THANKS!

This thank you is to the friends and neighbors who helped rescue our cows and calves from the flood of the river and our pasture Sunday, June 23.

Your tremendous efforts are so greatly appreciated. Whether you were furnishing a boat, swimming the cows to high ground, or in the water loading calves into the boats, or helping hang on to them in the boats or on the ground helping load them into the trailers, your day's efforts will never be forgotten.

Thank you again,
Bill Frevert, Clayton Freeman, & Will Horsley

Why Public Notice Should Remain in Newspapers

Newsprint is inherently superior to the internet for public notice because reading a newspaper is a serendipitous process.

We find things in newspapers we weren't expecting to see. On the internet, we search for specific information and ignore everything else.

Governments aren't very good at publishing information on the internet. Unlike newspaper publishers, public officials aren't compelled by the free market to operate effective websites.
