Congratulations, Jackson McKechnie, son of Kristy and Ed McKechnie, and grandson of Ken and the late Pamela Koscielny(Pittsburg, KS); Collen and the late Bill Gray (Pittsburg, KS); Mary Jane and the late Bill Riney (Pittsburg, KS); and the late Arthur E. McKechnie, Jr. (Bowie, AZ) Jackson has one older brother, Austin McKechnie, currently attending the University of Arkansas. While at Pittsburg High School, Jackson lettered in Golf and Football. He started football his freshmen year as a kicker/punter and wide receiver and was a starter for the Pittsburg Purple Dragons as a Kicker/Punter his sophomore through senior years. He received numerous honors in football this last year including being chosen by the Kansas High School Coaches Association as a 1st Team 5A All-State Punter; KSHSAA Covered All-Class 5A Football Team; Kansas Sports Central Kicker of the Year; Sports in Kansas All-State 1st Team 5A Punter; and Sports in Kansas Top 100 Football Seniors. Jackson played Golf his freshman through senior years and qualified for Regionals his junior year. Other sports he played in high school include, basketball as a freshman, and baseball his freshman and sophomore years.

Jackson participated in Encore, Get Busy Living and HOSA. He has received 2 academic scholarships: the Altricia Meese Memorial Scholarship and an Emporia State University academic scholarship. He has volunteered with Special Olympics, Wesley House, sports camps, The Big Serve, and 4-H. He spends his time outside of school as an Independent Artist and singer/song writer and launched the album Not Such a Different Place on July 7, 2022. He recently launched his new country album, How It Feels to Wreck a F-150 and Maze. Jackson is an avid snow skier, equestrian and enjoys music, his cats, dogs, and horses. He enjoys spending time outdoors at the Ranch fishing and taking on building projects.

Jackson has committed and received a scholarship to play football at Emporia State University and will be majoring in International Business Management.

Jackson would like to advise incoming freshmen to live life Bold and have no doubts about your success.

'You Must expect great things of yourself before you can do them.' Michael Jordan
