

LOOKING BACK!

Cecil Spencer, who was the owner of Spencer's Grocery in Cornersville, takes out bags of groceries for his customer. The grocery store was remodeled in the spring of 1980, and he had a Grand Opening for customers to come and view the larger aisles and a more extensive line of foods. (from The Marshall Gazette, June 3, 1980.)

Blake Rogers was featured in "Small World" in The Marshall Gazette, March 18, 2003.

MES students, with the help of their parents/guardians, brought items for a care package for an American soldier, Tracy Hobbs. Hobbs' son, Anthony, was one of the students in Vicki London's class. Nancy Hobbs, Tracy's wife, was an educational assistant at MES. (from The Marshall Gazette, April 22, 2003.)

Cornersville High School students participated in The DREMC Energy Program Project. Danny Hanson, teacher; first place - Lee Smith and Jeffery Lyons; second place - Donald Woods; third place - Kim Wilburn. (from The Marshall Gazette, April 8, 1980.)
