RuthEdna Keys/LCM
Snowflakes greeted Lake Chelan Valley residents and North Central Washington on the morning of Thursday, April 14. Several inches fell on the valley floor, while higher elevations and the greater Wenatchee area received up to 6 inches or more. By afternoon it had stopped and by evening the snow had melted in the lower elevations.

Mother Earth honored

After celebrating Earth Day virtually in 2021 the Chelan Earth Day Fair returned as an in-person event on Saturday, April 16 in Riverwalk Park. Cool weather did not stop hundreds of fair attendees from browsing through the 90 plus booths, while enjoying live music and food. CLOCKWISE FROM TOP: The Lake Chelan Jazz Band performs; fair attendees had their choice of a variety of food; plants and much more were for sale at the fair; including a variety of books by the Chelan Friends of the Library. There were also electric vehicles, educational booths, arts and crafts. Find more information on how you can honor Mother Earth at chelanearthdayfair.org

Teaching children how to protect birds in your backyard

StatePoint - Part of being a good environmental steward is passing on this wisdom to the next generation. Here are three hands-on ways parents and grandparents can teach children to protect the birds in their very own backyard.

Build a Bird Feeder

Build bird feeders using natural or recycled materials to teach two earth-friendly lessons in one: the importance of reducing waste and the need to take care of local wildlife. Bird feeders can be crafted from milk cartons, tin cans, mason jars or even natural materials like pinecones. As you decorate your bird feeders, talk to your kids about how birds are not just beautiful, but also a vital part of the ecosystem and how you are offering these creatures a chance to rest and refuel. Fill your finished products with birdseed and choose a safe spot to hang them. Experts recommend bird feeders be positioned either closer than three feet or farther than 30 feet from windows.

Protect Flight

Birds in flight are prone to strike windows. Fortunately, there's an easy home project you and your children can complete together that will help prevent this from happening. Applying decals that reflect ultraviolet sunlight to your home's windows, particularly windows that are highly reflective of open sky, has been proven to substantially reduce the likelihood of bird strikes. Those from WindowAlert feature patterns that give the appearance of slightly frosted translucent glass, but glow like a stoplight for birds. Kids can help select from fun decal designs like snowflakes, butterflies, and maple leaves. The brand also makes a high-tech UV liquid that offers even greater protection when applied between decal. To learn more, visit WindowAlert.com.

Keep a Log

Now that you've invited birds to your yard and have taken steps to protect them, inspire young naturalists to keep a log of flying visitors. Kids can draw pictures of the birds they see and note their observations. Visit Audubon for Kids at audubon.org for a birding guide, activities, games, and additional projects that can help kids learn to identify various bird species by sight and sound.

"Environmental stewardship starts in your own backyard and people of all ages can get involved, including kids," says Spencer Schock, founder of WindowAlert. "The good news is that turning your home into a refuge for birds is fun, easy, and something parents, grandparents and kids can work on together."

3 affordable kitchen upgrades to consider

StatePoint - Is remodeling your kitchen on your wish list? Afraid of how much it'll set you back?

HomeAdvisor puts the average kitchen remodel price in the $12,567 to $34,962 range. However, you can buck the trend of costly, complicated updates. Consider these three renovations, all of which will improve the look and functionality of your kitchen, without costing you thousands of dollars:

Refresh Fabrics

Reupholstering just one chair means shelling out $150 to $600, according to HomeGuide. If that's beyond what you're willing to pay, but you're not ready to replace a beloved set of kitchen chairs, you can update their look on a budget and in just a few minutes with stretchable seat covers. A good choice for families with kids or pets, these covers are typically machine-washable and can be swapped out as often as you like to suit your mood. From geometric designs to citrus vibes to florals, they're offered in a range of patterns that will look great with any style.

New Granite Surfaces

Countertops are the most common feature upgraded during kitchen renovations, according to a 2022 Houzz study, which found that nine in 10 remodelers performed this update. The same survey found that 35% of homeowners are splurging to make it happen. If you've looked into granite countertops, you probably learned that it can cost thousands of dollars and take months to have them custom-made and installed.

Adding this touch of luxury to your kitchen doesn't have to bust your budget, involve contractors, or mean supply chain hassles. It can actually be an easy, one-weekend DIY project. Using a LuxROCK Solid Surface Granite Countertop Kit from Daich Coatings, you can transform your countertops and island surfaces at just a fraction of the price of a professional granite countertop installation. For about $300, a kit covers 40 square feet of space. This functional and decorative blend of real stone with stunning mineral highlights can be used to give a smooth appearance to countertops, tables, or any other surface. And because the authentic stone surface resists stains, heat and impact and is food safe, it's a great solution for the kitchen.

Each kit includes a prime coat, stone coats, clear epoxy, and a clear coat finish, as well as all the tools needed. This revolutionary and exceptionally easy resurfacing project doesn't require any artistic skills to be a success. Nor does it require technical skills, as sinks, plumbing fixtures and existing countertops don't need to be removed before application.

If you're someone who likes the flexibility of changing things up every few years, it's simple to update granite surface colors using another LuxROCK kit when you're ready. Both this U.S. patent-pending kit and the brand's textured countertop kits are available online at The Home Depot and Lowe's.

Optimize Your Pantry

Pantries are often tucked away, but you can still give them an eye-catching makeover. For fresh pops of color, paint the pantry door and wallpaper the interior. Group items by height, then use customizable shelving to stretch storage real estate. You may also wish to transfer kitchen staples to uniform containers. This will offer a tidier, more visually appealing look, while helping you make better use of limited space. Whether you opt for mason jars, ceramic canisters, or BPA-free plastic cubes, label containers carefully.

It's the heart of the home, but that doesn't mean you need to break the bank to create your dream kitchen. With ingenuity, you can improve its look and functionality at an affordable price point and in just a weekend.

Landscaping tips for instant curb appeal

StatePoint - One of the best ways to achieve instant curb appeal, according to the experts, is to effectively layer shrubs, plants, and flowers in your front yard. Doing so can create a cohesive visual experience that naturally guides visitors to the front door.

Landscape designer Doug Scott describes plant layering in art terms: "Just like in a painting, you need to have a background, a middle ground, and a foreground. Each layer serves a purpose, and there's no more important place for them to be on full display than your home's entrance."

To help homeowners understand the purpose of plant layering and identify the best types of plants for each layer, Scott has joined forces with Exmark, a leading manufacturer of commercial mowers and equipment for landscape professionals and serious DIY-ers. Here they break it down for you:

1. Background: The background layer should consist of taller evergreen shrubs to ensure that no matter what's in front of them, you and your visitors will always have something green to look at. This layer provides a cohesive backdrop and a bit of living color in every season.

2. Middle Ground: Here's where to step it down a notch in height and add interesting shapes, colors or stripes that provide contrast against the darker green of the background layer. Herbaceous perennials, like lavender, are a good choice for this purpose.

3. Foreground: Finally, the foreground layer should

Spring cleaning: Is your 'junk' worth a fortune?

StatePoint - If your family is like most, you have "junk" in your basement, garage, or attic, such as sports cards, memorabilia, and toys. Before you toss them out during spring cleaning, consider that the prices of sports cards, games and other ephemera are skyrocketing.

How can you determine if your stuff is valuable and, if it is, how can you sell it?

A widely accepted rule for sports cards, memorabilia and toys is that older items are worth more. However, these days even more recent items are also commanding high prices.

"Vintage sports cards from the early periods of a sport are almost always highly collectible, especially of Hall of Famers," says Al Crisafulli, Auction Director at Love of the Game Auctions, an internet sports and memorabilia auction that helps families sell collectibles. "But don't assume sports cards or other memorabilia must be old to be valuable. Modern cards of such stars as Tom Brady, Mike Trout, LeBron James, Michael Jordan, Derek Jeter, and others can sell for lots of money."

He is offering tips to help determine if your belongings are valuable:

Older Sports Cards

Cards from the 1960s and earlier are collectible, and those from before the 1940s can be extremely valuable. Big-name Hall of Famers like Babe Ruth, Ty Cobb, Lou Gehrig, Honus Wagner, Mickey Mantle and others bring high prices.

With old cards from the 1880s and early 1900s, look for tobacco and candy brands, such as Old Judge, Piedmont, Sweet Caporal, or American Caramel. Really old Sports memorabilia from the 19th and early 20th Century, such as photographs, postcards, bats, gloves, and balls are also collectible.

When opting to sell sports items, consider a specialty auction, such as Love of the Game, which has the expertise to professionally research sports items and maintains lists of bidders specializing in this area, to get top dollar. More information is available at loveofthegameauctions.com.

Modern Cards

Prices on recent baseball, basketball and football cards have risen rapidly. The three keys are condition, star power and cards from early in player careers.

Do you have major current stars, like Mike Trout, Patrick Mahomes, Tom Brady, and LeBron James? Or do you have greats from the recent past, like Michael Jordan, Kobe Bryant, Magic Johnson, Derek Jeter, or Joe Montana?

Check if your cards are denoted as Rookie, Prospect, Draft Pick, or other indicators they're from a player's first season. And condition is king, as cards that look pack fresh with sharp corners and a well-centered image command highest prices. Additionally, unopened packs and boxes from almost any year can be valuable.

Memorabilia

Do you have old advertising posters depicting sports stars or famous entertainment personalities together with food, tobacco, or sporting goods brands. Many original signs, store displays, and promotional items are collectible, especially those dating from the early 1900s into the 1960s. But low-quality reproductions aren't. Look for memorabilia spotlighting sports heroes, superheroes, early Walt Disney characters and Star Wars subjects.

So, while you're spring cleaning that attic, basement, or garage, don't rush to the garbage. Before throwing out old "junk," determine if it's valuable!

Small steps you and your family can take to Go Green this Earth Day

StatePoint - If you're like many parents, you want to set a good example for your children and teach them how they can positively impact the world around them. However, when it comes to sustainable efforts, the responsibility of saving the environment can seem like a monumental task.

Going green while parenting might sound challenging, but small steps can make a difference, especially as more companies and brands are getting in on the effort to go green. Get started on the right foot this Earth Day with the following tips and insights:

Choose Eco-Friendly Shoes
Children's feet grow fast and need to be replaced often. That's why you can consider selecting footwear that incorporates eco-friendly features. Here are a few sustainable options:

- Teva's signature sandal straps are made from recycled plastic bottles to reduce waste. The brand offers styles for men, women, and children.

- Birkenstock's classic and modern footbed sandals, which come in various colors, are made from natural materials such as cork, natural latex, and jute.

- The TOMS Earthwise Collection includes an assortment of on-trend flats with a 50% recycled cotton canvas upper and a non-removable insole made with 50% eco-content for a seamless fit.

Children's feet grow fast and need to be replaced often. That's why you can consider selecting footwear that incorporates eco-friendly features.

To make shopping for eco-friendly footwear easier, Rack Room Shoes created a shoppable page on its website featuring shoes made with sustainable materials. Visit: rackroomshoes.com/cs/sustainablematerial.

Choose Paper Over Plastic

With a bit of creativity, you can replace plastic utensils, sandwich bags, and single-use beverage containers at home with sustainable, reusable alternatives. Also, try purchasing favorite household items in bulk instead to limit the amount of packaging you consume.

While individual efforts are important, companies will also need to embrace change. Retailers, such as Rack Room Shoes, are enacting company-wide initiatives. They have begun replacing plastic bags with paper in many locations and will be using only paper bags, chain-wide, in the coming months. The company also recycles, utilizes energy efficient lighting, and has sustainable flooring at many locations.

You and your children can make an impact by taking a reusable tote when you shop and learning about your local recycling program together.

"It's important to work with our customers, associates and partners to positively impact our environment," said Rack Room Shoes president and CEO Mark Lardie. "We are making progress by continuing to identify ways we can evolve our products and processes for a more sustainable future."

The small steps you take to go green will keep the planet healthy for generations to come.

Fight stress during uncertain times by volunteering in your community

StatePoint - New research suggests that Americans are volunteering to give back to their communities and fight stress during uncertain times.

A recent KEEN/Harris Poll Survey found that a majority of Americans see the direct benefits of volunteering, with 86% feeling helping others reduces stress. It's no surprise then that 59% of respondents say they plan to volunteer in the next two months. But if you're among the 47% of those who say they struggle to find volunteer opportunities near them, there's good news. A new partnership between footwear brand KEEN and Points of Light, a nonprofit that mobilizes people to take action that changes the world, is connecting individuals with local opportunities to make an impact in their neighborhoods and communities.

To provide easier access to volunteer opportunities large and small, KEEN is enabling everyone to search for local or national volunteer opportunities via KEEN Corps' Volunteer Finder tool at keencorpsvolunteer.com. The tool can help you search among tens of thousands of volunteering opportunities each day with nonprofit organizations, schools and other local agencies. Now tapping into Points of Light's massive database, you'll be sure to find a volunteer opportunity that aligns with your passions and needs.

"A great many volunteer positions don't require any par-particular skills, just heart," says Erik Burbank, vice president,

The KEEN Effect, the team that leads the brand's social plant material in the rest of your front yard shouldn't be distracting. Rather let it frame the intended view.

Scott offers more plant layering tips in "Making an Entrance," a recent episode of "Done-In-A-Weekend Projects," an original series from Exmark. To watch the video, visit Backyard Life, which is part of a unique multimedia destination with a focus on helping homeowners make the most of outdoor spaces. There you can also download additional tips and view other Exmark Original Series videos, including "Dream Yards," "Living Rural," "Prime Cuts" and "Done in a Weekend - Extreme Projects."

Through effective plant layering, you can boost curb appeal and give your home the grand entrance it deserves.

and environmental justice efforts. "Volunteering can be as simple as picking up plastic at the beach or as involved as restoring a wetland. Every action makes a difference."

Interested volunteers may want to consider taking their efforts a step further by joining The KEEN Corps, the brand's loyalty program and platform for helping others, which rewards participants for doing good deeds. Since its U.S. launch in September 2021, KEEN Corps has grown to over 18,000 members and counting. As of November 2021, over 10,000 volunteer hours have been logged by Corps members.

Through the program, the more you volunteer, donate and shop, the more lives you affect, and the more points you earn. Plus, KEEN Corps volunteers receive limited edition gear, member pricing, and special access to all things KEEN. To learn more or to become a member, visit keencorps.com.

"Our recent data confirms that many of us are exhausted and looking for ways to relieve stress and feel in control in these unpredictable times," says Burbank. "Volunteering in our communities has the dual benefit of giving back and leaving us feeling more fulfilled, empowered and happy."

help transition the planting beds to your lawn space or sidewalk and should therefore be lower than the back two layers. It's also where you can keep things fresh and get your hands dirty throughout the year by changing out annuals with the seasons. Or, if you want a lower-maintenance entrance, you can choose smaller perennials, evergreens, or creeping ground covers. Use the foreground layer as an opportunity to add pops of color at ground level and draw attention to your home's entrance.

Scott lays out a few other important tips to keep in mind:

- Choose plants consistent with your home's style. For instance, if you have a craftsman home, you should probably skip tropical plants. Or, if your home is more minimalist, avoid an overabundance of different plants.

- Don't obstruct views of your front door from the street with plants. Likewise, visitors shouldn't have to maneuver around plants as they make their way down the sidewalk. Neither is convenient or welcoming, so you'll either need to keep pruning plants to size or choose plants that won't overgrow their space without a ton of pruning.

- To make your entrance "the star" it should be, the

7 ways to pay less on auto insurance

StatePoint - Inflation is driving rising costs on everything from gasoline to groceries. And recent research shows that auto insurance is expected to rise for most policyholders this year too. While you can't control how insurers price their policies, you can avoid shouldering higher costs.

Courtesy StatePoint

Here are a few ways to directly reduce your car insurance rates or mitigate increases:

- Reduce coverage. Look at your insurance policy to see if you could forego any add-ons, such as roadside assistance. If you have an older vehicle, consider all your options to see if paying for collision and comprehensive coverage is worth it.
- Increase your deductible. You may be able to lower your insurance premium by choosing an increased deductible (the amount you spend for repairs before insurance kicks in). Although increasing your deductible could save you money now, it could result in you paying more out of pocket if you have an accident down the line.
- Use driver tracking programs. Insurers typically base your premium on the information you provide them that indicates the level of risk they take on by insuring you. By using a driver tracking program, you'll provide your insurer additional information on your driving habits, which—if you are a careful and safe driver—could reduce your cost by 25% or more.

- Check for discounts. Depending on where you are in life, you may be eligible for new savings opportunities like senior/retirement or good student discounts. Ask your insurer about the various discounts you may be eligible for to see how you can save even more on your premium.

- Compare quotes. Comparing quotes from different insurance providers can help you save money and lock in the best possible deal. Using price comparison websites can help simplify this process, allowing you to compare personalized quotes from multiple providers in real time. For example, Experian's auto insurance comparison service leverages technology to compare quotes from over 40 top providers in minutes. Its average user saves more than $900 on auto insurance each year. Plus, the service offers free active rate monitoring, scouring the market on an ongoing basis to make sure you are getting the best rate among the Experian network of providers.

"Right now, consumers are looking for ways to maximize their budget. Our tool allows them to do in minutes what used to take hours, as well as possibly save hundreds of dollars," says Rod Griffin, Sr. director of Public Education at Experian.

To learn more, visit www.experian.com/save.

- Improve your credit score. Some insurers consider your credit-based insurance score when determining your premium. These scores use information in your credit reports to look at the likelihood that you'll file a claim so insurers can raise or lower your rates accordingly. To find out where you stand, you can check your credit report and score for free. Think about using services like Experian Boost to add positive payment history for utility and telecom accounts as well as video streaming services to your Experian credit report, which can potentially increase your FICO Score in real time.

- Pay off your loan. If you're still paying off your current vehicle, your lienholder may require that you hold a higher level of insurance, such as comprehensive and collision. If manageable, paying off the loan could help you eliminate extra coverage expenses from your policy—lowering your monthly insurance payment.

With inflation and interest rates on the rise, finding savings on big-ticket costs like auto insurance could make a significant impact on your budget. Fortunately, new tools and smart strategies can help you save.

Gamble Sands Boys Invitational Golf Tournament - April 12

Today was a day of firsts for our annual Gamble Sands Tournament...snow flurries and temperatures in the 30s and low 40s. Though we did have about 20 minutes of sunshine and no winds, the respite was short-lived and we were back to the numbing cold. Crazy springtime weather.

For the team scores, the 3A/4A division was taken by Kamiak with 306, but the 1A/2A winners, Sehome, were also the overall winners with 304. Individual medalist was a tie in the raw score with both John Kim of Davis and Baylor Larrabee of Ferndale both shooting 70s, but Kim taking the honors with a better score on the tie-breaker hole.

Chelan's Carson Clinton (8th grade) came in tied for 4th with an even par 72 and some great shooting on the day, followed on his team by the other team scorers Joey Gasper (senior) with an 83, Duke Nordby (sophomore) with a 106, and Chase Woodley with a 114. Overall, Chelan's team came in 4th with a 375 in the 1A/2A division behind Sehome, Ephrata (338), and Selah (350). All of these are 2A schools while Chelan comes in as the first 1A school.

A big "thanks" to my assistant coach Amber Finch who is our tournament(s) director - she always does a great job in putting all the logistics of these two tournament days together

Sehome won the 1A/2A Division (and overall) with a 304...and also won the prize for most players that made it all day in shorts (3).

Long Drive competition winner went to Brandon Suh of Kamiak and KP ("closest to the pin") competition to Carter Burns of Ephrata.

Gamble Sands Girls Invitational Golf Tournament - April 13

What a difference a day makes in springtime weather around here...from snow flurries yesterday, and not to mention 4 or more inches of snow in the Wenatchee area this morning, but nothing but sunny skies at Gamble Sands today for the girls invitational. Ok, it was still pretty chilly out, but the girls seemed to stay comfortable with all the walking they were doing.

Congratulations to the Lakewood girls for their 380 to win the 1A/2A division and Richland's 373 for the 3A/4A division. Medalist is Emma Almquist of Richland (78), 2nd Kiana Schroeder of Lakewood (79) and 3rd, Jayme Dwight of Ephrata (82). Jayme also won long drive on the 18th hole (and KP was won but we didn't write down who, though I think it may have been Emma A also).

Wenatchee girls came in 3rd in the 3A/4A division behind Richland and Kamiakin (389), with Ashleigh Willouby coming in tied for 4th overall with an 85.

Chelan's girls struggled with consistency today and could only post a 119 as their best individual score (by Arabelle Finch, 10th grade). I watched potential birdie opportunities turn into bogey (and worse) scores, and what should realistically have been 2 putts to finish at a green turn into 4 putts. But I hope these challenges will turn into learning opportunities that will help them to keep improving and pay dividends by the end of the season. Of our 4 players today, 2 are new to the team this season (Kira Sandoval and Greer Bainbridge), and today was Greer's first match playing 18 holes.

Chelan's next matches were April 19), at Quincy, and Thursday, April 21 at home vs. Cascade; both of these are league matches.

State #1 Ranked Goats return home April 14

The Goats record for the season now stands at 10-1 after cruising to a convincing win vs. the Brewster Bears on Thursday, April 14 at Mountain Goat Field. Noah Loew got the start on the mound, allowing only one hit, while striking out 9 Bears in dominant fashion.

On offense, Loew again was the hitting star for the day, going 3-4 at the plate. Fellow senior, Reed Stamps added two hits in the lopsided 10-0 win for the Goats.

The Goats were scheduled to play on Saturday, April 16 vs Quincy.

Game 1: (April 4) The Goats Baseball team returned home Tuesday night, having played in the Ephrata Spring Break Tournament. In the first of 3 games played, the Goats easily got past White Swan by the score of 26-4. The hit parade was led by Colt Funk who went 4 for 5, and Ethan Strandberge whole was 3 for 4 in the lopsided victory.

Game 2: (April 4) The Goats matched up with the 2A #1 ranked WF West Bearcats. The result was the first loss of the season for the Goats, who never got things going against the well prepared, and talented Bearcats. The result was a 8 - 1 Loss for the Goats.

Game 3: (April 5) On Tuesday, the Goats came away with a 5-3 win against the 1A #8 ranked Colville Crimson Hawks. Junior Braiden Boyd earned his 4th win of the year, and Senior Noah Loew closed the door with 5 strikeouts to secure the Goats 8th win of the season. The hitting star for the day was Quin McLaren who had 3 hits in the game.

"Lalo" Molina also had a good game with a few key saves during regulation.

The game was originally scheduled at Cashmere, but was switched last minute, which made Saturday's (April 16) home game vs. Manson our Senior night.

April 5 We played the Selah Vikings today and drew 1-1. Goal scored by Javier Barajas.

Cashmere @ Chelan (league matchup) April 12

It felt like a February tennis match, snow flakes and all. Despite the early season feel, this match actually concluded our first lap through the CTL. Both the Chelan boys and girls teams have managed to stay undefeated in league play (4-0), but it has been by no means a dominant lap. We've had to eke out many of those victories. So, I'm proud of our kids for being clutch, and winning the big points and big games when it mattered most. However, we've also earned a bull's eye on our jerseys, and we know that we now face a bunch of motivated CTL teams in lap #2 who probably feel like they have a shot to beat us. We need to keep improving.

102ND MANSON APPLE BLOSSOM FESTIVAL MAY 13-14, 2022

Where are they now

Queen Sierra (Ellsworth) D'Amelio

By NORM MANLY,
COMMUNITY VOLUNTEER

MANSON – This installment of Manson Apple Blossom Royalty, “Where Are They Now” for 2022, features Sierra (Ellsworth) D’Amelio, Queen of the 2008 Manson Apple Blossom Festival.

Queen Sierra presided over the festival with Princesses Laura Cross and Keisha Neff. The Royalty escorts were Wade Gross, Reece Kamphaus and Gabriel Castro. The Grand Marshals this year were the La Mar Family. On May 9, 2008, Queen Sierra proclaimed, “These days should be designated as a time to reflect on all that is golden and glamorous about Manson.”

When asked why she made the decision to run for Manson Apple Blossom Royalty, Sierra replied “I always looked up to the Apple Blossom Royalty as a little girl, and I wanted to represent the town I loved so much. I was very shy, and I wanted to surprise my community and peers that I had much more to offer. I want to mention my mentor through high school, Desiree Phelps. She was my volleyball coach, a strong, caring person who believed in me every step of the way.”

What is your fondest memory during your reign as Apple Blossom Queen? “Being a role model for small children was my highlight. As an aspiring teacher, that was one of the things I hoped for. I looked up to the Apple Blossom Royalty during childhood, so to finally be there myself was a big accomplishment.

Do you have a funny story about your time as Queen? “It is funny now but maybe wasn’t so funny at the time. Our float broke down right before the Wenatchee parade began and they quickly put us in a car, it had a sign that said “Happy Birthday” for the woman driving the vehicle. The entire way down people were yelling “Happy Birthday” to us.”

Life after Manson Apple Blossom took Sierra to Central Washington University where she received a degree in Elementary Education and an Early Education Degree with an endorsement to teach English as a second language. After graduation she moved over the mountains and secured her first teaching position in the Edmonds School District. For the past seven years Sierra has been employed at Terrace Park School in Mountlake Terrace, working as a kindergarten teacher. During this time frame she secured a Master’s Degree in Education from the University of Washington.

“I have been married almost seven years to my husband Michael. We have two children Nyah (6) and Colt (2) and we live in Lake Stevens. As far as future goals, we would like to purchase our first home in the next year or so. We are also big travelers and would like to travel outside of the United States now that Covid restrictions are becoming less strict. One big travel goal we have is to go to Italy because Michael comes from a large Italian family,” Sierra stated.

Did your time as Queen help you as you moved through life? “It was the steppingstone I needed to become more outgoing and helped me out of my reserved shell. I also learned to be able to communicate with a wide variety of people.”

Do you have any recommendations for others thinking about running for Manson Apple Blossom Royalty? “Practice, practice, practice. Do not ever assume the outcome of the selection, there are surprises every year. Being reserved or different can give you the opportunity to surprise your peers and community. If you prepare and practice, it takes some of the nerves away.”

“I really miss the fun, excitement and friends from Apple Blossom, but I’m lucky as my mom, Diana Ellsworth keeps me up to speed as she remains an Apple Blossom volunteer,” Sierra concluded.

8th graders earn foreign language credit

MANSON - This year, students in 8th grade in Manson have had the opportunity to take a trimester exploratory class led by Ann Marie Wisdom called STAMP. Students engage in learning tasks that strengthen their Spanish skills in reading, writing, listening and speaking. At the end of the trimester students can take an assessment in Spanish called Avant STAMP. STAMP stands for Standards Based Measurement of Proficiency and can be used to show competency towards high school foreign language credit as well as to earn the Seal of Bilingual. The Seal of Bilingual is established to recognize public high school graduates who have attained a high level of proficiency in speaking, reading, and writing in one or more world languages in addition to English. Students earn a Seal of Bilingual on their high school diploma when they score a level 4 on the STAMP test and earn their high school English credits. Forty-five percent of the 8th graders have earned high school foreign language credit in Spanish and 16 percent of the 8th graders have earned four credits and are in line for earning the Seal of Bilingual. Seventy-four percent of the Latino 8th graders have earned high school foreign language credit in Spanish.

The following 8th graders were recently honored for earning high school foreign language credit during the second trimester. Students need 2 credits to meet the graduation requirement. Back Row: Daniel Vera (two credits), Davon Chavez (one credit), Obed Martinez (three credits), Hector Valencia (two credits), David Romero (four credits), Luis Anaya (four credits), Yulitza Cesar (four credits), and Emily Leyva (two credits). Middle Row: Dayami Morfin (four credits), Sofia Orozco (three credits), Yaritza Villasenor (four credits), Nefertitis Zarate (four credits), Alissandra Mendoza (two credits), Helen Aragon (three credits), and middle school principal Dr. Heather Ireland. Front row: Melvin Adame (four credits).

Q: What is the best way to get rid of my annoying dandruff?

One of the most common skin conditions globally, nearly one-half of adults will experience the frustration and embarrassment of dandruff.

Dandruff happens when the skin cells on the skin of your scalp build up into thickened layers, then peel off as grayish-white flakes on your shoulders and upper back. Changes in your skin's oil production, physical or emotional stress, cold weather, and hormone changes can each trigger dandruff.

How Malassezia. If the top layer of your skin becomes damaged, that balance can get disrupted. If Malassezia is allowed to multiply beyond a healthy level, those additional organisms create byproducts that are irritating to your skin.

This damages it further, triggering skin cells to multiply and stick together in thickened clumps, called scales. These scales eventually peel off as grayish-white flakes that show up in your hair and on your shoulders.

What is the best way to fight dandruff?

There are several products available. Antifungal shampoos are your best choice. They suppress the growth of Malassezia fungus. Shampoos containing a keratolytic loosen the skin cells clumped together, called scales, and work more slowly. Coal tar shampoos interfere with the growth of excess skin cells, reducing scale formation, and are the least effective.

Three antifungal shampoos are available without a prescription. The oldest product is pyrithione zinc, the active ingredient in Head and Shoulders® shampoo. Selenium sulfide is considered more effective than pyrithione zinc, and is available as 2.5% shampoo which is prescription only (Selsun®), and as 1% non-prescription shampoo, Selsun Blue®.

If pyrithione zinc and selenium sulfide don't help, try ketoconazole (Nizoral®) shampoo. Initially available only by prescription, in 1997, the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) allowed Nizoral® to be sold without a prescription.

Other medicated shampoos marketed for dandruff work differently. Instead of attacking the Malassezia fungus, salicylic acid and sulfur are keratolytics: they dissolve the keratin that holds your skin cells together. Shampooing with these agents helps remove scales.

Coal tar shampoos are not nearly as effective as antifungal or keratolytic shampoos. Coal tar work to suppress excess skin cell growth, discouraging the creation of scales. Although coal tar shampoos smell pungent, if you rinse thoroughly, the smell fades as your hair dries.

When using a medicated shampoo, start by shampooing every day for the first week, then 2-3 times weekly for the next 2-3 weeks. Once your dandruff is under control, you can alternate with non-medicated shampoos. Dandruff can be persistent; you may need a medicated shampoo once weekly to maintain control.

Medicated shampoos can dry out your hair and scalp. Applying a hair conditioner after rinsing out a medicated shampoo won't interfere with its effectiveness, but may help reduce minor scalp irritation and ease itching.

Here 5 Ways to Help Defeat Dandruff:

1. Be gentle. To minimize scalp irritation that can encourage dandruff, try shampooing with non-medicated shampoo. To help loosen scales, soften them with mineral oil, coconut, or olive oil for at least 30 minutes before shampooing. If you have long hair, wetting it before applying the oil keeps it from soaking into your hair instead of your scalp. You can also use oil at night, gently scrub it into your skin with a toothbrush, and follow with shampoo in the morning.
2. Don't rush. Keep medicated shampoo on your hair for at least 5 minutes. When you start your shower, lather up with your medicated shampoo, then complete your shower before rinsing thoroughly.
3. Beware of staining. Coal tar can stain light hair, skin, and clothing. Selenium sulfide can stain your scalp, light-colored hair, and clothing yellowish brown.
4. Chill out. Physical or emotional stress can aggravate dandruff. Try getting more rest, or add a calming practice to your day, like meditation or yoga.
5. Consult your doctor. Dandruff is a mild form of a more severe skin condition called seborrheic dermatitis. Consult your doctor if you notice yellow, oily, scaly patches on your face, ears, or armpits, develop red, inflamed areas on your scalp or skin, or if you don't see any improvement in 4 weeks.

Unveiling the healing power of forgiveness

A novel by local writer William E. Forhan.

Nobel Prize winning author Gabriel Garcia Marquez was quoted as saying, "All human beings have three lives, public, private and secret."

In our modern world of the Internet search engines and DNA testing, keeping our private and secret lives separate is increasingly difficult. Sometimes they can come crashing in on our public lives when we least expect it.

Father Robert McCarthy is a middle-aged priest who is suddenly and unexpectedly confronted with his secret past. How he deals with the revelation of that past with his family, his congregation and the impacts of that secret life is inspirational. How McCarthy discloses the news of his college indiscretion requires him to take everyone involved on a journey of confession. That journey forces him to deal with issues of homosexuality, judgmentalism, divorce and pride.

His pastoring skills and the depth of support from his wife help him bring forgiveness and restoration to many broken relationships.

The bonds of three families are ultimately restored through celebrations of life experiences including fishing, holiday gatherings, the discovery of unknown family connections and a wedding.

Bill's Book is available online through Amazon.com, BarnesandNoble.com and Apple iBook.
