IPSWA ANNOUNCES 2021 ALL-STATE FOOTBALL TEAMS

DES MOINES – The Iowa Print Sports Writers Association and the Iowa Football Coaches Association have announced their 2021 all-state football teams.

Dozens of sports writers and coaches from across the state met either in-person at Dowling Catholic High School or over Zoom to select this year's teams.

Team captains were selected in each of the seven Iowa high school football classes. Captains must be a senior and selected to the first all-state team and are voted on by sports writers in each

The captains in each class were Lane Spieker of CAM (8-man), Logan Knaack of Grundy Center (Class A), Casey Trudo of Van Meter (Class 1A), Kolson Kruse of Southeast Valley (Class 2A), Landyn Van Kekerix of Boyden-Hull/Rock Valley (Class 3A), Nick Miller of Lewis Central (Class 4A), and Xavier Nwankpa of Southeast Polk High School (Class 5A).

The Iowa Print Sports Writers Association was founded in February 2018 to carry on the tradition of newspapers selecting all-state teams for Iowa high school sports.

ELC's Hoyer named to First Team

Estherville Lincoln Central senior Griffin Hoyer was named a first-team offensive lineman for the Class 2A squad.

Hoyer was a guard on the front line of an ELC team that was ranked in the Top 10 all season. While ELC finished the season with a 5-4 record, the Midgets had key wins over West Lyon and rival Spirit Lake. West Lyon was ranked No. 1 at the time the two teams played in Week 2 and finished the season as state runners-up in Class 2A. Spirit Lake was also ranked when ELC played the Indians.

Griffin was part of an offense that produced 1,508 yards rushing and 1,394 yards passing. "He's a two-year starter at guard and is one of the leaders on the line and on the team," said ELC coach Ryan Rezac. "Offensive line-wise, we ran behind him quite a bit. He has really good technique and worked hard in the weight room. He's a physical kid solo tackles. Fries was named to the Class A Third Team as wide receiver/tight end. The senior caught 37 passes for 471 yards and 13 touchdowns. He was third on the team in tackles with 41.5 including 31 solo tackles. Hough, Currans earn all-state honors

While Graettinger-Terril/Ruthven-Ayrshire's Max Hough generated most of his team's offense, the junior made the 8-Player Second Team for his defensive efforts as a linebacker. Hough led the Titans with 81.5 tackles, including 44 solo tackles and three sacks. Of those 81.5 tackles, 11.5 were for a loss. On offense, Hough completed 80-of-147 passes for 1,255 yards with 23 touchdowns to just two interceptions. He also ran the ball 197 times for 1,521 yards and 17 touchdowns.

Teammate Cormick Currans was named to the 8-Player Third Team as a wide receiver/tight end. The senior led the Titans with 38 catches for 743 yards and 16 touchdowns. Currans also ran the ball 47 times for 297 yards and eight touchdowns.

Western Christian joined the Lakes Conference in the 1997-98 season. Since their arrival, Estherville Lincoln Central has never defeated the Wolfpack on the hardcourt until Tuesday.

The Mighty Midgets handed the defending Class 2A State Champion their first loss of the season, 82-74.

Western Christian responded with a 7-2 run to cut the deficit to six, 17-11. However, Tristan Howard hit a 3-pointer from the corner to give ELC a 20-11 lead after one quarter of ELC's biggest lead came after a pair of free throws by Larson, 69-52, with 5 minutes left in the contest.

Larson converted two free throws with 16 seconds remaining to push the lead back to 10, 82-72. A Wolfpack basket at the buzzer made the final tally.

Estherville Lincoln Central's full-court defensive pressure wreaked havoc on yet another opponent as the fourth-ranked team in Class 3A girls' basketball trounced Western Christian 69-40 on Tuesday. "We continue to play well together and share the ball," said ELC coach Don Martindale. "Our goal is to be a better team at the end of the night. I'm very pleased with our defensive intensity."

The Midgets turned steals into layups while scoring the first 17 points of the game. Freshman Hayley Stokes scored all but two of those points.

When Stokes went to the bench, freshman Rylee Yager scored six of the final eight ELC points of the first quarter, as ELC led 26-4.

Blackhawks hand Lakers another loss

BURLINGTON - Taking on Div. 1 No. 17 Southeastern on Sunday, the Div. II No. 13 Iowa Lakes men came up short against the Blackhawks, losing their third game of the season, 75-61.

"I have to give credit to Southeastern," said Iowa Lakes coach Troy Larson. "They played harder then we did and were grown men around the rim all night long. We couldn't get in a flow offensively because of how hard they guarded us. This led to us not being able to make plays down the stretch." Iowa Lakes trailed by just two, 39-37, at halftime. However, the Lakers shot 32 percent from the field compared to Southeastern shooting 44 percent. Ryan Hall led the way for the Lakers with 15 points.

Anthony Holden added 12, and Xzavier Jones had 10. Jones led the Lakers with seven rebounds. Southeastern was led by Jesiah West with 18 points.
