BY CHUCK VANDENBERG
PCC EDITOR

FORT MADISON – This is your company's next team-building exercise.

Fort Madison Partners is again taking on homes for an April Paint-A-Thon in Fort Madison and Executive Director Tim Gobble said volunteers are the key to making the program a success.

"We're looking at doing a minimum of two more homes this year and we would like to add a third. It just depends on the amount of people we get to help again."

Gobble said other communities do Paint-A-Thon's as well and the best format is to have teams working on each house throughout the week with a point person for each team.

"That we can have one point-of-contact for each team and scheduling and communication are much more efficient. We get all the prep work done during the week and then we all hit the homes on Saturday to get the painting done," Gobble said.

Volunteers key to Paint-A-Thon's future growth, success

"Teams of volunteers are needed from businesses, churches, schools, industry, social service, and civic groups, etc. We will need a "Team Leader" to be a contact that can then pass information along to their volunteers (teammates) and help prepare for the home selection process."

Volunteers must be at least 16 years of age (with a signed parental consent form) and all volunteers will need to sign a waiver to participate.

The program begins with identifying homes from applications for the program. Community Action Network officials will qualify homes and inspect them and then volunteers are assigned to scrape, prime, and paint each house during the week. Team leaders coordinate schedules for each home.

Fort Madison Partners is also looking for sponsorships to offset the costs of brushes, drop clothes, water, etc. Partner sponsorships are $500 and Community Sponsorships are $250. Sponsors will be included in all marketing materials and on t-shirts made for the event.

For more information on how your group can be involved call the Partners' office at 319-372-5471.
