After 41 incredible years as a cosmetologist at Ken's Hair Styling, I have decided to embark on a new journey called retirement. My final day of styling will be on March 27th, 2024.

I extend my deepest gratitude to Ken and Jayne, my wonderful family, and each cherished client who has made this journey so special. These past four decades have been an absolute joy, and time has flown by. It never felt like work; it was my passion.

In celebration of this milestone, please join me at Ken's on March 29th from 2:30 PM to 4:30 PM for a retirement reception.

Thank YOU

Thank you for being a part of this incredible chapter in my life.

Thanks again,
Deb Kibbie

would like to thank everyone at the Ruthven Community Care Center for their care and everything you did to make Mom's time there special. The nurses were exceptional, and all involved in her care were great. Words can't express our gratitude to the staff. We thank everyone for their care and compassion - you will forever be remembered.

Why Public Notice Should Remain in Newspapers

Along with open meeting and freedom of information laws, public notice is an essential element of the three-legged stool of government transparency

Since the first U.S. Congress, public officials have understood that newspapers are the best medium to notify the public about official matters because they contain the essential elements of public notice:

- Accessibility
- Independence
- Verifiability
- Archivability

Newspapers remain the primary vehicle for public notice in all 50 states

This is not about "newspapers vs the internet". It's newspapers and newspaper websites vs government websites and newspaper websites have a much larger audience. Moving notice from newspapers to government websites would reduce the presence of public notices on the internet

Publishing notices on the internet is neither cheap nor free
