Fireworks Over Five Island Lake

Incredible fireworks displays are a tradition of Emmetsburg's Independence Day celebration. We hope to continue this tradition in 2025 with our help. For several years, the fireworks displays have been funded primarily through the generous donations of our local businesses, organizations, and citizens. We hope you will consider making another heart-felt donation this year toward this worthy cause.

Donations can be made directly to the City of Emmetsburg - Fireworks Fund. All donations are tax-deductible. Donations can be delivered or mailed to:
Emmetsburg City Hall
c/o Fireworks Fund
2021 Main Street - PO Box 417
Emmetsburg, Iowa 50536
Donors will be recognized in the Emmetsburg Reporter-Democrat for your continued support!

THANK YOU

Plants & Things 4-H Club sends a BIG Thank You to everyone involved in our Community Service Leadership Project. This project was to plant shade trees along the F. I. T. bike and walking trail. Our partners include a grant from Pioneer Seed; Iowa 4-H Foundation; Willow Tree and Glen's Green Thumb for help with trees; owners along F.I.T. who allowed us to plant trees on their property. Jeff Jensen, Director of Community Programs for Trees Forever who gave an informational program and helped plant trees. Monetary donations from the public, donations of materials/supplies; P.A. Co. Garden Club for additional plant donations towards our plant sale fundraiser. Thank you to our community for purchasing plants at our plant sale; Palo Alto County Extension and Outreach; Rockport Association; F.I.T. Committee and all others who gave information, support and advice. Thank you to all who helped with this project! We could not have done this without each one of you!

Sincerely,
Plants & Things 4-H Club
