Hands and Hearts will genuinely care for you

If you are looking for a reliable and compassionate in-home care agency in the Lexington area, check out Hands and Hearts Home Care. This family-owned business has provided quality care for seniors and special needs clients for over 15 years and has recently won two prestigious awards: BEST PLACE TO WORK and BEST IN-HOME CARE of 2023.

Hands and Hearts Home Care was founded by two business professionals who had the same need for services for their family members and wanted to make a difference in their community. They started with a small office and a few caregivers and gradually expanded their services and staff to meet the growing demand. Today, they have a team of over 100 professional caregivers who offer a wide range of services, such as assistance with personal care like bathing, dressing, and toileting, as well as companionship, meal preparation, medical reminders, running errands, house-keeping, relief care, Alzheimer's care, and more.

But what makes Hands and Hearts Home Care stand out from other agencies is their genuine care for their clients and employees. They treat each client as a member of their extended family and tailor their care plans to suit their individual needs and preferences. They also value their employees as their greatest asset, providing them competitive pay, flexible schedules, training opportunities, recognition programs, and a supportive work environment.

In addition to providing excellent care, Hands and Hearts Home Care is also involved in their community and gives back in countless ways. They partner with local charities, such as the Shriners Circus, Alzheimer's Association, Families Helping Families, New Hope Mentor Program, GF3 (Good Foot, Good Feet, Good Friday), and more. They believe that by helping others, they are fulfilling their mission and vision. Giving back is the best way to say thank you!

Hands and Hearts Home Care is honored to win this year's Best Place to Work and Best In-Home Care. Even today, they believe you can make a difference if you treat people how you want to be treated and have an understanding heart. Their goal has always been to influence the lives of all their clients and employees. If you are interested in learning more about them or becoming a client or an employee, you can visit their website or call them at (803) 926-1669.

Laurie Griner helps you live a life well protected

As an Allstate Agent in the Midlands, I know many local families.

My knowledge and understanding of the people in this community help me provide customers with an outstanding level of service. I look forward to helping families like yours protect the things that are important - your family, home, car, boat and more. I have worked in the midlands for over 25 years. As a business owner myself, I care about the community of business owners around me.

When it comes to being family, emergencies matter, taking care of your needs, protecting your valuable assets, we're right there with you. We're not one of the offices that just celebrate the service, we celebrate opening a new relationship with people. We are the helping hand, the insurance agents who stand only to help others to stand back up. We protect customers, develop talent, and evolve the business, supported by our financial strength.

The world is unpredictable. When the unexpected happens, we'll be there to face it with you and provide protection to keep your life moving forward. Our purpose isn't just about simple or affordable insurance policies. It's about people - you - above all else.

To better connect with customers, communities, and each other, we put people above policies and always look for ways to improve and adapt to meet your needs. You decide when and how you want to do business with us, and we'll be there - today and in the future. We're always learning more about our customers, building better and more personalized products for what matters most in life, for every life. With our core values guiding us, we're making positive changes.

When we say, "You're in good hands with Allstate," we mean it, and we always have. Integrity is non-negotiable. It's how we show up every day. We build strong relationships grounded in trust and transparency. We do the right thing - even when it's unpopular - because respect and responsibility go hand in hand.

We celebrate our differences. But we know many individuals and communities have less access to equitable opportunities in the workforce and in life. We're working to change that. In a world where change is certain, we want to lead it positively. So, we rely on the collective expertise of our employees to consider different options and create the best path forward toward progress - in our industry and beyond.

Choose You.

LEXINGTON COUNTY
Chronicle
You Live in Lexington County — Your News Should, Too

Lexington County is more than bedrooms. Too often, our home is viewed purely through its proximity to other places – Columbia, the University of South Carolina, Fort Jackson, etc. – seen as a spot for people who work in those other places during the day to hang their hats during the night and weekend. But Lexington County is much more than that. And it deserves a “Best Of” contest that keeps that in mind.

One that highlights businesses and industries that operate here in the county. One that puts a spotlight on beloved neighborhood spots in towns from Swansea to Batesburg-Leesville to Chapin. One that embraces that there are more ways to have fun here than to get out on Lake Murray.

(And one that never forgets that the lake is still a mighty big deal around here.)

That’s the Lexington County Chronicle’s intention with the Lexington’s Best contest – to highlight the restaurants, stores, businesses, hair stylists, mechanics, cultural institutions (and on and on) that make this county special.

And it seems that our readers are equally invested in that idea.

Our reader poll identifying the best Lexington County has to offer in more than 300 categories after weeks of nominations and votes got quite a response this year. We received 39,054 nominations and 98,961 votes on the way to crowning the winners compiled in this magazine.

We hope the result helps you identify great places to find products and services you require. We hope it helps you find new things to explore and enjoy in the place where you live. And we hope it gets you talking about the things you love about Lexington County.

Because that is, at the heart of it all, the point of Lexington’s Best. To highlight what you, the reader, love about your home.

To keep learning more about the latest local happenings, we hope you’ll keep picking up the Chronicle and the free Wrapper each week, that you’ll look out for our quarterly Lakeside magazine, and that you’ll keep your eyes peeled to the regular updates posted to lexingtonchronicle.com.

Cheers to Lexington's Best!

How does vision therapy work?

Vision therapy helps improve the connection between the eyes and brain, improving vision. Many people can see well, but their eyes lack coordination, leading to vision problems. Vision therapy's purpose is to help the eyes work as a team.

Your optometrist helps better your vision by assigning weekly exercises to train weaknesses in your eyes. They identify your struggles and schedule regular sessions to retrain the eyes. Your exercises become more difficult with time until you reach your vision goal.

Depending on your vision struggles, your optometrist may have several goals for your vision therapy program, including:

- Improving visual comfort
- Helping you improve essential visual skills and abilities
- Changing how you process visual information

During treatment, your eye doctor assigns exercises that use movement, balance, auditory processing, and other cognitive abilities to improve your vision. Additionally, they use several supportive tools, including:

- Therapeutic lenses
- Prisms
- Filters

- Optometric phototherapy
- Balance boards

When Can You Expect Results?

There is no specific timeline for vision therapy because each patient's program is customized for their needs. You may see improvements in months while someone else only requires weeks of treatment.

After assessing your vision, your optometrist will have an idea of your treatment timeline. What's important is staying dedicated to your exercises—persistence pays off when it comes to vision therapy.

Mission Lexington was originally founded in 1978 by four churches to serve individuals and families faced with limited resources and urgent needs. Mission Lexington has served the county from multiple locations over the years, moving as our needs have expanded. Today we offer a thriving thrift store, food pantry, mobile food pantry, donation center, social services and administration offices at 216 Harmon St. in downtown Lexington, SC.

Balance therapy can help you overcome dizziness and imbalance

At FYZICAL Therapy & Balance Centers, fall prevention is the cornerstone of our mission; “Balance” is part of our name after all! The U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) reports that more than one in four older people fall each year. Twenty percent of falls lead to serious injuries, such as broken bones or a head injury. At FYZICAL, our therapists know how important balance and walking are for independent living and enjoying life in general. We have developed a world-class balance rehabilitation program that can be tailored to everyone’s needs.

In our balance program, we will first evaluate your gait, known as your walking skills, to determine potential problems with strength and posture. We will then test your balance by having you perform simple movements. These evaluations point us in the direction of what to focus on in terms of therapy. Our team will create a fully customized balance therapy program to help you navigate challenging terrain and avoid dizzy spells. Your program may consist of manual therapy, vestibular rehabilitation, and functional training.

At FYZICAL, we have changed the way balance therapy is performed through our Safety Overhead Support (SOS) System. This overhead harness system consists of a trolley attached to the ceiling which allows our patients to remain secured in a simple body harness to safely perform functional activities. We can challenge our patients appropriately to achieve the best possible results with balance and vestibular function without the patient having a fear of falling.

Having poor balance can impact various aspects of your life, making it difficult to keep up with the things that are most important to you. Poor balance can make it harder to complete everyday tasks such as getting up from a chair or climbing stairs. It can also lead to falls and other accidents that may result in serious injury. It is important to address these issues when they arise.

In addition to our facilities and equipment designed specifically for balance training, we offer a holistic therapy approach including patient education to improve our patient’s health outcomes. Our therapists educate our patients on the condition causing the imbalance and at-home exercises to help improve strength and confidence even after completing your balance program. At FYZICAL, our goal is to help you return to the activities that you love. Contact your local clinic today to get started!

Benefits of local in-home elderly care

As much as you love your elderly family member, being a caretaker can be challenging. It can lead to compassion fatigue, take time away from your kids and other responsibilities, and even strain your relationship. You want the best for your loved one, but the reality has set in - you can’t do it on your own. And you shouldn’t have to.

Hiring a trusted in-home caregiver not only provides you with peace of mind, but it also allows you to focus more on enjoying your time with your elderly family member.

As proud members of the Columbia community themselves, Steve and Julie-Ann understand the importance of having full-service, local healthcare services available to you. These personal connections are exactly why they started RetireEASE.

CHW prides itself on producing quality handcrafted cabinetry

CHW Cabinetry began as Carolina Handcrafted Woodworking in 2005 when the Brannon brothers had a dream of putting the skills their father had taught them to good use by producing quality handcrafted woodworking products.

The orders quickly outgrew their woodshop's capacity, so they partnered with local fine cabinet manufacturers and hired trained kitchen & bath designers to better serve their clients.

They quickly grew their little "shop" business into an award-winning Kitchen and Bath Showroom serving the Midlands of South Carolina. Today CHW Cabinetry is owned by the women who helped grow the business. They continue to pride themselves in unique designs and quality installations!

EGM Services works the old school way

Two years ago, Nick Powers and his wife Mattie were sitting on the couch reveling in the silence that comes when the kids have gone to bed.

Nick was working for a big grading contractor and his outlook on life was miserable at best. His loving wife kept giving him words of support as they visited with each other for the brief time before their bed called them home for the night. Without much forewarning, Nick then told Mattie that he wanted to quit his job and open up his own grading company.

Without missing a beat, Mattie gave him her blessing and the two began brainstorming the company's name.

EGM Services was founded a couple of weeks later and the rest they say is history. Over 300 jobs later with budgets of $3000-$350000, EGM Services is steadily working. From Beaufort to Clemson with a heavy dose of the Midlands, EGM Services works day in and day out the old school way. They do what they said they were going to do, for the price they quoted on the timeline that they promised to do the work in.

The work is hard, the temperatures go from high to low and back to high, but at the end of day EGM Services will sustain because Nick Powers loves his wife and he loves to work.

Riley's Drugs has been taking care of Lexington for almost 100 years

Riley's Drugs is named for the late Dr. Sid Riley, a Batesburg orphan and 1921 graduate of MUSC College of Pharmacy, who opened his first pharmacy in the Red Bank Mill village of Lexington in 1924.

Lightning struck the pharmacy in the 1940's causing it to burn and prompting him to rebuild Riley's Drugs' second location in 1947 on Columbia Avenue in Lexington.

Doc was the friend, mentor, and eventual business partner to pharmacist Bob Perry who joined the Riley's Drugs' staff in 1967 after graduating from the USC College of Pharmacy. After 55 years of service to Riley's Drugs and the town of Lexington, Bob is enjoying his retirement.

Bob's daughter, Roberta Perry Vining, a second-generation pharmacist and a 1987 graduate of the USC College of Pharmacy is the current owner of Riley's Drugs. Roberta started working at Riley's when she was in high school and was honored to have been mentored by both Dr. Riley and her dad, Dr. Perry.

In 2012, Riley's Drugs relocated just down the street to their current location at 1207 West Main Street in Lexington. Riley's Drugs and staff have grown through the almost 100 years we've been in business, thanks to many old and new loyal customers. The longevity of our pharmacy comes from our commitment to quality patient care and unsurpassed customer service.

Riley's Drugs is where you get more than just a prescription, and we invite you to come see for yourself. We would love to be your first-choice pharmacy!

WE ARE
Northside
COME SEE THE DIFFERENCE

We aim to provide Christ-like love, promote a Biblical worldview, pursue excellence in education and partner with our families.

OUR VISION

The vision of Northside Christian Academy is to trust our Lord as we seek academic and biblical excellence. We believe this will be accomplished with much prayer, commitment, and great leadership among the administration and faculty, supported by a strong base of parental involvement. Our goal is to prepare students to be fully devoted followers of Jesus Christ so that the generations to come might know Him. (Psalm 78:4)

OUR MISSION

To lovingly lead and equip students to believe, defend, and proclaim the Truth of Jesus Christ which is the Holy Bible from Genesis to Revelation.

Northside Christian provides a wholly Christian education

In September of 2011, Northside Christian Academy opened its doors as a ministry of Northside Baptist Church. Northside Christian Academy is the result of much prayer, fasting, and vision on the part of those whom God called to launch a distinctively different Christian school in the Lexington Community. The school was birthed on the behalf of the children and families in Lexington and the greater Columbia area, in order that they may Believe, Defend, and Proclaim the TRUTH of Jesus Christ which is the Holy Bible from Genesis to Revelation.

We believe that by God's divine providence the school has come into existence. God began a work by planting seeds in the hearts of a high school student, a pastor, and three moms. In God's perfect timing He would weave these lives together to begin an incredible journey. Jeremiah 33:3 says, "Call to me and I will answer you and tell you great and unsearchable things you do not know." Almost two years ago we began to call to God for a Christian school in Lexington, South Carolina.

We formed a team of prayer warriors and began to meet and pray. Although our faith has been tested along the way, God has been "Faithful and True" (Revelation 19:11). The valleys have been exalted and the mountains have been brought low; the crooked places have been made straight and the rough places smooth, so that the glory of the LORD may be revealed... (Isaiah 40:4-5).

God has made the impossible possible!

The very heartbeat of Northside Christian Academy is to have a distinct and lasting effect upon our community and our nation. Our mission is to assist parents in providing a wholly Christian Education so that their children are rooted and grounded in a biblical worldview. As you work through this website, we believe you will see the difference that a Northside Christian Academy education will make.

In January of 2022 we began Phase 1 of our Legacy Campaign to expand our elementary school. We added 5,784 additional square feet to include 9 classrooms, 3 bathrooms and a covered outdoor area. We also opened a second campus offering K4 and K5 in September 2022. The Lord is continuing to bless and grow his kingdom with Northside. We are currently praying for Phase 2 funding that will include a Student Life Center, Fine Arts space, and cutting-edge Science and Computer labs. Our vision for Athletics continues with a Field House to include locker rooms, team facilities, and a weight room overlooking the current fields.

The journey has just begun, and we are confident of this, that He who begins a good work, will complete it (Philippians 1:6). We serve a Great and Mighty God to Whom we give all the glory and praise!

LAKE SIDE

THE GOOD LIFE ON LAKE MURRAY

It covers about 50,000 acres of land and 650 miles of shoreline with its 763 billion gallons of water. But even those big numbers can't fully communicate the outsize impact Lake Murray has on Lexington County and the Midlands. It is a hub for outdoor recreation and tourism, is home to businesses and restaurants that generate a great deal of revenue, and is generally a tremendous part of the county's identity.

Which is why the Lexington County Chronicle will launch LakeSide this spring, a quarterly magazine exploring the various activities and developments happening around the lake and the people that are making them happen.

Gail Clark leads Lexington County pick for Best Law Firm

Geneva M. "Gail" Clark was born and raised in Rockingham, North Carolina. She married her high school sweetheart, Brian Lee Clark, of Rockingham, NC, a Road Foreman of Engineers with CSX Transportation. They have three daughters, Breleigh, Ha-leigh and Carleigh Clark and attend Kittiwake Baptist Church in West Columbia. Other than her love of family, Gail enjoys spending her downtime on beautiful Lake Murray.

Gail graduated from Richmond Senior High School in 1996. Following High School, she attended Wingate University where she earned a B.S. in Business Administration with an emphasis in Management in 2000, graduating with Dean's List recognition for her academic accomplishments. Her eagerness to engage in the process of learning continued as she acquired a Master of Arts in Teaching in 2006 from Wingate University. During this time, Gail acquired a North Carolina Real Estate Sales License in April 1999. Additionally, obtaining Broker status in July of 2001 and Broker-In-Charge eligibility in August of 2007.

Except for a brief break to obtain her master's degree Gail worked full time in the business field until May of 2015. Examples of her career experiences include working with residential and commercial developers; and working in collaboration with local government department heads to interpret and assist in development of program policies, review grant applications, personnel actions, and budget request on an agency wide scale for compliance with federal, state and agency guidelines. A 2015 job transfer for her husband resulted in the relocation of her family to South Carolina and an opportunity for her to go back to school full time and pursue a law degree. The logistics of the move in conjunction with helping her three young daughters adapt to their changing circumstances was without a doubt extremely challenging at times. However, she was determined to succeed and committed to making the daily drive to Charleston, South Carolina where she attended Charleston School of Law. Gail graduated from Charleston School of Law with her Juris Doctor in May of 2019. While attending Charleston she received the CALI Award of Excellence in Contracts I, and Upper-Level Writing.

Gail started the Clark Law Office, LLC in the fall of 2020.
