

2022

Winter & Spring Awards Night

Welcome Message

- o Players, Coaches, parents, administrators, school committee members and invited guests
- o Congratulate on all your hard work and dedication

Thank you

- o to custodial and maintenance staff who make each game and moment's like this possible
- o to secretary, athletic interns, support staff,
- o School Committee members for your ongoing support, Athletics gives our students a place to excel outside the classroom, a place to continually push themselves, and gives sacred space for community and school spirit to grow

Pleasure to see this class grow from Freshmen to Seniors- this is a special group of high achievers in the classroom and on the field. Superintendent Ana Riley and School Committee Chair Marge McBride would like to join me in celebrating some of those achievements: would all of the following please stand and remain standing:

If you received All Division, All-class, All-State, All-Region, All-New-england, All-Academic please rise...Tonight we celebrate you.

Would the nominee for Academic All-American for the 2021-2022 school year please rise:

Josh Dewolf-Boys Lacrosse

Would the Senior Excellence Awards Winners from the United Soccer coaches Association please stand:

Jaden Terra & Tori Coroa

Would Eva White and Sam Merriam, Mt Hope's Student Athletes of the year please stand. An extra clap for Eva White who took the state as THE female student athlete of the year!

Would Josh Dewolf and Nora Prendergast nominees for the Pro-Jo Honor Roll please stand.

Niko Dasilva our Silver Dozen Award Winner please stand.

Congratulations you have all put our district on the Rhode Island, Regional & National Stage for accolades that represent the core mission of athletics at Mt. Hope High School; athletic prowess, grit, high achievement in the classroom and school spirit. Thank you for your hard work, and dedication!

Letterman Awards

This award was initiated for students who earn a varsity letter all 4 years for all 3 sports with the exception of students who participate in freshman basketball and or freshman football, as our goal as a department is to keep that group together. This award was created in 2014 and is a huge feat to achieve! This year we have 2 Students who have earned the Letterman Award for 2022. To earn this award a student must keep their focus and dedication to Mt Hope, their teammates and purple pride, please join me in congratulating our two recipients:

Joshua deWolf, Cross-Country, Basketball, Lacrosse

Gabriella Marsili, Cross-Country, Indoor Track, Outdoor Track

A special Thank you to our 2022 Senior Class! Be Well, Dream Big and don't forget once a husky always a husky!
