Why Public Notice Should Remain in Newspapers

Since the first U.S. Congress, public officials have understood that newspapers are the best medium to notify the public about official matters because they contain the essential elements of public notice:

- Accessibility
- Independence
- Verifiability
- Archivability

Publishing notices on the internet is neither cheap nor free

info@lostislandwind.com or (712) 207-4241

This meeting will serve as the official public notice of the Lost Island Wind Energy Project's intent to submit a Conditional Use Permit Application for a Wind Energy Conversion System in Palo Alto County, Iowa.

The Lost Island Wind Energy Project ("Lost Island Wind" or "Project") is proposed as a 200-megawatt electrical generating facility comprised of up to 50 Wind Energy Devices and other associated infrastructure, designed to convert wind energy into useable electricity. Other activities of the Project will include road improvements, surface grading, collection line trenching, concrete foundation forming, and turbine erections. The Project will cover portions of an area between 300th Street and 460th Street between Emmetsburg and Ruthven, Iowa.
