Chapel Hill Mayor Mike Faulkenberry signed a proclamation Monday night designation the week of September 17 through 23 as Constitution Week in the town. Saturday, Sept. 17, is the 235th anniversary of the signing of the Constitution and, each year, the Daughters of the American Revolution strive to educate and remind the nation of the importance of that document.

Outstanding 4-H'ers this year are:

4th Grade: Alivia Lohr, Bo Brewer, Kylee Hitchcock, Makaylee Bishop, and Katie York.

5th Grade: Lena Deuermeyer, Maisy Stewart, and Lillian Amonette.

6th Grade: Savannah Davidson and Matthew Brindle

The Continuing Service Award was awarded to Will Beasley, Jude Strasser, Karlie Lohr, Natalie Pasetti, Joshua Sullivan, and Hannah VunCannon. These youth exhibited leadership, participated in, and promoted 4-H throughout their communities.

Lastly, the "I Dare You" Award went to youth who demonstrate personal integrity and are emerging leaders in the community. The "I Dare You" award can only be received once in a 4-H'ers career and this year it was given to Elizabeth Beasley and Joseph Johns.

An important part of the 4-H banquet is initiating new members into the State 4-H Honor Club. The State 4-H Honor Club is a recognition program where youth can be honored and recognized for their 4-H project work, goal setting, community service and character building. Any youth in the 6th-12th grade can become a member of the State 4-H Honor Club through an application process. This year, Marshall County initiated six new members into the State 4-H Honor Club, Elizabeth Beasley, Karlie Lohr, Joshua Sullivan, Matthew Brindle, Jude Strasser, and Earlen Heaton.

4-H would not be possible without the support from teachers, volunteers, and sponsors in the county. These supporters were given recognition and their support is always appreciated. The following volunteers were honored were, Deborah Foster, Emily Gordon, Joe Boyd Liggett, Morgan Luna, Rebecca Karban, Chase VunCannon, Shelby Lohr, Ross Strasser, and Linda Prince. Teachers that were recognized were from Cornersville Elementary, Diane Owens, Connie Campbell, and Carla Caldwell. From Westhills, Jessie York and Micah Anderson. Lastly, sponsors that graciously donated money or resources to the 4-H program this year were, Marshall County Farm Bureau, Lewisburg Farm Center, Marshall County FCE, Marshall County JEDCB, Henry and Pat Dowlen, Nash Family Farms, Glenn and Helen Woodard, Ken and Melanie Jordan, Jonas and Jason Gillespie, and Frank Kilpatrick.

The staff at the UT Extension office are proud of these 4-H'ers and grateful for those that have made the Marshall County 4-H program successful this year. If you are interested in learning more about 4-H you can contact Kaylee Layton at 931-359-
