Fort Madison man charged with vehicular homicide

Charge stems from reckless driving in Keokuk boy's death

BY CHUCK VANDENBERG
PCC EDITOR

FORT MADISON – A Fort Madison man has been arrested in connection with the accidental death of a 14-year-old Keokuk boy on April 1.

According to Lee County Attorney Ross Braden, Jeremy Gillette, 18, of Fort Madison, was arrested Friday evening and charged with vehicular homicide as a result of reckless driving.

The charge is a Class C felony punishable by up to 10 years in prison.

Braden said the complaint filed in South Lee County court alleges that the boy was riding his bicycle while holding onto an open window on the 2012 Chevy Impala that Gillette was driving.

The boy, who was identified in earlier reports as Brandon Scott Fitzgerald, lost control of his bicycle and struck his head on the pavement on South 7th Street in Keokuk near the intersection of K Street.

He was taken by Lee County EMS to Unity Point Hospital in Keokuk where he died from injuries sustained in the accident.

Braden said 1st Assistant Lee County Attorney Jonathan Stensvaag filed the complaint Friday.

“This is just a terrible situation – we’re talking about kids. The driver himself was still a kid,” Braden said.

“We didn’t take this charge lightly. We had a pretty good idea what happened, but this is one of those things we wanted to approach cautiously. This wasn’t a charge we wanted to throw around lightly because of the young people involved in this accident.”

No information on bond was available as of this posting.

Bloodhounds' rackets hot with 3-0 start

Nos. 1-4 still unbeaten on the year in singles and doubles

BY CHUCK VANDENBERG
PCC EDITOR

FORT MADISON – The Fort Madison Bloodhounds boys tennis team stayed hot with a 6-3 win over Burlington Notre Dame Friday in a makeup of a postponed Thursday match. The Hounds are now 3-0 in team play on the year.

The Hounds took four of six in single matches and two of four in doubles matches with some exciting tennis at No. 1 singles and doubles.

Fort Madison's Sam Avery downed the Nikes Travis Wills 6-0, 7-5 at No. 1 singles. Avery had his way with Wills in the first set, but Wills came back with some better pace on his first service in the second set.

Wills had Avery down three games to four and the two would both win their next two service games to make it 4-5. Facing a second-set loss and a possible tie breaker, Avery broke Wills next service game to tie the set at 5.

With Avery down 30-40 serving the next game, Wills hit back-to-back blistering forehands to Avery who got caught in from the baseline. But the Holy Trinity senior fought off the barrage with some nifty hands at midcourt to stay in the point, and Wills eventually committed an unforced error into the net to tie it up at deuce.

Wills would then miff on Avery's serve at deuce for the win in the "no-ad" contest. No-ad games

Jason Thurman waits to see if Notre Dame's Travis Wills will get to his drop shot in doubles tennis action Friday at the Bloodhound tennis courts. Thurman and twin brother Vasin Thurman are hoping to repeat a trip to the state tournament in May. The two are 3-0 on the year in singles and doubles action. The Bloodhounds are also 3-0.

declare the winner on the first point of deuce.

The two would stay knotted a 15, 30 and finally deuce in the final game and another unforced error by Wills off Avery's serve would end the match.

The rest of the top four for Fort Madison had easier runs through singles action with Jason Thurman downing Dilan McElderry 6-1, 6-0 at No. 2, Vasin Thurman rolling the Nikes' Cole Williamsn 6-0, 6-1 at No. 3 singles and junior Reed Fehseke rolling Tyler Dameron at No. 4, 6-1, 6-0.

Notre Dame would get two wins at No. 5 and 6, when Cordell Scarborough downed Bryce Workman 6-4, 6-3 and Kaleb Allen downed the Hounds Levi Sissell 7-6 (8-6 tiebreaker) 7-5 in a close match on the east end of the Bloodhound tennis courts.

Fort Madison's top four singles players are undefeated on the year at 3-0.

Does CBD Oil Really Work?

There has been a lot of talk about CBD (Cannabidiol) oil. The non-intoxicating marijuana extract is being credited with helping treat a host of medical problems -- everything from epileptic seizures to anxiety to weight loss to sleeplessness. Cannabidiol oil is extracted from the buds and flowers of marijuana or hemp plants.

We invite you to join us as Dr. Amy Huber explores what CBD oil is, whether these claims are hype or reality, and most importantly the safety of using CBD oil.

Net play boosts Thurmans to win

No. 5 seed Bryce Workman hits a forehand return in his 4-6, 3-6 loss to Burlington Notre Dame's Cordell Scarborough Friday in Fort Madison. The Hounds dropped three on the day in a 6-3 team win over the Nikes to move to 3-0 on the year.

with an entertaining 6-2, 6-2 win over Wills and Williams at No. 1 doubles.

Although the score was a bit lopsided the two squads had some nifty net play with Jason Thurman and Williams exchanging about six volleys at the net with Notre Dame down 0-3. Thurman was able to get a lane through to the back right side of the court to end the point.

"We had a good display of doubles action by Thurmans, and Fesheske and Avery," Head Coach Good serving and attacking. Singles matches.

The Thurmans went to state in doubles action last year and were the only freshman team in the state to make it to Waterloo.

Fehseke and Avery knocked off McElderry and Dameron 6-2, 6-1 and Ty Hill and Riley Ruther won a first-to-10 No. 3 doubles match over Workman and Sissell 10-7.
