City to consider lease agreement with Viking Cruises

Agreement is a precursor to formal Ground Lease

BY CHUCK VANDENBERG
PCC EDITOR

FORT MADISON - Viking Cruise officials said this fall they were going to move quickly with plans to introduce domestic cruises on the Mississippi River beginning in 2020.

City officials have an agreement for consideration at Tuesday's regular meeting to lease docking space in Fort Madison to the cruise lines in anticipation of a Fort Madison stop planned for the St. Louis to St. Paul 7-day excursions north and south on the Mississippi.

Fort Madison Mayor Brad Randolph said in October that the idea had been resurrected when Viking officials found a new shipbuilder to build and own the ships, but would lease them back to Viking to overcome a maritime law hurdle that put a hold on previous plans to launch the cruises.

A Viking spokesman updated city officials in Dubuque this fall about the new shipbuilder and plans for the cruises and said as soon as ships start being built, the company would start locking in agreements. However, officials were told at that point that the cruise line hadn't decided if it would stop in Burlington or Fort Madison and could put packages together where passengers might have options on the two ports of call.

City Manager David Varley has recommended the council approve the agreement, which is a precursor to a commitment to a long-term Ground Lease that is currently being suggested at 20 years. Under that agreement the city would agree to work with Viking and governmental agencies to secure funding to build a floating dock for the boarding and off-boarding of passengers and supplies on the city's shores. Also as part of the long-term lease, the city will be paid a rent of $1 per passenger on the cruises. Preliminary estimates are that 165,000 passengers could be cruising the Mississippi by 2027, however there are several proposed cruises and some of those would run south of St. Louis and not dock in Fort Madison.

Hayes takes 2nd at Hound Invitational

FM man picked up on drug charges, warrants

Thurman busted for selling within 1000 feet of a park

PCC STAFF

FORT MADISON - The Lee County Narcotics Task Force reports the arrest of a Fort Madison, Iowa man on felony drug charges.

Jason Paul Thurman, 39, of Fort Madison, Iowa was arrested on December, 13th, 2018 on felony drug charges. Thurman is charged with two counts of delivery of more than 5 grams of methamphetamine within 1000 feet of a public park, class B felonies. If convicted, Thurman faces up to 60 years in a state correctional facility.

The arrest of Thurman stems from an investigation by the Lee County Narcotics Task Force into allegations that he was involved in the distribution of illegal drugs in the Lee County area. Thurman also had warrants for his arrest from another agency.

The Lee County Attorney's Office, Iowa Division of Narcotics Enforcement, and the Lee County Sheriff's Office, assisted the Lee County Narcotics Task Force in this investigation.

The defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.

Hayes, Hounds take 2nd at FM Invitational

Senior Sam Hayes falls to No. 5 Cade Parker in 195 finals

BY CHUCK VANDENBERG
PCC EDITOR

FORT MADISON - A title match at 195 lbs pitting the Nos. 3 and 5 wrestlers in the state highlighted the 17-team Fort Madison Invitational Saturday afternoon.

The Bloodhounds' senior Sam Hayes, currently No. 3 in the state, breezed through the tournament until he found himself a battle with No. 5 Cade Parker of Cedar Rapids Kennedy junior, Both rankings are according to The Predicament, the top wrestling magazine in the state of Iowa.

In Friday action, Hayes received two byes at the top of the bracket, and then pinned Burlington's Danny Scott in 1:14 in round three, the last round wrestled on Friday night of the two-day tournament.

On Saturday morning, Hayes started his day with a quick pin of Hunter Aney of Mediapolis in just :54 seconds and then recorded another fall over Dalton Sell in just :41 seconds. Running up against Parker, who came into the meet, 12-1 to Hayes' 13-1 record, proved tougher going as the Bloodhound fell just 3-2 in a close decision.

"Sam ran into a really tough kid in the final match. Parker is a top wrestler in the state and that was a tough match," Smith said.

Fort Madison's varsity wrestlers finished in second place with 168.5 points behind Kennedy who ran away with the tournament with 274.5 points.

Owen and Elton Kruse, wrestling at 106 and 113, both took 3rd place with wins in the 3rd-4th place matches.

After getting two byes in Friday action, Owen downed Mediapolis' Nathan Krieger by fall at 3:26 to end his Friday work. Saturday started with a 5-0 win over Matthew Steffensmeier of the Fort Madison junior varsity squad. Kruse would bang into Krieger again in the consolation semis where he scored a 15-0 technical fall to get to the 3rd place match where he dumped Cael Long of Kennedy in a 12-0 major decision.

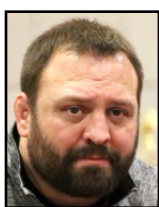

At 113 lbs, Elton Kruse started Friday with two byes and then knocked off Liberty's (Wentzville, Mo.) Patrick Lynch with a pin in just under one minute. On Saturday, Kruse downed Jonah Hallam of Kennedy by fall at 5:04. Council Bluffs' Mason Allen would barely sneak by Kruse in the semifinals with a 1-0 decision. Kruse would then rebound with a win in the consolation semis over Bryce Jackson of Hallsville with a quick pin at :42. He would then square off against Hallam again in the 3rd place match and went 2-0 against Hallam with a 4-2 decision for third place.

The other 3rd place for the Hounds came in the 285 lb bracket when junior Danen Settles won in an ultimate 4th round tiebreaker over Burlington Notre Dame's Drake Fox 3-2. Settles had two byes on Friday and then beat Muscatine's Brandon Bryant 16-2 in a major decision. After knocking off Burlington's Julius Harris by fall at the 5:20 mark, Settles suffered his only loss of the event when he lost a 7-2 decision to Gabe Hayes of Louisa-Muscatine, sending him to the 3rd place match.

The Bloodhounds also scored 4th place finishes from Gavin Wiseman of the Fort Madison junior varsity squad at 120 lbs, Dayne Cordray at 126, and Diego Lozano at 182 lbs.

Wiseman fell to Kael Scranton of Clear-Creek Amana in the 3rd place match by fall at 4:21. Cordray lost two times at the meet to Ty Pfiffner of Kennedy, the first on Friday night with a 10-2 decision and the second time was for third place where Pfiffner scored another major decision at 10-3. Cordray recorded two pins on the day, both in less than one minute. Lozano wrestled in all seven matches over the weekend with no byes and ended up falling to Muscatine's Brennan Borders by fall at 1:36. Lozano recorded four pins in the tournament.

Fort Madison's Nathan Steffensmeier took the other top five finish for the Hounds when he scored a major decision over Kuinton Middugh of Muscatine 20-6.

Smith said he was satisfied with the 2nd place finish and said the tournament brought in tough competition that the Hounds need to see early in the season.

"We want to see this level of competition and have our eyes opened now so we don't get into districts and have it happen there where it might be too late," Smith said.

Smith said Owen Kruse had a strong showing at the event.

"He really worked hard and worked through some tough matches and he did a good job fighting for that third place finish," Smith said.

The Fort Madison junior varsity team finished in 13th place ahead of Van Buren, Keokuk, Illini West, and Warsaw.

Sophomore Will Larson paced the jay-vee squad with a 4th place finish at 132 lbs. Matthew Steffensmeier earned a fifth place finish at 106.

CHARLOTTE RENEE HELLYER GERST

WEST BURLINGTON - Destiny Hellyer and Adam Gerst are proud to announce the birth of their daughter Charlotte Renee Hellyer Gerst on Dec. 7, 2018 at the Fort Madison Community Hospital.

Charlotte joins Addie and Jax at home. Grandparents are Renee and Cloyd

Great-grandparents are Eunice Jensen of Keokuk; and Deane and Freda Thornton of Middletown.

Pen City Current congratulates the family on this wonderful news.

Viking offers to share costs

would include:

- an exclusive Ground Lease with the city which shall provide Viking with full and direct access to the river.
- once signed, the Ground Lease will include a 20-year initial term with the option to extend for two additional 10-year terms.
- Viking will pay the city $1 per passenger traveling.
- Ground Lease will grant Viking the right to construct improvement on the property such as roadways, loading stations, commercial space, a docking facility which may include land-based structures, a floating dock and ramp, and other necessary facilities and the ability to tie into all necessary utilities.
- Viking is willing to contribute to costs of constructing any improvements on the property provided that the City shall cooperate with Viking in any requests to government officials. Also, the City shall provide good and clear title to the property.

The Agreement to Lease, which is the only agreement in front of the council regarding Viking at this point, provides that both parties will work to enter into the 20-year Ground Lease within three months of the effective date of Viking's charter to operate on the Mississippi River. Until that time the "Agreement to Lease is considered a binding and legally enforceable document.

In other action Tuesday, the council is expected to:

- take up the cemetery rate increases that were tabled at the last meeting on Dec. 4, due to lack of attendance. Some holiday/Sunday service increases are as high 116% for adults to $2,000 from $950.
- consider appointing Varley to the Southeast Iowa Regional Planning Commission Board of Directors.
- adopt a resolution to file an application with SEIRPC to acquire federal funding to reconstruct the intersection of Business 61 and 53rd Street.

Mohrfeld, Hellman, and Wyrick lead BHS swimmers

PCC STAFF

BURLINGTON - The Burlington Grayhounds swim team, featuring several athletes from Lee County schools, won a dual meet Thursday against Clinton at the Burlington High School pool.

Snowy days are right around the corner

... so now's the time to plan ahead!

Sure, it's hot now. But the days are already getting shorter. Are you ready for the shoveling, the shivering and the social limitations of winter? You won't have to worry about dark, icy roads or feeling cooped up this winter if you're safe, warm and enjoying life at The Kensington. Choose your apartment now and move in any time before November 1. You'll get one month's free rent to redeem any time after the third month. We'll even pay for a professional to move your furniture! Just don't wait too long — availability is limited.

For more information about this hot deal please call Victoria at (319) 372-4233, or send an email to: VMatlock@Kensington-Evergreen.com.
