heart

and grit to family, friends and personal challenges, and I cannot wait to share my beautiful hometown and all my favorite people with everyone," said Cameron. "Making this show over the past four years has been a labor of love, and I am extremely thankful to my team and the teams at Amazon and High Noon for all their hard work and time that went into creating it."

With all eight episodes released at once — and eight gorgeous renovations to behold — Cameron's latest adventure begins when "Going Home With Tyler Cameron" premieres Thursday, April 18, on Prime Video.

There's no better feeling than getting picked first. With the Indiana Fever "first up to bat" in this year's WNBA draft, speculation is swirling that Caitlin Clark may be their coveted first pick, with Stanford's Cameron Brink following in a close second. While other players anxiously await their fate, fans continue to wonder where LSU's Angela Reese may land. # True, lethal diplomatic crisis plays out over '13 Hours'

When the name Benghazi comes up, it typically sparks controversy, given the 2012 attack on the U.S. diplomatic compound in Libya ... the aftermath of which resulted in the deaths of four Americans, and became a major political issue.

The movie "13 Hours: The Secret Soldiers of Benghazi" tries to keep the politics out as it re-creates the effort by American forces to defend the compound. The 2016 film – being presented Sunday, April 14, Thursday, April 18, and Friday, April 19, on Paramount+ With Showtime – was guided by one of the top action directors around, Michael Bay, of "Transformers" and "Armageddon" fame, and he clearly wanted to focus on the action that occurred under the circumstances.

Still, it's hard to overlook the politics completely here, since questions arose about Washington leaders' readiness (or lack thereof) for such a situation. Indeed, the soldiers portrayed in the film are shown going against orders to stand down, relying instead on their own skills and instincts. The cast includes some familiar faces, such as Toby Stephens ("Black Sails," "Die Another Day") and John Krasinski ("The Office," "Tom Clancy's Jack Ryan"), but it purposely plays down overt star power to try to enhance the realism of the dramatization.

And it is a suspenseful story, in the tradition of so many that have pitted heroes against seemingly insurmountable odds ... the type of tale director Bay has vast experience in telling. One problem, though, is the film's length; it occupies nearly two-and-a-half hours, and though that certainly isn't as bad as 13 hours, it does feel overextended when at least a half-hour less would make the film that much tidier and perhaps give it even more impact.

With that being said, Bay certainly pours on the visceral mayhem that's his trademark, but with more relevance this time, since many viewers will know that the events really happened. The screenplay is based on a book written by the would-be protectors, who were private security and made sure matters didn't get even worse, though they were rough enough.

Being about a real-life situation that's still discussed on occasion adds an extra layer, but strictly as a movie, "13 Hours: The Secret Soldiers of Benghazi" is an effective entry in a time-tested genre ... overseen by someone who surely knows how to use that genre well.

John Krasinski stars in "13 Hours: The Secret Soldiers of Benghazi"

Jenna Dewan is no series rookie

Q: Did Jenna Dewan do any other series before "The Rookie"?
– Stephanie Hoyt, via e-mail

A: She did several earlier ones, and she was more of a regular cast member in some than in others. She had the recurring part of Lucy Lane (which she carried over from the "Supergirl" series) in past seasons of The CW's "Superman & Lois," and she also recurred in the second year of the Fox medical drama "The Resident." Dewan got to use her dance expertise as the host of the first two seasons of the Jennifer Lopez-produced NBC competition series "World of Dance" (and then as a mentor to the contestants in Season 3). She also acted in FX's "American Horror Story: Asylum" and NBC's short-lived "The Playboy Club," but arguably her most substantial series job before ABC's "The Rookie" was Lifetime's "Witches of East End," in which she played one member of a family of sorceresses.

Jenna Dewan as seen in "The Rookie"

Q: How are the films that Turner Classic Movies features in "31 Days of Oscar" chosen? – Peter Randolph, Macon, Ga.

A: Various factors go into it. One is the organizing theme that the event takes each year; sometimes, it's been a bit complex, as with each adjacent title having one actor in common (along the lines of the "Six Degrees of Kevin Bacon" game). In other years, the titles have been in alphabetical order throughout the entire festival – but this year, it was pretty straightforward, with each day (and sometimes more than one day) representing nominees and winners in a certain Oscar category.

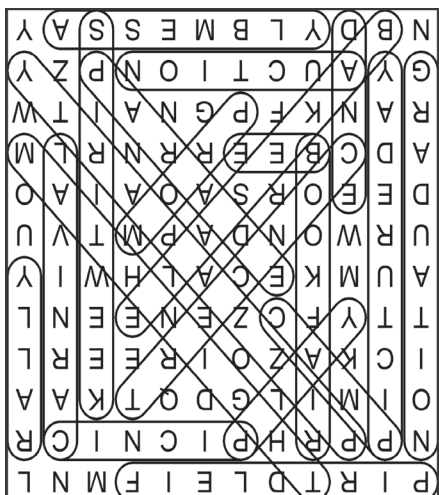

Also, there's an effort to include surefire fan favorites, as "Gone With the Wind," "Casablanca" and "Citizen Kane" demonstrated again this year. That only makes sense, since a channel wants to present programs that it knows will draw an audience. Sometimes, though, the choices simply are favorites of the channel's programmers; in what soon will be a century's worth of Oscar-nominated titles, there are plenty of selections to pick from (as long as TCM has the licensing rights to show the given movies at the time).

Q: When was Lea Thompson's series "Caroline in the City" on the air?
– Sherrie Wade, Antioch, Calif.

A: That NBC sitcom ran from 1995 to 1999, and it's interesting that CBS produced the show for that rival network. Thompson had the title role of a New York-based cartoonist whose personal life got a lot of attention in the show. She was part of a group of close friends, and that wasn't a coincidence, since the series aired Thursday nights along with — you may have guessed this — "Friends."

In fact, there were a couple of crossover stories between the two shows. Matthew Perry was in one episode of "Caroline" that had the latter show's character Annie (played by Amy Pietz) encountering his Chandler, while Thompson's Caroline made a "Friends" appearance in a tale that saw Chandler and Joey (Matt LeBlanc) accidentally lose Ross' (David Schwimmer) infant son.

Palm Coast man arrested for broadcasting woman in shower

GREEN COVE SPRINGS – A man from Palm Coast turned himself in at the Clay County Jail on April 3 after being accused of broadcasting a woman taking a shower with his cellphone on June 1, 2022.

Christian Alexander Smith, 30, posted a $50,003 bond and was released after being booked on a sex offense of video voyeurism.

Christian Alexander Smith

According to the affidavit for an arrest warrant, the victim waited to report the claim because she didn't want to "influence" the relationship between Smith and another person known to both.

OPPD Investigation leads to arrest for bestbet stickup

ORANGE PARK – An 18-month investigation by the Orange Park Police Department concluded with the arrest of a St. Augustine man for trying to hold up a man in the parking lot of bestbet on Oct. 31, 2022.

Nathaniel John Henry Bellamy, 30, was charged with armed robbery. The Clay County Sheriff's Office arrested him on April 1, and he's being held in the Clay County Jail without bond.

According to the affidavit for an arrest warrant, OPPD was called to bestbet after a man said someone pointed a gun at him as he got in his car and demanded to "give him all he had." The victim screamed, and the assailant ran away. Surveillance video captured the man, later identified as Bellamy, driving away in a black Nissan.

John Henry Bellamy

After searching Florida Department of Transportation camera records, License Plate Readers, cellphone records, GPS cell phone mapping activity and bestbet player card and surveillance videos, Orange Park Police concluded Bellamy was playing cards at the St. Augustine bestbet earlier in the day when he got a cellphone call from Rubin Williams, who had just won $800 from the victim in the parking lot.

Detectives knew Bellamy was in St. Augustine because he used his player's card to earn benefits.

According to the affidavit, DOT cameras identified Bellamy's car pulling into the Zen Living Suites parking lot across the street from bestbet. His license tag was missing when he crossed Park Avenue and into the bestbet parking lot.

OPPD said Williams admitted Bellamy owed him $3,000. He also said he knew the victim, and that the victim admitted to having a lot of money. Cellphone records showed Williams and Bellamy talked when Bellamy left the St. Augustine bestbet, when Bellamy arrived in Orange Park and when Bellamy was accused of approaching the victim in the bestbet parking lot.

No charges have been filed against Williams

CCSO: Motorcyclist without eyewear busted for meth

LAKE ASBURY – According to the Clay County Sheriff's Office, a motorcyclist who was stopped for not wearing eyewear or having a license tag wound up going to jail after the traffic stop quickly escalated into a drug bust.

John Thomas Colon, 38, of Lake Asbury, was charged on April 4 with resisting the deputy with violence, possession of methamphetamine, marijuana, drug paraphernalia and ammo by a convicted felon, driving with a suspended license and not having insurance or registration after he was pulled over on Henley Road in a fast food restaurant parking lot.

John Thomas Colon

When he was being questioned about his identity, he attempted to ride away, but the deputy grabbed the handlebar and eventually gained control of the motorcycle and the rider.

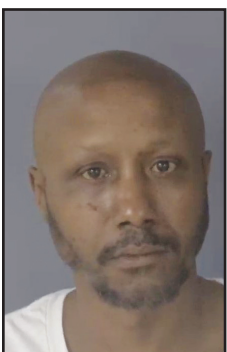

Colon was tackled, and with help from a bystander, the deputy subdued Colon. The drugs, including 5.1 grams of methamphetamine, three syringes and a scale, were found in his backpack.

His bond was set at $172,521.

Angry neighbor arrested after scuffling CCSO deputies

MIDDLEBURG – A man who'd been feuding with neighbors turned his aggression on Clay County Sheriff's Office deputies on April 4, leading to an assortment of arrests that resulted in a bond of $200,514.

According to CCSO, Terrance Tyrone James, 51, of Middleburg, was charged with two counts of battery on sheriff's office deputies, resisting a deputy with violence, breach of peace and depriving a deputy of means of protection or communication after a neighbor called about him yelling at them while they were in their driveway.

When deputies arrived, they heard James screaming and using profanity, and they determined he had breached the peace. When they attempted to stop him, he pushed one deputy and grabbed a deputy's radio microphone. He also elbowed a deputy in the chest, which caused her taser and holster to become dislodged. During the scuffle, he was tased four times before entering his house.

He eventually surrendered and was booked into the Clay County Jail.

CCSO catch man trying to get away with stolen car

MIDDLEBURG – Three Clay County Sheriff's Office deputies and K-9 Koda stopped a man while he was trying to drive away in what they believed was a stolen BMW on April 7 after getting a 911 call from a business owner on County Road 220.

Demetrius Wayne McFadden, 23, who's listed as homeless from Homestead, was charged with burglary with damage of more than $1,000 to Worldwide Automotive, grand theft auto, two counts of felony criminal mischief of more than $1,000, providing a false name to law enforcement and resisting law enforcement without violence after he tried to drive through a chain-linked gate at the rear of the business as deputies approached.

The car became entangled in the fence. As deputies slowly approached, McFadden tried unsuccessfully to rev the engine to break free. They eventually smashed the window, pulled McFadden from the car and placed him under arrest.

His bond was set at $145,016.

Unconscious woman wakes up to fight with CCSO deputy

Kimberly Ann Thompson

ORANGE PARK – According to the Clay County Sheriff's Office, a woman found unconscious while parked on the side of Laura Ann Lane was arrested after she woke up in a drunken stupor and fought with the deputy while resisting his commands to get out of the car.

Kimberly Ann Thompson, 46, of Orange Park, was charged with DUI, resisting law enforcement with violence and battery on law enforcement after the deputy had to knock "aggressively" to wake her up on April 8. She refused to get out of the car, and she was forced out of the car and taken to the ground while the deputy attempted to put her hands behind her back. She kicked the deputy in the leg before he subdued her.

After she was placed in the squad car, the deputy found a shooter of Jagermeister in the glove box. According to the arrest report, Thompson refused to submit to a blood alcohol test at the Clay County Jail.

Her bond was set at $10,008.

ORANGE PARK - Maybe the Solar Eclipse approaching Florida on Monday created a mood of excitable surrealism Friday night as three baseball games hosted by Clay County provided enough fireworks to light up the moon itself as Clay, St. Johns Country Day School and Orange Park all won thrilling baseball challenges with exciting finishes.

"We had plenty of opportunities, but we could not get the baserunners to home plate," said St. Johns coach Tom Lucas, who saw his Spartans battle to a 12th-inning 6-5 win over visiting Calvary Day Academy out of Savannah. "These guys showed a lot of their character tonight in winning this game."

LIVE OAK - Keystone Heights High's boys weightlifting team saw the eyes of the Tiger; more the Bulldog, in battling state champion contender Suwannee High School at the region 2-1A championships held Saturday at Suwannee High School.

Middleburg vs. Oakleaf showdown on Thursday

By Randy Lefko
randy@claytodayonline.com

MIDDLEBURG - Oakleaf High softball returned from a tough outing at the always-tough Kissimmee Classic Softball Invite with a roster of 4A-Jensen Beach (region semifinalist), 6A-Melbourne (unbeaten 20-0, ninth-ranked in USA, region semifinalist), 6A-Dwyer, 6A-Doral Academy (9-1, Final Four last year) and 4A-Jensen Beach (region finalist) on their hit list while Middleburg stayed closer to home with wins over 7A-Mandarin, 7A-Columbia (overcame 8-3 deficit to win in seven innings 11-10 off Kerra Clarida two-run homer and KK Hagan 2RBI double), 7A-Creekside (12-1 before losses to Oakleaf and Middleburg), 2A-Providence and a Monday homerfest over 1A-Branford (1A runnerups last year) as both teams amp up for a much-anticipated showdown on Thurs., April 11.

"We have one more game before that one; University Christian (2A champions) on Tuesday, and then we will start thinking about that game," said a coy Middleburg coach Ashley Houston, riding a 15-1 overall slate after Monday's three dinger 9-1 win over Branford, a 16-5, fifth-ranked in Class 1A squad, looking to dip into the Class 5A powerhouse's backyard. "Tonight, we looked sharp in most aspects of the game, but we are always making adjustments."

Oakleaf has a great combo in the batters box with Meshayla Pettaway and Charlotte Maddox, bottom, while third base is manned by Camryn Beall.

Middleburg's Alyssa Prather goes yard for second homer in win over Branford.

Middleburg junior pitcher Lily Bennett, right, gets hug from catcher Alyssa Prather after sterling six strikeout effort in 9-1 win against Branford on Monday.

For Oakleaf, their road trip got wins over Jensen Beach, 3-0, and Dwyer, 5-1, with losses to Melbourne, 9-3, and Doral Academy, 4-0, with Bartram Trail on Tuesday then Middleburg at Oakleaf on Thursday. Against Jensen Beach, coach Heather Han got 11 strikeouts from Charlotte Maddox who has emerged as a legit big bat for the Knights with a run batted in as well. Maddox feeds off leadoff batter Meshayla Pettaway's fast feet to get on base with Maddox following usually with bases on the line; her RBI coming early with Pettaway on base. Two innings later, it was Pettaway with an RBI single to bring in Jaydyn Beall. In the fourth, Oakleaf's third big bat, Amya Mirelez singled and scored off a Desiree Norris single.

Melbourne unloaded with a five-run second inning in game two with Oakleaf able to regroup to beat Dwyer with their five-run fourth inning with a barrage of bats led by a Mirelez double.

Against Doral Academy, the Oakleaf bats met a buzzsaw in pitcher Yessenia Lopez who turned away 16 whiffs in the 4-0 loss to the Knights.

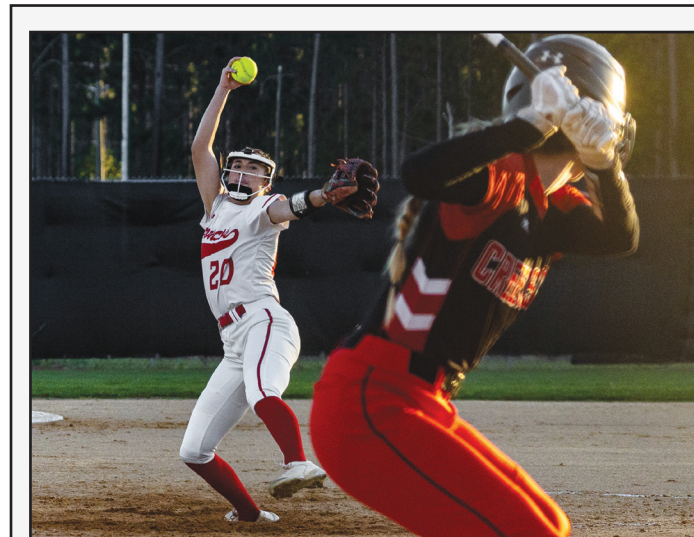

On the mound, Oakleaf has Maddox with 58 strikeouts and a 1.44 earned runs average while Middleburg will likely start senior Morgan Beckham who has 73 strikeouts but, in the bullpen, Houston has steadily improving junior Lily Bennett with 63 strikeouts.

Bennett started against Branford, and after a wild pitch in the first inning allowed the lone Buccaneer run, locked down the bats with six strikeouts. Bennett benefitted from great defensive plays at third from Madisyn Strickland, who snagged definite extra bases shot down the third base line with a hard toss to first, shortstop K.K. Hagen snagging two hard grounders for inning-ending groundouts, and, in the final stanza, a laser throw from centerfielder Mika Wesley to second baseman Isabell Pifer that squashed a late attempt to stretch a long single to a double.

"It is great to have my teammates play defense with such effort behind me," said Bennett. "I have to give back to them by throwing my best on the mound and getting outs also."

For Houston, the homer-fest started with the double-barreled action of Alyssa Prather and Kerra Clarida at the top of the lineup going yard back-to-back in the fifth with Clarida hitting hers with Hagan on base before Prather doubled up in the sixth with Clarida on base as Middleburg ran away with the game.

"The girls' experience in big games over the years is an advantage to the whole lineup because they all talk to each other before and after segments of the game," said Houston. "We do a lot of work on adjustments according to what the pitcher does. That's how things like tonight happen."

ORANGE PARK - St. Johns Country Day School's baseball schedule is no cupcake festival and coach Tom Lucas got a handful of tension late Friday night with a 12th-inning sacrifice fly from Collin Briggs the answer to a home run festival against Georgia 3A powerhouse Calvary Day as the Spartans in a 6-5 win on the St. Johns campus.

"Anybody on this team, top to bottom, is capable of getting the job done," said senior outfielder Kody Daneault, one of the top seniors on the team. "We trust every guy on this team to do their job and that's going to get us through tough games like this against top teams."

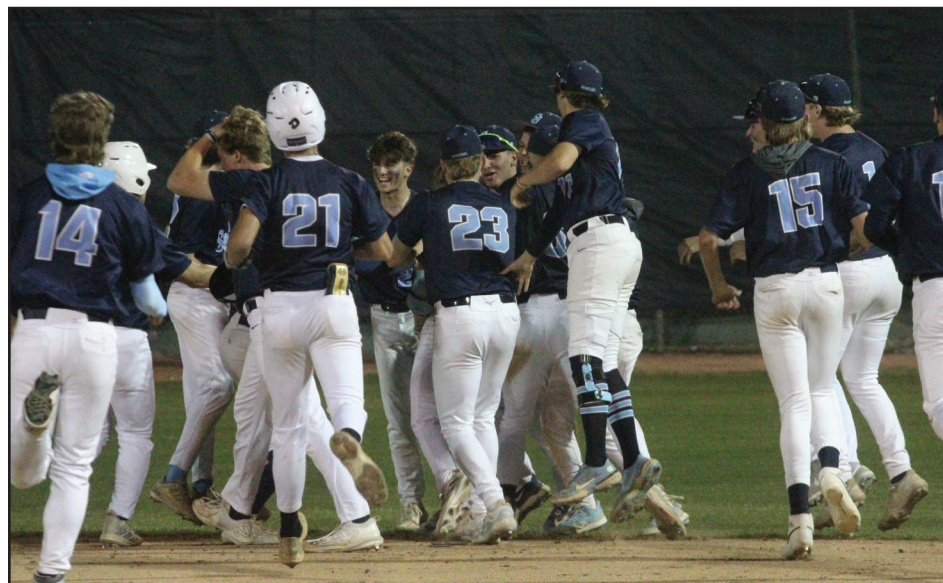

Briggs's hit to centerfield was preempted by catcher Hunter Rodgers being hit by a pitch to first and a double blasted by Nick Bowden moving Rodgers' pinch runner Connor O'Steen to third. Briggs lifted his ball to deep centerfield to score O'Steen for the win.

Lucas, now 13-2, watched as his team ebbed and flowed through a series of innings with baserunners in place, but the tough Calvary defense prevented any runs before the final stanza.

"We had some opportunities, but they are a really good team," said Lucas. "They made some plays, good for our guys to see the game at this level. We had guys begging to get on the field to make plays."

St. Johns, about to head to North Carolina for the USA Baseball National High School Invitational for an April 10 game against California's Huntington Beach Oilers, is just about where Lucas needs them to be. Huntington Beach currently is 14-5, ranked 11th in California and the 2023 NHSI champion, also 2016. The 2024 roster of teams includes four state finalists;

Bishop Gorman (NV), Gasteel High (AZ), Farragut (TN) and St. Johns (FL). Among the teams set to play are eight teams nationally ranked by MaxPreps.

Note: Trinity Christian Academy, out of Jacksonville, is also slated to play.

In 2022, St. Johns finished as the tournament runner-up, losing a 5-3 game to Florida's 7A champion Stoneman Douglas High School. En route to the NHSI final in 2022, St. Johns beat Servite (CA), Don Bosco Prep (NJ) and Huntington Beach.

Against Calvary Day, the Cavaliers struck first with a solo homer against Spartan starter Jack Ensell.

A second Calvary homer in the second rocked the Spartans with a third run coming off a barrage of singles.

Down 3-0 now, St. Johns got on the scoreboard off a Seth Alford single followed by a Rodgers double to go to 3-1.

FLEMING ISLAND - St. John Country Day's Seth Alford drove in four runs to back strong pitching by Austin Stratman as the visiting Spartans topped Fleming Island 6-2 on April 4.

Playing against a respected class 6A opponent did not phase the Spartans, who improved to 12-2 and are ranked second in Florida's Class 2A.

"Night in and night out, we are going to play really good teams, and Fleming Island is one of them," said SJCD head coach Tom Lucas. The Spartans will host one of Georgia's top teams in Cavalry Day School on April 5, and then travel to Cary, North Carolina to face several of the United States' top high school teams in a tournament April 12-14.

Alford staked the Spartans to a 2-0 lead before Stratman ever took the mound with a two-out double in the first inning. The senior third baseman's drive to the base of the left-center field fence scored Kody Daneault, who had driven in Kyle Boylston with the game's first run.

Alford doubled deep to left center again in the fifth, driving in pinch-runner Connor O'Steen to extend the SJCD lead to 4-2. Lastly, in the top of the seventh, with two outs and two strikes, Alford pulled a low line drive down the third base line, plating Daneault and Kolt Myers to give the Spartans a comfortable 6-2 lead.

"He has elite bat speed," Lucas said of Alford, a University of North Florida commit. "He can hit 93, 94 miles per hour pitches. To take our lead from two to four, that was big."

The support was more than enough for Stratman, a 6'1" junior. The left-hander handcuffed the hosts for five innings, allowing only two runs and three hits while striking out eight. Stratman hit Miguel Cruz with a pitch in the third inning. Cruz came around to score on a wild pitch, cutting the Golden Eagles' deficit to 3-1. Josh Murray lined a single to center field in the fifth, stole second, and came from there all the way to the plate on a wild pitch. Lucas praised Stratman's effort but did rue the wild pitches.

"His stuff was really good," said Lu-

'McCool Magic' gets Clay a wild win

By Randy Lefko

GREEN COVE SPRINGS - Clay High's baseball used a little "McCool Magic" to counter an early lead by Fleming Island with a sixth-inning triple-double barrage from Michael Gunson, Cole Carnell and Easton McMahan to get a go-ahead run and then a winner in a thrilling 7-6 game Friday night at Clay High School.

McMahan's double followed Gunson's double, then a Carnell double that scored two runs to tie the game at 6-6 before McMahan blasted a two-bagger for the game-winner.

"We've never lost a McCool Pink Out game," said Clay coach Josh Persinger, noting that former Clay teacher Claire McCool, a math teacher and huge Blue Devil sports fan, was honored on the annual Pink Game, now giving Clay seven years of wins. "These guys know a little bit about her, but this is the type of game that maybe reminds the school about her love of Clay High sports."

Persinger referenced Claire McCool who retired from teaching in 2016 but passed away from breast cancer in 2017. Clay teacher Julie Breindel-Hill opened up the game with words about McCool who had a unique connection with World and Olympic swim champion Caeleb Dressel, a Clay High graduate, who swims with a blue bandana worn by McCool near his starting block.

For the baseball game, Clay opened hard and fast with a two-run homer by Merrick Rapoza blasting the Blue Devils to a first-inning 4-0 lead.

With McMahan on the mound for Clay, Fleming Island retaliated quickly with Chris Reali smashing a double and Ryan Kiley walking to start the Golden Eagles' at-bats, but McMahan survived with two strikeouts to squelch the scoring attempt.

McMahan would struggle two innings later with Fleming Island scoring off a barrage of singles; Josh Murray, Upton, Ben Abram, Reali and walks to battle back to 4-3.

Fleming Island coach Mike Martino, who returned from a strong double header weekend at 6A region semifinalist Tallahassee Leon; two wins, 10-4, 3-2, before a two-game slide to 3A region semifinalist Yulee, 2A runnerup last year St. Johns Country Day School, and now Clay, a 5A region finalist last year.

"I've said from the start that this is a young team and we will be facing top teams all season," said Martino. "They want to win and play hard, but it's a little bit more that we have to do as coaches to get them into the championship mode. Games like Martino would get another flurry of runs from his team with three more coming in the fifth as Aaron Hawkins controlled the Clay bats after taking the mound from starter Keegan Leckband.

With Persinger putting Rylan McMahan on the mound in the fifth, Fleming Island methodically used three walks and a two-run single from Murray to take a 6-4 lead.

Clay got bases loaded fifth but failed to score with Hawkins getting a pop-fly third out before the explosive sixth inning for the Blue Devils.

For the final inning, Persinger finished with relief pitcher Preston Lowrance stifling three batters.

Orange Park Raiders 'slide' past Keystone Indians (again)

By Ray Dimonda

ORANGE PARK - Orange Park pitcher Robert Barnett would anchor the Raiders defense through all seven innings on the hill, striking out four and working with catcher Devon Moore who protected home plate like Fort Knox.

After going all 21 outs, only one batter away from hitting pitch count, Barnett talked about his change-up pitch that no Indians seemed to get a handle on.

"It's always been one of my best pitches," said Barnett. "The change-up and my slider, I've always been dominant with that and my fastball almost as my secondary pitch. We've never 2-0'ed Keystone. Usually, 1-1 or they sweep us. This win is really special."

Even with the visiting Keystone Heights High Indians getting eight runners on base, including the fifth inning with bases loaded, the Raiders would keep the Indians to a single run in Friday night's 3-1 home win.

"We'll take ugly wins over pretty wins every single day," said Orange Park Head Coach George Eldridge. "Tonight, we got a really good pitching performance from Robert Barnett, some clutch defensive plays, and we know this is a big win for us, a bounce-back. One of the things we are stressing to them right now is to pick each other up. If a guy makes a mistake, don't pound on him, that's my job. Keystone had a tough loss last night just like we did. It's tough to bounce back from those."

Coming into tonight's game, Keystone Heights was coming off a loss to the Buchholz Bobcats, only the third loss of the season. Last week, the Indians were riding a 10-game win streak when the Raiders played the Indians in Keystone Heights to hand them their only March loss. This was the first time in anyone's memory that Orange Park swept the series between the two teams.

The Raiders got going early with Yaziel Del Valle, the first batter up, getting walked by the Indians, then Tyson Cruz driving Del Valle home with a line drive to center to put the Raiders on the board 1-0 in the bottom of the first inning.

At the top of the fourth, things looked like they were heating up for the Indians. With a walk to put Austin Smith on, Austin Musgrove doubled, pushing Smith to third base. With no outs, Brady Kerlin hit the ball back to the pitcher who got the ball to Moore at home plate to snuff out the advancing runner, one out. On the next play, a fly ball to right field was rocketed home to Moore for another play at the plate, then a turned double play to third to retire the inning.

With two outs in the top of the fifth inning, Keystone's Andru Siemer grounded to the shortstop who couldn't get a handle on the ball. Siemer then stole second base, setting himself up in scoring position. With two strikes and two outs, Alex Addington blasted a shot to center field scoring Siemer, putting some life into the Indian dugout. The Indians would load up the bases and look to finally get ahead of the Raiders, only to have their hopes dashed on a fly out to left field to retire the top of the inning, 1-1.

Orange Park pitcher Robert Barnett only had four strikeouts, but was able to control the Keystone Heights batting lineup with tricky change up pitch.

As quickly as the Indians turned up the wick to tie the game, the Raiders responded. With Nehemiah Stephenson dinking a single to get on first base with two outs, Del Valle singled down the third base line to put runners on first and second base. Robert Barnett followed with a fly ball to left, scoring Stephenson. With an overthrow at the plate, Del Valle rounded third, headed to home and got tagged by Indians pitcher Alex Addington, 2-1 Raiders.

The Raiders would add one more insurance run in the bottom of the sixth inning after Tyson Cruz doubled to start the inning, then have Devon Moore go deep to center field to score Cruz, 3-1.

Keystone Heights Head Coach Chris Roach summed up the game with "You have to show up to play baseball every night. The game doesn't change, the opponent does. They (Orange Park) made really good defensive plays. We put a lot of balls in play. We just didn't hit the ball effectively."

Two field errors by St. Johns allowed them to fall behind 4-1, but the Spartan bats again woke in the third to answer with a Kolt Myers double-scoring Preston Cole, who was on with a single.

St. Johns kept putting baserunners in play and getting nifty defense to keep the game close.

In the sixth, Alford homered with Gilson on base to tie the game 4-4 before Calvary pitcher Will Hampton whiffed Rodgers and T.J. Sunderhaus.

With Trevor Bradley now on the mound, St. Johns closed a quick sixth inning with two strikeouts and got another double-play grounder in the seventh, but Calvary answered again with similar tactics.

The only blemish on the three-in, three-out innings was Bowden being hit by a pitch in the eighth, but Hampton responded with two strikeouts.

Calvary struck first in extra innings with a solo homer in the ninth, but senior Kyle Boylston bashed his own in the ensuing inning to keep the game locked 5-5.

"At the end of the day, a game like this shows that we are mentally tough," said Boylston. "We had some good baserunning and kept putting guys in play. Everyone on this team, from 1-9, can make the impact

Lewis' Blue Devils sneaking back into the playoff picture

By Randy Lefko

randy@claytodayonline.com

ORANGE PARK - Clay High softball coach Matt Lewis has been around the block a few times and the 30-plus-year veteran knows panic is not a good feeling.

"We got our senior pitcher back and that has been a blessing for this team," said Lewis, who has seen a metamorphosis of sorts with his girls' team that has rocked the local softball scene with three impressive wins in a row behind the arm of pitcher McKinsey Bardroff. "She was hurt at the beginning of the season and now is back strong and that has been a big boost of confidence for this team which is very young."

Lewis topped off his three-game win streak with a come-from-behind 7-5 win against rival Ridgeview High last week behind a seven-run explosion in the fifth inning that came by way of seven singles, a double and a triple. Bardroff was on the mound with 10 strikeouts.

"They have got the bats when they want to hit and once one gets on the excitement begins," said Lewis, noting veteran players Kaelye Rouw (two-run triple), Kendyll Mann (RBI double) along with Kaitlyn

Howell created the scoring surge against Ridgeview. "Kaelye watched her sister play big for me, Kendyll has been my best hitter for the last two years and they have been great mentors for the young players on the team."

Lewis, now 5-12, opened the streak with a somewhat surprising 9-5 win over Keystone Heights behind another batting barrage with a four-run third inning with Rouw the top bat with a double to open the inning followed by four singles to give Clay a 7-4 lead. Three more singles in the sixth got the score to 9-5 with Keystone Heights getting a solo homer from Alaina Kinsall in the fifth. Bardroff was on the mound with seven strikeouts.

Against Palatka, singles were the name of the game again with Clay scoring two runs in the first off a walk to Rouw and a single to Howell and a grounder to Bailey Parker. Bardroff was on the mound with nine strikeouts.

Keystone Heights, 8-8, finished off a two-win, two-loss trip to the Kissimmee Klassic over the weekend with wins over Merrit Island and Osceola and losses to West Broward and Lake Wales.

Clay High softball coach Matt Lewis has been patient through a season with a young team and has apparently found some late-season success behind senior pitcher McKinsey Bardroff as the Blue Devils have a three game win streak going.

Big hits have come from Kaelye Rouw in Clay's latest win streak; here a triple in win over Ridgeview.

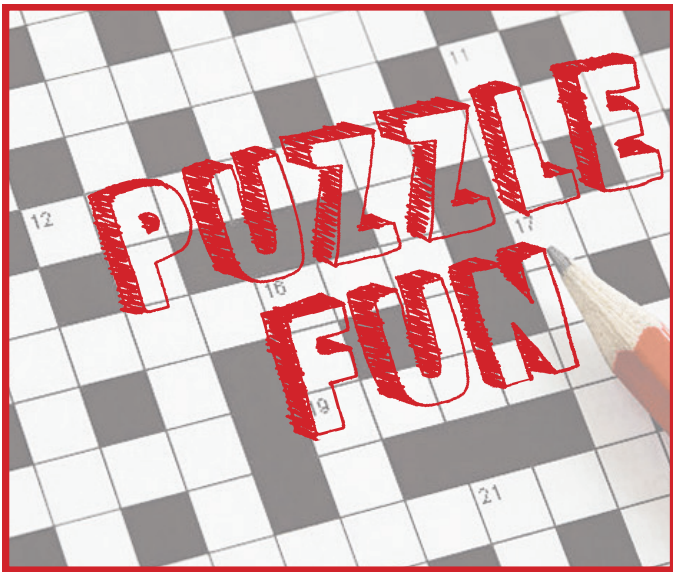

Ridgeview High catcher Haylee McCrea has been integral part of deep playoff runs for Panthers and will need to be leader as playoffs get closer.

Ridgeview's always dangerous lineup is strengthened by play of Hannah Crosby at bat, in outfield and on pitcher mound.

Clay pitcher McKinsey Bardroff, No. 12, has been key part of season turnaround for Blue Devils.
