BY PCC STAFF

KEOKUK - More than 150 guests attended the Eppers-O'Malley dinner Thursday in Keokuk. The event drew five gubernatorial candidates from around the state and representatives from two other candidates.

Former Gov. Tom Vilsack's Chief of Staff, John Norris; Cathy Glasson, a nurse and state labor advocate; Andy McGuire, the former Iowa Democratic Party Chair; Ross Wilburn, a diversity officer with Iowa State Extension Office; and Jon Neiderbach, an attorney from the Des Moines area, addressed the crowd, and an auction was held after the dinner.

Representatives from State Sen. Nate Boulton and Des Moines businessman Fred Hubbell attended the event as well.

Krogmeier tapped to lead LeeComm

BY PCC STAFF

FORT MADISON - The LeeComm Board of Directors announced on Thursday that Shanna Krogmeier of Fort Madison has been named to lead the LeeComm 911 dispatch center.

Krogmeier has been Assistant Director of Lee County Emergency Management Services and was recently named as an assistant medical examiner in a three-county agreement service agreement with Henry, Lee and Des Moines counties, based out of Great River Health Systems.

According to a release from Lee Comm Chair and Fort Madison Police Chief Tim Sittig, the board conducted a nation-wide search for a new director and had interest from as far away as Wyoming and Florida.

Approximately 40 applications were received. The board narrowed down the list of applicants to ten who were interviewed. Out of the ten finalists, the board then narrowed the list down to three top candidates. A thorough background investigation was completed and the board then selected one person for the position.

"The Lee Com Board of Directors is pleased to announce the hiring of Shanna Krogmeier of Fort Madison as the new Lee Com Director of Operations. Shanna was most recently employed as the Assistant Director at Lee County Ambulance. Shanna brings a passion for team building and leadership and will work provide the best 911 Communications Center Lee County residents expect. Shanna's start date will be November 13th 2017," Sittig wrote.

Over the summer and fall the board has been looking to replace the Director of Operations for the Lee Com 911 Dispatch Center, after the board accepted the resignation of Diana Fincher-Smith.

GRHS names Wentzel new CEO effective Jan. 2

Richardson to resign after 20 years at helm in W. Burlington

WEST BURLINGTON - Great River Health Systems today announced Matthew Wenzel will become president and chief executive officer Tuesday, Jan. 2. He will succeed Mark Richardson, who has held the position since 1997.

Wenzel worked at Saint Luke's Health System in Kansas City from 2006 to 2017. Most recently, he was president and CEO of Saint Luke's North Hospital, a two-campus hospital with a combined 159 beds. He had been CEO of Hedrick Medical Center, another health system facility, where he led the planning, design and construction of a new hospital.

"Choosing a new leader to carry on Great River Health Systems' mission is a significant decision," said Dan Wiedemeier, board chairman. "We chose Matt Wenzel because he demonstrates excellent interpersonal relationships with employees combined with strong leadership skills. Changes in health care are increasingly challenging, and he is a good fit to meet those challenges."

Wenzel received a bachelor's degree in biology-pre-medicine from the University of Missouri in 2001, and concurrent Master of Health Administration and Master of Science-Healthcare Informatics degrees from the university in 2004. Before joining Saint Luke's Health System, Wenzel was marketing manager of physician solutions at Cerner Corporation, the health information technology company that provides Great River Health Systems' electronic medical records system.

Wenzel is a Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives. He serves on the boards of directors of YMCA of Greater Kansas City and Northland Regional Chamber of Commerce, and the economic development councils of Parkville, Clay County and Platte County, Missouri.

Wenzel and his wife, Andrea, have four children.

Alliant earns high marks for corporate equality

Company earns 100 percent on 16th Annual Scorecard on LGBTQ Workplace Equality

Submitted article
MADISON, Wis. – Alliant Energy received a perfect score of 100 percent on the 2018 Corporate Equality Index (CEI), a national benchmarking survey and report on corporate policies and practices related to lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer (LGBTQ) workplace equality, administered by the Human Rights Campaign Foundation. The company joins the ranks of 609 major U.S. businesses which also earned top marks this year. “We are honored to be designated a Best Place to Work for LGBTQ Equality by the HRC,” stated, Wayne Reschke, Senior Vice President – Human Resources. “Particularly because bringing LGBTQ issues to the forefront and reaching the 100% score has been a collaborative effort between employees and leadership. It affirms our core value of Respect– together we create a workplace where people feel like they belong and can use their unique backgrounds, talents and perspectives to their fullest potential.”

The 2018 CEI rated 947 businesses in the report, which evaluates LGBTQ-related policies and practices including non-discrimination workplace protections, domestic partner benefits, transgender-inclusive health care benefits, competency programs and public engagement with the LGBTQ community. Alliant Energy’s efforts in satisfying all of the CEI’s criteria results in a 100 percent ranking and the designation as a Best Place to Work for LGBTQ Equality.

*Barr Memorial Chapel to hold holiday
Remembrance Program*

The holiday season is approaching quickly, but for some, our lives are different this year. Our lives are changed because someone we loved is no longer here with us.

Beginning at 1:30 pm Saturday, December 2, 2017 at the Barr Memorial Chapel, Fort Madison we invite you to join us for our Holiday Remembrance Program. Pastor Dean Graber will share a message of hope. A special candlelighting ceremony will follow to remember and celebrate the lives of those we loved.

This free community program is open to everyone. RSVP is not required. For more information please call Deanna at 319-372-5664. We hope that you and your family and friends will join us to pause and remember those special people who were so important in our lives.
