CLASS QUOTE

"FIVE YEARS FROM NOW YOU WON'T BE THE PERSON YOU WERE IN HIGH SCHOOL"

The Hill We Climb

By Amanda Gorman

When day comes we ask ourselves, where can we find light in this never-ending shade?
The loss we carry, a sea we must wade We've braved the belly of the beast We've learned that quiet isn't always peace
And the norms and notions of what just is Isn't always just-ice And yet the dawn is ours before we knew it Somehow we do it Somehow we've weathered and witnessed a nation that isn't broken but simply unfinished We the successors of a country and a time Where a skinny Black girl descended from slaves and raised by a single mother can dream of becoming president only to find herself reciting for one And yes we are far from polished far from pristine but that doesn't mean we are striving to form a union that is perfect We are striving to forge a union with purpose To compose a country committed to all cultures, colors, characters and conditions of man And so we lift our gazes not to what stands between us but what stands before us We close the divide because we know, to put our future first, we must first put our differences aside We lay down our arms so we can reach out our arms to one another We seek harm to none and harmony for all Let the globe, if nothing else, say this is true:
That even as we grieved, we grew

That even as we hurt, we hoped That even as we tired, we tried That we'll forever be tied together, victorious
Not because we will never again know defeat but because we will never again sow division Scripture tells us to envision that everyone shall sit under their own vine and fig tree And no one shall make them afraid If we're to live up to our own time Then victory won't lie in the blade
But in all the bridges we've made That is the promise to glade
The hill we climb
If only we dare It's because being American is more than a pride we inherit, it's the past we step into and how we repair it We've seen a force that would shatter our nation rather than share it Would destroy our country if it meant delaying democracy And this effort very nearly succeeded But while democracy can be periodically delayed it can never be permanently defeated In this truth in this faith we trust For while we have our eyes on the future history has its eyes on us This is the era of just redemption We feared at its inception We did not feel prepared to be the heirs of such a terrifying hour but within it we found the power to author a new chapter To offer hope and laughter to ourselves So while once we asked, how could we possibly prevail over catastrophe?
Now we assert How could catastrophe possibly prevail over us?

We will not march back to what was but move to what shall be A country that is bruised but whole, benevolent but bold, fierce and free
We will not be turned around or interrupted by intimidation because we know our inaction and inertia will be the inheritance of the next generation Our blunders become their burdens
But one thing is certain:
If we merge mercy with might,
and might with right, then love becomes our legacy and change our children's birthright So let us leave behind a country better than the one we were left with Every breath from my bronze-pounded chest, we will raise this wounded world into a wondrous one We will rise from the gold-limbed hills of the west, we will rise from the windswept northeast where our forefathers first realized revolution We will rise from the lake-rimmed cities of the midwestern states, we will rise from the sunbaked south We will rebuild, reconcile and recover and every known nook of our nation and every corner called our country, our people diverse and beautiful will emerge, battered and beautiful When day comes we step out of the shade, afire and unafraid
The new dawn blooms as we free it For there is always light, if only we're brave enough to see it if only we're brave enough to be it

Erik

It seems like just moments ago that we took you to meet your teacher, Mrs. Nordyke, right before your first day of Kindergarten. We thought that moment was scary and that we still had forever before you would grow up. Now as you started your Senior year, we are left thinking, "where did time go, is he ready"? Now the time has come, and high school graduation is here. We have a few wishes to pray over you:

We pray that you have the courage to stand up for what is right.

We pray that you keep a kind heart filled with love and not hate.

We pray that you follow your dreams and find happiness by overcoming obstacles.

We pray that you help others in need every chance possible.

It has been such a blessing to see you grow into the young man you have become over the last 18 years. You are such an amazing person and we are confident that you will do well in life. Remember to let God lead you along your way.

You were not meant to do life alone.

We have told you over and over, and don't forget, that no matter what, "we have your back".

The greatest task we have had is being your parents and the greatest blessing is being able to call you our Son.

Love Mom & Dad

We've awaited this day so much!
We're so excited and blessed to be able to watch our four babies walk the stage, as well as celebrate with each and every one of you. As always, remember to put God first in everything you do. We love each and everyone of you with all our hearts!

Love you Neno, Aaroncito, Mia, and Fito

From grandpa and grandma Apolonio and Salomé Rodriguez

Mia, we love you
We are very proud of you, reach for your dreams, don't be afraid of the challenges that come your way. God Bless and always remember God is always with you Love You Always,
Mom, Dad, Apolonio & Esai
We Love You

Happy graduation day, Mia!

Always remember that you are braver than you believe, stronger than you seem, smarter than you think, and loved more than you will ever know. Next stop...Washburn University!

We love you! -Mom, Becca, and Peanut

Congratulations
Mickey!

Time went by so quickly! From the sweet baby boy to the honorable young man you've become, we are so proud of you and thankful that we can call you ours!

Mom & Dad

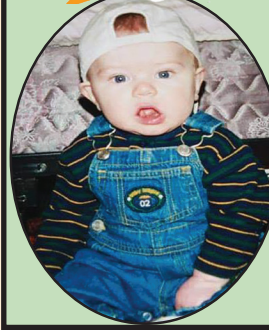

Congratulations,

Jordan,

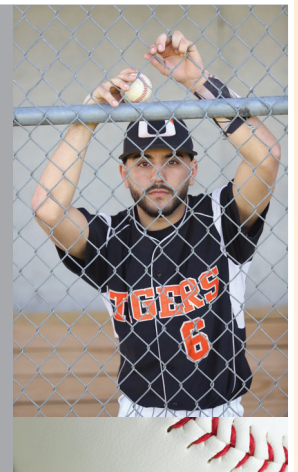

I wish you the strength to face challenges with confidence, along with the wisdom to choose your battles carefully. I wish you adventure on your journey and may you always stop to help someone along the way. Listen to your heart and take risks carefully. Remember how much you are loved and I am so proud of you!

Love you now and always,
Tim, Mom, Zoey, and Madison

Congrats
Dominic!

Tylar,

We are so proud of you. You've ended one chapter of your life but are starting a new, bigger chapter. You became a part of our family December 31, 2012 and we have watched you grow into a responsible, dependable and lovable young man. You stepped up to the plate when most needed and we appreciate it so much.

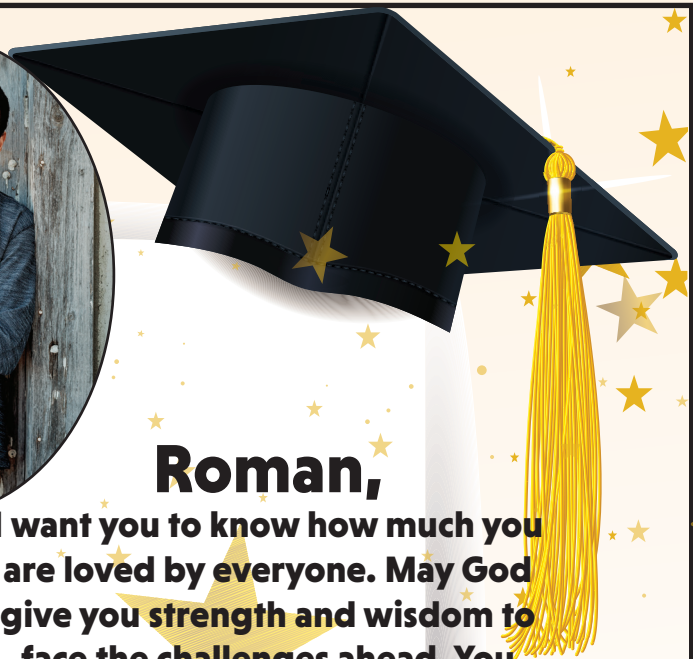

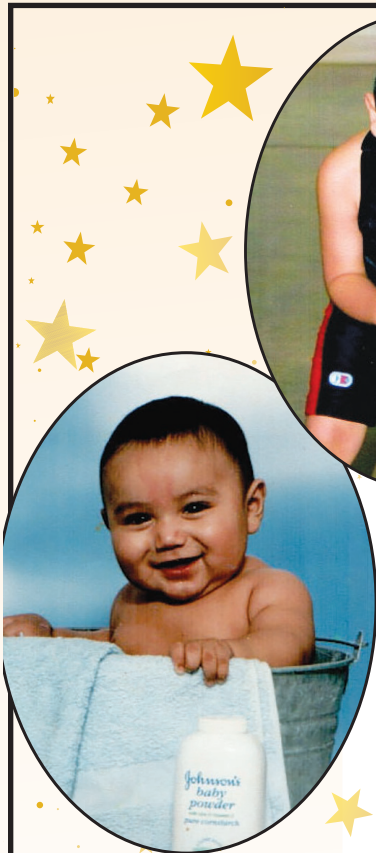

Good luck in your future endeavors. Love you, Mom and Dad,
Delaney and Devin Romesburg.

Hailey,

The past 18 years have flown by, but we have enjoyed every moment of watching you grow up to be the amazing young lady you are today. We are so excited to watch you begin and grow from this next chapter in your life. You have worked so hard and overcome so much to get to this point; we only hope you are as proud of yourself as we are. Thank you for 18 years of dance recitals, volleyball games, choir concerts, band concerts, vocal contests, musicals, and Tiger Cheer! Oh how much we have enjoyed following you from activity to activity all these years. It has been such a great ride, and it will only get better from here. We admire your work ethic and your determination to see things to the end; what an inspiration you are to so many. To our hard working, kind hearted, book loving, coffee drinking, theatre obsessed girl—we love you beyond belief! Have an amazing journey as you experience theatre and cheer on a new level next year. We are very proud of you, and so happy to see your hard work paying off!

Your biggest fans,
Mom, Dad, Chase, Nan & Pop

Roman,

I want you to know how much you are loved by everyone. May God give you strength and wisdom to face the challenges ahead. You have made me proud as I have watched you grow. But the proudest moment is telling others you are my son. God bless you son and "I love you two dozen."

Love Mom

Cesarin,
 Cada esfuerzo tiene su recompensa y hoy termina una etapa mas en to vida. Estamos super Orgullosos de ti, del hombre responsable y trabajador en el que te has convertido. Que todas tus metas y sueños se hagan realidad. Felicidades por este gran logro.
 Te Queremos

Papa, Mama &
 Yaxis
 Love you!

Eduardo,

Congratulations Son!! We are very proud of you. We have enjoyed seeing our baby grow into a fine and mature adult. Keep your head held high and continue pushing forward always putting God first. Best of luck in your future. We love you!
 Dad, Mom, G-Ma, Gramps and your Brothers

As you walk out into this blue sphere we call home, remember the God who created you, the Lord who has a purpose for you and His son Jesus who redeemded you. We are so proud of the young man you have become.

Te amamos!
 Dad, Mom
 Galy & Camila

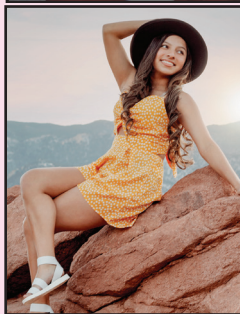

To momma's beautiful baby girl,

Where do I begin? Life seems to have just flown right by! One day you were a baby in my arms to now a beautiful inside and out ambitious young lady. I will never have enough words to describe just how blessed I am that God chose me to be your earthly mother. Although, life has taken some unexpected twists and turns you have managed to keep pushing forward and accomplishing all goals you had set forth for your high school career. I couldn't be any prouder of who you have become and so very excited to see you grow and fulfil your fullest potential in the years to come. God created you with purpose, my rainbow baby you are truly blessed. He is not finished with you yet! The best is yet to come!

Love you always, your madre & Jay

In all your ways acknowledge Him, And He shall direct your paths. Proverbs 3:6

Small But Proud

Nikki,

How can we begin to tell you how proud we are of all that you have accomplished?!! You came to us as a wild, little 7-year old girl and now you have become a beautiful young woman. We are so thankful that before you were even born, the Lord chose you to be part of our family. And we know He has great and exciting things in store for your future. Always keep smiling and trying new things. And above all, follow hard after Jesus! We love you forever!!

Mom, Dad, Makenna, Logan and Jeremy

Aaron,

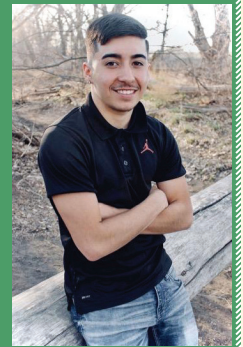

In the Bible, Aaron was a prophet and the elder brother with the meaning of your name being strength and enlightenment. You have lived up to all of the above and to say that we are so proud of you is an understatement. Ever since you were born you've brought us so much joy, happiness, and peace. We're so excited to see what the future holds for you. Always remember, stand tall even if you fall and when you are too afraid to look ahead, look right beside you, we will always be there. Never forget that you are braver than you believe, stronger than you feel and loved more than you'll ever know.

Love you forever and always,
Fabian, Mom, and Anaee

Kobe,

Mommy and Daddy love you so much and we're so proud of the respectful and good looking young man that you have become!

Victor-

We can't believe how time has flown by and the handsome young man you have become. We are so proud of you and your accomplishments this far. We know you are destined to do so much more. Always keep your eyes on your goals and keep God by your side. We are so proud of you and wish you the best!!

Congrats son we love you so much!

Mom, Dad, Gma, Gramps, Angel & Jose

Madison,

Well, here we are, graduation time and 18 years old. Time sure has flown by and although we're sad to see you leaving the house to embark on your future endeavors, we're happy and excited to see what your future holds. You've worked extremely hard throughout school and we couldn't be more proud of you! Just know you came into our lives at exactly the right time and not only fulfilled our dreams but exceeded them. Remember to always have faith in whatever it is you're doing and know we love you always!

Love Dad, Ashley, Dominic, Raquelle, and Gage

"Fito,
All things in life haven't been easy or handed over without overcoming obstacles, but you have gone thru them like they didn't exist. I would say I'm the proudest of you but I know you have two amazing angels in the skies who surpass me. Always remember, they have the front seat. Love you, little brother." -Xavier

Fito, I'm so proud of how strong willed you are and keep it that way don't let anyone or anything stop you for reaching for your dreams, and know I will forever and always be there to support like mom would of. -Chin

Halle,
Our wish for you is that this life becomes all that you want, that your dreams stay Big and your worries are few. Always remember you are a child of the One True King and are fearfully and wonderfully made. We are so proud of the many things that you have been able to accomplish thus far and can't wait to see the amazing things that are yet to come. Go and do Great things!
Love you 3000,
Dad, Mom and Drew

Colsie,

Miranda,
Where do we begin? Not a day goes by that I don't thank God for the gift of being your parent. Dad and I are so proud of you and all you have achieved. Being your parents has been the greatest joy and the most important thing we will ever do. These last 4 years of High School have gone by so fast. It's hard to believe that you are closing this chapter of your life. But...how exciting this new one will be! Remember that no matter where life takes you God is in control. We will always be here to catch of if you fall and help you get back up. Don't be afraid to try new things. Just remember to call your mom before you do. Travel when you can. The world is bigger than Texas and there is so much to see. Call dad before you go. We will always think of you as our little girl, no matter how "adult" you think you are. Don't forget to call your mom! We love you Baby Girl!
