GRHS nixes Aetna, WellPoint

MEDICARE: Two Medicare Advantage programs to be cut by year's end

BY CHUCK VANDENBERG
PCC EDITOR

BURLINGTON – Great River Health System has announced that they are no longer accepting two forms of Medicare Advantage plans.

Information on the change came Monday morning, a week after the health system put out a release about their change in hospital designation which created a new, two-tiered billing structure.

The hospital system, including SEI Regional Medical Center and Henry County Health Center, will no longer be accepting Medicare Advantage plans offered by Aetna and Wellpoint. Wellpoint is formerly AmeriGroup.

The Aetna plan's coverage will no longer be accepted for clinic or hospital services starting on Oct. 10 of this year. The Wellpoint plan will stop at the end of the year.

A hospital spokesperson said the participants in both plans have been notified by letter of the change.

"We are also contacting scheduled patients on an individual

Harvest galore! in fall of 2024

The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest. Mathew 9:37-38

We didn't ask the Lord to send us laborers, but we did put out a message on social media that we had radishes, cucumbers, tomatoes, green beans, aronia berries and Macintosh apples free for the picking (or some already picked) and, oh boy, did we have takers!

One morning I was out picking tomatoes and there was a farmer mowing the ditches with one of those flex-wing mowers. I had a five-gallon bucket full of tomatoes, so I waved and tipped the bucket to show him. He stopped mowing, came over and admired the tomatoes. Politely, he didn't say a word about our weedy garden, except, "It's a good year for everything." He went away with that bucket full of tomatoes, happy for the surprise he had for his wife. I was pleased to get rid of the tomatoes, because I knew I had another bucket-and-a-half of tomatoes to pick, from just a dozen plants. Even the cherry tomatoes are as big as small tomatoes this year. Mercy! (Great for impulse eating.)

A couple of times while I was picking one thing or another, the mailman arrived at the mailbox. Seeing me in the garden (my happy place), he drove out and went away with buckets full of tomatoes and cucumbers. Always take care of the mail-person!

Ginnie is not a "canner." She has a pressure cooker but is afraid to use it, having heard so many stories of pressure-cooker blow ups. She does something called "water bath canning" and has put away a good stock of apple pie filling for apple pie whenever the mood strikes, and apple butter—my stomach is smiling. I have never been an apple butter fan, having FORT MADISON - Holy Trinity's volleyball team got some momentum heading into this weekend's SEI Superconference Tournament by sweeping through the Holy Trinity Classic on Monday night at Shottenkirk Gym.

The Crusaders, ranked No. 4 in Class 1A, didn't drop a set in its four matches, defeating Danville (21-19, 21-19), Keokuk (21-7, 21-13) and Fort Madison (21-7, 21-9) in pool play before downing Burlington 21-17, 21-18 in the championship match.

That sets Holy Trinity (12-5) up for its conference tournament, which begins with pool play on Thursday.

"I thought we just built (momentum) with every set today," Holy Trinity coach Melissa Freesmeier said. "This was a big win for us. We needed this tonight, so we can build on some things heading into the conference tournament."

The Crusaders split six matches at the Lisbon Tournament on Saturday, but three

OBITUARIES

DANIEL GUTTING

Daniel "Dan" Gutting, 64 of Keokuk, IA passed away Saturday, September 21, 2024 at the University of Iowa Hospital in Iowa City, IA.

GUTTING

Dan was born May 4, 1960, in Keokuk, IA, to Gene and Rachel Gutting. He grew up in Kahoka, MO. He was a rambunctious kid and loved playing baseball. Those knowing him growing up referred to him as Danny, Archie, or Arch. He said he always knew he was back home when he heard those names.

Dan lived a life full of hard work and fun. He graduated Clark County R-1 High School in 1978 and after working on the family farm for a bit, decided it was time to pursue his next love, radio. Dan attended college in Maryville obtaining a degree in broadcasting. After that Dan began his career working on air radio, utilizing his gifted deep voice. With his savvy intellect he eventually shifted over to the business side of broadcasting. Over his career he worked at many stations throughout the United States, often restructuring stations which he said was his favorite times. His favorite places where he lived and worked were Brownsville, TX, and Jacksonville, FL, where he ended up falling in love with the area and planted roots next to the beach for 30 years. While there he continued his successful career in radio even doing play by play for the Jacksonville Jaguars, which would forever remain his favorite football team. Eventually with his vast broadcasting talents and experience, Dan ended up switching directions once again and worked in TV in Jacksonville as well. His loves in Jacksonville, besides the Jaguars, were golfing with friends, hosting parties, and being out on the beach as much as possible.

Despite his career travels and dedication, Dan was devoted to his family. He always said regardless of the many miles between him and his sister Susan and brother John, they all knew he was there for them if they ever needed him. And he would be there in a second. His love for his nieces and nephews (Sarandon, Sierra, Colin, Killian, and Carissa) was vast. He would show pictures and brag on their accomplishments, share in their heartaches, and truly wear the uncle, and eventually great-uncle, title proudly. They gave him more joy than they could possibly know. After the loss of his father, Dan began returning to Kahoka each summer to assist his mother who would return from Arizona. There he got to revisit his love for the family farm. In 2020, he decided it was finally time to hang up his beach towel and return back home. He said being back home was the next adventure of his life.

While back home Dan enjoyed the family farm and once again got to see his favorite season, fall. Not having that in Florida he said he forgot just how beautiful it is. Once back home Dan also embarked on an adventure he didn't have planned. He and his future wife Sarah were introduced through a blind date email by a mutual friend and neither one of them saw what was coming. The wonderful unexpected rest was history meant to happen. They officially became husband and wife on January 4, 2024. Dan was the most amazing husband. He gave everything he had to whatever he was doing and being a husband was no exception despite it happening later in life. It's no surprise that Dan also excelled at becoming a father to Abbygail as their bond grew over the years. Dan and Sarah lived in Keokuk. Dan was very proud of their home and loved talking about the next home project to tackle. Dan and Sarah loved sitting out on their back patio and enjoyed just being there with each other. He was at his happiest when his house was filled with friends and family surrounded by an abundance of food that he would've spent hours smoking and cooking, happily. He was a phenomenal cook, loving to try any new recipe. Anyone having the pleasure of knowing Dan experienced his great sense of humor. He could make you laugh with just one sentence. Often he would tell stories of years of adventures with his lifelong college best friends Mark and Larry, reliving the fun each time. Every year the 3 fanatical St. Louis Cardinals fans would head to spring training to take in their love of team, and inevitably create new stories, some of which will forever remain between only them.

To say he will be missed is the biggest understatement that has ever been made. The world lost the best husband, father, brother, uncle, and friend that anyone could've ever been blessed to have. He was truly a good man. He was taken far too soon to which we will never understand why. Hearts will forever be broken.

A funeral service will be held 1 p.m. Friday at the Vigen Memorial Home in Keokuk with Pastor Derek Olsen officiating.

Visitation will be held prior to the service from 11 a.m.-1 p.m. with the family meeting with friends at that time.

Online condolences may be sent to the family at www.vigenmemorialhome.com.

Harvest brings warm thoughts and apple cake

eaten only store-bought apple butter, but this home made version, from our own Mac apples, is out-of-this world. I can eat it by the spoon full (and do).

Which reminds me. Ginnie made apple cake out of our Macintosh apples. For heaven's sake! I don't believe I have ever tasted any kind of cake as good as this. The nuts, brown-sugar topping and moistness make for a taste extravaganza akin to a roller-coaster ride of the taste buds! You hit a peak, the bottom drops out, leaving you salivating for more. I've never heard of anyone foundering on apple cake, but I believe I could. And then I would have to be put down—happy.

All of this gardening served us well for Ragbrai (I define "Ragbrai" as a word like the word "laser" came from the acronym for "Light Amplification by Stimulated Emission of Radiation"). We had two Ragbrai teams staying overnight, and Ginnie cooked both supper and breakfast for them. For supper (in Iowa it's "supper" not "dinner"), along with Sloppy Joes, Ginnie fixed cucumbers and onions, sliced tomatoes and home-cooked green beans with chunks of bacon and onion. One Ragbrai rider nearly cried at the deliciousness of the green beans. Ginnie beamed, and I bragged that I had picked the blue lake bush beans just the day before. For breakfast, Ginnie had two different casseroles with a side of sliced tomatoes. One rider quipped, "Is this heaven?" In unison, they all chimed, "No, it's Iowa."

As I write this on September 17th, there's a full moon—a Red Harvest Super Moon. The harvest is bountiful, but the absence of workers is not a problem, when we have friendly visitors who enjoy our produce. From my recliner, as I look out the picture window, I see the field of seed corn next to us being picked. Because of the angle of sunlight, there's a sadness to fall, but also hope. Hope for the future of all man-and-woman-kind. Be at peace with yourself and others.

Central Lee goes 2-1, Hounds 1-2 at HTC Classic

of their wins in this tournament came against Class 4A schools.

What Freesmeier liked was how the Crusaders approached their offense. She would just like more consistency.

“When we’re good, we’re really good,” Freesmeier said. “We just can’t step back and stop hitting the ball. We’ve got to hit the ball in system, out of system, because when we hit the ball, we’re really good.”

The Crusaders got 26 kills each from Presley Myers and Adalyn Kruse, their two top hitters. Anna Bendlage added 10 kills.

“Everybody’s digging the ball, bringing it back at us,” Freesmeier said. “We kept coming back off scramble plays and getting points.

We never quit on balls and I was proud of our team effort.”

Central Lee defeated Danville 21-13, 22-20 to take third place. The Hawks went 2-1 in pool play, losing to Burlington 21-9, 21-7 before beating Mediapolis 18-21, 22-20, 15-13, and Wapello 21-15, 17-21, 15-8.

All of the Hawks’ wins came against Superconference opponents, which gave coach Amy Cook confidence heading into the conference tournament. Central Lee had lost three of its previous four matches coming into the tournament.

“We definitely did a lot better than how we’ve been playing,” Cook said. “We’ve been doing some reflecting on our play, and I do think you could see that in how we played tonight.

“When you see good competition, like we did tonight, it helps you see your strengths and weaknesses. There’s a lot we can learn from this, and we’ve got a couple of days of practice before we play on Thursday.”

Fort Madison went 1-2, defeating Keokuk (14-21, 21-19, 15-10) and losing to Danville (21-15, 21-18) and Holy Trinity.

The Bloodhounds beat Keokuk for the second time in two weeks.

“I think there were some people wondering was that a fluke last week, and did we really deserve to win that game,” Fort Madison coach Kelly Knustrom said. “I think tonight proved that we did. They earned that win, and they earned this one.”

Knustrom said her team needs to have better starts — the Bloodhounds lost the first set in all three of their matches.

“I didn’t think we came out very focused and there were some errors there,”

For the Record/From the Front

Hospital says 1,600 will be affected

basis to help them understand their options, including finding an in-network provider," the spokesperson said.

"This decision was made after contract terms Great River Health presented to these two carriers were not accepted. The contract terms were reasonable and accepted by other insurance carriers. We will continue to provide emergency care for all patients in our Emergency Departments regardless of their insurance."

Hospital officials said they attempted to push the Aetna date back to the end of the year, but the carrier would not agree to the extension. That cancellation affects approximately 1,300 patients.

Patients currently using Wellpoint have also been sent letters with information about the discontinuation of coverage. That affects approximately 300 patients, according to hospital data.

If patients wish to continue receiving healthcare services at SEIRMC or HCHC that are covered by their insurance, they must enroll in an accepted plan during Medicare Open Enrollment which runs from October 15-December 7, 2024, with a plan effective date of January 1, 2025.

The health system will continue to accept current Medicare Advantage plans offered by Humana, United Healthcare, and Wellmark Blue Cross & Blue Shield.
