

Burning Restrictions Drop in Portions of Eastern Washington

Lower Temperatures and Rain Ease Fire Danger

OLYMPIA – The Washington State Department of Natural Resources (DNR) announced today that burning restrictions have been lowered in many portions of eastern Washington on DNR-protected lands.

This became effective Sept. 18, 2019 at 12:01 a.m. Rule and permit burns are allowed in most areas, however, there are still burn restrictions in a few areas.

Please check with the local fire district or visit <https://fortress.wa.gov/dnr/protection/firedanger/> before lighting any fire.

Campfires may be allowed in designated approved campgrounds. Always check first with the campground host before lighting a campfire. Individual campgrounds may still prohibit campfires.

Also, follow the conditions of the burn permit, and be careful when burning by following these simple steps:

1. Check before burning by calling 1-800-323-BURN (2876) or visiting <https://fortress.wa.gov/dnr/protection/firedanger/> for current burning conditions.
2. Put a firebreak around your fire.
3. Never leave fire unattended.
4. Put the fire completely out every night.
5. If wind speeds increase, put out your fire.

DNR's wildfire mission

Administered by Commissioner of Public Lands Hilary Franz, DNR is responsible for preventing and fighting wildfires on 13 million acres of private, state and tribal-owned forestlands.

DNR is the state's largest on-call fire department and participates in Washington's coordinated interagency approach to firefighting.

L/R Senator Brad Hawkins, State Representative Mike Steele, Chelan County Commissioner Kevin Overbay, and Gov. Jay Inslee address the crowd with the ceremonial scissors.

Gov. Inslee cuts ribbon to future in Cashmere

Managing Editor

CASHMERE – Governor Jay Inslee cut the ceremonial grand opening ribbon at the old Cashmere Mill District site, Monday, Sept. 16, for the newest tenants of the Port of Chelan just constructed, multi-million dollar business park.

Both state representatives Mike Steele and Keith Goehner were in attendance as well as State Senator Brad Hawkins and Chelan County Commissioner Kevin Overbay.

The focus of the event was to show community support for Blue Spirits Distilling, LLC and Hurst International, LLC and it seemed to work quite well as the seating was full with another group of folks standing in various places.

The event was catered by Cashmere's own Taqueria el Chavo and also featured a guided tour of the Hurst printing facility.

Governor Inslee said he was excited that this particular facility could produce 15 million fruit labels per day. He was personally guided on a tour by Hurst CEO Ari Lichtenberg.

Blue Spirits Managing Member Jeff Soehren spoke to the audience and told them his company will become the "largest distiller in the state" once the Cashmere plant gets going at full capacity.

Blue Spirits Managing Member Jeffrey Soehren announced he had already employed 20 workers averaging $30 per hour. Cashmere Mayor Jim Fletcher said that it was not too long ago that he worked with Jeff as a small business economic advisor. "He was working out of his garage in Chelan," Fletcher said.

Lichtenberg took the podium and promised the community that his company was "here to stay and working with agriculture companies is our future."

Soehren spoke to the audience and told them his company will become the "largest distiller in the state" once the Cashmere plant gets going at full capacity.

Inslee told the crowd, "It isn't often that the Department of Ecology is credited with job creation."

He was referring to the state department helping the Port of Chelan clean the former toxic waste site and making it suitable for new businesses.

The Port of Chelan's Commission President JC Baldwin was the emcee for the event and several other port commissioners from Chelan and Douglas county were also in attendance.

Peshastin Library Kicks off "Read Around the World" program

Librarian Alicia O'Dell explains the read around the world program.

BY BRANDI CHARLES
Echo Reporter

The Peshastin Library kicked off their "Read Around the World" program on Wednesday, Sept. 18, with a virtual trip to the African country of Ghana.

The library invites visitors to this monthly event saying "Join us every 3rd Wednesday for 'Read Around the World!' Every month we will be learning about a new culture through stories and art." Librarian Alicia O'Dell says inspiration to choose the country of Ghana came from a friend who was a Peace Corps volunteer in the country.

The book "Anansi the Spider" drove the theme for the day. The book is available in the library and videos for the famous Ghanaian folk tale are available online.

Alicia felt that the story was an appropriate representation of the culture for the audience and expertly directed a discussion pointing out the similarities between our culture and theirs by focusing on the correlation between the style of dress, the housing structures and festive celebrations.

Alicia showed videos taken in Bole, Ghana of the local people celebrating the harvest and correlated it with our own harvest celebrations like the Apple Days in Cashmere and Thanksgiving.

The next "Read Around the World" event will focus on the Dia de Los Muertos in Mexico where visitors young and old can learn about the holiday and explore more about the culture.

In the book "Innocents Abroad" Mark Twain states "travel is fatal to prejudice, bigotry, and narrow-mindedness, and many of our people need it sorely on these accounts. Broad, wholesome, charitable views of man and things cannot be acquired by vegetating in one little corner of the earth all one's lifetime."

We all know that travel is important for opening our eyes to new people and experiences, but the cost on our wallets often hamper us from being able to do so, so the "Read Around the World Program" is a wonderful way for visitors to the library who are young and old, to be able to explore the world without leaving the comforts of Peshastin.

For more information about the "Read around the World" program and all other special events happening at the Peshastin library, call (509)548-7821 or visit ncrl.evanced.info/signup/calendar.

Cascade falls to Mount Baker

BY BILL FORHAN

The Kodiaks had their first loss of the year against a tough Mount Baker Defense that shut down Cascade's offense holding them to only 178 total yards against 385 for the Mountaineers.

The Kodiak defense played tough throughout the game but couldn't stop the opponents completely.

To their credit they did capture the opponents in the end zone for a safety in the third quarter. But it was the only score the Kodiaks put up for the night.

Three pass interceptions ended much of the Kodiak offensive drive and as coach Dominique Coffin said, "we had our opportunities we just didn't finish well. We had too many turnovers."

Total offense for the night Cascade had 178 total yards against 385 for Mount Baker.

Quarter Back Cole Warnaca completed 4 passes for 86 yards and 3 interceptions.

Ben Sunitsch caught 3 of the passes for a total of 71 yards and Teague Duncan caught the other for a 15 yards.

On the rushing side Teague Duncan had 9 carries for 84 yards and an average of 9.3 yards per carry. Isaiah Duncan had 10 carries for 9 yards.

Next week the Kodiaks travel to Cheney.

Local student attends Women in Engineering at Michigan Tech

HOUGHTON, Mich. – Jessie Nixon of Peshastin recently attended the prestigious Women in Engineering (WIE) program at Michigan Technological University in Houghton, Michigan.

More than 140 high school women from 10 states, Argentina, Germany and Bahrain were accepted into and attended this highly competitive scholarship program.

WIE is part of Michigan Tech's Summer Youth Programs.

WIE is a fun, intensive week-long look at careers in areas such as mechanical, computer, environmental, electrical, biomedical, civil, geological and materials engineering.

The young women explored engineering with group projects such as designing a building strong enough to withstand an earthquake, creating an artificial intelligence army and more.

They received inside information from female role models working in engineering fields.

Women in Engineering program received a scholarship valued at more than $1,000 that covers tuition, room and board, and supplies.

In addition, the young women experienced college life by staying in residence halls, eating in university cafeterias and exploring campus life among others with similar interests.

Following intensive classroom and lab experiences in the day, the girls enjoyed team competitions, a variety show and many outdoor activities in Michigan's beautiful Keweenaw Peninsula.

Herzlich Willkommen!

Herzlich Willkommen! As Mayor of the City of Leavenworth, and on behalf of the City Council, businesses, and citizens of our beautiful city, I am pleased to welcome you to the 56th Annual Washington State Autumn Leaf Festival, an anniversary of fun!

Although Leavenworth has many festivals, the Autumn Leaf Festival is the closest to my heart as it was our very first celebration of the transformation of the Bavarian Village. I remember participating in the very first Autumn Leaf Festival and marching in the parade. What a wonderful childhood memory! Thank you for making the Autumn Leaf memories with your family.

Celebrating the changing of the leaves every year, the Autumn Leaf Festival is one that occurs during a time for great outdoor enjoyment in our area. We hope you will enjoy the Grand Parade, the music and dancing, and the wonderful food, as well as the unsurpassed hospitality of our townsfolk. Be sure to look to the mountains and take in the beautiful colors of our surrounding countryside.

*Please enjoy a walk through one of our lovely parks, Front Street Park, Waterfront Park, or Enchantment Park, and then relax in any of the fine dining establishments you have to choose from. Taste some of our award winning, locally brewed beers, and visit our downtown wine tasting rooms and distillery too! We hope you will thoroughly enjoy your stay and accept our Herzlich Willkommen (heartfelt welcome)! Cheri Kelley Farivar, Mayor

Jim Willems 2019 Autumn Leaf Grand Marshal

By BRANDI CHARLES
Echo Reporter

The Grand Marshal of this year's Autumn Leaf Festival parade is a man well known about town, a local fixture that greets you with a firm handshake and warm smile.

This year Jim Willems has been chosen as the Grand Marshal of the parade.

Jim is known not only for his lederhosen and horse-drawn carriage, but also for the many committees and organizations he has served on in Leavenworth.

From acting as president of the Chamber of Commerce, the Rotary Club and Projekt Bayern, he has also been a member of the Royal Bavarians and has been Christmas lighting chairman.

Jim came to the area with his family in 1978 from Whatcom County and has been an active member of the Leavenworth community ever since.

With all the activities and groups that Jim has been involved with over the years and his otherwise active lifestyle it's hard to imagine that he is actually retired, but that is how he describes himself.

After working for Chevron Oil Company for 38 years, Jim retired more than 20 years ago. Though some people's idea of retirement might be to kick up their feet or take up golf, Jim has decided to stay busy by keeping active in community organizations.

Perhaps Jim's real claim to fame is his prized horse-drawn carriage that he will be riding on as Grand Marshal in the parade.

Jim has been driving his horses and carriage in every parade since 1997, except for two years.

His impressive carriage is drawn by four Haflinger horses that he keeps at his beautiful 120-acre ranch in Brender Canyon.

Haflingers are a popular breed for pulling carriages, known for their sturdiness and are often used in high Alpine terrain.

Always a crowd favorite, Jim brings his horses and carriage to the Autumn Leaf and Oktoberfest parades.

Years ago on a trip to Germany Jim purchased four harnesses, in the hopes of acquiring four horses.

Even though it ended up taking him 17 years, he did achieve his goal and now the four harnesses he brought from Germany all those years ago can be seen on the parade route each year on his four proud Haflingers.

With all that he has done in the community and for the community you would think that Jim would want to kick up his feet and enjoy his retirement, but he shows not sign of slowing.

Having served in the Army from 1963-1969, Jim's whole adult life has been about service in one way or another.

Jim never meets a stranger and seems to know just about everyone in town.

With all the committees he has served on, clubs he has been a member of and positions he has held he admits he's done just about everything, but he's never been a Grand Marshal.

I would like to welcome you to our beautiful Bavarian styled Village and want you to enjoy all it has to offer!

You can explore the outdoor beauty all year long. In the summer take in an outdoor concert, musical theater under the stars, ride the river in a kayak, raft or tube. How about a horseback ride or maybe experience your first Zip Line?

During your visit you are sure to find something pleasing to the taste in one of our 35 restaurants as well wine tasting, beer, cider and distilled spirits.

Many of these delightful beverages are made right here in Leavenworth. Whatever your interest or passion you are sure to find it here! We are a village with a big heart, shown and demonstrated every day.

Take your experience home with you as a gift and thank you for spending your time with us. We look forward to seeing you again!

*Enjoy our Autumn Leaf Festival!
