Commission tries to wrap up health dept. building

construction.

The Marshall County Commission moved quickly through a fairly long agenda at its monthly meeting on Monday.

The only real item that stirred discussion was a last minute item added to the agenda concerning the subcontracting of several smaller jobs at the new county health department, currently under

The necessary items fell outside of the original contract with the contractor and the county was seeking ap-to explore bidding the jobs itself, as the contractors quote for the tasks was deemed excessive. In total, the expected work is expected to be roughly $50,000, which would still place the project under the amount originally budgeted for the project.

Some commissioners expressed concerns for a lack of financial detail in the resolution, although those concerns were allayed in that the county purchasing policies would still be followed and bids over $10,000 would still come before the commission.

"This is trying to get it done," said Mayor Mike Keny, to open the new facility in the spring.

Ultimately, the resolution passed unanimously.

Commissioners approved a zoning resolution that would place the required setback for cell phone towers from habitable structures at 1,000 feet, up from the current 500 feet.

A vote on another zoning resolution setting guidelines for solar panel farms was postponed for further study and definition at the planning commission before returning at a future date for commission consideration.

Dr. Kenneth Phelps was unanimously approved for another term as the county coroner and medical director for the Emergency Medical

Two state grants for Office of Emergency Management training purposes were also approved.

Several accounting adjustments to general fund and school fund balances were approved as well.

Keny informed the commission that long awaited final guidelines for the expenditure of American Recovery Act funds had been released and that the county would begin prioritizing projects that met the criteria.

The commission extended temporary personnel policies related to Covid issues through the end of February. The policies, which have been extended several times, were due to expire at the end of January but the ongoing surge in cases due to the Omicron strain required their extension.

The commissioners also approved the 2022 master road list for the county.

Marshall County currently maintains 477 roads, totalling 544 miles.

Nathan Johnson and Karen Hall were appointed to the county's agriculture committee and Kevin Patin was confirmed to the 911 board.

What is CASA?

CASA stands for Court Appointed Special Advocate. CASA volunteers are trained volunteers who advocate for the best interest of children going through the court system. CASA volunteers meet with all the parties involved in a child's life and then write up a fact-based report to help the Judge make an informed decision. In Marshall County, we are desperately needing volunteers who are looking to make a difference in their community. Since COVID, we have struggled to recruit new volunteers. We would love to talk with you about getting started with your training. Please call Bonnie Bailey at 931-438-3233 if you are interested in making a difference in a child's life. In the words of Judge Bussart, "CASA advocates make a real difference. Without CASA, I would not always have the information I need to make an informed decision. I hope you can find room in your heart and a space in your life to support this worthy program." # Chapel Hill seeking administrator

Chapel Hill is again searching for a new town administrator.

The Board of Mayor and Aldermen decided against renewing the annual contract of Town Administrator Amanda Harrington at a special called meeting held last week.

The position of town administrator serves on a renewable 12 month contract, answerable to the BOMA.

Harrington was hired last year to run the city's day to day operations after an extended search to replace former town administrator Mark Graves, who left for the private sector.

Aldermen agreed to buy out the remainder of Harrington's contract and the position is currently post-

Lawmakers send US House map splitting Nashville to Gov. Lee

By Jonathan Mattise and Kimberlee Kruesi

Associated Press

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Republican lawmakers in Tennessee on Monday completed their rapid passage of a new U.S. House map that splits booming, Democratictilted Nashville and its Black voters three ways, leaving it up to the governor to sign off on the new congressional lines.

The state House passed the plan after the Senate approved it late last week, making quick work of passing the once-a-decade new legislative and congressional districts. But the map is almost certain to also spur swift lawsuits by its opponents.

While the process has taken months, the proposed maps weren't released to the public until Jan. 12, and Republican leaders who enjoy supermajorities in the House and Senate have put them on a fasttrack ever since.

кериысап Gov. Bill Lee has said he sees "no reason that I wouldn't be signing" off on the new map, despite objections from Democrats and voting rights groups that the rewrite would unfairly dilute the influence of Black voters in Nashville. On Monday, Lee added that he hadn't looked specifically at the new congressional layout but he would "make decisions about that map when it gets closer to my desk."

Currently, Tennessee's U.S. House delegation consists of seven Republicans and just two Democrats, whose districts center on Nashville and Memphis.

Democrats and community activists have long pleaded to keep Nashville's seat whole, arguing that the Davidson County seat has largely remained intact for 200 years. It's a district that extends into two additional counties and has about a 24% Black population.

The Nashville split likely makes any Democrat, including longtime Nashville U.S. Rep. Jim Cooper, a significant underdog to retain his seat against a Republican.

"We do not want to disenfranchise people with their vote because they think it doesn't count and the way this map is drawn it does that," said Rep. Vincent Dixie, a Black Democrat from Nashville.

Republicans have expressed confidence that the map will withstand a court challenge. They contend having three congressional members would benefit the city, without directly addressing that their representatives would likely all be Republicans, despite the city's preference for electing Democrats. They have also deflected answering directly how much racial makeup influenced the map-making decisions, pointing to their confidence that the proposal complies with the Voting Rights Act. The new district where Cooper lives — jagging through slivers of southern and eastern Nashville as it branches in multiple directions into five other counties — would include about 11.8% Black residents out of those old enough to vote. The other two would be 8.6% and 15.5%

Rep. Harold Love Jr., a Black Democrat from Nashville, said Black voters in Davidson County have previously been able to collectively influence what issues their congressional representative focuses on while in office. Splitting up Davidson County, Love warned, could significantly diminish that impact while competing with white, rural voters. The state Democratic Party has promised to sue over the map, and others may join them. But the legal path for getting the new Republicanauthored U.S. House map altered faces significant obstacles.

In 2019, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that partisan gerrymandering of congressional and legislative districts is none of its business.

Courts have, however, barred redistricting aimed at reducing the political representation of racial minorities for a half-century. Protections exist under the U.S. Constitution and the Voting Rights Act, which the U.S. Department of Justice has used to sue Texas over its state and congressional maps. Both have varying degrees of proof required in the courts.

Another complicating factor — Tennessee lacks the kind of state requirements that advocates in Ohio, for one, have used in recent redistricting challenge wins. Ohio's Supreme Court declared invalid GOP-spearheaded state legislative and congressional maps in recent decisions. Those were based on 2015 and 2018 constitutional amendments that require an attempt at avoiding partisan favoritism. Nationally, Republicans need a net gain of five seats to flip U.S. House control.

While both parties have gerrymandered, these days Republicans have more opportunities. The GOP controls the line-drawing process in states representing 187 House seats compared with 75 for Democrats. The rest of the states use either independent commissions, have split government control or only one congressional seat.

For Democrats, the worst case scenario of losing well over a dozen seats in the U.S. House appears unlikely to happen. After some aggressive map drawing of their own in states with Democratic legislatures, some Democrats predict the typical congressional district will shift from leaning to the right of the national vote to matching it, ending a distortion that gave the GOP a built-in advantage over the past five House elections.

MARSHALL COUNTY DEVOTIONAL PAGE

"Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creation: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." - 2 Corinthians 5:17

When I was about five years old, I had a pair of green jeans that was my favorite pair of paints. I wore those jeans so much that eventually a hole developed at my right knee. Interestingly, a few days later, it happened that I had received an iron-on patch out of a Sugar Smacks cereal box. The iron-on patch was of the frog that was on the front of the cereal box. Well, my mother, knowing that her little boy loved his green jeans, took the patch and ironed it over the hole. As a result, I was able to wear those green jeans until

I grew out of them, thanks to my mother's patchwork.

Many people handle life that way. As we travel through the rugged terrain of life experiencing all of the hardness. We eventually develop holes in our lives. Immediately, we have the tendency to try to do patchwork, or to look for someone else who has a professional degree to patch us up. You see patchwork is only temporary. Eventually the patch will either wear out or tear from the original. So when we exhaust all human efforts to patch up our lives understand that the patch will eventually run its course just to show that the hole in our lives is still there. Understand that you cannot fix your past, a counselor cannot fix your past, and even

It's not patchwork!

God will not fix your past. However, God in mercy and grace can make you free from your past. You see the way God does it, is not by patchwork, but by creating you a new life in His Son, Jesus Christ.

In our verse it is clear that the one who is "in Christ" by faith is a "new creation." All the old raggedy things of our sin nature are passed away, and "all things are become new." The Bible speaks much of this newness. For example, the believer is given a "new heart" and a "new spirit" (Ezekiel 36:26). The believer is given a "new name" (Revelation 3:12), as well as new clothes. The new clothes are called, "the garments of salvation" and "the robe of righteousness" (Isaiah 61:10). This "new creation" is also called "the new man" (Ephesians 4:24).

Do you realize that if we try to mend ourselves with patchwork, then we would have patches all over us? Patches on our head, because of sinful thoughts. Patches over our eyes, because of the perversions we see. Patches over our mouths, because of foul speech. Patches on our hands, because we reach for sin. Patches covering our feet, because we follow sin's pleasure. Dear soul, are you tired of being covered in patches only to know that the holes in your life are still there? Then come to Christ for newness and leave the patchwork

Are you singing the lunchtime errand blues?

Many of us in the workforce find ourselves performing the condensed "sprint" version of the marathon endured by hapless soccer moms. Yes, now that my wife is working full-time and meeting her at home for lunch is not an option, I am spending a lot of noon-ish hours juggling a quick meal and rapidly multiplying The old-timey dinner bell once soothed the soul by announcing the arrival of a significant respite; but now the clanging would merely make modern Americans realize, "I forgot-I've got to grab a taco and vote on the noise abatement ordinance."

If breakfast is the most important meal of the day, then lunch is the redheaded stepchild of meals.

Even in the era of online transactions and same-day delivery, most of us can quite easily assemble a checklist of chores such as renewing a driver's license, paying property taxes, depositing a check, signing legal documents, returning a defective product, picking up prescriptions, brightening the day of nursing home patients, lifting that barge, toting that bail...

("Sorry I got a little drunk and landed in jail, officer. Just get me back to the office by 1:00, and we're good. I'm tired of livin' but scared of gettin' docked by Ol' Man Rivers in HR.")

The trips would be less nerve-wracking if it were easier to plan for contingencies such as traffic jams, malfunctioning credit card machines and long lines of mouth-breathers who COULD conduct business at any time of day but choose to do it during OUR narrow window of opportunity.

A simple trip to the Post Office can be particularly problematic. You MIGHT zip in and out, OR you could wind up in line behind the joker who tells the clerk, "No, I don't need to mail anything today. But I've been saving up my money for 70 years and want to do my patriotic duty by paying off the national debt. Are pennies okay? One...two... three..."

Undaunted, I even manage to incorporate funeral home visits into my lunch schedule. I always try to maintain proper decorum while paying my condolences, but some clock-watchers might get into a pinch and cut corners.

This typically manifests itself in statements such as "Just let me snap a photo and I'll text you later to critique how natural Bertram looked" or "She's in a better place, which reminds me I need to get some Royal Caribbean brochures on the way back to the factory" or "At least he's not suffering anymore, and neiwill move the hearse so I can get to the chiropractor."

I know there's a temptation to call all this the "rat race," but the rats don't NEED to race. They just waddle over and scarf up all the pizza, doughnut crumbs, etc. that humans drop as we navigate repair shops, charity drop-off sites and library book returns.

Our lifestyle can't be healthy, unless you think it's healthy to hear someone exclaim, "Hey, I think all my good gut bacteria wound up in my big toe when I entered the parking lot on two wheels!"

At least if you complete your appointed rounds without experiexult, "I'm tired, but it's a good tired."

Unless...

"Wait, I forgot to drop off that school permission slip for my redheaded stepchild! Atomic batteries to power, turbines to speed!"

NOTICE OF INTENT TO REQUEST RELEASE OF FUNDS

Date of Notice: January 27, 2022

Name of Responsible Entity: Marshall County

Address: 1108 Courthouse Annex

City, State, Zip Code: Lewisburg, TN 37091 Telephone Number: (931) 359-1279

On or about February 15, 2022, Marshall County, will submit a request to the Tennessee Housing Development Agency for release of HOME funds under Title II of the Cranston-Gonzalez National Affordable Housing Act of 1990, as amended, to undertake a project known as 2021 Marshall County HOME Program for the purpose of: improving housing conditions for lowto-moderate income persons within the corporate boundaries of Marshall County with estimated funding of $500,000.

The activities proposed are categorically excluded under HUD regulations at 24 CFR Part 58 from National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) requirements. An Environmental Review Record (ERR) that documents the environmental determinations for this project is on file at 1108 Courthouse Annex Lewisburg, TN 37091 and may be examined or copied weekdays 8 A.M. to 4:00 P.M.

PUBLIC COMMENTS

Any individual or group, or agency may submit written comments on the ERR to the Mayor Mike Keny 1108 Courthouse Annex Lewisburg, TN. All comments received by February 14, 2022 will be considered by Marshall County prior to authorizing submission of a request for release of funds.

ENVIRONMENTAL CERTIFICATION

Marshall County certifies to the Tennessee Housing Development Agency that Mike Keny in his capacity as Mayor of Marshall County consents to accept the jurisdiction of the Federal Courts if an action is brought to enforce responsibilities in relation to the environmental review process and that these responsibilities have been satisfied. The Tennessee Housing Development Agency's approval of the certification satisfies its responsibilities under NEPA and related laws and authorities and allows Marshall County to use Program funds.

OBJECTIONS TO RELEASE OF FUNDS

The Tennessee Housing Development Agency will accept objections to its release of funds and the Marshall County for a period of fifteen (15) days following the anticipated submission date or its actual receipt of the request (whichever is later) only if they are on one of the following bases:

- a) the certification was not executed by the Certifying Officer of Marshall County;
- b) Marshall County has omitted a step or failed to make a decision or finding required by HUD regulations at 24 CFR Part 58;
- the grant recipient or other participants in the development process have committed funds, incurred costs or undertaken activities not authorized by 24 CFR Part 58 before approval of a release of funds by the Tennessee Housing Development Agency; or
  - another Federal agency acting pursuant to 40 CFR Part 1504 has submitted a written finding that the project is unsatisfactory form the standpoint of environmental quality.

Because the grant award year Project will involve activities at several scattered sites for which the exact location will not be known for some time, an environmental review strategy has been developed including Site Specific Checklists, to assure that the required environmental review is completed for each site. If environmental factors are identified as having an impact on the project or any of the specific project sites, they will be addressed on a case by case basis.

Objections must be prepared and submitted in accordance with the required procedures (24 CFR Part 58, Sec. 58.76) and shall be addressed to the Tennessee Housing Development Agency, Andrew Jackson Building, Third Floor, 502 Deaderick Street, Nashville, TN 37243, Attention: Community Programs Division. Potential objectors should contact the Tennessee Housing Development Agency to verify the actual last day of the objection period.

The Honorable Mike Keny Mayor of Marshall County

NFL must change OT rules

That a weekend of playoff football.

In a season without one true dominant team, the divisional round of the NFL Playoffs treated fans to some of the most exciting football in years.

The first three games of the weekend all came down to walk-off field goal kicks.

That set the stage for perhaps one of the greatest NFL games in history in Sunday night's weekend finale between the Buffalo Bills and Kansas City Chiefs.

It's no secret there's a bit of a rivalry brewing between the Chiefs and the Bills and that's centered around quarterbacks Patrick Mahomes and Josh Allen.

These two teams are likely poised to run the AFC East and West for years to come.

Allen got started in the postseason by embarrassing the New England Patriots with just about as perfect as an effort as one can give at quarterback.

The Bills scored on every drive in the Wild Card round and Allen completed 21-of-25 passes for 308 yards and five touchdowns.

As crazy of a stat as it is, he had more touchdown passes than incompletions.

Mahomes, like Allen, got off to a white-hot postseason start with a 30-of-39 effort for 404 yards and five touchdowns.

These two are playing on another level.

So it seemed only logical that the weekend playoff nightcap would be a dandy.

Boy was it. With both of these gunslingers playing at such a high level, it quickly became evident this game would go down to the wire.

After a back-andfourth three quarters, and a 26-21 Kansas City lead, it was Allen who hit Gabriel Davis on a 27-yard touchdown pass with 1:54 left in the fourth quarter to ignite a firestorm of offense.

The Chiefs answered 52 seconds later when Tyreek Hill caught a pass from Mahomes on a short drag and streaked 64 yards, burning the Bills' defense to put Kansas City up 33-29.

Dagger, right? Not a chance. Allen answered just 49 seconds later on a 19-yard pass to Davis to once again put the Bills up by three with just 13 seconds left. Game over, right?

No way with Ma-

A pair of quick passes moved the Chiefs well into field goal territory and Harris Butker connected on a 49-yard field goal to split the uprights to force overtime.

In the final two minutes, the two teams combined for a ridiculous 28 points.

Even more ridiculous, from the final two minutes and into overtime,

Mahomes threw for 177

Capps signs with UT-Southern

By Chris Siers sports@t-g.com

A history-making season that saw both Marshall County cross country teams qualify for the TSSAA Class A-AA state meet also saw a pair of senior leaders sign their letters of intent to continue their college career.

Krew Capps will join teammate Lydia Molina and will attend UT-Southern in the

"It's pretty exciting. I didn't know I was going to do cross country in college, but Coach (Justin) Watson gave me a chance. Now that I have the chance to do it, I'm really excited," Capps said.

Capps, along with Molina, were the senior leaders that led the Marshall County to the state meet and while their efforts on the course typically had the runners as the top finishers for the school, it was their leadership qualities that made their impact on the program.

"They meant a lot. Both of them were our No. 1 runner. They're a great loss for our team, but I know our underclassmen are ready to step up and fill their shoes. They're great leaders. They were always at practice and always did everything they were supposed to do. They went above and beyond outside of practice and were just role models for our kids within our building, too," Marshall County coach Heather Denton said.

UT-Southern coach Justin Watson was also excited to sign the Marshall County duo and have them be an immediate impact on the Firebird programs.

For Capps, his path that got him started may have been a rocky one, but eventually the sport became his calling which landed his career path

"It was seventh grade year. I was a trouble kid and my punishment was running. I Krew Capps signs his letter of intent to continue his running career at UT-Southern.

realized I was good at it and I kept going. Six years later, it's just my passion," he said.

That passion led him to a 44th-place finish in the state meet, which he completed in 17:57.

Capps turned in a thirdplace Region 6 A-AA finish in 17:57 as well.

While runners typically can point to a specific race as their favorite running memory, Capps says the way the Tigers came together to qualify for the state meet was the most memorable to him.

"This season, it was making state for the first time in school history. It was amazing really. The whole season, the whole team put in a lot of work for it and once we got there, it was just a great experience," he said.

In addition to joining Molina, former Tiger cross country runner Zach Shepard also runs for UT-Southern.

"It's very exciting for the program. Zach Shepard signed last year and they're going to the same school he went to.

"It builds up the program and gives us some momentum within our school to hopefully help us recruit the halls. That's our goal for next year is to get some more kids involved in our program," Denton said.

For Watson, finding the Marshall County duo was a perfect fit for his roster in Pulaski.

They fit like a glove. Our teams are small and young. Typically, you don't expect freshmen to come in and be front runners, but that's exactly what I expect out of them,' he said.

While runners compete in 5K races in high school, that distance jumps up to 8K and 10K races at the collegiate level—a challenge Capps is looking forward to.

"It's a lot more running, but I'm ready for it," he said.

Capps plans on studying criminal justice and hopes to one day become a detective.

Capps was the Tigers' leader all season long, with highlights that included a third-place finish in the Region 6 A-AA meet and a 44th place finish in the Class A-AA state meet.

Ellie Luce makes it official and signs her letter of intent to play softball for Columbia State.

Dream realized: Luce picks Columbia State

By Chris Siers sports@t-g.com

A lifelong passion and dream became reality recently when Ellie Luce signed her letter of intent to continue her softball career at Columbia State Community College.

"A lot of nerves are happening right now. I'm really excited. I've worked since I was four to get to this position. I've just worked nonstop, my entire life, towards this position," Luce said.

After playing in a camp and a tournament on campus, Luce knew when the coaching staff reached out during the recruitment process that Columbia State was her calling. When they reached out to me and it just felt right to go there. I had a tournament

there and a camp there. It just felt like home," Luce said.

While new Marshall County coach Amy Bonner hasn't officially coached Ellie Luce on the field, the new Tigerette skipper has been around enough softball to know a gem of a player when she sees one. "I think the thing I like about Ellie the most is she's just an athlete. She has the mind and physique of an athlete. She's one of those girls who is a leader on the team. She's out there to win games. I'm excited to see what she year," Bonner said.

can contribute as a senior this As a player, Luce has become the utility player the Tigerettes can plug in at virtually any position to fill a need on any given day. "I think it will be depending and she would be OK. She's a good player. I think it depends on what their team needs. She could easily step into different roles they would need as well," Bonner added. From the moment she hit her first run as a freshman, to the cusp of her senior year, on what they need as a player.

For us, we can put her at almost any position on the field

Luce has put in the time and has collected all of the memories, including the one of her first round-tripper. "I had worked really hard to get there. It was probably when I was a freshman. I had just been waiting for it and it was so exciting," she said. Now and accomplished hitter, Bonner thinks Luce is just knocking on the door of her potential.

"From what I've seen, and I've had limited time with her so far, I think she's hitting the tip of the iceberg as far as her potential as a player. I think she will do well in college and I think she has a whole lot of potential in front of her," Bonner said.

With the stresses of finding her college path finalized, Luce says now she can focus on the upcoming season.

Following in her family's footsteps, Luce has a passion for helping people and plans to pursue a nursing degree.

"So far, I'm leaning towards nursing and that factors in with my dad because he was a nurse. I just really like helping people and it's always been what I wanted to do," she said.

Rockets pick up key 7-AA win

By Chris Siers sports@t-g.com

CHAPEL HILL — In what's shaping up to be a fairly even-keeled District 7-AA race, the Forrest Rockets (8-10, 1-2) picked up a key win on Monday night over visiting Grundy County in a 55-53 thrilling victory. As of late, Rocket head coach Shane Chapman has preached to his team about finishing everything in practice, with the hopes of translating into game situations.

"That's been our thing lately is finishing around the rim, finishing drills, finishing practices and trying to translate it to finish games.

"Grundy County (11-7, 1-2) is a good team. We're in a good district. There's no clear-cut front runner. I just preached to my guys about how Grundy beat Community, who beat Cascade. It's a hodgepodge of teams in the district," Chapman said.

From the opening tipoff until the final buzzer, neither team was able to truly build a sizable lead over the other.

Aside from an 18-13 Grundy County lead early in the second quarter, the game stayed a 1-2 possession contest, which set up some lategame drama.

With the Rockets clinging to a three-point lead with 46 seconds left in the game, Grundy County came up with a steal and fired a 3-point shot that missed off the corner of the iron.

After an ensuing scrum under the rim left the Yellow Jackets with a pair of missed shots, the Rockets finally came up with the handle, forcing Grundy County to foul.

In the following 30 seconds, the Rockets knocked down 2-of-4 free throw attempts, which proved to be enough to hold on for the slim victory, despite a last-second Rocket foul.

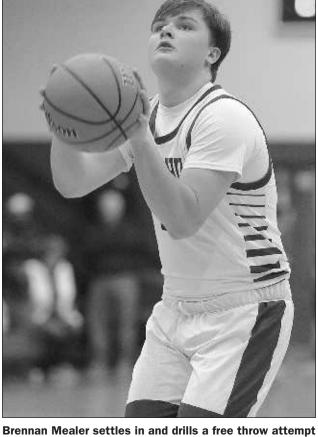

With :00.6 seconds left on the clock, Grundy County's Jr. Crisp was fouled and sent to the line, where he missed the front end of a pair of free throw attempts, but was able to connect on the second.

After in-bounding the ball, the buzzer finally sounded to officially give the Rockets the victory.

In the second half, the Rockets got key baskets from Brennan Mealer, who finished the game with a team-high 13 points, including nine in the second half.

"We've talked to him all year long about needing to knock down that big-time jump shot. He did that tonight. Last week, he didn't shoot it very well, but he came in and put some work in. He hit some big time shots when we needed them," Chapman said.

Chapman was also high on his team's defensive effort and the impact the Rockets made on the glass.

"The guys stepped up really well on the defensive end and did a pretty good job on the boards. We're a little undersized, we just have to get in there and work hard." he said.

Mealer led three Rockets in double figures, with Deason Jones and Davin Porter each chipping in 12.

With the race for the 7-AA crown a muddled mix among the four district teams, Chapman hopes the close victory over the Yellow Jackets is the shot in the arm his team needs on the second trip through the 7-AA slate.

"Super proud of a team effort. Everybody from the guy that keeps the stats, to my assistant coach, to the guys making free throws down the stretch, everybody jumped in and did exactly what they were supposed to do and I couldn't be more

Lady Rockets outlast Grundy Co. rally

By Chris Siers

sports@t-g.com

CHAPEL HILL — After visiting Grundy County whittled away a 13-point Forrest lead in the fourth quarter, the Lady Rockets (7-11, 2-1) had to find a way to close out a District 7-AA victory over the Lady Yellow Jackets.

That's just what they did in Monday's 56-54

Even with a few miscues down the stretch and Grundy County (6-11) who shot an extremely efficient percentage from the perimeter, Lady Rocket coach Hal Murrell was pleased with his team's ability to close out a close game.

win. It was the first time we've been in a situation where we had to execute to close out the game," he said.

The game was truly a tale of two halves for the Lady Rockets, who came out of the gates on fire and built a 19-12 lead by the end of the first quarter.

"It was a tale of two halves, kind of like Jekyll and Hyde. I thought in the first half, there

While both teams struggled in the second quarter, the second half was a seesaw affair that saw the Lady Yellow Jackets rally for 23 in the fourth frame.

As a team, Grundy County connected on nine 3-pointers in the contest, but Forrest was also efficient at the arc and connected on seven treys.

Carlee Smartt and Kaylee Smartt each connected on four treys and led Grundy County in double figures, but Forrest also proved effective on the perimeter

'Our execution on the offensive end wasn't great, but a lot of that has to do with them,"

Still, the Lady Rockty combine for 34 points to lead six players in the scoring column.

The Smartt duo led Grundy County with a combined 35.

Forrest will look at the sweep over Grundy County on Friday in Coalmont.

"There's a lot of things we can look back at on the film and say we can be better. It's going to be hard when we go down there Friday night," Murrell said.

Have your 2022 resolutions faded? 5 tools to jumpstart them

(StatePoint) If it's time to jumpstart the resolutions you made at the beginning of the year, consider these five tools to make them more attainable:

1. Mix it up. Finding it hard to consume the daily recommended servings of fruits and vegetables? You're not alone. Only one in 10 Americans do, according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. A high-quality blender can make getting your fill of these fundamental food groups easy and delicious. For example, the Ninja, one of the more notoriously powerful machines on the market, allows you to whip up smoothies and juices using whole fruits and vegetables to ensure you extract the most nutritional benefit from each of your ingre-

2. Touch and go. Learning to play music is easy and fun when you opt for an instrument designed to help you master skills, fast. Offering touch responsive keys that light up as well as a compatible app that can assist you in your learning journey, Casiotone keyboards feature tools that can keep you motivated to continue expanding your knowledge.

3. Walk it off. Stay in shape using wearable tech that will encourage you to keep setting bigger and bolder goals. The G-Shock, a smartwatch with a step tracker, uses a three-axis acceleration sensor that begins counting steps the moment you start to walk. This data can help motivate you to increase your daily step count and meet the recommended 10,000 steps per day. With some models offering heart rate monitoring and training analysis, you'll soon be well on your way to keeping your promise to make the most of your resolutions.

4. Sleep tight. If getting more sleep was on your 2022 to-do list but you're finding it difficult to actually put this goal into action, use an app such as Sleep Cycle to improve your nocturnal habits. Its sound library will ease you into sleep. It also tracks you over night and presents a deep-dive analysis into the quality of your shuteye, along with guidance for changing your routine where needed.

5. Rainy-day prep. Make this the year you finally create a budget that allows you to save for the future. With a reliable printing calculator, you can print out and attach financial planning documents to show the progress of your savings and keep an organized log of monthly income and expenses. For this purpose, consider the HR-170RC from Casio, a mini desktop printing calculator with a big easy-to-read display, two-color printing and the ability to check and correct up to 150 steps.

Creating new habits is never easy. To help you stick the landing on all your goals, turn to tools that are designed to help.

'Spider-Man' comes back swinging, takes No. 1 from 'Scream'

By LINDSEY BAHR

AP Film Writer

After spending one weekend in second place, "Spider-Man: No Way Home" proved it still had some fight left. Sony's superhero juggernaut swung back to first place in its sixth weekend in theaters and became the sixth highest grossing film of all time, globally.

The film topped the North American charts with $14.1 million, according to studio estimates on Sunday. Globally, it's now grossed nearly $1.7 billion, passing the total earnings of both "Jurassic World" and "The Lion King." And in North America its $721 million make it the fourth biggest release ever.

Peter Parker also stole first place back from " Scream," which about 59% — a typical drop for a horror— in its second weekend with an estimated $12.4 million in ticket sales. The Paramount release has grossed $51.3 million so Universal and Illumination's "Sing 2" landed in third place in its fifth weekend, with $5.7 million. The animated title has earned $241.2 million worldwide.

There was little competition for the holdovers to contend with this weekend. The only two fresh offerings nationwide in theaters were comparatively lower-profile releases: "The King's Daughter," a fairy tale with Pierce Brosnan that was filmed in 2014 and held until now (it bombed with $750,000 from over 2,000 locations), and "Redeeming Love," a faithbased historical romance with Nina Dobrev that cracked the top five with $3.7 million.

"This is a very slow weekend," said Paul Dergarabedian, the senior media analyst for Comscore. "January is typically not a big month for box office. It may be a while before we have another big breakout hit, but once we do the floodgates may open."

Estimated ticket sales for Friday through Sunday at U.S. and Canadian theaters, according to Comscore. Final domestic figures will be released Monday.

7. "American Underdog," $1.2 million. 8. "The King's Daughter," $750,000.

Hot Lady Hornets complete sweep over Forrest end of the period as the canned both free throws.

By Anthony S. Puca Sports Writer

CHAPEL HILL — The Huntland Lady Hornets are having a big year and they came to Chapel Hill Thursday night riding a sevengame winning streak and winners of 13 out of their last 14 games.

Forrest and Huntland have played for many decades, with the rivalry always a spirited on.

That was the case once again as the Lady Hornets came away with a 62-47 win.

Bailey Morris led Huntland in the scoring column with a gamehigh 16 points while Jacy May added 13 points, Logan McLennan netted 11, Kami Riley eight, Ashton Danley and Morgan Sanders had six points apiece, and Marley Phillips added a deuce.

Morris and May also went 7-for-10 from the free throw line and McLennan made 5-of-6.

Macyn Kirby led the Lady Rockets with 15 points, nailed a pair of 3-pointers, and went a perfect 5-for-5 from the free throw line.

Cadence Chapman scored all 10 of her points in the second half while Kinslee Inlow had seven, Megan Mealer six, Ryann Lewis added four points, Addison Bunty netted three, and Carli Warner had one field goal. The Lady Hornets jumped on Forrest quickly, starting the game with an 8-0 run before an Inlow 3-pointer got the Lady Rockets on the board with 3:47 remaining in the first quarter. Back-to-back 3-pointers by Morris and McLennan made it a 14-3 contest. Kirby scored on a put-back and made one more free throw at the Lady Hornets held an 18-6 lead after the first minutes.

Huntland kept pushing forward as they went up by 14 points after a Sanders 3-pointer that was answered by a Kirby trey, but from there Huntland outscored Forrest 9-6 for the remainder of the first half and led 31-17 at the break.

The Lady Rockets came out of the locker room on fire with Chapman scoring in the low post and Kirby scoring five points on a 3-pointer and a drive to the hoop, cutting the Huntland lead to 35-24.

Lewis came alive with a bucket in the low post and a free throw moments later to make it a 10-point game. On Lewis' second free throw that was off the mark, Chapman grabbed the rebound and was fouled.

slicing the Huntland lead to single digits at 37-29.

Riley made one of two from the free line for Huntland before Bunty scored to make it a seven point contest. The Lady Hornets added three unanswered points to go up by double digits once again, but Mealer made two free throws at the end of the period and the Lady Rockets trailed 45-37, entering the fourth quarter. Chapman scored in the paint to cut the Huntland to six points on the first possession of the stanza and both teams dug in for a battle with the Lady Rockets trailing by seven points at 49-42 after a Mealer basket.

The highly ranked lady Hornets kicked in to high gear from there as they outscored Forrest 7-0 to double up the lead to 14 points with three minutes to go in the game.

Am Inlow 3-pointer staved them off for a second before Huntland iced the game with a 6-2 run to complete the season sweep over the Lady Rockets.

The fifth-ranked Lady Hornets also won 45-40 at Eagleville Friday night to improve to 18-4 on the season while the Lady Rockets (6-12, 1-2) bounced back with a 56-54 District 7-AA victory over Grundy County (7-10, 2-1) Monday night at Chapel Hill.

Hornets hang on to beat Rockets

CHAPEL HILL — After back-to-back district losses, the Forrest Rockets hosted longtime rival Huntland Thursday night in a non-district matchup at Chapel Hill.

The contest was neck-and-neck most of the way with the biggest lead of the game coming at the very end as the Hornets outlasted the Rockets 56-48.

Braylin Phillips had a huge game for the Hornets, scoring a game-high 24 points and he turned in a solid 8-for-12 performance from the free throw line.

Eli Wiggs and Zeier

Golden were also in double figures for Huntland with 14 and 10 points respectfully.

The Hornets shot 23 free throws in the contest, making 13 while the Rockets managed just three charity shots and converting one for a 12-point difference from the free throw line.

Titans just one piece from being Super Bowl contender

By Chris Siers sports@t-g.com

On a weekend of divisional football in the NFL playoffs, there were upsets and thrillers galore.

But one of those losses might hurt a little more on second thought.

All season long, the Tennessee Titans found a way to be resilient in the face of adversity and were able to piece together a patchwork roster for months at a

The Titans set a NFL record 91 different players who appeared on the active roster this season.

From injuries to COVID-19 protocols, the job head coach Mike Vrabel and general manager Jon Robinson did during the regular season was nothing short of remarkable.

The Titans locked up their second-straight AFC South title and perhaps more importantly secured the No. 1 seed in the AFC.

This seemingly set the stage for the Titans to make a Super Bowl run, as Derrick Henry was given a fullgo after being sidelined since October with a Jones Fracture in his foot, which required surgery.

That extra week gave the Titans a little more time to get all the offensive weapons healed up and primed for a three-game run to Pasadena to play for the Lombardi Trophy.

That didn't happen and the Titans were given a hard dose of reality into the current status of the team and what's handicapping them from truly being Super Bowl contenders—Ryan Tannehill.

Ryan Tannehill has never been a top-tiered quarterback who would throw for 5,000 yards and 40 touchdowns, that's just not who he

But rather at his best, Tannehill has shown he has to manage the game, get the ball out on time, and protect the football.

It's not his game and it never will be.

It's clear the AFC is moving towards a very high-octane style of play and if the Titans are going to be contenders during this window of postseason appearances, it's time to make a deal and go get a quarterback who can compete with numbers that Mahomes and Allen are posting on a game-by-game basis.

Whether it's a deal with Russell Wilson or maybe even Aaron Rodgers, there has to be a quick movement from Tannehill if the Titans want to make a Super Bowl before the core of this team moves on.

Big Papi elected to HOF; Bonds, Clemens, Schilling left out

By JAKE SEINER

AP Baseball Writer

David Ortiz gazed at his phone, his pursed lips revealing nerves rarely seen from one of the game's great clutch hitters.

Martinez's hand rested on Ortiz's shoulder, and Martinez grinned when the good news came through. The former teammates embraced, and Martinez welcomed Ortiz into a rare space in baseball history. Big Papi is bound for Cooperstown — and on the first ballot, too.

Ortiz was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in his first try Tuesday, while steroidtainted stars Barry Bonds and Roger Clemens were denied entry in their final year under consideration by the Baseball Writers' Association of America.

Ortiz, a 10-time All-Star over 20 seasons mostly with the Boston Red Sox, was named on 77.9% of ballots, clearing the 75% threshold needed for enshrinement. He's the 58th player inducted in his first time up for consid-

"Man, it's a wonderful honor to be able to get in on my first rodeo," Ortiz said.

Big Papi was among baseball's most recognizable faces through the 2000s and 2010s. His enormous grin endeared him to fans, but the Dominican's hulking frame menaced pitchers, especially in the late innings. Three of his 23 career game-ending hits came during Boston's drought-breaking 2004 postseason, when the Red Sox thwarted the rival Yankees and then won their first World Series title in 86 years.

He's the fourth Hall of Famer born in the Dominican Republic, joining Juan Marichal,

Martinez and Vladimir

"I can imagine how New England has to feel about one of its babies getting into the Hall of Fame today," Ortiz said. "I'm not even going to tell you about the Dominican Republic."

The left-handed hitter was signed by Seattle as a teenager and traded to Minnesota as a minor leaguer. He made his major league debut with the Twins in 1997 but hardly looked like a future Hall of Famer there. He was released in 2002, signed by Boston and slugged 31 homers the next season.

Ortiz said he joined the Red Sox to learn what made stars like Martinez, Manny Ramirez and Nomar Garciaparra great. Martinez helped pave the way, encouraging firstyear general manager Theo Epstein to sign the 6-foot-3 slugger.

"Once I figured it out, it was going to be a wrap," Ortiz said. "That team was surrounded by so many superstars, and I went in there like a sponge ready to learn."

Martinez became a mentor for his countryman. Now, they share the honor of being firstballot inductees.

"I feel so proud to have been your teammate, to have been your brother, to have been someone there for you when you needed me," Martinez said. "I'm so glad I have you in my life. "Well deserved," he added. "Welcome to Cooperstown."

WORK THAT EXCEEDS YOUR EXPECIATION

Ortiz batted .286 with 541 home runs with Boston and Minnesota while making 88% of his plate appearances as a designated hitter, the most by anyone in the Hall. He passes Edgar Martinez, who was a DH for 71.7% of his plate appearances.

Ortiz also has performance-enhancing drug baggage, but enough voters looked past a reported positive test that came during survey testing in 2003 that was supposed to be anonymous. Ortiz has denied using steroids, and Commissioner Rob Manfred said in 2016 "I think it would be wrong" to exclude him from the Hall of Fame based on that lone test.

"I never failed a test, so what does that tell you?" Ortiz said.

Ortiz will be enshrined in Cooperstown, New York, on July 24 along with era committee selections Buck O'Neil, Minnie Miñoso, Gil Hodges, Tony Oliva, Jim Kaat and Bud Fowler.

Bonds, Clemens, Curt Schilling and Sammy Sosa were all rejected in their 10th and final year on the BBWAA ballot. Bonds is MLB's career home run leader and Clemens won a record seven Cy Young Awards, but voters denied them the game's highest honor over allegations they used PEDs. Bonds got 66% of the vote, and Clemens was at 65.2%.

"My family and I put the HOF in the rear view mirror ten years ago," Clemens said on Twitter. "Hopefully evervone can now close this book and keep their eyes forward focusing on what is really important in life."

Schilling's support dropped off sharply after he finished 16 votes shy in 2021. Many voters chose not to back the right-hander due to hateful remarks he has made in retirement toward Muslims, transgender people, journalists and others.

Schilling asked the Hall to remove him from this year's voting, but he remained an option. He was named on 58.6% of ballots, down from 71.1% last year.

"I say it every year and especially this year, focus on who did get in," Schilling tweeted. "@davidortiz deserved a 1st ballot induction! Congratulations my friend you earned it! #bigpapiHoF"

Bonds, Clemens, Schilling and Sosa are done on the BBWAA ballot, but they will be considered again next year by the Today's Game era committee. The 16-person committee of Hall members, executives and veteran media members will convene in December to consider players who played between 1988-2016 and are no longer eligible for BBWAA selection.

"Not having them join me is hard for me to believe," Ortiz said of Bonds and Clemens. "Those guys did it all." Among other first-timers on the ballot, Alex Rodriguez and Jimmy Rollins got the most support.

Rodriguez won three MVPs and hit 696 homers, fourth most of all time, but also has PED use clouding his case. He was banned by Major League Baseball for the entire 2014 season after violating the league's drug policy. Voters named him on 34.3% of ballots.

Rollins, a four-time Gold Glove winner with Philadelphia, appeared on 9.4% of ballots and was the only other firsttimer to earn the 5% necessary to remain under consideration. Joe Nathan, Tim Lincecum and Ryan Howard were among 10 one-and-done players.

The only others to earn more than 50% support were third baseman Scott Rolen (63.2%, up from 52.9%), first baseman Todd Helton (52%, up from 44.9%) and reliever Billy Wagner (51%, up from 46.4%). Outfielder Andruw Jones also made gains, rising to 41.1% from Next year's ballot will introduce a new wrinkle of controversy when Carlos Beltrán joins the list. The nine-time All-Star was implicated by MLB in the Houston Astros' 2017 sign-stealing scandal before the 2020 season and was let go as manager of the New York Mets. Beltrán is likely to be joined on the ballot by John Lackey, Jered Weaver, Jacoby Ellsbury and Francisco Rodri-
