Carol Lee Foreman

March 18, 1931 - November 27, 2022

When Jesus called, she went. Carol Lee Foreman, 91, of Lewisburg, TN, went into the arms of Jesus on November 27, 2022, surrounded by her loving family. Since she no longer has a need for her earthly vessel, she continued to give of herself even in her passing by donating her body to Vanderbilt in order to further scientific research. A memorial service will be planned at a later date and she will be laid to rest in Gordon Cemetery in Danville, IL, by her husband's side.

Carol was born on March 18, 1931, in Tilton, IL, to James and Nellie (Smoot) Russell. She married Jerry Roger Foreman in 1950 and they began a legacy of love and laughter that continues to this day. She worked as a telephone operator and when she was not busy making memories with her family, she worked at Danville Gardens and at Coe's Book Cottage. Carol was an active member of Second Church of Christ for many years before she and Jerry moved to Tennessee and became members of Holt's Corner Baptist Church. She most recently was a member of First Baptist Church in Lewisburg. Carol taught Sunday school for many years and introduced countless children to Christ.

Survivors include a son, Jeffrey Foreman; daughters, Keli Bergan and Cindy (Dennis) Winn; sixteen grandchildren; William Richards, LuAnn (Barry) Grimm Sr., Jeremy Foreman, Jimmy (Jamie) Stitt, Sarah (Tim) Goodman, Jennifer (Gary) Rogers, Shay (Matt) Jones, Steve Reffett, Megan (Michael) Perras, Kristy (Adam) Eyer, and Joshua Bergan; thirty-one great-grandchildren; and four great-great-grandchildren, with two more on the way. She also leaves behind a sister-in-law, Jo Russell, and numerous nieces and nephews. Carol was preceded in death by her husband; son, John; granddaughter, Amber; great-great grandson, Kingston; three sisters, Vera, Virginia and Wilma; brother, Dale; daughters-in-law, Vickie and Carol; and son-in-law, Jim.

Anyone wishing to honor her memory with a donation is invited to do so to the Vermilion County Museum in Danville, their local Meals-on-Wheels or the Building Bridges Fund at First Baptist Church in Lewisburg.

Nancy George

Nancy George passed away Friday, Dec. 2, 2022, at Select Specialty Hospital in Nashville. Nancy was best known throughout the community for her outstanding work as a music director and performer.

Nancy was born in Jacksonville, FL, to the late Theodore Winarski and Millie Winarski Feinberg. As a teenager, she moved to Savannah, GA, and graduated from Savannah High School where she was Student Council President and Captain of the cheerleading squad. During part of her childhood, she lived with her beloved "Granny and Dado," Ida Kate and James Kelly. While in Savannah, she began performing vocal music with various churches and community groups including the Savannah Symphony.

After moving to Lewisburg, she served as a church choir director for over 20 years and directed several community choir events. Her Christmas shows at the Dixie Theater were always a highlight of the season. She was thankful for the many wonderful relationships she was able to build through her involvement in theater productions and community choir events.

Nancy had retired after working in administrative positions with the Marshall County School System, H & S Pharmacy, Smurf-it-Stone, and most recently, American Bank Note of Columbia.

She is survived by her husband, Kenneth George of Lewisburg; daughter, Allison Mulliniks (Matt) of Lewisburg; sons, Lane Adams and Ryan (Amanda)

Adams of Lewisburg; Justin Barnes of Florida; step-sons, Thomas (Laura Garcia) George of Nebraska and Davis George of Lewisburg; sister, Shellie Bransford (David Seavey) of Pennsylvania; brother, Marty (Tricia) Winarski of Georgia; nine grandchildren, Joseph Mulliniks, Annabelle Mulliniks, Lyle Nelson, Julian Adams, Jonas Adams, Anderson Adams, Hunter Barnes, Alex Barnes, and Hayden Barnes.

Visitation will begin on Sunday, Dec. 11, 2022, at 1 p.m. at the Lewisburg First United Methodist Church and will continue until the memorial service at the church beginning at 3:30 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Marshall County Community Theater, P.O. Box 1771, Lewisburg, TN 37091, or the charity of your choice.

London Funeral Home and Crematory is assisting the family with arrangements.

Minnie Mildred McLain

Minnie Mildred McLain was born on Feb. 3, 1929, to John Henry McLain and Ina E. Mayberry McLain. She passed on Oct. 30, 2022.

She attended Second Avenue Church of Christ and worked as a surgical tech at Taylor's Hospital for 22 years.

Preceding her in death were her parents, John H. and Ina McLain; her husband, Henry H. McLain; sister, Louise Hightower Nelson; and a many other family members and extended family members.

She is survived by three sons, Lester (Dorothy), Wendell (Jackie), Aaron (Patricia) McClain of Jacksonville, FL; sister, Pauline Armstrong of Maryland; brother, Harvey (Edna) McLain of Washington, D.C.; four grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, several nieces and nephews; Valerie (Gary) Davis, Sharon (Johnny) Whitaker, John Wayne Hightower, and a host of other nieces, nephews relatives and friends.

The funeral service was held Nov. 6, 2022, at 1 p.m. at Second Avenue Church of Christ.

Mayberry & Sons Funeral Home handled the arrangements.

Roy Bernard O'Neal

Mr. Roy Bernard O'Neal passed away Friday, Nov. 4, 2022. Today, we celebrate the life of Roy Bernard O'Neal. Bernard was born on Nov. 29, 1943, to LeRoy and Maxine O'Neal in Lewisburg, TN. He is preceded in death by his parents, LeRoy and Maxine O'Neal; grandmother, Ethel Johnson; son, Delwin O'Neal.

Bernard was a graduate of Jones School in Lewisburg where he played football. After graduation, Bernard joined the army and served our country in the Vietnam War. Bernard found the love of his life, Gail Ray, and the two soon became one. Gail and Bernard would have celebrated 59 years of wedded bliss on Dec. 26, 2022. Out of this union, two handsome men were born, Delwin and Dionne.

Bernard retired from L&N-CSX Railroad company. After his retirement, he became obsessed with motorcycles. He and his sons had several motorcycles and he loved spending

Bernard was baptized at an early age at First Baptist church. He had such a devoted love for Christ which drew him to become a minister at First Baptist before he transitioned to a minister at Liggett Street Church of God. You knew Bernard was in the house of the Lord when you either heard or saw his holy ghost shout!

Bernard is survived by his wife, Gail O'Neal; son, Dionne O'Neal; sister, Carolyn (Alvin) Presley; sister-in-law, Anita Scott; three brothers-in-law, Robert (Tina) Ray, Mark (Juanita) Ray, and Ricky Ray; seven grandchildren, Jajuan Greer, Justin O'Neal, Marquis O'Neal, Marquel O'Neal, Rashead O'Neal, Nathan O'Neal, and Jerron Braden; four great-grandchildren, Naveah Davis, Jayshaun O'Neal, Xazayn O'Neal, and Jazmyn Marie O'Neal; a devoted friend, Jody Brown; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Celebration of Bernard's life was held Wednesday, Nov. 9, 2022, at Liggett St. Church of God with Interment at Cook Cemetery. Services were in the care of Nelson & Sons Memorial Chapel (931) 685-4200 www.nelsonandsons.net
