

Haley charged in 95 count indictment

By Scott Pearson
Associate Editor

A Marshall County man is facing a 95 count indictment after an investigation by the state Comptroller determined a series of thefts over several years from a volunteer fire department.

The investigation determined that Fred D. Haley, 65, who had served as the treasurer of the South Marshall Volunteer Fire Department since 1991, had failed to deposit cash from department fundraisers and had written unauthorized checks to himself or his business.

On four such checks, it is alleged that Haley forged the co-signers signature for fraudulent reimbursements or services.

The scope of the Comptroller's investigation covered the period from November, 2006, through July of 2022 when Haley was removed as treasurer by the South Marshall board.

The report alleges that Haley pocketed $2,789 in cash from fundraisers and wrote $45,521.83 in checks to himself and his business.

In 2022, he repaid $437.35 to the department in several transactions, with $47,873.48 still outstanding.

The Marshall County Grand Jury returned the indictments on January 11, 2023, including 90 counts of theft under $1,000, four counts of forgery, and one count of theft over $10,000.

Haley was arrested the next day and held on a $15,000 bail.

South Marshall VFD was cited in the Comptroller's report for not providing sufficient oversight, failure to separate duties where finance was concerned, and for violating internal controls by co-signing blank checks.

Tennessee Chamber announces new board appointments

NASHVILLE, TN – The Tennessee Chamber of Commerce & Industry announced new appointments to its 54-member board of directors Thursday. The appointments represent all three grand divisions and are effective for a three-year term. The Board of Directors serves as the governing body of the Tennessee Chamber, providing leadership and input into Chamber operations and their annual legislative and policy agenda.

Lewisburg's Director of Economic Development Greg Lowe was named to the board, representing the Tennessee Economic Development Council.

Incoming 2023 Tennessee Chamber Board Chair Andrew Tavi who is the Senior Vice President of Legal, Sustainability and External Affairs for Nissan Americas noted, "I am excited to serve as Chair of the Board of Directors for the Tennessee Chamber and welcome the new members to the board for 2023. I look forward to working with Chamber staff our Board of Directors and policy-maker to continue Tennessee's trend as a premier destination in the nation for businesses and economic prosper-

The new and current appointments consist of Executives and Senior Leadership representing some of Tennessee's top economic stimulators, including FedEx, Amazon, John Deere, Vanderbilt, AT&T, Malibu Boats and many others. The new appointments represent a variety of industry sectors that contribute significantly to Tennessee's economic vitality.

The Tennessee Chamber is widely regarded as one of Tennessee's oldest and most prominent statewide business trade associations impacting public policy on behalf of business and manufacturing for over a century.

Not all of those recognized are pictured.

Lewisburg talks property

By Scott Pearson
Associate Editor

The Lewisburg City Council covered a wide range of subjects at last week's monthly meeting, ranging from small infrastructure projects to a future development off of the square.

The council heard a presentation from Small Town Startup, a Springfield, Tenn. based business consultant, interested in purchasing the city owned building at 218 West Commerce and continuing the city's plan to develop the space as a co-working space and business incubator.

The company currently operates an 8,000 square foot location in Springfield, which offers co-working space, pop up retail spaces, and business incubator support.

The city has been working on plans to develop that property into a similar space, including several grant applications to fund renovations.

Those costs contributed to Small Town Startup's proposal to purchase the property outright, instead of simply contracting management of the facility.

Any decision on the property will come at a future meeting.

The city will relinquish another piece of property as the council authorized Mayor Jim Bingham to sign any documents needed for the transfer of the Lewisburg Columbia State Community College campus to the state.

The city has owned the building since its construction, currently leasing it to CSCC for $1,200 annually.

While there has been push back in the past about transferring the property, the increasing costs of maintenance of the aging building, which the city is responsible for, led to the unanimous decision.

The council unanimously approved three ordinances amending or replacing sections of code, allowing special permits for the service of alcohol in city parks or at the Recreation Center.

The changes open the possibility of beer sales at special events in Rock Creek Park or in the future, if desired, beer sales at the city golf course.

The council approved the installation of eight streetlights on Lexie Drive.

Also approved were rezoning requests, on first reading, for properties at 427 Belfast St. and on Rockcrusher Road, both from a commercial C-2 zoning to an R-3, high density residential zoning, and a request to move two parcels on Robin Hood Road from a high density planned urban development to a low density PUD.

Mary Myers Lambert

Mary Myers Lambert, 102, died peacefully on Monday, the 9th of January at NHC Lewisburg. She was the daughter of the late Gertrude Line Myers and Samuel LeRoy Myers.

Born in Rogersville, TN, she was educated in the public schools of Nashville and Jefferson City, TN, before entering Carson-Newman College. While she finished her B.S. degree, summa cum laude, in the fall of 1940, she was graduated in the spring commencement of 1941. While waiting on that graduation, she married the love of her life, the late Edgar Folk Lambert, Jr., on December 24, 1940, her twentieth birthday. They set up housekeeping in his hometown of Lewisburg, Tennessee, where both took up the mantle of model citizenship.

In addition to her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by her twin brother, John; other siblings; James, Albert, Louise Harris, Sally Green, Sam, Clifford, and Nancy Thompson; and her son, Edgar Folk Lambert, III.

She was a consummate musician and served as the organist for the First Baptist Church of Lewisburg for forty years and provided musical accompaniment for all kinds of other services and programs. She was active in her church in other ways and was a dedicated member for 82 years. Her knowledge of the Bible was extensive and well known.

After the death of her husband in 1971, she embarked on a new career in the Lewisburg School System. She taught upper elementary students in the Jones Elementary School for fifteen years before her retirement. She served on the Lewisburg City Council and was also involved in the agricultural pursuits of farming and dairy management, had rental properties and other business interests. Mrs. Lambert was an avid reader, always well-informed on local and national issues, and a careful steward of those resources under her control. She had a keen sense of humor and believed that we each have the major responsibility for conscious and thoughtful self-determination. She certainly did!

She is survived by daughter-in-law, Chom-Reak Lambert of Los Angeles; sons; James Roy Lambert, Sr.; of Lewisburg; Frank H. Lambert of Hampstead, NC; and John Marks Lambert (Paula) of Lewisburg; grandchildren; Devi Lambert Lehman, Edgar Folk Lambert IV, James Roy Lambert, Jr., Mary Allison Lambert, Myers Ridgeway Lambert, Mary Elizabeth Lambert Safrit, Frank Hays Lambert, Jr., Joy Gwendolyn Lambert Ryan, William Edgar Lambert, Rebekah Ann Lambert Mitchell, Mary Beth Lambert Nickerson; nineteen great-grandchildren; brother-in-law, Horace Madison "Mac" Lambert of Jefferson City, TN; and sister-in-law, Carole Ann Lambert of Lewisburg.

Her sons thank Carole Ann Lambert and Joan Carter for practical assistance and sustaining friendship especially during the last two years of her life.

The family will receive friends at the London Funeral Home on Friday, January 20th, from 4 until 8 p.m. and on Saturday, January 21st, at 1 p.m. at First Baptist Church of Lewisburg, with the funeral to follow at 2 p.m.. The Reverend Tom Dummer will officiate and pallbearers will be the grandsons. The burial will follow at Lone Oak Cemetery, Lewisburg.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorials be made to Lewisburg First Baptist Church or to a charity of one's choice.

London Funeral Home is assisting the family with arrangements.

Fredda Sue Rolin

Tennessee House eases public view of proposed amendments

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — The Tennessee House is offering the public use of an online platform that makes it easier to read proposed amendments to bills.

Republican House Speaker Cameron Sexton announced Wednesday that the TGA House Dashboard application offers the public the same real-time view of proposed and approved amendments that lawmakers have. The system also includes calendars, legislation and video of proceedings.

The House has previously posted packets of proposed amendments for committees and subcommittees online.

Amendments can completely rewrite bills early in the process, complicating the public's efforts to follow along.

People can register and use the dashboard at <https://wapp.capitol.tn.gov/apps/Dashboard/Login>.

Maury Regional Health offers free support groups

COLUMBIA, Tenn. — With the start of a new year, Maury Regional Health (MRH) is offering numerous support groups to assist the southern Middle Tennessee region on an encouraging note. The support groups are offered free of charge for all who wish to participate.

Support groups allow participants to meet other individuals with similar life experiences and to share their personal feelings and coping strategies, while also hearing from medical professionals and guest speakers. They are informal opportunities to talk and to listen.

“Maury Regional Health is committed to providing for the health care needs of our community,” said MRH CEO Martin Chaney, MD. “This commitment goes beyond the point of care and extends to the educational, social and emotional resources provided by our support groups. We have a skilled team of support group facilitators with a wealth of knowledge to help navigate the challenges of a variety of conditions and circumstances.”

MRH's support groups are specific to breast cancer, cancer, diabetes (adult and pediatric), grief, mental health and stroke. Sessions of each support group will take place on a monthly or quarterly basis throughout the New Year.

The Breast Cancer Support Group is joined by guest speakers and medical professionals to discuss a variety of topics such as breast cancer treatment, hormone therapies and available support services. The group connects breast cancer survivors and newly diagnosed individuals as well as their loved ones. Meetings take place on the third Monday of each month at 5:30 p.m. in the Maury Regional Women's Center, which is located in the Pavilion on the MRMC campus. Please note there are no meetings in July or August.

Cancer Support Group brings together those who have been impacted by cancer, including those who have been newly diagnosed, who are undergoing treatment and who are survivors. Family members and friends are also invited to attend. During the meetings, attendees discuss the challenges, frustrations, fears and feelings associated with cancer. Meetings are held the second Tuesday of each month at 5 p.m. in the Cancer Center Resource Room.

The Diabetes Education Group focuses on a wide variety of topics relevant to individuals with diabetes, such as controlling blood sugar, the impact of diabetes on the vascular system, healthy eating and much more. The meeting is open to those with diabetes and their family members. Meetings are held on the first Thursday of every month at 11 a.m. at the Maury Regional Annex.

Pediatric Diabetes Support Group is here to support those who are having questions and concerns when navigating the new diagnosis. If you or someone you know is helping support a child who is diabetic, we invite you to come. Meetings are held on the third Tuesday of each month at 5:30 p.m. in the Maury Regional Annex.

Grief Support Group at MRH aims to help those dealing with grief find healthy ways to cope with their pain. We understand losing a loved one brings on a multitude of emotions and are here to support you. The groups meets on the third Thursday of each month in the MRMC Auxiliary Conference Room.

Beyond Tomorrow is a monthly guidance group for those ages 65 and older experiencing symptoms of depression and anxiety. Meetings are facilitated by counselors and therapists with the Senior Life Solutions program at Marshall Medical Center. Meetings take place on the second Tuesday of each month at 2:30 p.m. at the Lewisburg Recreation Center located at 1551 Mooresville Highway in Lewisburg. Please use the Sports Complex parking area and entrance.

The Stroke Support Group is for those who have survived a stroke as well as their families, caregivers and friends. It is a time of fellowship with other survivors and caregivers going through similar circumstances. It is an opportunity to learn about resources and to be with a group of people who understand. Meetings take place on the fourth Thursday of each month at 6 p.m. in the Maury Regional Annex.

Visit Maury Regional Health's classes and events calendar for additional information about dates, times and locations.

POLICE BLOTTER

ARMED ROBBERY

An armed robber got away with several hundred dollars from the Dollar General Store on Buchanan Street in Petersburg around mid-day Sunday, according to a Marshall County Sheriff's Office report.

The victim told investigators she was cleaning the building around 11:15 a.m. when the suspect came from behind, put his fingers in her side and claimed to have a gun. She was ordered to go to the cash register and give him all the money.

She was told not to leave the checkout area as he left or she would be shot.

The suspect was described as a "white male wearing tan coveralls with a black hoody and a black mask," in the report by Deputy Chad Bass.

Deputies searched a nearby Church Street home to which the suspect was reported to have run. No one was found.

LONG CHASE

Marshall County deputies arrested an armed suspect after a high-speed chase through two counties Tuesday, Jan. 10.

Michael Anthony Willuweit, 62, eventually led Deputy Clint Newbill and Det. Drew Binkley back to his Old Berlin Road home where he was arrested as he attempted to enter the rear door.

Willuweit was wanted for an alleged aggravated assault involving a firearm.

Newbill said he saw

Willuweit driving on Franklin Pike and attempted a high-risk traffic stop on Highway 50. Willuweit allegedly stopped but sped away as he was ordered out of the vehicle.

Willuweit is accused of driving his older model Chevrolet Cavalier at speeds of 70-75 mph through portions of Marshall and Maury counties, frequently following back roads, before returning to his home.

"He initially resisted being taken into custody but complied after being taken to the ground," Newbill said in his report.

Willuweit told deputies as he was being arrested of the .38 special handgun in his left front pocket.

New charges of evading by motor vehicle and resisting arrest were added. Bond was set at $26,500.

BOMB THREAT

A bomb threat at Minth Tennessee International, Childress Road, resulted in evacuation of several nearby businesses at mid-afternoon Wednesday, Jan. 11.

Police were notified an anonymous call was received at the firm around 3:15 p.m. claiming a bomb was inside the building.

A disgruntled ex-employee, who was fired Jan. 6 after not showing up for work following a job interview at another company the previous day, had allegedly sent a threatening text mentioning a bomb earlier in the day, police were told.

No one has been charged.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

A Lewisburg police officer was not only injured by a scrape, but also bitten by a dog while trying to make an arrest early Thursday, Jan. 12, at a Patrick Drive home, according to a report.

Deshavrne M. Johnson, 24, was allegedly strongly resisting officers attempting to take him into custody following a dispute with neighbors.

Sgt. Tracy Teal received a minor cut from scraping a metal door frame while attempting to keep Johnson from re-entering his home, police said. The dog bite left a small scratch on his thigh.

Johnson allegedly ordered officers off his property, threatened them and told them to "stop pointing energy weapons at my house." He later exited the home and was taken into custody in the yard.

Charges of resisting arrest, criminal trespass and disorderly conduct were filed. Johnson's bond was set at $2,000.

VANDALISM

The men's restroom at Rock Creek Park was damaged Saturday, Jan. 14, police said.

A lock latch was removed from a concrete wall by a metal tool, Officer Wyatt Evans' report said. The lock latch and a padlock were still connected to the door.

Trash including cigarettes, a drink bottle, and other waste was left behind along with a pair of jeans, Wyatt said.

THEFTS

•A gray 2004 Chevrolet Impala was stolen from the parking lot of Tractor Supply, South Ellington Parkway, or a home on Coleman Street between Dec. 19 and Monday, Jan. 9, police were told.

Also reported to area authorities:

•The catalytic converter was cut from a van at Mount Carmel Missionary Baptist Church, Nashville Highway, between Jan. 3-9.

•Several hand tools were stolen from a home under construction in the 1400 block of Holly Grove Road between Jan. 6-10.

SHOPLIFTING

•A Lewisburg man was arrested and charged with aggravated criminal trespassing after allegedly violating a year-long ban order from Walmart.

Mark A. Moore, 61, of South Ellington Parkway had been banned from the store last Nov. 29, police said. Moore allegedly was inside the store Saturday, Jan. 14.

Bond was set at $1,500.

•Dwight L. Pentecost was cited Monday, Jan. 16, for allegedly shoplifting $41.86 of unspecified merchandise from the Lewisburg Walmart, police said. He was also banned from the store for one year.

Are you old enough to be a fashion model?

By Danny Tyree

According to a recent Wall Street Journal article, the demand for older models in the fashion and cosmetics industries is exploding.

Sorry. Perhaps "exploding" is a trigger word. It might give some of the most seasoned models flashbacks of "the rocket's red glare, bombs bursting in air."

That's right. When I say "older," I am not simply referencing hints of gray. Cosmetics juggernaut L'Oréal currently employs Helen Mirren (age 77) and Jane Fonda (age 85), and those celebrities are just the "young chicks" compared to other spokespeople out there hawking makeup and clothing.

(I'm still trying to secure an interview with one model who alleges, "When I started, the whole fashion line consisted of fig leaves. My best friend failed to moisturize and turned into a pillar of salt. You couldn't strut your stuff on the runway until the waters parted.")

For too long, mature women have let college-age influencers, teens or even creepily sexualized preteens set an impossible standard of beauty for them. ("Wait – before you bring home the bacon and fry it up in a pan, be sure to warm up by doing the splits and decorating the homecoming float.")

Bless the ladies for whom "class" means something other than copying the school brain's algebra test.

Good genes, diet, exercise, skincare and attitude have given society a plethora of older women who are stunningly beautiful. (So I am told. I hate when my wife reads over my shoulder!) Yet they have traditionally been burdened with fashions so frumpy that a "come hither" look is answered with, "Why? Do you need help milking the yaks?"

I'm glad we've gotten away from the paradigm of models being ever-younger and ever-skinnier. People with memories of the disco nightclub days of Studio 54 still talk about the ugly scene when a model became jealous of her own still-attached umbilical cord.

One substantial advantage of hiring older models is that they are more sensible and less likely to let the glamor and spotlight go to their heads. Granted, there are other things that may cloud their judgment. ("Have you ever seen anything as beautiful as my grandson's drawing of a whatever-it-is? If I can't display this on the next lingerie magazine cover, you'll hear from my lawyer, you whippersnapper!")

Of course, new advertising campaigns must be tailored to current realities. The models who explored "Don't hate me because I'm beautiful" in 1980s Pantene commercials would now beseech, "Don't hate me because I'm going to drain the Social Security trust fund dry before you ever get there. Bwahaha..."

I must admit not all my friends are onboard with the industry shift. The article touted "models over 50 whose faces tell a story." One friend conceded, "Okay, their face can tell a story – just as long as it's not the one about walking five miles to school in the snow, uphill both ways. Or the one about sharing a wild taxi ride with Guy Lombardo."

The heck with him. We need courageous models (male and female) who can inspire their contemporaries or those who aspire to be that age in a few years.

Perhaps you or someone you know has a bright future in modeling.

Just be prepared for the hyper-competitive arena of seeking to be quoted.

"Like I told Francis Scott Key, what happens in Fort McHenry stays in Fort McHenry!"

SNHU announces Fall 2022 President's List

It is with great pleasure that Southern New Hampshire University (SNHU) congratulates Whitney Webb of Lewisburg and Jessica Williams of Cornersville on being named to the Fall 2022 President's List. The fall terms run from September to December.

Full-time undergraduate students who have earned a minimum grade-point average of 3.700 and above for the reporting term are named to the President's List. Full-time status is achieved by earning 12 credits over each 16-week term or paired 8-week terms grouped in fall, winter/spring, and summer.

Southern New Hampshire University (SNHU) is a private, nonprofit institution with a 90-year history of educating traditional-aged students and working adults. Now serving more than 170,000 learners worldwide, SNHU offers approximately 200 accredited undergraduate, graduate and certificate programs, available online and on its 300-acre campus in Manchester, NH. Recognized as one of the "Most Innovative" regional universities by U.S. News & World Report and one of the fastest-growing universities in the country, SNHU is committed to expanding access to high quality, affordable pathways that meet the needs of each learner.

Versatile Witchhazels feature fall and winter blooms and bright fall colors

UT Gardens' January 2023 Plant of the Month

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – We all want something to look at in our gardens year-round. Blooms at unexpected times can bring a world of joy to the garden, and among the plants that offer them are witchhazels (Hamamelis spp.). There are many types of witchhazel shrubs and trees you can grow. Each one is a cool season favorite with fringed, often sweetly fragrant blooms. Many species also have nicely colored fall foliage adding to their appeal.

Ranging in both habit and size, witchhazels vary in form from a dense rounded to a wide spreading shrub, or as upright multi-stemmed vase-shaped tree. While best grown in moist, well-drained, acidic soils, witchhazel is adaptable and tolerant of heavy clay. Plants can be grown in sun or shade, but increased sunlight with adequate moisture improves their flower display.

Witchhazel has low maintenance demands as well as good pest and disease resistance. Pruning is not required, but can be done in spring after flowering to control shape, size, and removal of any suckers from the rot stock. Although serious disease and insect problems are rare, Japanese beetles, leaf gall aphids, and powdery mildew can occur on occasion.

There are plenty of places witchhazel can fit in the home garden. Plant as a single specimen, add to a mixed border or use in group plantings. Overall, this is an easy and worthwhile plant to add to your landscape.

The following is a list of the more common species and hybrids and recommended cultivars. Most grow between 10- and 15-feet high and thrive in USDA Plant Hardiness Zones 5 to 8. Witchhazels can be found growing in all three locations of the University of Tennessee Gardens.

H. virginiana (common witchhazel): A fall blooming favorite among native plant lovers.

Grows 20 to 30 feet in the wild with cultivars in the 10- to 15-foot range. Fragrant, yellow blooms October to December. Golden fall foliage.

'Harvest Moon' – Notable for its tendency to drop its leaves before it flowers, unlike most other native varieties which flower with the leaves still attached making the blooms less visible.

'Little Suzie' – Compact, slow growing to 4 to 5 feet in 10 years. Blooms at an early age, more densely than the species.

H. vernalis (vernal/Ozark witchhazel) has the smallest flowers of all the species but makes up for size with the most intense fragrance. Grows 6- to 10-feet tall with wider spread. Yellow to red blooms January to March. New leaves emerge bronze to reddish purple with golden fall foliage.

'Amethyst' – deep red purple flower best backed by some lighter color.

'Quasimodo' – Dwarf, growing slowly to 4 to 6 feet. Fragrant, orange blooms. Leaves smaller than species, blue-green turning yellow in fall.

H. mollis (Chinese witchhazel) & H. japonica (Japanese witchhazel) have been crossed to produce the hybrid H. x intermedia. Cultivars of this hybrid have gained popularity due to their wide range of flower colors like orange, red, pink, and purple opening in January to mid-March.

'Aurora' – Two-toned long petals with yellow tips and an orange base.

'Angelly' – Vigorous upright-spreading form with clear bright yellow flowers.

'Arnold Promise' – Large, clear yellow fragrant flowers.

'Aphrodite' – Copper-red with reddish fall foliage.

'Diane' – Red flowers with leaves turning shades of yellow, orange and red in fall.

'Feuerzauber' – Excellent coppery orange-red flowers. Orange-red fall color.

'Gingerbread' – Deep burnt-orange flowers. Yellow fall foliage.

'Jelena' – This prized hybrid has a sweet fragrance and showy copper flowers in winter with rich, orange-red foliage in fall.

'Wisley Supreme' – This cultivar of H. mollis has sweet-scented, pale yellow flowers often opening as early as Christmas.

The UT Gardens includes plant collections located in Knoxville, Crossville and Jackson, Tennessee. Designated as the official botanical garden for the State of Tennessee, the UT Gardens are part of the UT Institute of Agriculture. The Gardens' mission is to foster appreciation, education and stewardship of plants through garden displays, educational programs and research trials. The Gardens are open during all seasons and free to the public. DEVOTIONAL PAGE

“The elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known the truth; For the truth’s sake, which dwells in us, and shall be with us forever.” – (2 John 1,2)

The apostle John writes to some believers about how happy he was to hear that they love the truth of God. This love had such an impact on them that they were willing to live out the truth that they claimed to believe. Their Christian walk was all “for the truth’s sake.” In God’s truth they forever found grace, mercy, and peace in His Son the Lord Jesus Christ. In this love for the truth they took a stand. These first-century Christians were in danger at every turn by the religious Jews and from the Roman government. However, since the truth was spiritually established deep within their hearts, all that the first-century Christians did was “for the truth’s sake.” They came together to openly read the scriptures – “for the truth’s sake.” They came together to sing praises – “for the truth’s sake.” They came together to pray – “for the truth’s sake.” They came together to study the meaning of the scriptures – “for the truth’s sake.” They came together to encourage one another – “for the truth’s sake.” In short, they came together as the Church! Why? “For the truth’s sake.” Our twenty-first century idea of the Christian faith is a far cry from the faith of the first-century saints. Christians who profess, “Me and Jesus got our own thing going,” have either intentionally or unintentionally abandoned the Church of Jesus Christ. We live in such a self-centered society that even professing believers have fooled themselves to think it’s okay to be a Lone-wolf Christian. If that were the case, Christ would not have established the Church. Able-bodied Christians, who say they believe God and refuse to come together to worship, to pray, to study the scriptures, and who refuse to come together as the Church are in direct disobedience to God. Let’s be honest. No church is perfect. Many people have been hurt. Nevertheless, the Church is still called the Body of Christ (Ephesians 1:22,23; 4:12). So to leave the Body of Christ is to leave Christ. I have heard it myself, “Well God knows my heart.” The answer is “Yes He does.” However, the real question is, “Do you love His truth?” With such apathy I cannot see the apostle John writing a letter to the twenty-first century believers about their love for the truth as he did the first-century believers. “Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?” (Luke 18:8). I encourage you who have played the “stay away from church” thing – to pray and ask God to lead you to a solid Christ-centered church that actually studies and teaches the truth of the Bible, and then you will find the freedom to love and be loved according to the truth of God’s word.

Caring for older adults

As the proportion of older adults in the U.S. continues to increase, appropriate care for older people becomes increasingly important. In fact, caregivers and loved ones should be aware of age-appropriate care for heart attack or chest pain. The first step is to call 911. Once medical care is started, age-related changes in general health and in the heart and blood vessels require consideration, and likely modifications, in how people age 75 and older are treated, according to a scientific statement from the American Heart Association, published in its flagship, peer-reviewed journal "Circulation."

Normal Aging and Age-Related Changes in the Heart and Blood Vessels

Cardiovascular changes that occur with normal aging make ACS more likely and may make diagnosing and treating it more complex. These changes include large arteries becoming stiffer; the heart working harder but pumping less effectively; blood vessels becoming less flexible and less able to respond to changes in the heart's oxygen needs and an increased tendency to form blood clots. Sensory decline due to aging may alter hearing, vision and pain sensations. Kidney function also declines with age, with more than 1/3 of people ages 65 and older having chronic kidney disease.

Oak Grove top readers

On November 14, 2022, five first grade students from Oak Grove Elementary were recognized for having top reading scores in the school on their STAR reading tests. Students shown (from left) are: Casey Davis, Judy Smith, Jeremiah Shaw, Joseph Posey, and Lily Miller. We are so proud of you!

Advanced Cornersville High School computer students earn awards

Twelve students in the Advanced Computer Applications Dual Enrollment I & II courses at Cornersville High School recently received Microsoft Office industry certification, which is an impressive credential recognized by business professionals nationwide. Students in the advanced class prepared for weeks for the rigorous exams. Tristin Bevers and Robin Owens earned their second industry certification, last year receiving Microsoft Word 2019 and this year Microsoft Excel 2019. All other students earned their first certification as first year DE TCAT Office Management students in Microsoft Word 2019. This advanced dual enrollment class is designed to be the final course in the Office Management program of study in the Business Management & Administration career cluster. The advanced course prepares students to continue postsecondary training in business related programs, provides advanced training for students pursuing a career in administrative and information support, and supports obtaining an industry certification in specific software applications. Course content and projects are meant to simulate workplace scenarios and draw on skills related to communications, operations, management, and teamwork in order to accomplish information management goals. The Dual Enrollment program provides high school students credit at two institutions at the same time. At the high school level, the class is applied toward their high school diploma while also receiving hours toward a program certificate at Tennessee College of Applied Technology (TCAT) of Pulas-ki. The dual enrollment students receive an additional four points to the overall course average on their high school transcript. Upon graduation students who have an overall grade point average of 3.0 or

Rockets put scare into Champs

By Will Carter
Sports Writer

BELL BUCKLE — It was an eventful night on the hardwood for the Cascade Champions and Forrest Rockets as both teams battled back-and-forth until the final seconds when the Champions were able to put the finishing touches on their 63-58 win.

The Champions (15-4, 2-0) got off to a hot start with a 5-0 run after a Thomas Gentry layup and Jayden Gulick three-pointer, but the Rockets (1-16, 1-2) took over from there.

After the baskets for Cascade, Forrest went on a 14-0 run until the final two minutes of the quarter to take a 14-5 lead.

“I’m super proud of how my guys played,” Forrest head coach Shane Chapman said. “It’s a fun game and a game you want to be a part of as a player and coach. The kids were battling. They (Cascade) didn’t have their best night, but they were able to do enough to get the win.”

Gentry broke up the run with a tough layup, and the Champions were able to close down their deficit to 19-13 heading into the second quarter.

Bray McCowan notched eight points in the quarter for Forrest.

Cascade opened the second quarter with a high-pressure defense in an attempt to limit the Rockets’ attack, and they found some success with it as they held them to a single digit quarter. But it wasn’t until the final two minutes that the Champions were able to grab some momentum back as Gulick found his rhythm from behind the arc.

Gulick knocked down three consecutive three-pointers to go on a 9-0 run of his own with just under two minutes remaining in the half, and the Champions grabbed the lead for the first time since the opening minutes.

“We needed somebody to step up and hit some shots, and that was Jayden Gulick,” Champs head coach Chris Lawson said. “He hit three threes in a row there that gave us a spark. Sometimes that’s what you need, and that’s what makes us a tough team. . Going down the stretch now, he has that experience of knowing he can hit the shots, so it will help us a ton.”

He totaled 18 points on the night with all of them coming from threes.

Cascade outscored Forrest 18-9 in the second frame for a 31-28 lead at halftime.

Coming out of the break, it was all Champions in the third quarter.

Cascade turned up their defensive pressure to start the second half which caused some problems for the Rockets and led to some fastbreak points on the other end.

Jackson Davis notched eight points in the quarter and Gulick knocked down another timely three-pointer to extend Cascade’s lead to 49-36 going into the final frame.

It was the only double-digit lead either team possessed throughout the contest.

But the Rockets wouldn’t go down without a fight.

Led by Davin Porter, the Rockets found a groove early in the fourth quarter as they went on a 13-0 run over the first few minutes to tie the game back up at 49-49.

Porter accounted for 14 points in the final frame to round out a game-high 26 points on the night for the Rockets.

“There’s been some times when we’ve told him to put the team on his back,” Chapman said. “Davin didn’t have a great game against Community, but came out tonight and played really well. When our guys can get it going, any of our guys can light it up on any night.”

After the run was broken up by a Gentry layup again, Forrest was able to take their first lead since the second quarter after Mason Harper knocked down a three-pointer with three minutes and 15 seconds remaining.

The lead changed hands a few more times for a total of four in the final frame.

lick hit his final three of the game to give the Champions a two-point lead.

A minute later McCowan knocked down his fourth three of the game to take back the lead for the Rockets in the last 60 seconds of the game.

Cascade took the lead back for the final time on the next possession when Davis found some space for a midrange jumper with 48 seconds remaining.

He later hit two vital free throws to make it a three-point game in the final 10 seconds.

On the final possession for the Rockets, they couldn’t find enough space for the game-tying shot and Cascade grabbed the rebound as the clock wound down.

Saebyn Burris was fouled on the play to preserve time, but he knocked down both of his free throws to ice the game and secure the victory for Cascade.

“I told the guys in the locker room that basketball goes this way sometimes,” Lawson said. “There’s gonna be nights where you just don’t play well and the other team does play well. Forrest played well tonight. They came out and shot the ball really well and got the ball in the paint some for layups.”

“I told our guys that a mark of a really good team is finding a way to grind a win out sometimes.”

While the loss hurts, Chapman was proud of how his team fought on the road and is looking forward to the next matchup with the Champions when they travel to Chapel Hill.

“Super proud of the effort my guys played with tonight,” he said. “This is the kind of effort and production I’ve been looking for all season long. We’ll see them again when they come to our place in a couple weeks.”

Cascade will be back in action on Friday as they host Fayetteville City while Forrest has some time off before they host Grundy County next Tuesday.

Kirby leads Lady Rockets over Lady Champs

By Will Carter
Sports Writer

BELL BUCKLE — It was another good night on the offensive side of the floor for Macyn Kirby as she dropped a game-high 24 points for the Forrest Lady Rockets in their 52-32 road win over the Cascade Lady Champions.

The game came to Kirby early on as she knocked down a game-opening three-pointer to jumpstart a 6-0 run for the Lady Rockets.

After a slow start to the game offensively, the Lady Champions found some production as Kaegan Young got to the basket and the foul line for five points in the first quarter.

But Forrest found their rhythm from behind the arc and knocked down three more three-pointers to take a 14-6 lead behind Kirby’s eight points.

They carried their momentum into the second frame as they totaled 17 points in the quarter with Kirby notching nine of her own and 17 total in the first half despite Cascade’s defensive pressure.

“They ran a box-and-one on Macyn Kirby, and she was still able to lead us in scoring tonight,” Lady Rockets head coach Hal Murrell said. “The last several games she’s been phenomenal.”

The Lady Champions couldn’t get much to fall for them in the second quarter, but were able to scrape seven points with Laina Carter accounting for five of them.

For Lady Champions head coach Janie Demonbreum, Cascade is just struggling to create on the offensive end.

“Offensively, we are struggling to look for our own shots, and that’s where we’re losing every game,” Demonbreum said. “We will keep losing games if that happens.”

At the half the Lady Rockets led 31-13.

Coming out of the locker room, Cascade struck first when Young attacked the rim and drew a foul for two shots at the free throw line, which she knocked down.

The Lady Rockets couldn’t find an opportunity to score after the break until Kinslee Inlow found a crease in the defense, and knocked down her first three-pointer of the quarter.

She added three more in the frame for a Forrest total of four in the third quarter and 10 for the entire game.

“They ran the box-and-one which opened up a lot of opportunities for some girls to knock down shots,” Murrell said. “We were able to push the ball in transition and draw some defenders which opened up the perimeter.”

And without a true post player to produce down low, Murrell emphasized the importance of hitting those shots.

“We don’t really have a true post player, so we have to have those threes moving forward and in the postseason if we’re going to advance,” he said.

Heading into the final frame Forrest held a 45-23 lead.

After Kirby dropped in six points in the first few minutes of the final frame, Murrell was able to take his starters out and give his younger players some playing time.

Despite the big district win, Murrell wasn’t thrilled with his team’s performance.

“Yes, we won and that’s ultimately what we came over here to do, but I just felt like we had some inconsistent play,” he said. “They shot 26 free throws and we shot 14. We’re fouling too much. We can’t do that come tournament time. It just wasn’t a great effort out of us tonight.”

The Lady Rockets will have the rest of the week off before they return to action next Tuesday at home against Grundy County while the Lady Champions will host Fayetteville City on Friday.

Viqueens pull away from Lady Bulldogs

By Rickey Clardy
Sports Writer

UNIONVILLE – The Community Viqueens led the Cornersville Lady Bulldogs by just four points heading into the final quarter, but the Viqueens pulled away with a 21-point quarter and defeated the Lady Bulldogs 62-52 in a non-district basketball game Tuesday night.

It was an evenly played opening quarter as both teams traded 6-0 runs. Led by six points from Ady Gentry, Cornersville (8-11) took its biggest lead at 9-5 after its run. Zoey Dixon scored five points as Community (15-5) went on its run and retook the lead at 14-12. The game was tied at 14-14 heading to the second quarter.

The Viqueens trailed 18-16 in the quarter before going on a 7-0 run. Anna Haskins came off the bench to score seven points, including a trey with 5:10 remaining that put the Viqueens up 21-18 and gave Community the lead for good.

The Lady Bulldogs stayed close with Camille Franklin scoring six points, but a late three-pointer by Haley Mitchell gave the Viqueens a 30-23 lead at the intermission.

“We did a good job offensively finding the open person and taking the shots,” Coach Cody Pierce of the Viqueens said.

Mitchell had five points in the third quarter as Community led 35-26 with 6:10 left, but the Lady Bulldogs fought back. Alicia Polk scored nine points as Cornersville went on a 5-0 run to cut the Viqueen lead to 35-31. Community finished the quarter with a 41-37 advantage.

Haskins started the fourth quarter with two treys as the Viqueens upped their lead to 47-40. Led by six points from Anna Wood, the Lady Bulldogs trailed 49-45 with 4:28 left before Community widened its lead. M. J. Simmons scored seven points and Mitchell added six as the Viqueens scored the next eight points to go up 57-45 en route to their 10-point win.

“We shot it well outside and it helped us out a lot when we were struggling to defend,” Pierce said.

Balanced scoring was the theme for both teams.

Jayli Childress (4) drives to the basket and scores for the Lady Bulldogs. Childress had five points for Cornersville.

Haskins scored 16 points to lead four Viqueens in double figures. Simmons finished with 15 points while Mitchell added 14. Dixon had 13 points for Community.

Polk and Gentry each had 13 points while Wood finished with 12 for the Lady Bulldogs.

The Viqueens were 2-of-3 at the free throw line while the Lady Bulldogs were a perfect 5-of-5.

“My girls battled. We battled for every loose ball,” Coach Hayden McMahon of the Lady Bulldogs said.

“There were a few instances where we could have been better,” McMahon added.

“They’re a good team,” McMahon said. “They’ve got six seniors and were a sub-state team last year.”

“They shot well. We had a hard time defending them,” Pierce said. “It was a little frustrating at times, but they hit some big shots. I’ve got to give them a lot of credit.”

Both teams return to district action Friday night. The Viqueens travel to Grundy County for a 6:30 p.m. District 7-AA game while the Lady Bulldogs enertain Moore County in a District 9-A contest.

“It was good to get a lapse of not playing a district game,” McMahon said. “We get another game under our belt and go back to district play Friday night.”

“This is a good team to get a good experience against,” McMahon added. “Playing good teams makes you better.”

Bulldogs feel the pressure in loss to Vikings

By Rickey Clardy
Sports Writer

UNIONVILLE – Throughout the 2022-23 basketball season, the Community Vikings have experienced problems sustaining a consistency on the court for 32 minutes.

Tuesday night, the Vikings turned it around with a high-pressure defensive effort the entire game that led to a 20-3 third-quarter advantage as Community picked up its first win with a 64-49 victory over the Cornersville Bulldogs.

“No one felt the pressure of winning more than these kids,” Coach Robbie Davis of the Vikings said. “I am happy they finally were able to come into a locker room after a win.”

It was a low-scoring first quarter as both teams had trouble getting untracked. Hayden Grover led Cornersville (6-12) with four points while Landon Lovvorn paced Community (1-18) with six points. The Viqueens took an 8-7 lead to the second quarter.

The scoring increased as 12 players netted points in the second quarter. Five Vikings scored three points to lead the seven Community scorers while Kel Ford scored four points to lead five Bulldogs in the scoring column. The Vikings ended the half with a 26-21 advantage.

With a relentless press that forced Bulldog turnovers and rushed shots, the Vikings went into another gear in the third quarter. Corey Paterick and Cole Crockett each had five points as the Vikings connected on their first three field goal attempts to go up 32-21. After the Bulldogs scored their three points, Community finished with the final 14 points to take a 46-24 lead to the final quarter.

Ben Franklin and Carter Neat each scored eight points as the Bulldogs got hot with 25 points in the quarter. Cornersville used a 7-0 run to get within 12 at 59-47 with 2:03 to play, but it was as close as the Bulldogs would get. Ramone Hernandez of the Vikings was 7-of-8 from the foul line as Community extended its lead with a 5-0 run and took the 15-point win.

Lovvorn led the Vikings with 17 points.

Franklin led the Bulldogs with 12 points while Grover added 11.

The Vikings finished 15-of-24 at the charity stripe while the Bulldogs were 8-of-12.

Davis changed his lineup going into the game.

“We knew we were going to start the young guys and bring in the older kids,” Davis said. “Our hopes were that we could contain without fouling and create more offensive opportunities and tonight we did.”

“The reason we won this game was 100 percent the attitudes of the seniors,” Davis added.

“Our sophomore guards Jason Cullum and Landon Lovvorn came out and played big to start the game. Then our seniors came in with high energy, great pressure, and were flying to the ball.”

“We told them in the locker room, it’s simple,” Davis said. “For the first time this season, let’s play to win the game and not to keep from losing it.”

Community travels to Grundy County for a District 7-AA game Friday night at 8 p.m. while the Bulldogs play host to Moore County in a District 9-A game also on Friday night.

Rebounding, pressure leads Viqueens past Forrest

By Rickey Clardy
Sports Writer

UNIONVILLE — The Community Viqueens led the Forrest Lady Rockets by just two points after one quarter, but a relentless full-court press and a decided advantage on the boards allowed the Viqueens to stretch their lead and carried Community to a 58-42 victory over the Lady Rockets in a District 7-AA basketball contest Friday night.

Macyn Kirby scored eight points in the opening quarter as Forrest (4-13, 1-1) started the game in grand style with a 6-0 run before the Viqueens scored their first points midway through the quarter.

With five different Viqueen players netting points, Community (14-5, 2-0) fought back with a 6-0 run to tie the game at 9-9 and ended with five consecutive points to take a 14-12 lead to the second quarter.

The Viqueens turned up the pressure in the quarter as Forrest had problems navigating the Community full-court press.

Addison Brothers led Community with five points while Shelby Cawthon added four as the Viqueens stretched their lead to 26-19 at the break.

“We had a slow start at home,” Coach Cody

Pierce of the Viqueens said. “Forrest showed up those first four minutes ready to play.”

“Once we started scoring, the press helped us out in our offense,” Pierce added.

M.J. Simmons scored seven points to lead the Viqueens in the third quarter as Community gradually increased its lead.

With the help of a strong rebounding effort on both the offensive and defensive boards, the Viqueens were able to offset five points from Kirby with a 9-0 run to take a 39-25 lead with 2:59 left.

Community ended the quarter with a 39-28 lead.

“At halftime, we came out and had the ball and turned it over on two straight possessions,” Coach Hal Murrell of the Lady Rockets said.

“They go 15 and we can’t stay in the zone down 15 and have to go man and that was it.”

Haley Mitchell scored nine points and Simmons added eight in the fourth as the Viqueens were able to find the open player consistently for several layups. Community took its biggest lead at 58-36 with 2:48 to play and finished with lone possession of first place in the district.

“We knew this was a big game to stay on top of the district,” Pierce said.

Simmons scored 17 points to lead three Viqueens in double figures. Mitchell and Cawthon each added 11.

Kirby led all scorers with 18 points for the Lady Rockets.

“Very proud of our effort in the first half, but we got absolutely whipped in the second half,” Murrell said. “We couldn’t match their physicality.”

“They’re a very good basketball team and probably one of the most physical teams we’ve played this year,” Murrell added.

“Our scoring was really balanced,” Pierce said. “We did a good job moving the ball and being patient.”

“Everybody was getting good looks the entire game,” Pierce added.

Neither team enjoyed much success at the free throw line. The Viqueens were 2-of-6 at the charity stripe while Forrest was 3-of-6.

Murrell is looking for his team to gel before tournament time comes around.

“We’re just kind of young in spots,” Murrell said. “We had some kids hurt this summer and it’s still a work-in-progress.”

“I know that may sound funny being the middle of January, but I’ve been telling them all year we’ve got to be playing well in the middle of February because that’s when it really counts,” Murrell added.

Community entertains Cornersville in a non-district matchup Tuesday night while the Lady Rockets return to District 7-AA play with a game at Cascade. Both games begin at 6 p.m.

Rockets hold off Viking comeback for 1st 7-AA win

Sports Writer

UNIONVILLE — A Forrest Rocket lead evaporated after a Community Viking comeback in the fourth quarter, but the Rockets made the shots down the stretch and held off the Vikings for a 50-47 win in a District 7-AA basketball game Friday night.

Community used the hot hand of Cole Crockett to take the lead in the first quarter. Crockett scored 11 points as the Vikings took a 13-8 lead before the Rockets scored the final five points to tie the game at 13-13 heading to the second quarter.

Forrest used two treys from Bray McCown to gain the halftime lead.

The game was tied three times before the last trey by McCown broke the tie and gave the Rockets a 23-20 lead before Forrest settled for a 23-22 advantage at the break.

“We’ve been kind of cold shooting the rock from the outside, and I think our guys got it going and I hope it spurs some confidence in them,” Coach Shane Chapman of the Rockets said.

With Ryan Meglis scoring six points, the Rockets led the entire third quarter and took their biggest lead at 38-30 with 1:04 left.

Jason Cullum led the Vikings with six points as Forrest took a 40-33 lead to the fourth quarter.

Landon Lovvorn got hot with 10 points as the Vikings fought back.

Two Lovvorn treys tied the game twice, followed by a two-point field goal by Lovvorn at the 2:08 mark that tied the game at 46-46.

The Vikings could never take the lead as the Rockets broke out of the tie.

Jimmy Bond led Forrest with five points, including a field goal with 1:49 remaining that gave the Rockets the lead for good at 48-46.

After a Crockett free throw put the Vikings within one at 48-47 with 1:34 to go, Davin Porter connected on two free throws four seconds later to put the Rockets up 50-47.

A Forrest free throw miss late gave Community a chance for the tie, but two three-point attempts could not find the mark as the Rockets escaped with the win.

“It was ugly, but I’ll take it,” Chapman said.

“Forrest did a great job tonight on both ends of the floor and they played with a ton of intensity and fight,” Coach Robbie Davis of the Vikings said.

“They deserve all the credit for coming out and going after the win.”

McCown led with three Rockets in double figures with 13 points.

Davin Porter puts up a shot for the Rockets. Porter finished with nine points in the Forrest win.

Bond and Meglis each had 10 points.

Crockett led all scorers with 17 points for the Vikings while Lovvorn added 11.

The Rockets were 4-of-10 at the foul line while the Vikings were 4-of-6.

“The guys fought hard and we just tried to take it one possession at a time,” Chapman said.

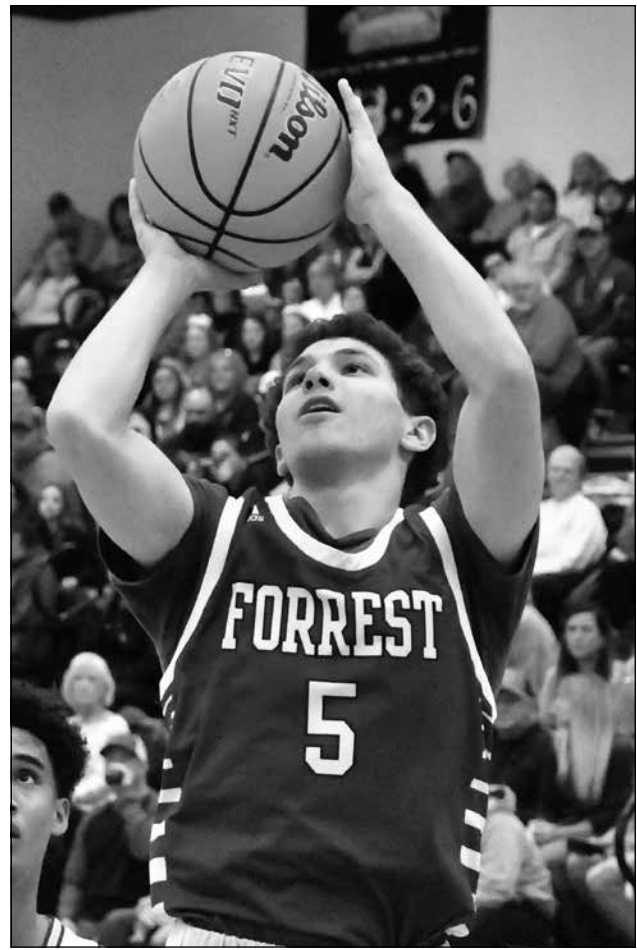

“We’d have a breakdown, and we’d have to really focus and lockdown on what we worked on getting ready for Community,” Chapman said.

“The game got to a point where a shot or two would have given us a lead but that’s not where the game for us is being lost,” Davis said.

“It’s right from the beginning of the game, we continue to miss shots at point blank range throughout the game,” Davis added.

cade for a District 7-AA game Tuesday night while Community hosts Cornersville in a non-district tilt. Both games begin at 7:30 p.m.

“At this point of the season, the teams that play deep into the post-season are playing their best basketball in late January and early February,” Davis said.

“Unfortunately for us, we are not heading in that direction with almost the first time through the district complete,” Davis added.

“We will go back to the drawing board and prepare for Cornersville on Tuesday.”

Tigers extend district mark to 2-0

By Dennis Holley
Sports Writer

Friday night belonged to Marshall County as the Tigers (9-1, 2-0 District 8-3A) took an important 70-60 home victory over Tullahoma (4-8, 0-2) at Dottie Kelso Memorial Gym.

The Tigers, wishing to begin the district schedule 2-0 after a Tuesday night win at Lincoln County, held back a Wildcat team that seemed as if they are looking for that missing winning ingredient.

Five Tigers reached double figures: A.J. Jones with 14 points, Jabrai Howard and Jayden Hart with 12 each, Jayce Harney 11, and Jamahl Gentry 10.

Tullahoma was led by Xavier Ferrell with 15 points and, Khani Johnson with 10 points.

Both teams came out ready to go, though it took a few possessions for either team to find the hoop.

Jabari Howard of the Tigers broke the silence with a three-pointer from out front.

Tullahoma answered with a bucket by Ferrell; then Kentarius Morris for MCHS drilled a three-pointer from out front of the arc to make the score 6-2.

The Wildcats answered with another Ferrell basket, courtesy of an assist by Deandre Jenkins.

Marcus O'Neil buried a three-pointer for the Tigers and Ferrell answered for the Wildcats.

Jones, displaying his quickness and athleticism from the football field, scored a basket with an assist from O'Neal, then scored two more from an offensive rebound and the score stood 13-6 Tigers.

Johnson sank a three-pointer but Jones scored again on a muscle drive to the basket scored again to make the score 15-9.

Bryson Stevenson of Tullahoma scored on a low post basket and then sank the free throw to make the score 15-12, a score that held up until the end of the first quarter.

Baskets by Malik Grizzard and Grant Chadwick pushed the Wildcats into the lead, 16-15, but O'Neal sank one of two free throws to tie the game at 16-16.

Johnson sank a basket to put the Wildcats in the lead 18-16 but Hart with a nice assist from Gentry, re-tied the game at 18-18.

Tullahoma's Chadwick answered with a basket but back-to-back treys from O'Neil and Gentry put the Tigers back in front 24-20 and causing a Wildcat time out at the 1:43 mark of the second quarter.

Harney sank a basket and Gentry, with a basket and free throw, put the Tigers up 30-22 at halftime.

The third quarter saw the Tigers hold their own as the Wildcats came out ready to up the action, using baskets by Jenkins and Grizzard, but MCHS countered with two baskets by Gentry and one from Hart.

Jayden Sanchez came alive for Tullahoma with a basket, a three-pointer and two free throws.

Jones asserted his presence by knocking down three baskets and two free throws in the quarter.

The Tigers led 44-37 after three quarters.

The teams swapped baskets and at the 6:31 mark of the fourth Tullahoma called time-out with the score 48-39.

MCHS came out of the timeout with a five-point run as Harney and Hart sank baskets and Hart made one of two free throws to place the score at 53-39.

The Tigers then weathered the answering Wildcat storm that took the scoring to the free-throw line as the Tigers cashed in when

A.J. Jones goes up for a Tiger score.

Tullahoma was forced to foul, but MCHS's Hart made four of five, Gentry made two of three, Howard made three of four and O'Neil sank three of four free throws as the Tigers held the Wildcats at arms-length for the rest of the game.

Tiger Head Coach Lavon King said, "The kids played hard, we were out-sized but we battled and we contributed." Tiger coach Lavon King said, "The big thing I liked was we had five players in double figures, that always helps because they can't focus on one player. We have some things to work on but the season is young.

I am especially proud that the guys responded to the physical challenge."

The Tigers host Lighthouse Christian of Antioch Saturday night, then travel to Spring Hill for another District 8-3A contest next Tuesday night.

Powerful Tullahoma too much for Tigerettes

By Dennis Holley
Sports Writer

The Marshall County Tigerettes (11-4, 0-1 District 8-3A) faced the Lady 'Cats of Tullahoma (10-7, 1-0 District 8-3A) in a district contest Friday on Steely Court at Dottie Kelso Memorial Gymnasium.

The Tigerettes, coming off a loss to Lincoln County in the district opener, couldn't match up with the talented Lady 'Cats in a 55-19 loss.

MCHS's Meshanna Ridley broke the scoring ice with a steal and breakaway basket and the Tigerettes led 2-0.

But Tullahoma's Alivia Bowen drained a three-pointer as the Lady 'Cats then employed a three-quarter court press that the Tigerettes found difficult to navigate and turnovers resulted.

McLayne Bowen sank one of two Tullahoma free throws, Nyah Gibbs converted an old-fashioned three-pointer (basket and a free throw), and Bowen struck again with a three-pointer to make the score, 12-2, as MCHS called a time out.

Tigerette Meshanna Ridley responded from the time out with a long three-pointer, but Tullahoma responded with a bucket by Lily Melton and two free throws by Eleanor Fults before Demiyah Blackman sank two MCHS free 11 at halftime.

Third quarter action saw three Lady 'Cats use the free-throw line with Melton sinking eight of ten as a scoring tool converting 10 of 12 to go with three-pointers by Carr and Bowen.

The Tigerettes could only rely on a basket by Ridley and two free-throws from Blackman as at the end of the third quarter Tullahoma led 45-15.

MCHS couldn't gain traction in the fourth quarter against a running clock and liberal substitutions by Tullahoma as Ridley sank a free-throw and Kayla Keiler bombed a three-pointer.

Fults for Tullahoma made two three-pointers in the quarter and the Lady 'Cats rolled in a 55-19 victory to improve to 2-0 in District 8 - 3A.

"Really tough game, it is a tough matchup for us, really good team," Tigerette coach David Steely said. "We can play better, we are going to continue to try and get better, keep the right mentality and focus on getting better."
