"Keep Marshall County Clean" a success

Marshall County Solid Waste led the charge to "Keep Marshall County Clean" on Saturday, April 23rd as part of a larger "Great American Clean Up" project. Sixty volunteers gathered at Rock Creek Park then disbursed throughout the county to clean up roadways and park areas. Teams from Lewisburg, Cornersville, Chapel Hill and Marshall County collected a grand total of 3,200 pounds of trash. " I can't say enough what a great day Saturday turned out to be with our clean-up efforts," said Marshall County Mayor Mike Keny. "We had volunteers of all ages from all over the county come together to help make our entire county better. Picking up 3200 pounds of litter and trash is an amazing first step in helping keep Marshall County clean, but it's really sad we have people who litter in the first place and make a day like this necessary. " I tip my hat to Dave Hunter, Nolan Bone, all our folks at Solid Waste, our committee members and all the volunteers for all their hard work in making this day a tremendous success." The county plans to host more of these events, but in the meantime it is important that all community members help to do their part and please

Marshall County Historical Society to meet

The Marshall County Historical Society will meet Sunday, May 1, at 2:00 p.m. in the museum at Hardison Annex, 230 College Street. An interesting program is planned with Johnny Rickman of Tullahoma making the presentation on three of his family's heirloom letters.

Johnny is no stranger to Marshall County. He grew up in Chapel Hill, graduated from Forrest High School, and has deep roots in many of the county's oldest families. A talented musician and songwriter, he may be best recognized as part of the trio "us two and him", a group that has entertained hundreds of audiences nationally over the past 50 years. graduated Johnny from Martin Methodist Junior College and MT-SU and began a 30-year career with the Tullahoma City School System where he taught physical education and coached junior high and middle school basketball and track. He was also a licensed realtor for 21 years and worked with Joe Orr, another Marshall County native. Johnny's leadership skills were exemplified as he served as president of the Tullahoma Noon Rotary Club, the Forrest High School Association, Alumni and the Tullahoma City Schools Education Association. He and his wife, the former Barbara Wisner, are active members of Grace Baptist Church in Tullahoma and are the proud parents of three children and seven grandchildren. In the

the local television show "Conversations John and Pat" where he and his friend Patrick Welsh discuss various topics, mostly dealing with history.

On May 1, John's conversation will focus on three letters, two written prior to the Civil War and one during the war. One letter dated 23 February 1843 from St. Augustine, Florida, is from Joseph Brittain Boyd to his father, Col. Aaron Boyd, at Riggs Crossroads. Another letter was written about 1849 from E.Z.C. Judson to Col. Boyd and holds surprising historical significance. The third letter was written 17 July 1864 from Thomas H.M. Hunter, a soldier in camp near Atlanta, to Cleopatra Robinson of Chapel Hill. These letters mention other family members and prominent folks of Marshall County. Mr. Rickman will have other letters on display for the crowd to enjoy.

The meeting is open and free to the public. membership Annual dues of $20 will be taken at the meeting. Come early and browse the museum.

Commission makes appointments

By Scott Pearson Associate Editor

The Marshall County Commission dealt with a long and routine agenda at Monday night's monthly meeting.

Commissioners approved members and alternates for the county's Board of Equalization.

The board, among other duties, hears appeals and ensures fair values for new assessments after the county's reassessment for property tax purposes.

Notice will be published in the Marshall County Tribune ten days before the board begins

The commission was scheduled to appoint a successor to John Daniel Allen, who stepped down from his seat representing the 6th District on the Marshall Coutny School Board.

Mayor Mike Keny informed the commission that there had been no letters of interest submitted to fill the seat, and that Allen, per the rules for appointments, had asked the County Clerk prior to the meeting to be considered.

Commissioners unanimously re-appointed Allen to the 6th District seat.

Keny announced that there were finally dates set for the opening of the new county Health Department building on War Eagle Drive.

After years of discussion and planning, the new facility is scheduled to open on May 16, with an official ribbon cutting ceremony on May 19.

The commission approved several budget amendments accounting for new revenue received or transferring funds within departments.

Also approved were annual contracts between the county Solid Waste Department with the cities of Columbia, Spring Hill, and Elkton, and Giles County to handle recyclable materials. The commission also voted to approve the annual dead stock removal contract that has been handled through the South Central Development Agency. The future of the service is under some threat, Keny informed the commission, as SCTDD is waiting on grant approval that will determine if the agency can fund the service. Cost of the annual contract, which removes dozens of farm animals for disposal each year, has already increased 10 percent as proper disposal is becoming more difficult due to landfill closures.

Lewisburg, TN – April 20, 2022 - Lewisburg Electric System has received national recognition for achieving exceptional electric reliability in 2021. This makes the 6th consecutive year that LES has received recognition from the American Public Power Association (APPA), a trade group that represents more than 2,000 not-for-profit, community-owned electric utilities. APPA helps electric utilities track power outage and restoration data through its subscription-based eReliability Tracker service. Once per year, APPA's Reliability Team compares this data to national statistics tracked by the U.S. Energy Information Administration for all types of electric utilities. "Once again, public power utilities have demonstrated their commitment to providing highly reliable power to their customers." Said Alex Hofmann, APPA's Vice President of Technical and Operation Services. "We commend these utilities for their hard work when it comes to keeping the lights on in their communities." Nationwide, the average public power customer has their lights out for less than half the amount of time that customers of other types of utilities do. "We are proud to receive this recognition. It is a testament to the hard work of all our staff to ensure that we keep Lewisburg powered," said Brad Medley, General Manager at Lewisburg Electric System.

State turns to court after ex-House aide refuses subpoenas

By Jonathan Mattise Associated Press

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Tennessee's attorney general is taking the one-time chief of staff of a former House speaker to court after he refused to comply with subpoenas in the investigation of a shadowy political action committee.

Attorney General Herbert Sla-tery asked a Nashville judge late last week to order Cade Cothren to explain why he shouldn't be held in contempt of court for not obeying the subpoenas in the investigation of the Faith Family Freedom Fund PAC. Cothren worked for Rep. Glen Casada before both resigned their top leadership roles in 2019 amid scandals.

Cothren's attorney has informed state campaign finance regulators that he is invoking his Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination. The attorney general's filing says Cothren's team hasn't cited sufficient reasons to do so.

Ahead of the 2020 GOP primary election, the PAC attacked then-Rep. Rick Tillis, who is the brother of North Carolina U.S. Sen. Thom Tillis. Rick Tillis lost to Republican Rep. Todd Warner, who was among those subject to FBI searches at the legislative building and other addresses in January 2021, alongside Casada, Cothren and ex-Republican Rep. Robin Smith.

In federal court, Cothren and Casada have been implicated in an alleged political consulting kickback scheme involving a different political entity that has prompted the guilty plea of another former lawmaker. Last month, Smith resigned and then pleaded guilty to wire fraud in the alleged scheme.

Federal authorities say Smith, Casada and Cothren collaborated on the separate consulting firm, Phoenix Solutions, as a way to funnel money to themselves secretively and illegally through both campaign and taxpayer-funded work. Prosecutors have so far kept Casada and Cothren unnamed and haven't charged them with anything, but they described the two in easily identifiable terms in court documents.

Some fellow GOP House lawmakers have said they feel betrayed after Smith talked them into using the vendor. Prosecutors said the three claimed the firm was run by a certain "Matthew Phoenix." In fact, it was Cothren using an alias because they feared lawmakers and the office of his successor, Speaker Cameron Sexton, wouldn't use the vendor if Cothren's involvement came to light, prosecutors allege.

Sexton, who has said he is cooperating in the investigation, was among those who testified along with other lawmakers in front of a grand jury last

Casada and Cothren had been pressured into resigning as speaker and chief of staff in 2019 over swirling scandals, including revelations they exchanged sexually explicit text messages about women years

The Tennessee Registry of Election Finance, meanwhile, has referred its probes about the Faith Family Freedom Fund PAC to the Williamson County district attorney's office.

The registry decided to reopen an earlier probe into the Faith Family Freedom Fund after the PAC's treasurer testified in January that she is Cothren's former girlfriend and she opened the PAC at Cothren's request. She said Cothren asked her to, saying Cothren assured her she was doing nothing wrong. She said she took no further action.

Cothren informed the registry in February that he would invoke his Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination and wouldn't abide by subpoenas for evidence and testimony in an investigation surrounding a political action committee, saying they were "made in bad faith and are an abuse of process."

In its legal filing last week, the attorney general's office wrote that Cothren hasn't provided information to support those claims. The state's filing further argues Cothren's objections aren't sufficient to disobey the subpoenas and that he can't give a "blanket" assertion of invoking the Fifth Amendment.

Casada, who was also subpoenaed, has told the registry he wasn't involved with the Faith Family Freedom Fund.

Casada announced in November that he wouldn't run for reelection this year, and would instead run for Williamson County clerk.

Mamas, don't let your babies grow up to be brainless

By Danny Tyree

Millions of young women dream of being honored on Mother's Day.

Millions of others know in their hearts that they don't want to have children, or at least not on someone else's timetable.

Many in both groups run the risk of someday facing an unplanned, unwanted pregnancy.

Society assures us these women always had only three choices: get an abortion, endure 18 years of servitude or go through an emotionally wrenching adoption. There is another option for these women (and their "lovers"): be proactive and consider displaying a little common sense upfront. Rape, incest and those doggone substandard condoms are the usual scapegoats when an unintentional pregnancy develops; but those statistics are vastly overrated. Let's be honest: we see hundreds of thousands of

"surprise" pregnancies year after year after year because (a) people are "dating" under the influence of alcohol, drugs or intense peer pressure, (b) women shack up with lowlife bums who molest their daughters and (c) couples take stupid, stupid shortcuts.

There. I said it.

Singers, movies, television, Madison Avenue, social media, teen magazines, college "sex weeks" and politicians are constantly telling impressionable, procreation-capable individuals that impetuous choices have no real consequences. ("Hey, let's cross 'Boys will be boys' with 'Girls just wanna have fun.' What could possibly go wrong?")

We recognize "buzzed driving" as drunk driving; but bedhopping while bombed? "Go ahead, You Only Live Once. But be responsible. (Wink wink)"

Some feminist leaders treat self-control and delayed gratification like The Solution That Must Not Be Named. They want women to be empowered, but how much power do you wield when José Cuervo is calling the shots?

There is great power in providing the egg or sperm that could become a human being. But with great power comes great responsibility.

If Hollywood, hormones and fair-weather friends are all urging you to do the same thing, there's a 99 percent probability that it's a bad idea.

I can't think of a single civilization that wound up on "the right side of history" by promoting unbridled hedonism. Can you? The Sexual Revolution has produced immeasurably more bitter regrets, bad karma and carnage than the French Revolu-

No one has ever died of spontaneous combustion simply because they decided not to be alone with a member of the opposite sex while stoned, depressed or on the rebound.

This column is not an attempt to shame anyone for misjudgments they have already made. It is not a critique of the pros and cons of recent abortion laws. It is not a declaration that we can/should become a nation of celibate monks and teetotalers.

It IS a fervent prayer that at least one person will have the guts to block impaired judgment and sex from being allowed in the same ZIP Code.

Whether you are an influencer only under your own roof or your reach extends to the media, public office or service organizations, please think about what I've written.

Every child deserves to be loved and wanted, but we'll never achieve that if parents and civic leaders continue living vicariously through intoxicated daredevils in heat.

We can't keep treating the symptoms of risky behavior without addressing the causes.

We all want our children to grow up and get good jobs, but we need to put less emphasis on the vocation and more on the growing up part.

While working for an airline years ago, one of my responsibilities was to make sure that passenger who set in the emergency exit row was both willing and able to open the emergency exit door and assist other passengers safely out in the unlikely event of an emergency. The requirements were that the person must be both willing and able. Now a little grandma in a wheelchair may be willing, but obviously not able. Therefore she was disqualified. A strong healthy athlete may be able, but not willing to take the responsibility. Therefore he or she

Have you ever thought how horrible and hopeless it would be to have a God who wanted to help, who would like to help, who desires to help, but did not have the power to do so. How awful it would be for God to be willing to give us His Son to die for our sins, but He did not have the ability to apply His blood to cleanse us from all our sins.

This world is full of spiritual toxins, which is poisoning the minds of the people with a false concept about God. It is toxic to think that God did not make a person either male or female (Genesis 1:27). It is toxic to think that God is trying to help humanity - if we would just let Him. It is toxic to think that God is doing the best He can. It is toxic to think that God gets tripped up by the devil. Such descriptions disqualifies God to be our Savior, and that is certainly not the God of

At the end of our scripture it says, "the LORD will do great things," which means that the LORD is the Almighty Sovereign God who meets the qualifications of being both willing and able. He is not waiting, not worrying, nor wondering what to do, but rather He has a great plan and He is fulfilling great things right in the face of all the evil toxins in this

I don't know about you but I need a Sovereign God who is both willing and able to do great things in my life for His glory. I need a God who knows me - better than I know myself. I need a God who is not waiting on me, but is eternity ahead of me. I need a God who makes His promises sure. I need a God who is both willing and able to perform what He has promised. That's the kind of God I need! How about you? Thankfully there is a God like this and it is the LORD God of the Bible. No other god will do!

Conservation District celebrates Earth Day

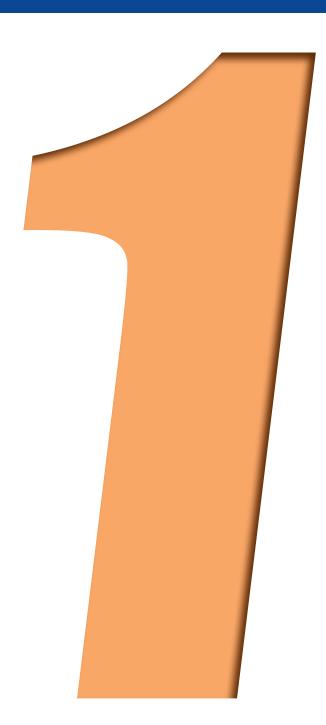

Earth Day is an annual event celebrated on April 22. Worldwide, various events are held to demonstrate support for environmental protection. First celebrated in 1970, Earth Day now includes events in more than 193 countries, which are now coordinated globally by the Earth Day Network. In celebration of Earth Day, the Marshall County Soil & Water Conservation District provided each 1st grade class in the county "Where Would We BEE Without Pollinators" booklets, posters, and packets of wildflowers seeds to promote the importance of pollinators. The District also made $100 donations to the Cornersville High School FFA and the Forrest High School FFA agriculture programs, and provided pollinator posters to all county schools upon request. The Marshall County Soil & Water Conservation District is very proud to be able to help further conservation education to the county's students in celebration of Earth Day.

Dream realized: Jones inks with Bethel

By Chris Siers sports@t-g.com

Forrest senior Deason Jones has always had a dream of college basketball.

With his recent college signing, that dream has become a reality as the Rocket senior has signed his letter of intent to continue his college career at Bethel University.

"It's everything to me. I've wanted this ever since I was a kid. I can't thank Coach (Shane) Chapman and everybody enough for helping me along the way. I couldn't have done it without them. It's an awesome feeling. It's a huge weight off my shoulders knowing I can go play college basketball," Jones said.

A never-quit mentality and a dedication to the game helped Jones make contact with the Wildcat coaching staff and after a visit to campus, the rest was history.

It was Bethel assistant Jonathan Stanley that headed up Jones' recruiting process.

"He (Stanley) actually reached out to me. He was like, 'We would love to have you.' and asked if I'd like to visit. I knew that's where I wanted to be. I visited and I loved it. A week later, I received my scholarship," Jones said.

Nobody knows what Jones can bring to the table more than For-

"For him to be able to handle a little bit of adversity and adapting to different coaching has been a good attribute. he's had," Chapman said.

"His floor-management skills will be greatly missed from our ball club. He brought a lot of stability on the offensive end and on the defensive end, was able to direct traffic and get people in spots to be productive.

That's what we're going to miss more than anything," Chapman

It wasn't just the X's and O's of the game that made Jones stand out, but the effort and determination playing on the court as well.

"He plays the game really, really hard. I think he averaged 28 minute a game. He was always on the floor. He played hurt and things like that. He was really, really clutch coming down the stretch. I'm proud of the opportunity he's going to get at Bethel. He will have an opportunity to show what he's made of and it will be a good test for him," Chapman added.

From his earliest days of playing from when he first picked up a basketball to now on the verge of being a collegiate basketball player, Jones has made his living playing point guard and while the college game is definitely a different animal than high school-level competition, Chapman feels that Jones' neverquit mentality will carry over to the next level.

"Size wise, it's going to be tough, but I think he's got a big heart. It's kind of the story of our team. We didn't have the most size, but we had a lot of heart, a lot of effort and a lot of grit. Deason brings those things to the table. A year or so of maturity will help him find the game and the game will grow and he will grow with the game," he said.

"If he works hard like I know he's capable of, I think he's got a bright future."

"I want to study education and pretty much be the next Shane Chapman, but maybe further it and be a college coach one day," he said.

While he won't report to campus until August, he will get to enjoy the normal freshman experience until he steps on campus and then, he'll get to work on the

"I get to be pretty much a normal student and come in at the normal time, but once I get there, it's time to get to work," he said.

LEWISBURG — On a night honoring their five seniors, everything went the Tigerettes' way as Marshall County dominated Spring Hill in a 16-1 blowout victory on Tuesday night.

Prior to the first pitch, the Tigerettes honored seniors Ellie Luce, Jessa Lancaster, Mallorie Wooten, Taylor Pickle and Olivia Wooten.

The seniors came through on their night and went a combined 6-for-11 at the plate, with four runs scored and a combined seven

Following a scoreless second inning, Spring Hill put a runner on base via Tigerette error in the third, but Pickle was able to pitch to contact and got a fielder's choice and a fly out to end the inning. And then the monster

Pickle went 2-for-3 and also knocked in three runs.

Woodward Mallory and Jahna Meadows-Richardson added two runs apiece as well.

The night was a marquee celebration of a senior class that despite having to adjust to a new coaching staff, found a great relationship with first-year coach Amy Bonner.

"I consider it such an honor to have had the opportunity to coach this group of seniors this year. I'm so proud of everything they have accomplished and how much they have grown as young women. They are incredibly talented on the field, but I re-

CHAPEL HILL - The Forrest Lady Rockets completed the season sweep over Cornersville Tuesday night at the Field of Dreams in Chapel Hill, but it wasn't easy as the Lady Bulldogs scratched and clawed to the end before falling 11-7.

"Our hitting was good but we will go home and we won't make it far in district, region, substate and even state if we play like that," Forrest coach Shelby Lightfoot said. "It just depends on who we want to be, but defensively and pitching, we didn't

Forrest had 12 hits as sophomore Christa Warren led the way with a 3-for-4 performance at the plate, including two home runs and five ${
m RBIs}.$

"It felt good knowing I brought in those runs we needed," Warren said. "I just knew I had to do something for my team because Cornersville played really good and it was a battle."

Brilev Burnham, Parker Wales, and Jenna Goodman all had two hits apiece for the Lady Rockets while Macyn Kirby, Carli Warner, and Sarah King all had one base knock each.

Julie Williams started in the circle for Forrest and picked up the win, tossing the first four innings and left the game with a 7-3 lead.

"Julie had a rough first inning and then she really settled down," Lightfoot said. "We decided the third time through we were going to put Ella in, but the only issue there was a lot of speed and that probably played right into their hands because they see a lot of speed in their district."

Cornersville had nine hits in the contest as Emma Ward had a big stick with a two-run home run in the third inning and a two-run double in the top of the seventh inning.

Jayli Childress, Anna Wood, and Alicia Polk all had two hits apiece for the Lady Bulldogs while Carmen Ward had one hit and it was a big one as she laced a tworun triple in the top of the seventh inning that cut the Forrest lead to 11-7 before the final out was recorded.

There was no scoring until the bottom of the second inning with Forrest scoring twice before Emma Ward's three-run dinger in the top of the third gave Cornersville an early 3-2 lead.

Forrest came up with a five-run bottom of the fourth inning, with Warren driving home three on her first long bomb and Wales and Maggie Daughrity drove home one run apiece.

Ella Chilton came to the circle for Forrest to start the top of the fifth inning and worked her way out of a bases loaded. two-out iam.

Burnham drilled an RBI double off the leftfield fence and Wales drove home a run in the bottom of the frame to make it a 9-3 contest before Chilton set down Cornersville 1-2-3 in the top of the sixth inning.

Kirby walked to lead off the bottom of the sixth before Warren drilled a home run over the center-field fence to make it 11-3.

"I thought Christa had a great BP (batting practice) today and her BP's have been getting better," Lightfoot said. "Hats off to her. If you know her, she is in the weight room every single day and even when she miss-hits the ball, she still has the power

Christa Warren slams a three-run home run in the bottom of the fourth inning for the first of her two long bombs in to get it out of here."

Chilton got the first two outs in the top of the seventh before the Lady Bulldogs rallied with four runs on four hits and a walk with the big blow coming on Carmen Ward's two-run triple into the right field corner.

Chilton induced a ground ball out to Kirby at shortstop to end the game and extend Forrest's winning streak to four in a row over the Lady Bulldogs.

"Ella has to do a better job and our outfield has got to cut some balls off. We are giving up too many extra bases and fumbling the ball around a lot," Lightfoot said. "I think all the way around you get a little relaxed having that big lead, but Ella wasn't hitting her spots and getting ahead in the count like she usually does and she didn't have that attack mentality. So we have to play no matter what the score is and be prepared for every at bat and every play."

Emma Ward slams a two-run home run to put Cornersville in the lead 3-2 in the top of the third inning.

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Special Olympians return to competition for 1st time in 3 years

Athletes who participated in the Special Olympics of Marshall County on Saturday make their way, led by the Olympic flame, in the parade of contestants.

Participants in the Special Olympics wave at spectators as they make their way through the parade.

LEWISBURG—When the COVID-19 outbreak began in the spring of 2020, sports were put on hold for essentially all of the world.

While the vast majority of the sports world has relatively returned to normal, only recently have Special Olympics athletes been able to return to competition.

For the first time in three years, the Marshall County Special Olympic Games were held at Westhills Elementary School.

Saturday's Special Olympics welcomed athletes ranging in age from 8 to 99, who competed in events including softball throw, javelin throw and

Athletes also competed in track events including the 50-meter dash, 100-meter dash, 200-meter dash and both standing and running long

First-year area director Sara Poarch, like so many of the volunteers and athletes, was excited to welcome the Games back following the threeyear hiatus.

"We were most excited just to see the athletes again. Some of the athletes, coaches and volunteers have been with the organization for 10-to-20plus years. We consider each other friends and family, so it was incredibly hard to not be able to see each other and compete," Poarch said. In addition to dealing with the sheer absence of games, the organizers and volunteers had to consider many of the participants and volunteers have health issues, which puts them in the high-risk category.

While the 2022 Games saw a slight downtick in participants from the 2019 Games, the turnout was still a positive as athletes finally returned to competition.

"We had 30 athletes at this year's Games, which is less than in 2019, but we were expecting that. We moved the event to a Saturday instead of the Friday it had been on for the last 10 years or so in hopes that more families and volunteers could attend the event, which they did," Poarch said.

"We also know that some of our athletes have compromised immune systems and are still exercising caution even now. I hope that next year we progress even further so that all our athletes can be there safely with us and their families. We want to add more events and grow as a delegation so that we can offer even more to our Special Olympics community"

morning's Saturday Games began with a parade of participants being welcomed back, followed by the opening ceremonies, which included the Special Olympics motto administered by Patrick Moore, the Pledge of Allegiance, which was led by Noah Kidd and the presentation of Athlete of the Year by Marshall County Mayor Mike Ke-

Michael Hughes was named as the Athlete of the Year, which is given to an athlete that embodies sportsmanship and the Special Olympics motto, "Let me win, but if I cannot win, let me be brave in the attempt.

Hughes has participated in the Special Olympics for the better part of 19 years and has competed in golf, track and field, volleyball and basketball.

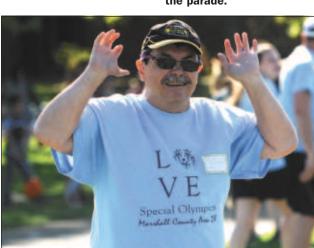

"The pandemic has been incredibly hard for us all, but Michael never let us forget that there was hope and that he couldn't wait for the games to begin again. Each new season, he would ask for updates on each sport and ask how he could help. He truly embodies the spirit of Special Olympics, which is why not only will he be receiving the Athlete of the Year award, but for the next year, he will also be joining our Board of Directors to advise us on the athletes' perspective on our programming," Poarch said.

Following the award presentation, Mayor Keny officially declared the Games open and athletes were able to return to competition after an extremely long three-year

Saturday's top competitors earned their trip to the state Games, which will be held at David Lipscomb University in May. Twelve track athletes and eight bocce players will join six volleyball players, who will represent Marshall County next month at Lipscomb.

The Marshall County Olympians will join thousands from across the state in competition and with the coaching and support staff, Poarch has a feeling there will be several medals returning with the athletes back to Lewisburg.

"We are looking at thousands of athletes from Memphis to Nashville to Knoxville all competing. Our athletes are no slouches and normally rack up an impressive medal count for Marshall County, and I have every confidence they will do that again this year," she

In addition to the time put in by the volunteers to help organize and run the events surrounding the Special Olympics,

Apex Bank organized a fundraiser drive titled "Change for Special Olympics," which en-couraged donations to be made from area schools, including Chapel Hill Elementary, Delk Henson and Forrest High School.

In the first year in return to competition, $1,734 was raised to support Special Olympics of Marshall County.

With the Lewisburg Olympic Games in the books, qualifying athletes now turn their attention to the state Games, which will be held at Lipscomb on May 20 and 21.

Noah Kidd leads spectators and participants in the Pledge of Allegiance during the opening ceremony on Saturday.

Bulldogs beat Fayetteville in dramatic fashion

By Chris Siers sports@t-g.com

CORNERSVILLE -A see-saw sixth and seventh inning on Tuesday night saw Cornersville come up with some late-game magic as Peyton Cherry scored the game-winning run on a wild pitch and the Bulldogs downed Fayetteville, 8-7.

In the Bulldog seventh, Wesley Pigg led off the inning being hit by a pitch and Sellars followed him on base with a single to left.

Schillig loaded the bases with a walk and with nobody out, Cherry was hit by a pitch to score the first run of the inning.

Cherry ran into trouble in the fourth inning as a single and a walk put runners at first and second then an error by the Bulldogs allowed both runners to score to make the score 8-0.

The bottom of the fourth saw the Bulldogs begin to claw their way back into the game as Wesley Pigg drew an opening walk, Sellars singled to deep short and Cherry helping his own cause doubled to left to score Pigg as pinch runner Kale Adcox raced to third base.

Adcox scored and Trenton Walker, who pinch ran for Cherry, advanced to third when Jones threw a wild pitch to make the score 8-2.

Following back-toback walks to Beau Shillig and Kristan Malone with the bases

The bottom of the fifth saw the Bulldogs tie the game as Blaine Woodard opened by being hit by a pitch, Lovell singled, Mason Calahan singled scoring Woodard, Pigg walked and Sellars brought them all home on a doubled to left field to make the score 8-7.

Cherry was once again in the spotlight as his hard-hit ball to shortstop was misplayed for an error and Sellars raced home to tie the game at 8-8.
