Donnellson city staff gets new office space

Water operations no longer controlled by a water board

BY CHUCK VANDENBERG
PCC EDITOR

DONNELLSON – The city staff in Donnellson has some new digs.

The 50-year-old building on Pershing Street looks impeccable with up-to-date security measures, a police wing, offices for city staff, and a kitchen.

The city closed on the building in January for $60,000 and after about four months of renovations finally moved in last week.

Following the city's regular council and water board meeting on Monday night, City Clerk Rebecca Schau offered a tour of the building.

Schau said the previous city building was deteriorating with poor electrical service and inefficient heating and cooling systems. She said the building sat empty for almost a decade.

"It's actually been vacant for 10 years. We gutted it and everything is new," Schau said.

"During the peak months, that building could run up a $500 electric bill. When this came open we were spending $500 a month on the electric bill for a 900 square foot building during peak months. I couldn't even vacuum without shutting off all the other services," Schau said.

All the entry points have now have security swipes where you have to have a key to get past the doors.

"That was huge. In the other building, residents could just come right to us, but in today's world these security issues are needed."

Public works director Todd Herdrich has an office in the building, as does Schau and a part-time clerk. The south side has a kitchen facility and then the west side of the building is dedicated to police operations.

"People don't think in a small town like Donnellson

Burglars pull "smash and grab" on cell phone outlets

FORT MADISON – A burglary this morning is being described as a "smash and grab" at two local cellphone retailers on Avenue L in Fort Madison.

According to interim Fort Madison Police Chief Stacy Weber, the burglaries took place at approximately 3:45 a.m. Monday morning.

"The burglaries happened simultaneously at the U.S. Cellular and Verizon stores in Fort Madison," Weber said this afternoon.

"Two male subjects were seen on video in

He also said investigators believe the incident is tied to additional burglaries in other jurisdictions, and a vehicle theft.

Weber said detectives are also looking into the still open cases involving a December break-in at Rashid Drug which is in the same neighborhood as the cell phone retailers, as well as a incident at the Fort Madison Rec Plex.

Argyle woman wins $250K on Iowa scratch off

CLIVE, Iowa — A Lee County woman scratched off a $250,000 lottery prize just a couple of days before her birthday.

Doris Horton, 59, of Argyle, won the sixth of 18 top prizes available in the Iowa Lottery's "Aces High" scratch game.

"Quite a few people know about it, but they think I'm lying," Horton said with a laugh as she claimed her prize on Tuesday at the lottery's regional office in Cedar Rapids.

Horton, a respiratory care practitioner, purchased her winning ticket at Hy-Vee, 3111 Main St. in Keokuk. She had stopped to pick up a newspaper to read at work before her nighttime shift started, but the store was sold out so she bought a scratch ticket instead.

She said after she scratched off the $250,000 prize, she didn't believe her eyes and thought she wasn't seeing it right because she was still tired from working the third shift.

"When I scratched it off, I thought, 'No, this can't be right,'" she said. "So I called my brother and he thought it was a terrible, terrible joke to wake him up out of bed."

Horton took the ticket to her brother's house and he confirmed her big win. She said she plans to use her winnings to pay off her home and care for her two great-grandsons.

Police think burglaries part of a string

the departure of Tim Sittig, who resigned as the Fort Madison Police Chief on Friday.

"We're aware of those open cases involving the recplex and the Rashid burglary, but they just walked into this one and it has consumed them from the beginning of the day," Weber said.

"Newly assigned Detective Doyle will be working hand-in-hand with our detectives."

Weber said the burglary was a typical 'smash and grab' you would see in more metro areas.

"They just throw something through the window and go in and steal phones, but they didn't get away with very much. They did more damage to the windows," he said.

Police were called to the scene at about 6:30 a.m. Monday morning to find both the glass doors at U.S. Cellular at 2315 Avenue L and the Verizon retailer at 2311 Avenue L both shattered.

The U.S. Cellular office space is leased from Dave and Sandy Holtkamp and the Verizon store is located in a building owned by Dan Fraise.

An employee at the U.S. Cellular store in the 2300 block of Avenue L, helps clean up debris from an early Monday morning burglary. Fort Madison police have suspects in the burglary that took place at about 3:45 a.m.

FMCS D to offer free breakfasts to all students

FORT MADISON - The Fort Madison Community School District will be providing free breakfast for every student (K-12) for the 2019/2020 school year.

FMCS D recognizes the value in providing our students with with free breakfast. With free breakfast, students will benefit nutritionally, academically, and socially. By eating breakfast, students get more important nutrients, vitamins and minerals such as calcium, dietary fiber, folate and protein (Wilson et al., 2006). Eating breakfast also helps students pay attention, perform problem-solving tasks, and improve their math and reading skills (Alaimo et al., 2001 & Rampersaud et al., 2005). Children who eat school breakfast are more likely to behave better in school and get along with their peers than those who do not (Benton et al., 2007).

Not only will this breakfast benefit our students, it will benefit our families as well. By providing free breakfast at school, our families can save time and money. FMCS D understands that morning can be hectic, so we'll handle breakfast!

The nutrition fund at FMCS D will support the cost of providing breakfast to all students. This small cost is insignificant to the huge benefit we will see by providing a nutritious breakfast to all children in our district.

The Fort Madison Community School District is excited to save our families time and fuel our students learning.

SCC in state's new Last-Dollar Scholarship program

WEST BURLINGTON – Students entering select SCC programs in this fall may be eligible for scholarships thanks to a new program through the State of Iowa's Future Ready Iowa initiative.

The new Future Ready Iowa Last-Dollar Scholarship is designed to offset tuition not already covered by scholarships or federal and state grants for select career programs offered at community colleges across Iowa.

The State of Iowa used wage and job outlook criteria to identify qualifying programs. Students entering the following SCC programs may be eligible for Last-Dollar Scholarships: Network Administration & Cyber Security, Computer Aided Design Technology, Industrial Equipment Maintenance Technology, Welding Technology, Occupational Therapy Assistant, Emergency Medical Services, Respiratory Care, Associate Degree in Nursing, and Licensed Practical Nursing.

SCC Enrollment Coordinator Dana Chrisman says this will truly benefit students. "If you're going into one of these programs, there's a good chance you won't have to pay any tuition," she says. "You just have to fill out the FAFSA to get the process started."

To be eligible, students must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) by July 1. The scholarship is open to new high school graduates enrolling full-time, or adult learners age 20 and up who enroll full- or part-time. Students must also attend orientation, meet with their advisor, remain continuously enrolled, and maintain satisfactory academic progress.

The goal of Future Ready Iowa is to build Iowa's talent pipeline by boosting education beyond a high school diploma so Iowans are ready for careers of the future and employers have the skilled workers they need. The Last-Dollar Scholarship is geared toward specific programs to guide this process along.

"This is an outstanding plan to help students achieve their goals," Dean of Career and Technical Education Don Weiss states. "With Last-Dollar Scholarship covering that financial gap, the state is almost entirely removing the cost barrier. Grads will have job opportunities in in-demand careers, employers will get qualified applicants, and our state will be able to keep skilled workers."

The scholarship is renewable. Qualified students will need to reapply each year. Eligible programs are listed at <https://www.scciowa.edu/landing/last-dollar-scholar-programs.aspx>.

Fairfield takes two from Lady Hounds in FM

BY PCC STAFF

FORT MADISON – The Fort Madison softball team dropped two games on Monday night to visiting Fairfield.

In game 1, the Hounds got an RBI single from Ivy Geerdes in the fifth inning to tie up the game at 1 apiece, but couldn't get another runner home as the Lady Trojans escaped with a 2-1 win.

Junior Shalyn Drish started the game with a sliding double off Fort Madison starter Cassie Powers. Drish took a 1-2 pitch and flared it into left field where it dropped in front of Fort Madison's Dalyn Wondra. Wondra fired to second, but Drish slid in easily under the tag.

Powers would get the next two hitters with Drish still standing on the middle bag. But freshman Hannah Simpson would rip a Powers 0-2 offering straight back up the middle to bring home Drish for the opening inning 1-0 lead. Jenna Norris flew out to third in the next at bat to end the threat stranding one.

The score would stay there until the fourth inning when Simpson would again take a Power offering up the middle, but this time the ball had more altitude and carried the center field fence for a solo home run to put Fairfield up 2-0. Power would work two pop ups to the next two hitters to end the inning.

Fort Madison would then score in the bottom half to cut the lead to 2-1 when Powers opened the inning with a lead-off single to right and then swiped second. After a strike out, Geerdes would loft a bloop single to right to send Powers to third where she was held by head coach Jared Rehm.

The move paid off as sophomore Allison Helmick flew to deep right allowing Powers to tag and score. That would be the end of the scoring for the Hounds in the game as they would go 1-2-3 in the fifth and sixth. A two-out single by senior Vanessa Golowach would give Fort Madison a little life in the seventh, but fellow senior Jassmine Bass fanned in the next at bat to end the game.

Power went the distance for the Hounds giving up the two runs on six hits, striking out seven against no walks. Fairfield Allison Rebling picked up the win. The hits by Powers, Geerdes and Golowach were the only hits for the Hounds in the contest.

In the night cap, the Trojans jumped out to a 2-0 lead through four innings, but Fort Madison would tie it up with a couple runs in the bottom of the fourth.

Senior Olivia Williams singled to open the bottom of the frame. Powers would fly out to center for the first out, but Maycee Featheringill would single to left moving Williams to second. Williams and Featheringill would each swipe a base and then Williams scored when a Trojan wild pitch allowed the runners to advance.

Featheringill would then get caught trying to steal home as Rehm had the Hounds in go mode on the base paths. Geerdes would work a base on balls, but would also get caught stealing second for the second out and Helmick would strike out to end the threat tied at 2 all.

Fairfield would put up three more in the top of the fifth, but the Hounds would respond with a couple of their own in the bottom half highlighted by singles from Wondra and Bass. Both would come around to score, Bass on a single from Powers. With the aggressive base running, Logan Williams would get caught at home trying to stretch two bases out of Powers' single to end the inning down one at 5-4.

Fairfield would get two more in top of the sixth and one more in the seventh, and would hold the Bloodhounds scoreless for the remainder of the game taking the second game 8-5.

Katelyn Dennis went all seven giving up 10 hits and five earned runs. The freshman struck out. The freshman struck out two and walked two on 92 pitches.

The Hounds at now 1-5 on the year and tangle with Burlington on Tuesday again at home.

Donnellson City Clerk Rebecca Schau, stands in the new offices that Donnellson staff moved into last week. The city purchased the building for $60,000 and then renovated the inside for security things happen. But they do. She said a week ago, a man came in dressed in a bathrobe with his arms tucked inside and wandered around the office and then finally asked what he had to do to be arrested. He was homeless and tired and cold. So security is a huge deal for us.

Donnellson to issue bonds for building, water loans

During the regular meeting the city voted to dissolve the city's water board and put everything under the control of the city council.

She said a company called Slicker Wells used to run the city's water service and when they moved out of the city, it came back under the management of the city and it created a separate entity for the water department, creating some bureaucracy.

Schau said having the city conduct all the water department's business just makes sense and simplifies things.

"The funds will still be separate, but they'll all be under the umbrella of the city," she said. "The employees will all be the same, they'll all have the same jobs this just makes things simpler.

"It does save us in the long run and right now, I do all the waterworks billing by hand. We purchased the city's accounting system 3 years ago but I can't add that without paying an additional $2,000 for just the water. So this move eliminates that."

The city also set a public hearing for a proposal to enter into some General Obligation Loan agreements to borrow money.

The loans will be used to bring Rathbun water into Donnellson. The city took out a loan with USDA, but when they went through that agency a flag went up that the city already had a water revenue loan and the USDA didn't like the position.

"They were not going to take the back seat to the primary loan the city already had," Schau said. "So our bond attorney suggested to us to leave the USDA loan as a water revenue loan and then take the water loan we previously had and the city building loan and combine them under a general obligation loan."
