

HONK for Heritage Heights June 5

CHELAN - The Lake Chelan Valley can show the residents at Heritage Heights Assisted Living a little sunshine this week by driving by and honking on Friday, June, 3-3:30ish p.m. The residents will be in their windows and wave back. Traffic will be directed by staff. Heritage Heights is located at 505 E. Highland Ave., next door to Lake Chelan Community Hospital.

The residents miss the outside world due to the COVID-19 restrictions and have only been able to talk with family and friends, via phone, texting or the internet, since the first part of April.

Let's all show up and show them how much this valley cares about them.

City of Chelan weekly face mask contest, names its first winner

CHELAN - The City of Chelan is holding a weekly contest to select the most unique face mask. Each week a new theme will be announced. Citizens are encouraged to create a mask following each week's theme and send a photo wearing their mask to the City (pmichajla@cityofchelan.us) or post on the City's Facebook page.

The intent of this effort is to help promote the importance of our citizens wearing face masks when out in public - and also to have some fun and win a prize.

They will announce a weekly winner on Wednesdays and reveal the upcoming week's theme. The winners and weekly mask themes will be posted on the City's Facebook page. Entries are due no later than Noon on Tuesdays. Lake Chelan Chamber of Commerce Bucks will be awarded to the weekly winners. Prizes will be awarded for 1st, 2nd and 3rd each Wednesday morning.

Please show your creativity and artistic talents by participating in this contest.

Brush fire caused by juveniles playing with matches

Chelan Fire & Rescue Fire Chief Mark Donnell reports that on May 27 at 5:33 p.m., Chelan Fire & Rescue crews were dispatched to a reported brush fire in the area of S. Bradley St. and Prospect St. Calling parties had reported an approximately 10' x 10' fire had started in medium fuels (grass and brush) near the Butte trail.

Units arrived at 5:37 p.m. to find that the fire had grown to approximately 20' x 20' and was within 100' of structures. Crews were able to knock down and contained the fire by 5:41 p.m., and mop up was completed by 6:24 p.m.

Chelan Valley Housing Trust receives community support in local grants

City, County, State and Chamber Pledge $650,000 for Workforce Housing

SUBMITTED BY CHELAN VALLEY HOUSING TRUST

CHELAN - The CVHT has announced the receipt of $650,000 in pledges, over the next 10 years, from the City of Chelan, Chelan County, and the Lake Chelan Chamber of Commerce to build homes for the valley's wage earners.

"This kind of financial commitment from our local government speaks to the public's support of our mission," says CVHT Executive Director Mike Cooney. "It's an enormous boost."

Cooney reports that Chelan County has pledged $20,000 a year for the next three years with an option of additional two years based on CVHT's performance. Chelan County Commissioner Doug England states, "We are happy and eager to partner with hard working families to create reasonably priced homes in the Lake Chelan Valley."

The City of Chelan has also committed $20,000 a year for the next five years to help the land trust's efforts. In addition, the City has earmarked $100,000 to help offset hookup fees for affordable housing projects including those of CVHT. "We so appreciate Mayor Goedde and the council's support," says Cooney. "It's great they understand what our group is doing here."

Cooney also reports that the Lake Chelan Chamber of Commerce is dedicating $10,000 a year for the next 10 years to the CVHT. President of the Lake Chelan Chamber of Commerce Sandy Calicoat explains, "We recognize the challenge employers face when trying to hire employees. The high cost of housing in our valley is a difficult hurdle for families and business owners alike. That's why our board is committed to helping address the housing shortage head on by partnering with the CVHT."

The State of Washington has also come on board, thanks largely to Representative Michael Steele's efforts, committing $250,000

Lake Chelan blast from the past

It was my first major holiday weekend, during my term as Mayor of Chelan. We had our hands full.

Jerry Isenhardt

Most of the visitors were college kids who had circulated (using a FAX Machine) a poster that said "Lake Chelan was The Place To Be" for the upcoming three-day Memorial Day weekend.

We had some time to prepare, so we asked for help from the King County Sheriff's Office and Washington State Patrol. We were able to bring in about 250 additional law enforcement officers, but it wasn't enough. The kids drank and danced in the streets and made it impossible to get a vehicle through from Safeway to the Bowling Alley.

At least not a police car or ambulance. I drove the quarter mile to the park, but it took me an hour.

The worst thing was the way the kids just camped in people's yards. Some of them even walked into people's homes uninvited, using bathrooms and eating food out of the refrigerator without asking permission.

Frightened grandmothers and other citizens would call dispatch, but it would take 30 minutes to get vehicles to the "scene of the crime."

By Saturday we knew we needed backup law enforcement on bicycles, because patrol cars would be impossible to navigate through the many other vehicles and people in the streets.

We brought all the extra bicycle cops we could find to assist our efforts at controlling the chaos. The crowd wasn't horribly unruly, but just wanted to party and paid no respect to private property or the laws.

We probably arrested 500 or more that first holiday and when the college students tried it again the next major holiday on the 4th of July, we had beefed up our law enforcement support with over 100 bicycle officers from Seattle and the National Guard to help with traffic control.

The corner of Johnson and Columbia was just a 4-way flashing stop light back in the day.

By Labor Day the season-long party was over. We had controlled the crowds. An attempt was made by those same partiers the following Memorial Day weekend of 1987, but it was a bust.

TEE TIME

SUBMITTED BY SHERRY FISK,
LAKE CHELAN LADIES CLUB
TEE TIME

CHELAN - It was a "beautiful day in the neighborhood" of the Lake Chelan Municipal Golf Course. We had a little taste of summer weather to come as it was plenty warm.

This week's (May 28) competition was Blind Mice where the Pro shop draws 3 holes after tee off. You then subtract these 3 holes from your gross score, less your full handicap.

There were 20 players in the game this week. The winners were:

Division 1: First place, Janet Foyle, 55. Second place, Linda Hahn, 58. Third place was a tie between Nancy Judson and Carol Ferguson, 59.

Division 2: First place, Maggie Stalcup, 52. Second place, Karen Erickson, 54.

Division 3: First place, Julie Allison, 53.

Today's birdie girls were April Talley on hole 14 and Jo Higgins on hole 2.

Besides the weekly competition, there was round 2 of the Apple Blossom Tournament being played. This week's results were as follows:

Karen Erickson defeated Janet Foyle 3 and 2. Linda Reister defeated Carol Ferguson 6 and 4. Judy Johanson defeated Nancy Judson 1 Up. April Talley defeated Linda Hahn 3 up.

Congratulations to the winners of Round 2 and we look forward to next week's matches: Linda Reister vs Karen Erickson. April Talley vs Judy Johanson.

Next week's (June 4) competition is Monthly Medal (low gross and net by division). It will also be Round 3 of the Apple Blossom Tournament.

Our tee time is changing to 8:30 a.m. this week on June 4. You should be at the course by 8 a.m. to give Judy Johanson sufficient time to create the pairings. You do not need to call or email Judy ahead of time; simply show up on time.

OBITUARIES

Jeanette Ann Lindsey

Jeanette Ann Lindsey, 64, wife, mother, and dear friend to many, gained her wings on Sunday, May 17, 2020.

Jeanette was born on May 21, 1955 to Edwin and Florence Evans in Burley, Idaho. She grew up in Asotin, Washington with five of her seven siblings, and graduated from Asotin High School in 1973. Her siblings have fond memories of her being a loving, caring, kind and fun sister – such as the time when their father drained the oil from a vehicle into a tub and Jeanette and her older sister jumped into it to play.

The year prior to graduating, Jeanette met Lynn David Lindsey on a blind date. They married June 2, 1973 and moved to Chelan, Washington in 1974. The couple went on to have three children of their own: Michelle, Melissa, and Jason. However, Jeanette was “mom” to many.

Jeanette’s first pregnancy extended beyond her due date. This prompted Lynn to seek advice from his own father, who suggested that a ride on his snowmobile might induce labor. One short trip through the orchard and Michelle was born later that day. Unfortunately, Jeanette never took to snowmobiling, especially after only wearing tennis shoes to go cut Christmas trees in the snow one year.

Jeanette was known to be spotted in the wee hours of the morning, while pregnant with Jason, eating cherry tomatoes in her neighbor’s garden... thankfully that neighbor was also her brother and sister-in-law. She loved singing along with Juice Newton, ABBA, Bonnie Tyler, Bette Midler, Air Supply and of course the Dirty Dancing Soundtrack while driving and taking spontaneous road trips with Melissa to Omak to get Arby’s Onion Petals.

Jeanette excelled at propping up her children and supporting them through the many passions and difficulties of their lives. Whether it was guiding them through their first broken heart or being open minded about their musical tastes – even when Jason played her the song “Bad Habit” by The Offspring -- she made it her mission to always be open minded and be there for each of them. This love, compassion, support, and open mindedness was extended to and felt by each of her children’s friends, as well as all those she met.

Jeanette was passionate about reading, crocheting and cross stitching and when she was not filling her home with warmth and kindness and the delicious scents of her cooking and baking, she could be found in her chair creating beautiful crocheted blankets, stitching gorgeous pieces of art, or reading one of her favorite books. We will miss her greatly.

Jeanette was predeceased by her parents, Edwin and Florence Evans; sisters Lillian McFadden and Della Evans; brothers Gerald Evans and Jesse Evans, father and mother in-law Oscar and Julia Lindsey, brother and sister in-law Wayne and Lexi Grose, and three beloved dogs. She is survived by her husband, Lynn Lindsey of Royal City, WA; daughters

Michelle Lindsey-Brooks of Malaga, WA and Melissa Lindsey (Scott Fredrickson) of Entiat, WA, son Jason Lindsey (Kelli Lindsey) of Wenatchee, WA; grandson Chayse Brooks (Alesia McNeal) of Wenatchee, WA; sister Eulila King of Lewiston, ID, brothers Bill Evans of Yakima, WA and Ariel Evans of California; several nieces and nephews and two beloved dogs.

A small family graveside service was held at Chelan Fraternal Cemetery on Friday, May 22, 2020. In lieu of flowers, please donate in memory of Jeanette to the Multiple Sclerosis Society at <https://www.nationalmssociety.org/Donate>.

Lifting up your community through estate planning

By CHRISTINA M. DAVITT, OGDEN MURPHY WALLACE PLLC

Many people are asking themselves how they can best support their community right now. The COVID-19 crisis has brought on intense stress and suffering to so many of our neighbors and friends. How can we help? While there are a number of immediate opportunities for volunteering your time or making donations, you might also think about how you can make a difference in the long-term.

As an elder law attorney, I often see clients who are struggling to decide whom to give their assets to when they pass away. Close family members are natural beneficiaries, but some clients have very few or even no family or close relatives that they can name in their Will. Even for those with family, I often get asked, “Is there anyone or anywhere you would recommend?”

Well, that’s when I sit back and ask them – have you considered a charitable gift? And then I let them think about that possibility for a few minutes. Usually, their next question is, “What do you mean by a charitable gift?” I tell them I mean that leaving even a small portion of their estate to charity. I ask them to seriously consider leaving up to 10%, which won’t usually take away much from the gifts they intend for their family members. And that 10% will mean a lot to charitable organizations and those they serve right here in the Wenatchee Valley.

We all know about the developmental tasks of toddlers and children, learning to tie their shoes, color within the lines and begin to assert their independence from their parents. But what about the developmental tasks of adulthood and older adulthood? One of the most important tasks of these ages is to identify ways in which you can leave a legacy. Perhaps it’s teaching your grandchildren to fish or your family’s favorite apple pie recipe, but what if part of your legacy was a gift that kept on giving to your entire community for generations to come?

You can leave that sort of powerful legacy when you participate in the Community Foundation of North Central Washington’s Give 10 program. Leaving 10% of your estate to CFNCW to steward for you, means that your legacy benefits not only your children and grandchildren, but everyone’s children and grandchildren both now and in the future. Imagine your gift of $10,000 going to help establish or support a college scholarship so that our community’s young people can avoid the crushing debt of student loans while they become more educated, so they can succeed and then give back to our community. Let’s leave them more than money – leave your children and grandchildren a legacy and a fine example of good work by participating in the Give 10 program. Contact your estate planning attorney or the Community Foundation today to leave your legacy.
