Christine (Quindal Lane) Strong

Christine (Quindal Lane) Strong, 83, of Murfreesboro, TN passed away on Thursday, Oct. 13, 2022. Mrs. Strong was born in Marshall County, TN. She was the daughter of the late Walter and Madie McAdams of Lewisburg, TN. She had one brother, the late Bill C. McAdams of McDonough, GA.

Christine is survived by her husband of twenty-nine years, Leslie H. Strong; her children: daughter, Jennifer Lane Adams and her husband, Tony of Moore Haven, FL; son, Andy Lane and his wife, Lisa of Knoxville, TN; daughter, Lori Lane Gran and her husband Richard of Murfreesboro, TN; son, Kurt Lane and his wife Heather of Christiana, TN; and stepson, Josh Strong of Southern California; and beloved nephew, Scott McAdams of Brownsville, GA.

Christine is also survived by nine grandchildren; Keith Adams, Beau Adams, Joshua Adams, Carrie Lane Savinell, Abby Lane Warren, Kacie Brown, Ethan Lane, Jillian Lane, and Laura Johnson; first great-grand child, Kirstyn Adams, and six other great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Strong was a retired teacher from the Rutherford County School District of Tennessee and the Arcadia School District of Southern California. She was a 1957 graduate of Marshall County High School in Lewisburg, TN. Mrs. Strong graduated from Middle Tennessee State University achieving B.S and Masters of Education degrees. She was a member of Kappa Omicron Phi, an honorary fraternity, NEA, REA, CEA, and TEA.

Christine was a loving, caring, and compassionate wife, mother, and friend to those who knew her. Her passion as an educator was beyond measure as she loved all of her students. She was fortunate to share a wonderful life with her husband, Leslie. They ventured living in California and Las Vegas before returning back to Murfreesboro to be near her children and friends, especially her longtime best friend, Ann Francis. Her lifelong dream to visit Ireland and trace her McAdams' roots became a reality in 2017 along with her daughters, Jennifer and Lori, granddaughter, Kacie, and family friend, Lori Fritz. Christine loved sharing her favorite restaurants with her son Andy, and taking road trips to reminisce on places from her past. She enjoyed spending quality time with her son Kurt by taking car rides throughout the beautiful countryside and attending church at Woodbury Road Baptist Church with him. Celebrating the Christmas season will forever be in our hearts as it was mom's favorite time of the year. She loved her Lord, Jesus Christ.

Memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society and/or to the MTSU Scholarship Fund.

A Celebration of Life will be announced at a later date followed by burial at Evergreen Cemetery in Murfreesboro, TN.

Deborah Jane Ervin

Deborah Jane Ervin, 72, of Lynnville, died Wednesday, Oct. 19, 2022, at Maury Regional.

She was a native of Marshall County, the daughter of the late Allen and Mary Elizabeth Hill Hickman. She was a retired school teacher at Richland and was a member of Robertson Fork Church of Christ.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her brother, Walt Hickman.

She is survived by her husband of 52 years, Bobby Ervin; one daughter, Deanna (Wesley) Jones of Lynnville; one grandson, Joseph Fox of Huntsville; one sister, Mariallen (Richard)

Finley of Lewisburg; nieces and nephews, Emily (Terry) Smith, Betsy (Jeremy) Burton, John Hickman, Heather Prier and Heath Hickman; two great nieces, Morgan (Ethan) Poteete and Lauren Hickman; one great nephew, Will Smith; and one great-nephew, Owen Poteete.

Funeral services were conducted Friday, Oct. 21, 2022, at 1 p.m. from the chapel of London Funeral Home and Crematory, 324 W. Church St Lewisburg, Tn 37091, with burial following in Mars Hill Cemetery.

Visitation with the family began Friday, Oct. 21, 2022, from 10 a.m. until the funeral hour.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Robertson Fork Church of Christ Building Fund.

London Funeral Home and Crematory assisted the family with the arrangements.

Study Club welcomes Peden

The Lewisburg Study Club gathered at Bethlehem Baptist Church on Saturday, October 8th, to hear Middle Tennessee author Peggy O'Neal Peden. After enjoying refreshments of assorted muffins, fruits, nuts, cheese and crackers, the members settled in to hear Ms. Peden speak about her mystery novels, all of which are set in Nashville.

The author was born in Smyrna and has had several connections with the Nashville country music scene. For example, her son went to high school with Hank Williams, Jr's daughter. Ms. Peden graduated from Lipscomb University and earned an MA from the University of Kentucky. She has taught English and writing at Lipscomb University and Brentwood Academy. She has also learned about Nashville as a local realtor and owned a travel agency. She has a connection to Lewisburg since her brother was an assistant manager at Lewisburg Gas Department for three years.

Peggy Peden's first book, Your Killin' Heart, was published in 2016 and won a first best mystery award.

Her second and third mysteries, Gone Missin' and Flyin' Solo, soon followed. The author related that she starts with part of a story and then develops the characters who take over the story.

The members of Lewisburg Study Club received bookmarks and country music singers' favorite recipe booklets as favors. Members Emma McElroy, Emily Gordon, and Elaine Davidson put together an excellent program. The November meeting will be on November 12 in the First United Methodist Church Parlor.

Halloween

Trail takes center stage with dozens of county businesses participating from 3 to 6 p.m. either at their locations or set up on the square in Lewisburg. Look for the orange balloons at participating locations.

Saturday evening all eyes turn to Cornersville and Halloween in the Park.

From 5 until 8 p.m., the center of town will be covered with trick or treaters, enjoying games, hay rides, and various contests.

Main Street will not close for the event so drivers are urged to use caution driving through town as always.

On Monday Halloween night, ghouls and goblins can get an early start on their haul with the Marshall County High School trunk or treat from 6 to 7 p.m.

These are just some of the many events going on this weekend.

Whatever you do this Halloween, have fun and be safe.

MARSHALL COUNTY
DEVOTIONAL PAGE

“The Holy Spirit indicating this, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing: Which was a figure for the time then present... Which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.” – Hebrews 9:8-10

October 31st is commonly known as Halloween. This popular holiday is celebrated with its candy and ghosts. However, this same day is also a special day because it is celebrated as Reformation Day. Reformation Day acknowledges its start at the time when Martin Luther nailed “The 95 Theses” on a church door in Wittenberg, Germany, disputing the over-reaching power of the Roman Church’s pope and clergy. It was on October 31, 1517, that the Protestant Reformation came to the forefront and began. This is what most Christians mean when they refer to the Reformation.

However, when God speaks of the reformation in the Bible, He is not referring to anything Protestant or Catholic. As we read in our opening scriptures, reformation is directly referring to the time when Christ came and fulfilled the Old Covenant and then instituted the New Covenant. The Lord Jesus Christ fulfilled the carnal ordinances imposed upon the Jewish people in the Law by the sacrifice of Himself. His blood sacrifice not only ended all animal sacrifices, but Christ’s sacrifice also put an end to all earthly priesthoods. Therefore the true reformation is the spiritual reality found in the New Covenant whereby God the Father set up His Christ (His Anointed) as the last and only High Priest (Hebrews 5:5,6,10).

The true reformation has nothing to do with Luther or Calvin, but the true reformation is where Christ came as the only sinless High Priest over the house of God in this better covenant called “a new and living way” (Hebrews 10:19-21). The true reformation is where Christ went into that greater, perfect tabernacle located in heaven, not made by men nor part of this world, but in the presence of God His Father. There Christ the High Priest brought before God His sinless sacrificial blood into that inner room, the Holy of Holies, located in heaven, and sprinkled it on the heavenly mercy seat making the full payment for all the sins of all His people once for all. The work of Christ secured the eternal salvation for all who will believe Him and receive

Him as their one and only sacrifice and their one and only High Priest. Consider how precious and powerful the blood of Christ is when it is Christ who presents His blood to God - as God’s High Priest! Such a sacrifice frees us from the condemnation of sin, while such intercession from our “one Mediator” (1 Timothy 2:5) frees us from the worry of ceremonial rites and rituals. Such freedom makes us want to worship the Living God by offering up “spiritual sacrifices” of thanksgiving (1 Peter 2:5). This is the one true reformation.

Tigers crush Montgomery Central after being away for a month

By Chris Siers
sports@t-g.com

LEWISBURG — It's been five weeks since the Marshall County Tigers last stepped foot on Preston Hopkins Field for homecoming against Hillwood, which resulted in a 45-7 victory for the Tigers.

After a month's worth of Thursday night road games, the Tigers (8-1, 6-1) picked up right where they left off in front of the Marshall County faithful with a 56-8 thumping of Montgomery Central (2-7, 1-6).

Tiger head coach Thomas Osteen preached to his team to use each week as an opportunity to get better and that's just what his team has done, regardless of the score or opponent.

"Our goal has been to get better each week, no matter the opponent and no matter the score. I think we used the weeks of practice and the games to get better. (I'm) happy we started fast and happy we played to our standard all night. Any time you can score in as many ways as we did, it makes you proud," Osteen said.

Marshall County certainly had its way with the visiting Indians, with junior quarterback Silas Teat tossing four, first-half touchdown passes and the defense adding two more scores as well.

The Tigers dominated from the opening kickoff and capped the game's opening drive on a 37-yard touchdown pass from Teat to sophomore Aja Jones.

After a three and out by the Indians, Teat again went to the air and struck with Jayden Randolph on a 32-yard touchdown pass.

With Teat answering the bell on the first two Tiger touchdowns, it was a strange sequence by the defense that landed Marshall County its third score of the quarter.

After the Indians attempted a backwards lateral pass that hit the turf, Trey Warner scooped the ball and headed for the end zone.

Just before crossing the plane of the goal line, Warner was tackled from behind and Darian Crenshaw jumped on the fumble in the end zone for the third score of the opening quarter.

The Tiger offense kept churning out points as Teat tossed two more touchdown passes in the second quarter—a screen pass to Antommie Cowthorn that went 53 yards and a 30-yard dart to tight end John Morgan Thomas.

Senior Tailback Demari Braden also scored from three yards out for the Tigers' only rushing touchdown of the night, while Jakavan Curry came up with the second defensive score on a 26-yard interception returned for a touchdown.

With a 49-0 lead at the half, the Tigers were able to work the majority of the reserves on the field in the second half and despite Indian running back Kade Davis scoring on a four-yard run with 10:51 left in the game, a pair of Tiger freshmen accounted for the final Marshall County score of the night.

Lavonte Addison (24) and Anthony Diaz (72) converge to make the stop for the Tiger defense.

Hightower caught three passes for 40 yards and a score, while Braden totaled 72 yards on 10 carries and a score.

"Happy those young guys got in the end zone. Tyler Thompson, a freshman, and Kel Hightower, a freshman, both of those guys have promising futures down the road," Osteen said.

Teat completed 6-of-9 passes for 169 yards and four touchdowns, while Braden totaled 72 yards on 10 carries and a score.

Jones caught two passes for 38 yards, while Cowthorn had the one grab for 53 yards.

Randolph also made the one grab for 32 yards, with Thomas adding one grab for 30 yards.

All four found the end zone.

Offensively, Marshall County cranked out 341 yards of offense, with 126 coming on the ground, while 215 came via the passing game.

Montgomery Central managed just 70 yards of offense against what's been a stingy Tiger defense.

Friday night's game marked the first time the Tigers played in front of a home crowd in a month.

"It's been five weeks since we've been here. I feel like we always play well here and that's why next week is so big. We want to win next week to see if we can get a home playoff game here," Osteen said.

With the two-game slate to close the regular season, all eyes turn to Friday night's regular season finale against Greenbrier because a win will secure a home-field playoff game in the opening round of the Class 4-A playoffs.

For Osteen and the Tiger program, it's been a fun season as the regular season comes to a close this week.

Other than the hiccup at Pearl-Cohn, the Tigers have built a flawless schedule with a respectable resume.

In the previous two games, Marshall County has outscored its opponents, 125-8, and with the Tigers appearing to be playing their best football of the season, all eyes are now on Greenbrier in the finale.

"It's the most fun bunch that I've coached in a long time. Anytime you're winning, it's fun. We've got a bunch of good kids and a bunch of good leadership in the senior class. I told the kids afterwards I'm selfish because I want to make this last as long as possible because that's how much fun the coaching staff and I are having," Osteen said.

Kickoff is set for 7 p.m. at Preston Hopkins Field.

Indian duo leads charge past Rockets

By Chris Siers
sports@t-g.com

CROSS PLAINS — A handful of shock plays from their star players allowed East Robertson to knock off the Forrest Rockets in Thursday night's non-region matchup.

The Indians (8-1) scored three touchdowns from 59, 72 and 80 yards to pull away for the 35-14 win over Forrest.

The Rockets (3-6) had chances to match the Indians' production on the scoreboard, but three scoreless trips inside the red zone ultimately proved costly in the loss.

"Our kids played hard. We have to put it in the end zone when get down there. We came out slow after that opening kickoff, but they responded in the second half. They had a character check at halftime and they came out in the second half and left it all on the field," Rocket coach Eli Stephenson said.

The Indians got on the board early and never let off the throttle after the speedy Zech Prince returned the game's opening kickoff 95 yards to put the home team up 7-0 following the successful kick after.

Forrest answered in short order with a steady mix of Liam Bell, Tayton Swift and Chris Davis pushed well into Indian territory.

But the seven-play drive eventually stalled after three-straight negative plays backed Forrest up to fourth and long.

After both teams were unable to score through the remainder of the quarter, Forrest again found itself on fourth down from the 11-yard line, where the Rockets attempted a field goal try, but the kick was blocked by East Robertson.

On the following play, Prince found a crease and streaked 80 yards to the end zone, bumping the Indians' advantage to 14-0.

After forcing a Rocket punt on the next possession, East Robertson struck again on another huge play, this time coming from Isiah Groves on a 59-yard run, giving the Indians a 21-0 advantage with 7:21 left in the half.

"They're athletic all over the field. They have kids that can really run," Stephenson said.

The Rockets again answered and moved the ball well on the Indian defense and this time, capped the 6:10 minute, 12-play drive with a one-yard quarterback sneak by freshman Ryan Hill to put the Rockets on the board.

Having seemingly captured the game's momentum, the quick-striking East Robertson offense went into hurry up mode and found the end zone with 15 seconds left on the clock when quarterback Collin Cook lofted a touch pass to the corner pylon to give the home team a 28-7 lead at the half.

The Rockets opened the second half with another clock-draining drive that Bell capped on a two-yard score with 6:28, cutting the lead to 14 points after Gavin Grissom's successful kick after.

Stephenson opted for an on-side kick, which Forrest successfully recovered on the following kick off and as with their three previous drives, the Rockets were able to move the ball well into Indian territory.

But a stop in the backfield on fourth and short forced a turnover on downs on the East Robertson 20-yard line.

Two plays later, Groves again found a crease and broke loose on a 72-yard touchdown run for the final score of the night.

The Rockets had a chance to cut into the Indian lead early in the fourth quarter, but three-straight penalties backed Forrest up from first and goal from the 10-yard line, to first and goal from the 25.

Forrest did press to the one-yard line, but a fourth-down, goal-line stand held the Rockets out.

The Indians did the bulk of their damage on shock plays courtesy of Groves and Prince.

Prince carried the ball 10 times for 162 yards and two touchdowns, including the 95-yard kickoff return.

Groves went for 165 yards on seven carries and two touchdowns as well.

In total, the Indians piled up 394 offensive yards with 352 coming on the ground.

Forrest wasn't without its heavy hitters, though.

Senior tailback Tayton Swift had 110 yards on 20 carries, while Bell had 71 yards on 17 carries.

"With kids that come out and give you everything they have, you can't ask anything more from them," Stephenson said.

While mathematically not impossible, the Rockets still have a shot at a Class 2A playoff berth, if all the cards fall their way.

Forrest needs a win in Friday night's regular season finale at Mt. Pleasant, plus help from a few other teams as well.

"We have to go in and play our game. We still have a slim chance at the playoffs. We have to win, but we have to have some help from some other teams. They're going to come out and be ready to play Friday because that's the character of the kids," Stephenson said.

Kickoff is set for 7 p.m. at Mt. Pleasant.

Bulldogs shut out in finale

By Dennis Holley
Sports Writer

LYNCHBURG — The Cornersville Bulldogs (2-6, 2-3) with their playoff hopes dashed by Wayne County last Friday night travelled to Lynchburg to take on the Moore County Raiders (7-1, 3-1) for the final game of the 2022 football season.

The Bulldogs found no sympathy from the hometown Raiders as a disastrous first quarter in which Moore County scored four touchdowns to put the game beyond reach for Cornersville.

Cornersville was without junior running back and defensive end Ben Franklin who did not play due to an injured hip.

The Bulldogs managed only two first downs against Moore County.

Quarterback Blaine Woodard gained 20 yards for a first down late in the first quarter and Khi Canty, filling in for the injured Franklin, twisted and turned and refused to go down for a gain of 32 yards in the second quarter.

The game began with Moore County electing to receive and Cornersville's Joseth Palma booting the ball to the Raider 19-yard line where Moore County's Dawson White gathered the ball in and raced up past mid-field to the Bulldog 36-yard line before being brought down.

On first down, Moore County's Logan Hegwood took the hand-off from White headed off-tackle, broke through the Bulldog line, and headed for the end zone with a minute and one second gone in the first quarter and Blake Bradford booted the extra point for the 7-0 Moore County lead.

Cornersville's Khi Canty received the following kickoff at the Bulldog 15-yard line and returned it to the 30-yard line.

The Bulldogs began play with Austin Cooper taking a Blaine Woodard handoff and trying the right side of the Raider line but was stopped with a three-yard loss.

An incomplete pass and Woodard's three-yard gain on third down brought up a fourth and 10 and Beau Schilig came in to punt.

Keller Morey signaled for a fair catch and the Raiders faced first and 10 at the Moore County 38-yard line.

White scrambled to avoid Bulldog tacklers, rolled out to his right and spied Morey along the sidelines and rifled a pass that the running back gathered in and outran the Cornersville defenders for a 62-yard touchdown.

A bad snap by Moore County followed and the Bulldogs dragged down the Raider kicker before he could convert the two-point conversion making the score, leaving the score at 13-0 with 9:21 left in the first quarter.

The Bulldogs again could not gain a first down and were forced to punt on fourth down, but disaster struck as Schilig's punt was blocked and was recovered at the Cornersville one-yard line.

From there White bulled into the end zone, but the two-point conversion was spoiled again by a bad snap and with 7:41 left in the first quarter Moore County led 19-0.

The Bulldogs' third possession again resulted in a three and out with Schilig punting and Morey fielded the ball at the Raider 45 and returning it to the Cornersville 43-yard line where Cornersville's Austin King made the tackle.

A straight hand off sent Hegwood bursting up the middle and the Raider running back raced up field, outrunning the Bulldog defenders for a 43-yard touchdown.

Bradford booted the extra point and Moore County led, 26-0 with 5:47 left in the first quarter.

The Bulldogs offense sputtered and again Schilig punted with the Bulldogs finally getting something positive as the ball rolled to the Raider 38-yard line.

On first down Hegwood was corralled for a loss back at the Moore County 25 and the hole was too deep for the Raiders and they faced a fourth down and the resulting punt only rolled to the mid-field stripe.

Cooper ran for five yards on first down then on second down Woodard found an opening on the right side and rambled to the Moore County 25-yard line and the first, first down, in the game for Cornersville.

Cornersville could not regain the momentum and on fourth down Woodard's pass was knocked down by Moore County's Wes Clifton and the Raiders took over at their own 32-yard line.

On first down Hegwood broke through the Bulldog line and once again outran the Bulldog defenders for a 68-yard touchdown and with Bradford splitting the uprights the Raiders upped their lead to 33-0 at the 10:47 mark of the second quarter.

Kale Adcox and Austin King combine to make a tackle for the Bulldogs.

The Bulldogs received the kick-off with King fielding the ball and being stopped at the Bulldog 20-yard line.

A Raider unsportsmanlike penalty on second down moved the ball to the Bulldog 38-yard line where on first down Khi Canty, displaying heart and determination, ran the ball to the Moore County 30-yard line for a 32-yard gain and a first down.

A holding penalty against the Bulldogs helped stall the drive and another Schilig punt set up Moore County at its own 23-yard line.

Three pass plays later at the Cornersville 23-yard line White found Alex Copeland in the end zone for a touchdown reception, again Bradford booted the PAT and with 5:08 left until halftime the Raiders led 40-0.

The Bulldogs could not move the ball and on fourth down the punt was partially blocked and the Raiders took over at the Bulldog 27-yard line and from there Hegwood raced to the Bulldog 10-yard line and a first and goal.

Moore County's Isiah Petty ran the ball in for a touchdown, but the kick after clanged off the left upright and the Raiders moved the lead to 46-0 with 2:00 until halftime.

The second half of the game saw Moore County playing the second stringers but Will Petty scored on a 15-yard run in the fourth quarter to complete the scoring and making the final margin.

Despite adversity the Bulldogs faced, from a new coach coming in late spring, an entirely new offensive and defensive line, and injuries to key players Riley Qualls, Mason Calahan, John Michael Jeter and finally Ben Franklin were just too much for Cornersville to overcome.

Regardless of the outcome the Bulldogs do have something to hold on to — Franklin totaled 920 yards and 10 touchdowns on 130 carries.

Woodard came into his own passing the ball after not being called upon to do so in his previous seasons.

Senior David Metcalf on defense made his presence known in every game, and Canty grew as a dependable ball carrier this season.

Receivers Beau Schilig, Kale Adcox, and Austin King will be back next year.

A year of growth and maturity will help both the offensive and defensive lines next season.

"We definitely had a lot of adversity (wins and losses), but our kids never quit. We came out short-handed tonight, but they (team) came out and fought. Injuries took a toll on our team, but they never quit. We will begin Monday to build toward next year," Bulldog coach Shelby Waddell said after the game.

The Chapel Hill Elementary Tournament began in Spring of 1962, later becoming the World Tournament in the 1970s. The postseason turned preseason contest gained the title of World Tournament because of its popularity and world-class referees. Not to mention, an excellent hospitality room stocked with special dishes and desserts from faculty and parents. For many years, this included Babe Hardison's delicious fried fish served on championship night. Over the years, several neighboring communities have participated, such as Belfast, Cornersville, College Grove, Community, Cascade, Culleoka, Eagleville, Huntland, Lewisburg, Liberty, Moore County, Page, Petersburg, Rockvale, Santa Fe, and Westwood. Sixty years later the World Tournament remains a beloved annual event. This year both the Westwood Rockets and Lady Rockets took home the championship trophy.

Forrest Lady Rockets placed second for the girls in the World Tournament 2022.

Westwood Lady Rockets won the championship for the girls in the World Tournament 2022.
