Freitag to hold K9 fundraiser

Turbo Car and Dog Wash owner Eric Freitag chats with Tom Humburd inside the dog wash bay at the car wash on the corner of Avenue L and 37th Street. Freitag will be donating all dog wash sales to the Lee County K9 from Aug. 13-19. The bay is open 24/7.

FORT MADISON - Fort Madison businessman Eric Freitag is putting his new dog wash business to work for the county.

Beginning on Monday Aug. 13 through Aug. 19, Freitag will be donating 100% of all the proceeds of dog washes that week to the Lee County K9 Association.

Freitag said he'd been reading on social media about some of the fundraisers that have gone on in the county and decided letting dog owners help the K9 Association made some sense.

"It'll start next week on Monday and we'll go all the way through to Sunday," Freitag said. "It's open 24/7 and people can come and see what the dog wash is about and at the same time make a nice donation the Lee County K9 Association."

He said he originally thought about doing the fundraiser over a weekend, but said it probably wouldn't be a good idea to have a bunch of dogs lined up waiting to get in, so he just decided to donate a whole week's worth so people could come in at their leisure.

"Well, they actually posted a thing on messenger on Facebook about a fundraiser and I messaged them and said 'It seems like a lot of dog people support dog charities,'" Freitag said. There has been a lot of fundraisers for the association and donations, but this way it's a dog-related fundraiser. This kind of helps people with dogs give back to the K9 Association."

Freitag said he didn't have a specific goal in mind and whatever is made is made and it will all go to that

Morning Sun man surrenders to authorities

Charged in connection with body discovered Sunday in rural Lee County

BY CHUCK VANDENBERG
PCC EDITOR

LEE COUNTY - A Morning Sun man has been arrested after turning himself in to the Lee County Sheriff's office on Sunday night, in connection with a body found in a ditch in rural Lee County.

On Sunday at approximately 10:42 a.m., the Lee County Sheriff's Office was contacted in reference to a deceased female found on a gravel road located on 235th Avenue, south of West Point, Iowa, in Lee County.

HAMANN

The girl has been identified as Sadie Alvarado, 20, of Muscatine, Iowa.

Later in the evening, the Lee County Attorney's office was briefed on the facts and circumstances of the investigation and filed charges on Damian Hamann, 28, of Morning Sun, Iowa. Hamann has been charged with Leaving the Scene of an Accident Resulting in a Death, a Class D Felony. Hamann turned himself into the Lee County Sheriff's Office on August 5, 2018.

DCI Special Agent Rick Rahn said this morning that investigators will not be releasing additional information on the type of accident or the actual cause of death pending the outcome of an autopsy scheduled for Tuesday at the University of Iowa's Decedent Care Unit.

The case is still under investigation.

This is a joint investigation by the Iowa Department of Public Safety's Division of Criminal Investigation, Lee County Sheriff's Office, Lee County Attorney's Office, and the Lee County Medical Examiner's Office.

K9 Association has more events planned for the fall

The dog wash is located at the corner of Avenue L and 37th Street in Freitag's newly opened car and dog wash. The dog wash station is a self-service station on the west end of the lot in a temperature controlled setting.

Tom Humburd of Donnellson was giving his dog "Faith", a 6-month old Belgian Shepherd, a bath. Faith sat close to her owner as he towel dried her after utilizing the system. Dogs enter a bathing area with a closed door and then can be sprayed, shampooed and even blow dried. Dog owners just purchase time in the bathing stall on the machine itself.

"I really like it," Humburd said. "I came by last week to take a look at it and decided I would bring Faith in. She did really well and I think she enjoyed it. We'll be back."

Bob Conlee, who chairs the association, said there will be a kickoff for the fundraiser Monday.

"We'll be there at the car wash to kick it off at 8 a.m. and try to help promote that," Conlee said. "I'm planning on having a bite suit on and maybe we can bring up Gunner to let people get a look."

The Association has two dogs that are part of the Lee County Sheriff's association. 'Gunner' is handled by Deputy Uriah Wheatley and 'Kion' is handled by Deputy Dakota Foley.

Conlee said donations are slow during the summer because everyone has so much going on, but the group has plans for the fall.

"It's slow right now. Everyone is busy with vacations, but we do have some plans for later on," he said, "We want to get a fall raffle going and I think there's going to be a LeeComm golf tournament in September. Proceeds will go to the K9 Association and CrimeStoppers. We're doing ok, but it doesn't take long for the money to disappear."

Conlee said the county and surrounding areas have been tremendous in helping get the program, which has been entirely supported through private donations, off the ground.

"People in this area are fantastic. They just jump in and help when there's a need."
