MUUUUSIC: Bands, floats, Bloody Marys, and Shoeloose highlight Saturday parade

FORT MADISON - The Grand Rodeo Parade down Avenue G in Fort Madison celebrating the 75th Anniversary of the Tri-State Rodeo, didn't disappoint.

From the traditional calls for MUUUUSSICCC from Neal Dodd with the contingency in front of Dodd Printing & Stationery, to the Moose Bloody Marys and cinnamon rolls, thousands lined the street for candy, t-shirts, band music, and good times.

All the available general chairman of past rodeos were on hand and the Eddie Richards family were named the Grand Marshals.

MENKE

Long-time Iowa sports official Roger Menke died unexpectedly Wednesday at University of Iowa Hospitals & Clinics. Menke was transported to the Iowa

Emergency crews said Menke was suffering from a medical issue that

Rodeo parade brings out all the fall feels

I don't think I've ever seen Tri-State Rodeo's C. E. "Eddie" Richards so full as it was Friday night for Alabama. What a tribute to so many. I'm not sure there's anything more Fort Madison than those who dress in cowboy garb and put on one of the greatest parties in the Midwest.

I was stationed at the Moose Lodge for the parade for reasons known to many, and all the past general chairmen, such as Bob Huffman, Josh Denning, Tony Johnson, Chuck Kempker, Mike Culbertson, Larry Smith, and others I swear to God I don't know but deserve the same respect, came walking by and I got a little goosepimply.

These guys are part of a fraternity of greatness, and this isn't sucking up, because these guys have earned something special. It just sat in on me as they walked past me after the parade headed to Faeth's Alcohol Tobacco and Firearms (that's awesome), as to how much has been accomplished by this committee.

The rodeo is something so special that someone who didn't grow up here really couldn't comprehend it from an internal perspective.

Connie Graber and Lisa Woods and the Holy Trinity Community and the Fort Madison Key Club and the Lee County Sheriff's Office and the Fort Madison Police Department, these groups that are regularly integral parts of an event that has transcended economics, politics, and even pandemics can keep something so special a part of a community our size is monumental.

Then you throw in the saddle clubs with beautiful horses, the Shriners, Shoeloose the Clown, Mr. Bailey on a tractor, the Oscar Mayer WienerMobile, and someone actually grilling on the float and throwing out hot dogs wrapped in aluminum foil... bun and all. It's as Matt Mohrfeld would say - "Americana".

My brother and his wife came down again

Menke's impact felt throughout Lee County's school athletic programs

caused his vehicle to leave the roadway near a creek bed. He was able to contact emergency crews for help and was transported by Lee County EMS.

Menke's obituary is listed in today's e-edition and at <https://www.pencitycurrent.com/stories/king-lynk-funeral-home-obituary-roger-j-menke-63-bona-parte,62644>. Menke is a 1979 graduate of Fort Madison High School and was a member of the Iowa Girls High School Athletic Union and Iowa High School Athletic Association for close to four decades and officiated a wide arrange of high school sports.

He is a member of the Iowa Coaches Association Hall of Fame, inducted in 2018. Menke was also a replay official for the Big Ten Conference.

Area high school officials reacted to the news of Menke's passing over the weekend.

Fort Madison Athletic Director Jeff Lamb said Menke was part of his athletic career at Fort Madison high school and will be missed.

"Roger has been officiating as long as I can remember at Fort Madison. I still remember baseball games I was a part of as a player that he was behind the plate calling the game," Lamb said. "Most of our students will not know how much his presence and willingness to do that job made a difference in their lives as often those individuals go unnoticed. He and his family have made countless events go on without missing a beat because they were willing to step up and do what so many others wouldn't. Roger will be dearly missed in our community and surrounding areas.

"Fort Madison Community School District's Activities Department would like to extend its condolences to the Menke family. We considered Roger a part of our community here as his presence was appreciated greatly by our department for his countless hours of officiating and helping our district."

Central Lee Superintendent Dr. Andy Crozier said Menke's contributions to area schools and athletes was numerous.

"Roger made a significant contribution to football, basketball, and softball through his officiating in Southeast Iowa. He was always highly respected by coaches, athletes, and the various communities he officiated for. His reputation as an official went beyond our area as he worked multiple state tournaments in multiple sports for the IHSAA and IGHSAU," Crozier said.

"Roger was also a great mentor to young officials in the area. He always provided excellent guidance and advice to new officials trying to find success in their early years. Losing a member of the high school sports community is always difficult. Losing an official of this caliber is even more difficult. His leadership and advocacy for officiating will certainly be missed."

Holy Trinity Catholic Athletic Director John Goetz said Menke has been a friend and critical part of his career for decades.

"I met Roger years ago and we played softball on the same team. Later I grew to know him as an official. I always considered him a great friend, but he was an even better person. He always helped me out at (Keokuk Cardinal) Stritch and Holy Trinity Catholic. Our prayers and thoughts are with his wife Sharon and his family. He will be missed," Goetz said.

Menke is survived by his wife, five children, and 12 grandchildren. Funeral services are planned at King-Lynk Funeral Home Tuesday at 9:30 with visitation beginning at 3 p.m. Monday at Ss. Mary and Joseph Church in Fort Madison.

Bloodhounds move to 3-0 with road win over Big Reds

BY CHUCK VANDENBERG
PCC EDITOR

Bloodhound senior Jarmarkus Kline pursues Centerville's Ryan Sinnott in the second quarter as Sinnott tries to find the edge for some yardage. The Hounds won 42-6 to move to 3-0 on the year with No. 1 Williamsburg coming to town Friday.

CENTERVILLE – It didn't take the Bloodhounds long to get going in week three and that's something that made head coach Derek Doherty a bit happier as Fort Madison improved to 3-0 on the year.

Doherty was sullen after the Hounds dropped Centerville 42-6 on Friday night in Centerville. Two of the Big Red were taken to the hospital with injuries, the latter of which seemed to be a bit more severe as Big Red sophomore Grady Stickler was taken away having his head strapped down on a backboard before being placed on the gurney. No injury report was available, but he was taken by ambulance to a nearby hospital.

"I'm just really worried about that kid," Doherty said.

The injury took place in the fourth quarter with about three minutes left in the game right before Fort Madison's Brody Cashman would take the Hounds' final touchdown in on a pitch pass to the right where he raced to the corner pylon and dived in for the score.

It was Cashman's second game in a row with a receiving touchdown out of the backfield.

Quarterback Marcus Guzman had by far his best outing of the season throwing the ball. The junior went 30-42 for 319 yards and two touchdowns. He rushed for three more.

Doherty said the Hounds worked in some new things but still have a lot to clean up with Class 3A No. 1 Williamsburg headed into Fort Madison next Friday.

"We're trying to be creative right now and really find our identity and what works for us. That's a week-by-week thing," he said. "We did install some new things this week and we had some success and we'll try and build from there."

Fort Madison came out and scored on the first possession on a 13-play, 61-yard drive where Guzman went 6-7 for 45 yards and then bulled in from two yards out for a 7-0 lead with Leif Boeding's extra point.

But Centerville came right back with quarterback Landon McGrann carrying the ball three of the first four plays for 24 yards and freshman Makoa Kaleponi adding eight more. A fumbled snap on 1-20 cost the Big Red 17 yards and a delay of game penalty added five more to make it 2nd and 29.

After a time out, McGrann hooked up with senior Ryan Sinnott on two consecutive passes just throwing it up to the 6-6 senior to go up and get, which he did for 28 yards. Four plays later, the two would hook up again in the back left corner of the endzone, but the Red would miss the extra point for a 7-6 game.

That's all the points the Hound defense would give up on the night. Senior Ben Ramatowski locked Sinnott down the rest of the game.

"We wanted to mess them up after that off the line and not allow a free release. That was a

The Good, The Bad, and The Healthy

So, what exactly is cholesterol? Cholesterol is a waxy, fat-like substance in your blood.

High levels of "bad" LDL cholesterol can cause fatty deposits to build up in your blood vessels, leading to heart attack, stroke, or other health problems. High levels of "good" HDL cholesterol may actually lower your risk for health problems – carrying plaque buildup to the liver, where they are flushed out of the body.

Having regular blood tests to check your cholesterol levels is key to your good health. Your healthcare provider at Southeast Iowa Regional Medical Center can help you manage your cholesterol - to keep you heart healthy.

great adjustment by Coach Cullen,” Doherty said.

Fort Madison would score on their next possession when Guzman found senior Henry Wiseman in the back right corner for a 14-6 lead.

The Bloodhound defense stifled Centerville for their next two possessions. Fort Madison would get on the board again with 5:50 left in the half when Guzman went in off the right side for a 6-yard score to make it 21-6, capping a 39-yard drive.

The Bloodhounds would get another Guzman rushing touchdown in the third period with just over six-and-a-half minutes left from five yards out. Henry Wiseman would score on a sweep from nine yards out to start the fourth quarter for the Hounds other score.

Hayden Segoviano led the Hounds out of the backfield. The senior had 132 yards receiving in a mix of screens and shovel pitches. He had 11 catches. He also had 48 yards on nine carries on the night.

Segoviano said the quick start and the win help put things into perspective going into next week's tussle with Williamsburg.

“I think it was our mentality. We've been waiting way too long and started slow,” he said. “I think today was finally the day where we wanted to come out and prove to everybody that we can be a dangerous team.

“Next week's going to be a handful. That's the No. 1 ranked team, but I think we have the guys and we've seen what we can do. If we get things clicking, we can be deadly and dangerous.”

Doherty said it was good to see the Hounds' offense get going, but he said there's still work to be done.

“It was nice to know we can put points on the board like we should be doing. But we've got a lot to clean up. There are times we look like a circus out there,” he said.

“Winning a football game is always a tough thing, but we don't want them to be content. We're trying to teach these guys to have that shark-smelling-blood mentality.”

BACK PAIN?

Do You Have Hip Pain? Are You As Stiff As a Board When You Try to Get Up From a Chair? Have You Run Out of Hope?

How 5 Lies About Low BACK PAIN May Keep You Hurting, Frustrated & Exhausted...Forever!

NEW Scientific Breakthroughs Often Make Short Work of Low Back Pain...Just What Big Medical Centers and High Priced Clinics Are PRAYING You Never Figure Out On Your Own!

Hi, I'm Dr. Jason James, and if you've got any kind of back, hip or leg pain, your worries may be over in just a few minutes. Why? Because I'm the owner of James Healthcare & Assoc. clinic, and I've discovered what may be the best healing secrets for "bad backs" — EVER!

Dr. Jason James, D.C.

I'd be stupid to make such a claim if I couldn't back it up. But I am so confident we can help your back, I insist on giving you a 100% SATISFACTION PLEDGE at James Healthcare. I hate empty promises, and I also hate the lies most folks have been told about their backs. That's why it's important I expose these MYTHS about back pain.

MYTH #1: Sciatica (pain down your leg) is always caused by a herniated disc!

No way...even though most doctors will sell you a $3,000 MRI at the first sign of leg pain. But they don't tell you about a 5-inch muscle in the hip that can squeeze the sciatic nerve. And it feels EXACTLY like you've got the worst slipped disc on earth. It's a major discovery and...

The good news is that it can be easy and inexpensive to correct! How? Just keep reading! But first, here's a picture to show you where the pain comes from:

MYTH #2: Stiffness from Arthritis means you're getting old...and it must be the reason for all your pain and stiffness!

Not true, because thousands of folks with arthritis in their backs have absolutely NO PAIN! Then why do YOU feel like your back will snap if you bend forward or twist too fast? Because the truth is:

Your stiffness may be caused by a hidden, even more dangerous problem than arthritis, and it can lead to a hip replacement!

You see, most folks believe that something mysterious (like maybe an "arthritis fairy"?) waved a wand over them, and they're cursed... doomed to suffer forever.

But did you know that many arthritis problems are CAUSED by a combination of unseen imbalances in the spine and surrounding muscles? It's the most common cause of hip replacements but not that hard to correct if we catch it in time. It's like the tires on your car...

If the alignment is off just a teeny-weeny bit, at first you don't notice, but over a few thousand miles you start to see signs of wear...that is, if you're lucky enough to catch it before a flat on the freeway ruins your day. In your spine, you're lucky if you catch untreated imbalances before they ruin your spine! How to fix them? Just look at Myth #3.

MYTH #3: Your Back is "Out"!

Sure, that's exactly how it feels. But guess what, we found that's usually not the case. It sounds good, but we now know better. You see, there are 7 different reasons for that painful, locked-up and stuck feeling that causes so much misery:

- low-grade spasm
- pelvis torque and tension
- imbalance of hips

- fallen or dropped arches
- stiff vertebra joint
- adhesions in leg muscle
- pinched nerve

It's NOT just your spine, and it's NOT just your muscles. As a matter of fact, if one of the major muscles that stabilize the spine is partly spasmed, a "2nd stringer" will have to carry the load. But this is a serious problem...

It's like having your plumber doing all the dangerous electrical work!

Sure, he may get it done, and it may work at first, but how long until there's a fire? Or your back locks up? Which leads me to our next myth:

MYTH #4: "It's Only a Muscle!"

Boy, it's scary how many people think muscle problems are no big deal. Unfortunately, tight, bound-up, and spasmed or tight muscles can wear out joints faster than you can say, "Charley Horse"!

That's why it's important to examine the spine AT THE SAME TIME as the muscles that control it. It's also why we've had such outrageous success with even the worst backs at James Healthcare. Because we deal with BOTH the spine and muscles at the same time. We have spine doctors (chiropractors), pain doctors (nurse practitioners) and muscle professionals (therapists) and together they deliver an outstanding way to help "bad backs". This ties in to Myth #5 and the diagram:

MYTH #5: "Muscle Relaxants" will help your muscles heal! Good grief, NO!

Your muscles tighten up for a reason, and muscle relaxants are like turning back the clock on a time bomb...you know it's still going to blow up! Sure, you may feel better now, but you'll pay later...and pay "in spades"! So don't fall for these lies about your low back. They'll keep you hurting, frustrated and exhausted forever!

WOULDN'T YOU RATHER:

Turn over in bed without pain waking you up?

Get up in the morning without being as stiff as a board?

Be able to stand for as long as you want without sitting down for relief?

Lean forward over the sink without that "stabbing" in your back or leg?

SCIENTIFIC BREAKTHROUGH:

A hidden muscle may be causing your SCIATICA! Does Your Back Seem "Too Old" for Your Own Body? Not everyone qualifies for treatment, so help us see if you do. If you check off even one box, drop what you're doing and call James Healthcare NOW. And bring this coupon when you come in for your 39-Point "Back-Pain Track-Down Exam". Now check off what describes you:

- Tension...always tight across the beltline
- Bent—crooked off to one side and can't stand up straight if your life depended on it
- Trigger Point...zinging pain to butt-cheek
- Stiff as a board...creak and groan when you first get out of bed in the morning
- Traitor...can't trust your back and what it's going to do—or when!
- Vice-like...constantly locked down tight!
- Shooting...vicious but short-lived
- Lumbago...hard to pin it down—just seems to hurt all the time, but it's hard to say where
- One-sided...right at that "bone" on one side
- Jack hammer...pounding off and on like a heartbeat or a toothache in your back
- Aching from 1-5 years
- Chronic pain for over 5 years

No one will try to sell you anything, and you make no commitment...you just find out what's wrong!

P.S. Why You MUST Not Wait! Because of appointment availability, we can only honor this $27 offer or bringing in a new or gently used winter coat through October 31, 2022. So don't say, "Well, maybe I'll be better tomorrow." Don't put your life on hold. Don't call in sick again. Live your life pain free! Tie your own shoes for a change.

Central Lee answers test at Durant

BY JOHN BOHNENKAMP
PCC Sports

DURANT — The first two wins of the season taught Central Lee's football team how to control a game.

The latest victory was about how to win a close one.

The 17-10 victory over Durant on Friday night has the Hawks (3-0) off to their best start since 2015 heading into the beginning of Class 2A district play next week.

Central Lee's defense forced three turnovers and shut out the Wildcats (0-3) in the second half.

"Our defense stepped up and did some nice things," Central Lee coach Doug Dodds said. "We had been talking, (saying) just do our jobs."

The Hawks opened the season with a 35-8 win at Van Buren, then had a 55-0 home win over Cardinal last week. This one was the challenge Dodds expected.

"When the schedule came out, I knew Van Buren was going to be a test," he said. "And Cardinal would give us a good look. But we knew Week 3 Durant was going to be a tough team. They play some tough teams. We knew coming up here they weren't going to be a slouch. It's a good way to get ready for districts."

Durant outgained Central Lee 287-205, but the Hawks' defense never let the Wildcats get into a rhythm.

Durant's lone touchdown came on a 76-yard pass from Charlie Huesmann to Caden Meyer in the first quarter. The Wildcats got a 24-yard field goal from Isaac Nielsen in the second quarter. But they would never threaten again.

"They had one good drive where they got a field goal," Dodds said. "They got one big play. Other than that, our defense played great."

Cory Jones, who had two interceptions and nearly came up with a third, said the Hawks had to be consistent on defense.

"They're a good team with a big running back and a bigger line than we're used to," he said. "And they had all of their skill players. We had to get our zones down."

Huesmann threw for 145 yards, but missed on eight of his last nine passes. One was knocked down by Jones, another was batted away by Chase Johnson on fourth down with less than three minutes to play.

"Their QB thinks he's a 'Madden' player. He thinks he can throw it while running," Jones said. "He just throws it over (the receivers). We knew we couldn't let them get behind us. We needed to know that we had to bear down on the passes, not get beat deep."

Central Lee opened the scoring on Kayden Calfee's 1-yard touchdown run with four minutes left in the first quarter. Durant tied it on Huesmann's pass to Meyer, then Central Lee answered with a long scoring drive capped by Colton Taft's 27-yard field goal.

After Nielsen's kick tied the game at 10, Johnson's 3-yard touchdown run with 22 seconds left in the first half provided what would ultimately be the final margin.

Calfee rushed for 85 yards. Grant Myhre had 56 rushing yards on just four carries — he had a 40-yarder in the second quarter that helped set up Taft's field goal.

Central Lee opens district play at home against Davis County next Friday.

Rodeo parade signals the beginning of autumn

this year, the first time since their kids were little. They're empty nesting and looking for things to do. John and I bet the over/under on how many horses would poop within the lines of the parking spot in front of us.

I had the over at six, he had it at three, and there were five. He won because if you take the over, it's over. I took over six and he took over three. Really? One more horse couldn't lift a tail? It's bad when your excitement turns to seeing horses poop.

I like the smell of Farm-all tractors and John Deeres and Internationals. I like the smell of a Bloody Mary and a pulled pork sandwich and I love hearing Neal Dodd scream "Muuuu-siiiiiiic" as the bands head east past the 700 block of Avenue G. He and his band of retail brethren hold up their yellow "10" signs that have been stored in the basement of Dodd's Printing & Stationery Inc. for decades.

If you can't tell by now, I was stationed across the street from Neal, and Matt and Betsy Hayes, and the rest of the riff raff that sits under the canopies outside the Dodd store on G. These folks actually practice a rendition of the 'Popcorn, peanuts, oooooooon soup, we want a touchdown, poop-poop-sie doop,' Brady Bunch cheer.

But it's absolutely wonderful. They work it up so it's perfectly timed and befitting a 75th anniversary of the Tri-State Rodeo. Either way, finding my way to the Rodeo and seeing again how exciting it is to watch bareback bronc riders, bull riders, and tie-down ropers is something that reminds me of how wonderful fall is. You can smell the campfires and smell the crispness of the September air.

I love that smell. It probably has something to do with the fact that football is upon us, the Bloodhound team is again 3-0 for the third straight year, Melissa Freesmeier's Lady Crusaders are AGAIN one of the top teams in the state, and I found a fresh outfit for Skole.

It's fall baby. Porchstock, Mexican Fiesta, Rodeo, Apple Cider, leaves falling in my damned gutters, yard work. It's all super comfy.

One of my favorite things about the Grand Rodeo Parade is seeing the kids rushing around for candy. Seeing Kinzlee Heidbreder waiving to the crowd like she's the best princess ever, which she might be, and the C.E. "Eddie" Richards family taking up an entire float to let Fort Madison know just how special they really are.

I don't know, s'mores, and grilled hot dogs and hoodies and shorts. It all seems like it could last forever, and it should. But that's Beside the Point.
