

Tribune photos by Scott Pearson

Seventeen residents elected to the Marshall County Commission in August take their oath of office from Chancellor J.B. Cox at ceremonies held last Wednesday, August 31. The commissioners and the other county-wide elected officials officially began their four year terms. Commissioners taking the oath are: First District Dean Delk and Craig Blackwell, Second District Joseph Warner and Debbie Hill, Third District Anna Childress and John McCullough, Fourth District Mickey King and Ken Lee, Fifth District Tony Beyer and Terry Dunnivant, Sixth District Sheldon Davis and Cannon Allen, Seventh District Seth Warf and Keith Hollingsworth, Eighth District Jeff Poarch, and Ninth District Glen White and Nathan Johnson. One seat from the Eighth District will appear on the November ballot. For more photos from the Marshall County ceremony, turn to Page 6 of today's Marshall County Tribune.

County, Lewisburg swear in officials

By Scott Pearson
Associate Editor

With local general elections wrapped up and certified, the county and municipalities have turned to the swearing in of the victorious candidates, beginning their terms of service.

Marshall County officials gathered last Wednesday, August 31, at the Dixie Theatre so that the new commission and county-wide office holders could take their oaths of office.

General Sessions Judge Lee Bussart

complemented County Mayor Mike Keny for the “pomp and circumstance” added to the ceremony by the new location.

Four years ago, the same event was held in the Commission Room in the Courthouse Annex, a much more crowded and less suitable venue considering the significance for the next four years in the county's life.

Along with the new location, additional elements were added to the program.

Kyle Bolton of Church

Street Church of Christ and Brad Holliman of First United Methodist delivered the opening and closing invocations, asking for wisdom and guidance for the elected officials.

The Marshall County High School Concert Choir performed the national anthem and a group of youngsters led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Chancellor J.B. Cox and Bussart delivered the oaths to the incoming officials, photographs of which are included in today's Marshall County Tribune.

Lewisburg Mayor Jim Bingham was joined by four of his grandchildren as he took the oath of office for another term of mayor on Tuesday at city hall. Judge Lee Bussart delivered the oaths of office to the mayor and three council members, two of whom are new to the council, prior to the monthly work session. For more photos of the Lewisburg ceremony, turn to Page 3 of today's Marshall County Tribune.

Photo submitted

This year's Marshall County High School Homecoming Court (pictured here on 80s dress up day at school) is, pictured from left: Diya Patel, Cara Cheek, Erianna Greer, Coco Allen, Kayla Keiler, Dorian Haislip, Lucy-Lee Hewuse, Autumn Sweatt, and T'myah Cannon. The Tigers take on Hillwood High School next Friday after a week of homecoming activities.

It's Tiger Time - MCHS Homecoming 2022

Marshall County High School will celebrate Homecoming on Friday, September 16, with the theme of It's Tiger Time.

The MCHS Student Council has planned a great week of activities for the week of September 12-16, including:

Sunday evening students will decorate the halls and hang banners.

Monday is presentation of the queen and court in the gym.

Tuesday is a volleyball tournament during Tiger Time and Assembly Time, with a possible movie night still in the works.

Wednesday is powderpuff at Preston Hopkins

► See MCHS, Page A3

Cornersville fest this weekend

By Scott Pearson
Associate Editor

Cornersville looked forward to a fun Saturday in town at their monthly meeting last Thursday. The town events committee briefed the aldermen on the Main Street Music Fest coming to Town Park on Saturday from 5 to 10 p.m.

The free event features three live music acts; Full Circle Band, The O'Donnells, and Steve Nieves.

Food trucks will be on site for dining or treats and a full range

► See Fest, Page A3

Household hazardous waste collection in Marshall County Saturday

The Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation (TDEC) mobile household hazardous waste collection service will be in Marshall County on Saturday, Sept. 10.

Tennesseans are encouraged to bring household hazardous waste – including cleaning fluids, pesticides, rechargeable batteries and more – to a designated drop-off location. A person does not need to live in the county to participate.

The drop-off location is at Marshall County Solid Waste, 611 Hawkins Dr., Lewisburg, from 8 a.m. until noon.

“We are pleased to provide this opportunity to dispose of household hazardous waste properly,” TDEC

► See Waste, Page A3

NEED TREASURES? CHECK THE TRIBUNE CLASSIFIEDS !

NATURAL GAS

SAFE, RELIABLE & AFFORDABLE ENERGY

- ★ Connect your backyard grill for convenience and ease during grilling season.
- ★ Cook entire meals in the convenience of your own backyard.
- ★ Relax and enjoy without the worry of empty tanks.

NO TANKS – NO WORRIES

Call today for more information!

505 North Ellington Pkwy.
Lewisburg, TN 37091
931-359-4016

www.LewisburgGas.com
CALL BEFORE YOU DIG!