Saturday, August 29, Our Lady of the Assumption Catholic Church broke ground during a dedication ceremony in Peshastin. The event marks the beginning of a project that has been in the works for decades.

The new location will result in the combination of Our Lady of the Snows Catholic Church in Leavenworth and St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church in Cashmere.

St. Francis Xavier was founded in the 1880's. Our Lady of the Assumption, previously Our Lady of the Snows, in Leavenworth has gone through a number of changes over the years. It was originally founded as St. Joseph's Church in the 1860's. That building is now the part of the Pension Anna Hotel in Leavenworth.

The combination of the two churches is part of the "One Body in Christ, Our Future Together" campaign.

Exploring affordable housing

By BILL FORHAN

Mayor Carl Florea made affordable housing a major focus of his campaign for mayor. When questioned about what that meant to him, he described it as "workforce housing." In other words, he said we need to insure the people who work here could also afford to live here.

Last week we had a story about the city receiving a grant of $1.64 Million to expand the available low-income housing in Leavenworth. Those communities are: The Bavarian Village a 24 unit facility, Cornerstone Community a 7 unit facility for individuals with disabilities, Berg Rose Apartments 30 units and Garten House 32 units. That makes a current count of 93 available units in the city.

Last week's press release from the city said the grant was for the Bavarian Village Apartments but the plans submitted with that press release indicate it is the Garten Haus Apartments that will be adding 8 units.

Getting accurate statistics about the current situation regarding housing in Leavenworth is difficult. While the Federal Housing Administration publishes data, it appears to be out of date.

The Echo has completed a search of available information on the Internet and concluded the following appears to be the most reliable. Median household income is currently between $43,500 and $52,000. Mayor Florea says they are working on an economic study to try and get a better handle on this. It is an important number because what you can afford to buy or rent begins with your household income.

The department of Housing and Urban Development considers anyone who is paying more than 30 percent of their income on housing is financially stressed. It currently appears that 40.5 percent of Leavenworth renters are "stressed."

Interest rates are at an all time low. Some as low

Taking a critical look at Covid statistics

By BILL FORHAN

I began my career as a Certified Public Accountant not a journalist. I say that only because I have been troubled by the reporting and decisions being made by our politicians concerning the Covid virus.

This virus is a serious disease. We should all be concerned about those who have contracted the virus and sad for the families that have lost loved ones.

The problem is the continual chant from the media and politicians is based on a faulty interpretation of the statistics. This article takes a critical look at the numbers available from multiple sources including, Google, Wikipedia, and John Hopkins.

This article results from what appears to be inadequate research by the major media resulting in often confusing if not outright distortion of the facts.

As a 40-year veteran of the news industry, I am aware that most journalists cannot properly decipher statistics.

Numbers in general are a blind spot they are incapable of understanding.

To make matters worse the electronic media in general must sensationalize every story. Without the latest crisis to exploit they live in continual fear of falling ratings. This often makes the real story worse than it really is and drives bad decisions by politicians who need to have some disaster they can promise to fix.

One of the comments I hear regularly on the evening news is the United States has the most deaths of any country in the world. While that is numerically accurate read of the available statistics, it is irrelevant.

The accompanying chart provides a summary of the numbers regarding the Covid virus and how it is impacting all of us. My chart presents the data sorted by population. The US is the third largest country in the world. China and India both have four times the population of the US.

The virus is said to have

Volunteers from Cascade Medical Foundation, the Free Clinic and others gathered inside and outside of the District Administration Building to make over 800 Healthy Start bags for every family. The goody bags included hand-sewn cloth masks, thermometers, soap, dental supplies, information and art supplies for the younger students. All items were donated, thanks to many supporters.

Obituaries

Sandra (Sandy) A. Siegert

July 22, 1941 – August 16, 2020

Sandra A. Siegert passed away peacefully in her home Sunday, August 16.

Sandy, the only child of Irene and Gordon Condie, was born July 22, 1941 in Kemmerer, Wyoming. She was raised in Ephrata, Washington.

After graduating from Ephrata High School in 1959, she attended Central Washington University. She eventually went on to earn an Associate's Degree.

In 1979, she became a friend of Bill W., and at the time of her death, she proudly had 41 years of sobriety. Sandy was the solo female founding member of the Moses Lake Alano Club, which continues to serve recovering alcoholics to this day. Through this program, she met the love of her life, R.H. "Dick" Siegert.

In 1982, Sandy and Dick were married in the gazebo in Leavenworth.

They lived in Leavenworth until her death, and shared 38 wonderful years.

Sandy was a fixture of many committees and boards within the Leavenworth community. In 2012, like a revisit to her beauty queen youth, she served as "Royal Lady of the Autumn Leaves." Sandy loved representing her town! Sandy was the proprietor of Siegert's Papier Platz for 22 years, as well as in-house accounting for Two Rivers Sand and Gravel for 30 years.

Even though Sandy stood only 4' 12", she was a giant of spirit and heart.

Sandy is survived by her husband, Dick, children Bart Flanagan, Jim (Evelyn) Newhouse, Kerry (Alan) Ward, and five granddaughters and one grandson.

There will be no service at this time. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to Leavenworth Senior Center in her honor.

Michael Taylor

October 19, 1946 – May 12, 2020

POPS: The Man, The Myth, The Legend.

Michael Taylor was born in Bonners Ferry Idaho on October 19, 1946. A couple of years later his parents, Clyde and Wilma, moved him and his sister LouWanna to Ballard Washington.

Michael graduated from Ballard High School, class of 1964. He was a naturally gifted athlete playing football, basketball, and baseball.

Michael loved people and worked in the restaurant business where he could be around people all the time.

In the early 80's Michael married and headed east where he managed Hidden Valley Guest Ranch in Teanaway, Washington.

In 1982, their only son, Joshua was born. Michael was a devoted father and loved playing the part.

Living at the Ranch was one of Michael's favorite span of times to reminisce about. He always considered himself a cowboy or mountain man and loved horses, wildlife and the open country.

Michael eventually settled in Leavenworth, Washington and resided up on Mountain Home, where he managed a guest lodge for almost 2 decades. This supported his love for the outdoors, wildlife, and people.

He became somewhat of an iconic social figure in Leavenworth and was better known as "Pops". Every softball season, you could find Pops down at Enchantment Park coaching his team in a bright colored softball jersey that was almost as loud as his yell. He brought as much spirit and heart to those fields as anyone ever has.

In the off season, you could find Pops out at the Leavenworth Golf Club playing rounds with Josh and his friends or managing the "Reserved for locals" table down at Uncle Uli's Pub and bringing his spirited camaraderie to the crowds. Otherwise, he loved going out into the woods to look for wildlife.

Just a few of Pop's many memorable characteristics were his ability to laugh, to make others laugh as well as his ever-lasting loyalty to his friends. He was always willing to help out.

Pops passed away May 12th, 2020, the same day and month his mother passed on 46 years before.

Pops is survived by his sister LouWanna (Taylor) Lacher and her husband Norm, his son Joshua, his daughter-in-law Kelly and his grandson Quinten. He has also left behind many loving friends, including his best friend in the world, Deborah.

We love you Pops – we'll listen for you yelling on the fields!

Memorial Change

Kjell Bakke Celebration of Life is postponed from September 5, 2020 and will be planned for June 13, 2021 at The Leavenworth Ski Hill Lodge.

We are here to serve families in Leavenworth, Peshastin, Plain and the entire Upper Valley.

THE WASHINGTON OUTDOORS REPORT

Saving deer on our roadways and more hunting season prospects

By JOHN KRUSE, THE WASHINGTON OUTDOOR REPORT

REDUCING VEHICLE COLLISIONS WITH DEER AND ELK - Many of our readers are familiar with the lonely, barren stretches of highway and roads running along the Hanford Nuclear Reservation towards the Tri-Cities. Much of this area encompasses not only the Hanford Nuclear Reservation but also the Hanford National Monument, where mule deer and elk herds live. Unfortunately, a significant number of both species are killed as a result of vehicle collisions in this area, especially along Route 4 South, a two-lane roadway running from Richland into the Hanford Nuclear Site.

Officials at Hanford are trying something new to reduce the amount of deer and elk killed by vehicles. Writing for the Tri-City Herald, Annette Carey reports white canvas sacks are being placed over roadside posts every 50 feet along Route 4 South where many of these collisions have occurred. The idea behind this low-cost strategy is when vehicle headlights shine on these bags, the deer seeing them will think the white bags are the rump of a fleeing deer or elk, a sure sign of danger to animals and a warning to stay away.

This technique has been used in Wyoming where a state Department of Transportation study showed a 65 percent reduction in car versus deer accidents. The study also showed deer and elk learned to wait until the bags were not illuminated by headlights to cross the road. If this technique works in South Central Washington to reduce collisions with mule deer and elk as it did in Wyoming to reduce collisions with white-tailed deer, you may see more of these white canvas sacks covering roadside posts in our state and less roadkill on our highways.

COLUMBIA BASIN HUNTING PROSPECTS - Last week we shared prospects for the upcoming hunting season from Central and Northeast Washington. This week, WDFW Wildlife Biologist Sean Dougherty has insights about how things are looking in the Columbia Basin.

DOVE: According to Dougherty, "Mourning dove numbers are pretty good this year". Hunters heading out for the dove opener on September 1st should try to get permission to hunt on wheat fields if they can. However, the Columbia Basin Wildlife Area around Potholes Reservoir and to a lesser extent, the Gloyd Seeps Unit between Moses Lake and Stratford, will offer public land opportunities. Although the season remains open through October 30th, the vast majority of doves will leave for warmer climes when the first cold front comes through our region.

MULE DEER: Dougherty says the prospects for mule deer are about the same as last year and counts are well within management objectives. Seasonal conditions were favorable this year for deer as well which bodes well for the future. Asked about where to go, Dougherty recommended archery hunters consider Game Management Unit 284 in Adams County, where you can harvest both does and bucks (three points or better on the antlers).

WATER FOWL: Sean Dougherty paints an optimistic picture about ducks in the Basin this year saying, "Local (duckling) production was good and early season counts are up from last year." This should make for a good opening day and early part of the season until the northern ducks and geese arrive from Canada in November.

UPLAND BIRDS: Quail numbers are at least as good as last year and probably up, marking a continued growth of this upland game bird species in the Columbia Basin. Dougherty says pheasant numbers may be up as well but with no surveys completed this year due to Covid-19 issues, this is just a guess.

In short, good seasonal conditions this year should make for a good hunting season for both deer and bird hunters in the Columbia Basin.

The most common side effect of medicine

Q: I think my medicine is upsetting my stomach. Is there anything I do about that?

I can really relate, as I remember taking an antibiotic that really bothered my stomach. I felt queasy, and there was a peculiar taste in my mouth. While taking it, a fresh cup of coffee with cream tasted rancid, and I couldn't look at food without cringing.

The most commonly reported side effect of medications is "upset stomach," which in medical terms is called "gastritis". Having gastritis means that you may have any or all of the following: queasiness, stomach pain, stomach cramping, stomach burning, loose stools, or nausea.

Gastritis is very common when taking medicines. Every single medicine has been reported to cause stomach upset in at least some people, and some medications cause more stomach irritation than others.

Antibiotic medications are one of the most common causes of stomach irritation. While some antibiotics are relatively gentle on your gastrointestinal (GI) system, others have reputations for causing significant GI side effects. One time I had a dental infection that took three different antibiotics to cure, each one causing more stomach upset and intestinal distress than the previous one.

Three years ago, one of my molars became infected. My dentist prescribed me Antibiotic Number 1: penicillin, which caused queasiness for a few hours after each dose. Although I took it faithfully, it wasn't able to conquer the infection. One week later, I was back in the dentist's office, getting a root canal. Oy.

My tooth still hurt after the root canal, so I was given Antibiotic Number 2: a more powerful version of penicillin, called amoxicillin plus clavulanate. The clavulanate part of that antibiotic is famous for causing stomach pain and cramping. I became nauseated for several hours after each dose, and it made my food and drink taste funny.

Unfortunately, Antibiotic Number 2 didn't work. In a last-ditch attempt to save my tooth, I was switched to Antibiotic Number 3: clindamycin. Clindamycin has a reputation of not being gentle on your stomach and intestinal system. Taking the clindamycin made my stomach hurt and caused considerable queasiness for the first 3 hours after taking each dose four times a day. While on clindamycin, just thinking about food made my stomach cramp up, and just about the time I started to feel better, it was time to take my next dose.

What causes medicines to make your food taste so bad? Most antibiotics are designed to spread throughout your tissues and are present in small amounts in your saliva. I experienced the awful taste in my mouth while on an antibiotic because I was tasting the medicine in my saliva.

To minimize stomach upset, unless you are told otherwise, always take your medicines with food. Except for some bone-building drugs like alendronate (Fosamax®) and risendronate (Actonel®), nearly all medicines can be taken with food. One exception is the thyroid supplement levothyroxine, also called Synthroid® or Levothyroid®. Levothyroxine is absorbed more completely when you take it before you eat, compared with taking it with food.

Here are 4 Ways to Help Relieve Stomach Upset Caused by Your Medicine:

1. Take your pills last.
2. Dilute your medicine. Take the irritating medicine with a full glass of fluid, either water, juice, or milk. Try to avoid washing it down with a carbonated drink like pop or soda, which is very acidic and can aggravate instead of relieving stomach distress triggered by the medicine.
3. Space them out. If you're taking more than one medicine that causes stomach irritation, avoid taking them simultaneously. Instead, take medications that can cause stomach irritation at least two to three hours apart.
4. Ask for another medicine. If you vomit after taking your medicine, don't panic. If it's been at least 45 minutes since you swallowed it, most of it has already reached your system and you DON'T need to re-dose. If you took it less than 30 minutes ago, try taking it again after making sure you have both food and fluid in your stomach. If your medicine is an anti-biotic, if you vomit it despite taking it with food, inform your doctor right away to get a different one.

Exploring affordable housing

as 2.5 percent. This means buyers can afford to pay a higher price for a home. The problem is the average price of homes in Leavenworth has been escalating rapidly.

According to Perrin Cornell at Coldwell Banker the median home price in Leavenworth is $425,000. At that price, the principle and interest would be approximately $1,600 with 10 percent down payment. If you add taxes and insurance the payments will easily top $1,800 per month. That is over 40 percent of the median household income.

Leavenworth is looking at a substantial increase in rental properties in the next couple of years. Leavenworth Haus, the development behind Safeway, has just announced they will start renting out some units beginning in March of 2021.

Here is what their website shows for units and rental prices at the present time. They are offering 2 different models of each of the following:

- Studio Apartments with two floor plan options range from $965 to $1140 per month.
- One bedroom units with two floor plans available range from $1295 to $1315 per month.
- Two bedroom units with two floor plans available range from $1655 to $1700 per month.

This will put some people making the median income in range to find a one bedroom at the 30% of income level. It will leave some stressed to get into a two bedroom unit.

When completely built out this development will increase available housing by almost 20 percent. That is likely to put pressure on the rental markets to lower rents. Mayor Florea is concerned however, that these units will be snatched up by west side visitors looking to have a weekend getaway.

Taking a critical look at Covid statistics

originated in China.

Yet, China is reporting they only have 89,814 confirmed cases of the virus. That is only 1.5 % of the number cases in the US. More importantly, it is only six one thousandth of their population. It stresses the sense of credulity.

The problem with comparing death rates to the number of confirmed cases is we do not know how thorough and accurate the testing was done or reported.

We do know a large percentage of people that have tested positive have been asymptomatic. In other words, their symptoms were so mild that they didn't even know they had the disease.

We also do not know if the number of reported deaths from Covid is being accurately reported.

For example, there are news reports that claim Mexico's death rate is much higher than is being officially reported. All of these numbers are difficult to compare since we do not know how widespread the testing has been or the accuracy of the actual death counts. There does appear to be at least one statistic that appears to be consistent across the globe. That is deaths as a percentage of the population.

Ignoring the two extremely low, and questionable numbers for China and Nigeria, it appears only .01 to .06 percent of the population is dying from this pandemic.

That means, 99.8 to 99.9 percent of all the people on this planet have either never contracted the disease, didn't know they had the disease or have survived it.

In the United States, 99.9452% of the population has survived the disease.

In Washington state, 99.974% of the population has survived.

I have included the numbers from Sweden because many people have claimed Sweden, which has not mandated wearing of masks, as an example of a country that has done a better of managing the pandemic. These numbers do not support that theory.

Washington's Governor, Jay Inslee, has set a goal of 25 cases per 100,000 population over the previous 2 weeks in order to allow counties in Washington state to begin to reopen their schools and their economy.

This is an arbitrary and highly prejudicial test that severely hampers the economic recovery of the small communities across the state.

The governor's goal means the state must have fewer than 1905 new cases in the lookback period or .0003 percent of the state's population to move to phase 2. In the case of Chelan County the goal would be 20 cases or .0336 percent. In other words, it is 112 times more difficult for Chelan County to achieve the Governor's goal. In Okanogan and Douglas County it is 195 times more difficult for the county to meet the governor's goal.

It is time we begin to ask the question. Does it make any sense to destroy people's livelihoods, close our schools, shutdown church attendance, or eliminate sporting events when the survivability of this disease is more than 99.8 percent?

Covid is clearly a serious disease. When it was first identified, we had limited knowledge of how to treat it. That has changed. Like too many issues in today's world it has become politicized.

In the interest of full disclosure. I am 73 years young. I have diabetes. I have been at work everyday since this pandemic began. I do not want to get it but according to the medical experts I am highly susceptible.

My business remains open because it is considered essential, however, I would not be able to continue to publish your newspaper without the financial assistance I received from the CARES Act.

Back to Basics Campaign Helps Students in Need

By DENISE SOROM, DIRECTOR OF COMMUNITY PHILANTHROPY, COMMUNITY FOUNDATION OF NCW

When the pandemic hit our communities and schools closed in March, we knew that the impact on our children would not only be academic.

Schools provide children with steady routines, nutritious meals, and the watchful eyes of adults who identify signs of stress, abuse, hunger, or other hardship. For many children, schools are their only safe spaces.

In Wenatchee, when students struggled to engage in online learning, the School District sent out their counselors, family advocates, and sometimes even principals to make home visits to check on these "missing" students.

The stories that resulted from these visits broke our hearts: teenagers were caring for their infant siblings while both parents went to work; there was not enough food or other basic needs in households to allow children to even consider remote learning; parents feared eviction as jobs were lost; and those most at risk of falling behind were pushed even further to the margins.

We know that this hardship does not only exist in Wenatchee, but is spread throughout Chelan, Douglas and Okanogan counties – touching all of our school districts.

To help meet the needs of kids in our schools, the Community Foundation of NCW is partnering with the School Districts of every community in NCW to host a "Back to Basics" fundraising campaign for struggling students and their families.

The foundation has a long history of supporting teachers, classrooms, and school buildings across the region each year. But this year isn't typical, so instead of our usual school grants, we are seeding the Back to Basics campaign with $55,000 which will be distributed to each school district in NCW based on the number of low-income students they serve.

This will provide MUCH NEEDED FUNDING that the schools can use to help a kid in need – whatever that need may be.

WE NEED YOUR HELP. You can add to your community's school district award by making a donation in any amount at www.cfncw.org/backtobasics.

You can choose to support one or more school districts or make one donation that will benefit all the districts in NCW.

Your gift is tax-deductible and there are no fees, so 100% of your donation will directly help a student and their family. Funds raised through Back to Basics will be used by school counselors, family advocates, teachers and principals to provide direct support to students in need, whether it's a pair of new shoes, a grocery gift card, a winter jacket, or formula for the baby sibling at home. A little bit of help goes a long way to keep our kids learning and thriving in NCW.

For more information about any of the programs above, or the work of the Community Foundation, visit www.cfncw.org.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

How to conquer a people

Recently we have seen a greater acceptance of socialism aka communism by the Democrat party and the leftists. It is a false promise and a siren song for the young and gullible.

It always results in poverty, dysfunction, chaos, violence and tyranny by the "elites" who have acquired unquestioned and unassailable power to rule over the rest of us without our consent.

You can vote your country into socialism, but you will have to shoot your way out of it.

History proves that socialism aka communism fails 100% of the time, despite its false promises.

Just look at Cuba, Nicaragua and Venezuela. Who in their right mind would want to destroy their own country that is the freest, most successful, and best country in human history in favor of communism? Only a brainwashed people.

In the 1940's and 1950's the Soviet Union devised a "brainwashing project" to subdue and conquer the American people.

KGB colonel Yuri Bezmenov ran a program to emotionally brainwash the American people so that they would hate their own country and want to destroy it. It started with our State department, media, entertainment, and educational systems.

When I was a kid, I remember Russian premier Nikita Khrushchev pounding his shoe on the podium at the UN yelling at the Americans stating,

"we will bury you, we will conquer you from within without firing a shot."

This is exactly what is happening today. United we stand – divided we will fall.

The emotional brainwashing has convinced many liberal/progressive Americans to loath themselves (liberal white guilt) and their country because of their perceived past sins.

This is to assuage their emotional guilt about their country and institute socialism by voting for the Democrat party. Freedom be damned.

Col. Bezmenov states that this is a slow process in four steps.

1. Demoralization – making a country immoral so that they will not see evil and realize truth. Continually bombard them with false information about themselves.

2. Destabilization – create turning points to cause doubt and chaos. Convince people to behave the way those in power want them to

3. Create crisis points to seize political power by making people believe what the fake news tells them.

4. Normalization - Where evil is to be considered good and good is to be evil. Make people believe that the truth is a lie and a lie is the truth.

"The Big Lie" theory, tell a big lie often enough and most foolish people will believe it is the truth.

Deceive the people to accept all manner of depravity.

Follow the dictates of their liberal political leaders without question. Work politically against the interests of their country and themselves. Accept the killing of unborn babies.

Our good representative government is bad so we will vote for socialism to assuage our emotional guilt to show others how good we are.

The political charlatans of the Democrat party will do anything and tell any lie to gain tyrannical political power and keep it. They use the "Cloward & Piven" method and the "Rules

For Radicals" taught in our universities to bring down our free country.

Col. Bezmenov states that when this Soviet emotional brainwashing is complete that the people will be immune from the truth and they cannot be reasoned with.

The brainwashing is irreversible because it is emotional. Americans will then be ripe to be conquered.

They will believe that up is down and down is up. They will elect selfish politicians that can't think straight and will enact laws & regulations to the detriment of their own country.

Political graft and bribery for personal gain (i.e. Joe Biden and family) will be their motivation.

General societal breakdown occurs, such as we are seeing today in our big cities.

Read George Orwell's book 1984 for a primer. Communism aka socialism & progressivism always fails whenever and wherever it is tried.

History proves this 100%, yet it is being taught in our universities.

The liberals can vote us into socialism, but us patriots will have to shoot our way out of it.

WAKE UP, only you can prevent socialism.

Think about it. God is watching.
