Study Club welcomes Peden

The Lewisburg Study Club gathered at Bethlehem Baptist Church on Saturday, October 8th, to hear Middle Tennessee author Peggy O'Neal Peden. After enjoying refreshments of assorted muffins, fruits, nuts, cheese and crackers, the members settled in to hear Ms. Peden speak about her mystery novels, all of which are set in Nashville.

The author was born in Smyrna and has had several connections with the Nashville country music scene. For example, her son went to high school with Hank Williams, Jr's daughter. Ms. Peden graduated from Lipscomb University and earned an MA from the University of Kentucky. She has taught English and writing at Lipscomb University and Brentwood Academy. She has also learned about Nashville as a local realtor and owned a travel agency. She has a connection to Lewisburg since her brother was an assistant manager at Lewisburg Gas Department for three years.

Peggy Peden's first book, Your Killin' Heart, was published in 2016 and won a first best mystery award.

Her second and third mysteries, Gone Missin' and Flyin' Solo, soon followed. The author related that she starts with part of a story and then develops the characters who take over the story.

The members of Lewisburg Study Club received bookmarks and country music singers' favorite recipe booklets as favors. Members Emma McElroy, Emily Gordon, and Elaine Davidson put together an excellent program. The November meeting will be on November 12 in the First United Methodist Church Parlor.

Philippines

for Philippine currency and purchased copy paper for the school. She also donated pencils to the elementary school in Julie's hometown Barangay of Mabagon.

A special shout out to Kaydence for being so thoughtful and giving.

Also to Anthony for supporting her. Julie has to be so proud of her special friends for contributing their time and energy on such a project. So many will be impacted with these contributions.

A special thanks to Walmart for their money donation, as well as Moon Pencil, Sanford, and all those who made donations whether it be with money or supplies.

Halloween

Trail takes center stage with dozens of county businesses participating from 3 to 6 p.m. either at their locations or set up on the square in Lewisburg. Look for the orange balloons at participating locations.

Saturday evening all eyes turn to Cornersville and Halloween in the Park.

From 5 until 8 p.m., the center of town will be covered with trick or treaters, enjoying games, hay rides, and various contests.

Main Street will not close for the event so drivers are urged to use caution driving through town as always.

On Monday Halloween night, ghouls and goblins can get an early start on their haul with the Marshall County High School trunk or treat from 6 to 7 p.m.

These are just some of the many events going on this weekend.

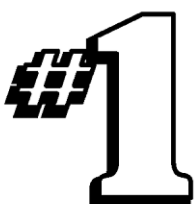

Whatever you do this Halloween, have fun and be safe.
