Chelan County opens Moderate Risk Waste Facility

Opened to the public December 6

SUBMITTED BY CHELAN COUNTY PUBLIC WORKS

WENATCHEE - People will be able to drop off their household hazardous waste - materials such as used motor oil, antifreeze, oil-based paints, pool chemicals, and pesticides and fertilizers - at the year-round facility for safe disposal.

"We are very excited to be opening this much-needed facility," said Brenda Blanchfield, manager of the Solid Waste program of Chelan County Public Works. "In the past, the county has held one-day collection events once a year. A permanent facility gives people more opportunities to dispose of their household hazardous wastes in a safe and responsible way and helps keep these materials out of our groundwater and rivers and lakes."

The 5,000-square-foot facility was built on county-owned property at 3612 Highway 97A in Wenatchee. It is open to all Chelan County residents three days a week, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Thursday through Saturday. The facility is free to residents; however, a $10 contribution per trip is appreciated.

The $2.6 million facility is a project of Chelan County and its partners: the Washington State Department of Ecology, the Washington State Department of Commerce and the cities of Wenatchee, Cashmere, Leavenworth, Chelan and Entiat. "We could not have completed this project without the help of our community partners," said Eric Pierson, director/county engineer of

Manger Mall brings joy to children in the valley

RuthEdna Keys/LCM

On Friday, Dec. 13, volunteers of Chelan Valley Hopes Manger Mall gathered at North Shore Bible Church in Manson to organize 992 toys in preparation for the 11th annual Manger Mall on Dec. 14. Families could buy a toy for $1 for each registered child, along with an item from the comfort table (hats, gloves, scarves, blankets, and new this year pillow cases and pillows), and one item per family from the family table (games, book, etc.). The pink girls bicycle pictured above was 'raffled' off and will made a little girl very happy. Families were from Chelan and Manson, with some from Orondo, Entiat, Pateros and Brewster. Volunteers were: front row, left to right: Kathi Fedor, Pat Batdorf, Shannon Leahy, Sue Nadon, Candice Taylor, Candace Farnsworth, Kathy Witt, Karen Pembroke, Julie McCoy, Sara Johnson, and Karen Takagi. WASTE

Chelan County Public Works. "The project had reached a standstill in 2017, but our partners stepped up to help finance its completion. This facility is a great example of what a community can accomplish when strong partnerships are formed."

Household hazardous waste, or HHW, is material that should not be thrown in the garbage but instead be disposed of safely at a Moderate Risk Waste Facility or collection event. HHW is labeled with key words such as caution, flammable, corrosive, warning, poisonous, explosive, danger, toxic or reactive.

HHW includes but is not limited to: automotive products, including used motor oil, antifreeze, gas, brake fluid, waxes, batteries and cleaners; home gardening supplies, including pesticides, fertilizers, insecticides, fungicides and herbicides; painting supplies, including oil-based paints

Courtesy Department of Ecology

This is what the new MRWF looks like. The 5,000-square-foot facility is located at 3612 Highway 97A in Wenatchee.

and stains, thinners and solvents; kerosene; heating oil; pool and spa chemicals; household cleaners; and fluorescent tubes and bulbs.

Waste collected at the facility will be packed for safe transport and contractor Clean Harbors Environmental of Kent will haul the material away for safe disposal.

Among the facility's features are a drive-up unloading area for visitors; a reuse area for those materials that are deemed reusable; an office and breakroom area for employees; an emergency wash area; a barrel packing area and lab for material identification; two 200-square-foot storage containers for flammables; and a blast wall for any highly explosive materials that may come in and need temporary storage.

The onsite stormwater system also was designed to withstand a 100-year storm event. The system incorporates Low Impact Development design principles that include pervious pavers in the parking areas, an underground stormwater chamber and two bio-filtration swells to promote infiltration of on-site-generated stormwater.

Secure your HHW safely when transporting

If you are dropping off material at the MRWF, remember these tips for the safe transport of your household hazardous wastes:

- Don't mix products.
- Keep products in original containers. Label products not in same.
- Secure products so they don't tip over or leak.
- Containers should be non-leaking and of 5 gallons or less in size.
- Transport similar products upright in cardboard boxes for safety.
- Stay in your vehicle during unloading.

In addition, please remember that the MRWF does not accept latex or water-based paints. Latex paint can be safely disposed of in your residential garbage can if the paint is first hardened with a material such as kitty litter, mulch, sawdust or shredded paper. When the paint is hardened to the consistency of oatmeal, place the can, with its lid off, in your garbage can.

On being a 'compassionate Conservative' in the face of sloth, greed and PC run amok

Years ago I heard some guy named Bush, might've been Bush the First. He was talking about caring about people at the same time that these same people cared about themselves.

Compassionate Conservative values equal giving a hand up, but not always a handout.

It's the old maxim: Give a man a fish and he is grateful and eats it and for one day he is satiated, but teach a man to fish and he can feed himself forever.

As a society, America is the most generous one that ever existed. Americans, on a regular, standard operating procedure basis, give food, clothing, medicine, shelter to any disaster-struck nation regardless of race, creed or even politics.

Now comes the idea of just giving everything away to everyone regardless of whether or not they ever raised a sweat doing work themselves.

Not all high school grads

APPLES TO APPLES

belong in college, but that doesn't stop demeaning higher education by literally giving it away. Many college degrees are worthless anyway because the market is saturated with liberal arts degrees showing only a general interest in general subjects.

I tell kids to get a STEM degree and it will serve them forever and be a way of achieving societal, financial and career status.

Giving away college has some merit, but only if prospective students are vetted to make sure they aren't better suited to a vocational skill.

The cost of a four-year degree is often prohibitive for the "less than brilliant" non-scholarship garnering student, which is probably the vast majority.

I applaud Wenatchee Valley College for offering vocational courses in welding, cooking, healthcare and even forklift training and I hope Chelan and Douglas County students, young and old, take advantage of these great courses.

They are more than reasonably priced and often lead to certificates that can get jobs for those motivated enough to make their own futures, not just be satisfied with Supplemental Security Income (SSI) or mooching off mom & dad.

To be fair, some of our fellow citizens need SSI just to barely squeak by in life. These are mostly senior citizens or the disabled.

While others use excuses as to why they can't get a job or hold a job or why they go through the ever turning turnstiles of incarceration, re-offending, incarceration, re-offending.

In the mean time, when not in jail, money is spent on drugs (both legal and illegal), alcohol (to the extreme) and junk food binges by the parasites who ought to be striving to become better men and women serving the greater good.

I don't mean to deny the impact of addiction and mental health issues on one's life, but part of the journey includes brave attempts at self-reform by education, sobriety, religion and other therapeutic methods.

In my view, I would rather have 20 welders, forklift drivers and cooks than one "social worker" who is merely working to maintain an excuse for keeping the line item for salaries in the annual budget.

That includes school districts, state, county, city and federal governments and entities, especially the Washington State Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS) and the Social Security Administration (SSA).

The latter is especially guilty of not having a field investigations department that ensures the receivers of tax dollars are actually using the money for the intended survival of themselves and their kids.

It just takes 10% of slime to infect the entire batch of ice in the machine.

I can sympathize with advocates of tax reform because it is obvious some of the social programs we support are not necessarily good for the greater good and heavily favor those who claim a false incapacitation for whatever reason.

Perhaps high school drop-outs ought to be made to take vocational training instead of welfare?

North Central Educational Service District releases campaign

SUBMITTED BY NCESD

WENATCHEE – The North Central Educational Service District (NCESD) has released a public campaign to raise awareness of student safety. The campaign, called "See Something, Speak Up," was developed by the NCESD and created by students in the Cinematography program at the Wenatchee Valley Technical Skills Center.

The campaign has launched with a video featuring student interviews that share the warning signs of student depression and outline actions to take when identified. The purpose is to remind each of us that we are all participants in protecting the safety of our students and schools. The interviews were conducted during the November Career Expo held at Wenatchee Valley College.

The videos are available to view and access on the NCESD YouTube Channel and can be found directly at: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=shwHUnyNqfk>

"This campaign has been created to remind each of us that we all play a role in ensuring student and school safety. The students who were interviewed are from a variety of North Central Washington schools and share their own thoughts and ideas on what to look for and do if you recognize concerning behavior. By recognizing the signs, we can provide support," explained NCESD Superintendent Dr. Michelle Price.

The project was led by Wenatchee Valley Technical Skills Center and Wenatchee High School students Chelsea Craig and Ben Adkinson. Craig, a senior, served as the Editor on the project and Adkinson, a sophomore, captured the audio.

The North Central Educational Service District is a resource to the 29 districts within the four-county service area, providing professional and timely tools to meet the needs of individual schools and districts, and a reliable point of education-related information for the communities served. The NCESD is a respected resource to other ESDs throughout Washington State.

Wenatchee Network Group donates $200 to Eagles/Wellness Place

WENATCHEE - The Wenatchee Network Group (WNG) donated $200 to the Wenatchee Eagles used the money to add to their other fundraising efforts, thus making them eligible for four times the matching funds from the F.O.E. Grand Aerie towards a charitable cause.

According to WNG Secretary Sherry Gustin, $150 goes toward the Christmas food baskets the Eagles will distribute and "We decided to give the other $50 toward the Eagles Cancer fund. They were just $50 short of the $1,000 needed to make a big impact in our community."

"The Eagles will pledge the $1,000 raised to our local Wellness Place (home for cancer patient families), and the National headquarters of the Eagles will pledge another $4,000, as long as the local aerie raised at least $1,000.

With our $50 donation, we have helped get $5,000 donated to Wellness Place here in Wenatchee. If you thought little donations don't make a difference, here is proof that it does have an impact. Thank you to our members for the generosity shown!" concluded Gustin.

AREA ROAD WORK THIS WEEK

Chelan County PUD
CHELAN - A Chelan PUD contractor will be back doing more work on the cable replacement project on West Woodin Avenue. On Monday, Dec. 16, the crew started pulling new power cable through the trench that was dug in the fall.

They're not expecting any lane closures, although traffic may be shifted slightly around the work. The hope is drivers will know to be on the lookout and will take it slow as they pass the crews.

The work will wrap up before Christmas.

What is Christmas Spirit About?

I think Christmas spirit is about spending time with your family. It is about spending time with your friends and cousins. Baking with your mom and holding others is part of Christmas too. I also think it's about nice behavior.

MY FAVORIT REINDEER

My favorite reindeer is RUDOLF because in the cartoon he helped Santa to find places to deliver presents when it was foggy. and because he has a red glowing nose. Also he's the leader.

Elf

If I was an Elf I would build a robot cat and a robot dog that can do everything for you. But you have to tell it then it will do the thing that you tell it to do. The robot cat is different than the dog. You have to call the robot cat with your iPhone then you can tell it what to do.

My favorite would be the robot cat.

If I visit the North Pole I will find a big house in the North Pole. Then I will find an elf and he will tell me where Santa is. When I find Santa I will tell him to let me find the Christmas presents. Then I will take every thing that all the elves try to get me. Then we will give the presents to everyone.

Manson High School girls basketball team has developed good shooting power

BY LIBBEY IRELAND, MHS INTERN

MANSON - After winning two games last season, Coach Pam Banks hopes and expects to improve that record. Banks tells us she has big goals for this season.

After losing five seniors, including their leading senior, Megan Clausen, Banks tells us the loss has made a huge difference; however, it will not stop the girls from overstepping their record. Not to mention, a new star player, Maycee Ward, who has brought an amazing change to the team in which Banks says, "she is a real key player to our success."

When looking at how the season will go, Banks tells us, they "are smaller all the way around." But the girls have developed good shooting power over the summer.

She also tells us her hopes and expectations for the season, "I hope and expect to improve last year's record of winning two games. I also have a high desire that we will be right there in the running and bring home wins."

Manson High School boys basketball team experience level is up

BY LIBBEY IRELAND, MHS INTERN

MANSON - Coach Eric Helleson has high hopes for this year's boys' basketball team. Helleson tells us his hopes are to "Keep improving and surprising people."

After losing five seniors and bringing five new varsity players who have never played, Coach Helleson tells us, while there were a lot of inexperienced players towards the start of the season, "starting practice in June helped fill up the experience level."

Coach Helleson says there have been a lot of role players who have worked extremely hard to be on the varsity team such as Titus Peterson, Parker Teague, and Tucker Flowers.

As for how the season will go, Helleson tells us, "We are a team with a lot of length, so I think we are going to end up, by the end, a very good defensive team."

Chelan loses hard fought game

OKANOGAN - Chelan traveled north to take on the Bulldogs of Okanogan in their first league matchup. It was a hard fought game with the home team winning 40-45. The Goats had the lead after the first quarter 9-7. Chelan jumped out and extended their lead to 8 when Chelan's defense failed to keep Isabel Buchert in check and she buried two triples on consecutive trips down the court.

Freshmen Olivia Strandberg stretched the lead back to 4 with two free throws, but a free throw from Okanogan cut the lead to only 3 points at the half, 17-14. After the half, Chelan kept the defensive pressure on and led 33-26 after 3 quarters of play.

The Goats built the lead to 10 with under 5 minutes to go, when turnovers and fouls became a huge factor. Okanogan scored 15 points in the last 5 minutes to take the lead and end the game with a league win.

Courtesy Bailey Dezellem/Chelan FFA

The Chelan FFA team of (left to right) Molly Oswald, Macaela LaPorte, Aliyah Finch, Obed Diaz, and Clayton Reeves took 6th overall out of 25 teams in a very competitive field at the state competition for Apple Evaluation on Dec. 11 in Wenatchee. Macaela was 4th overall individual where the top seven were all less than 10 points apart. Molly was 15th overall individual. "These students have put in a ton of time and effort for this achievement. Lunches, advisory, after school, and even coming in on weekends," Bailey Dezellem, Agricultural Science Teacher/FFA Advisor Chelan High School said. "Special thanks goes to Jeff LaPorte for his time, support, and expertise. This team has had the amazing opportunity to work closely with him, and we wouldn't have been as successful without him," Dezellem continued.

CHELAN ATHLETES OF THE WEEK

CHS Girls Basketball
Ashley Sams

Ashley started the basketball season in the best condition of her high school career. She was a team leader for the GBB team over the summer. Ashley continues to be a leader as the season has started making sure all members of the team are in communication about various things. She has worked extremely hard during practice and is very encouraging to her teammates.

Ashley displayed an act of generosity that would make Chelan very proud. While traveling to Cle Elum last week the GBB team stopped at Starbucks at Safeway in Cle Elum. An elderly gentleman from Wenatchee was in line and started a conversation with the girls. He happened to be on his way home from a funeral on the west side. Ashley purchased his coffee for him. The man was overcome with emotion and started to tear up from the generosity of a young high school girl. Ashley played a solid game against Cle Elum, she finished with 10 points, 4 rebounds, 4 steals, and 3 deflections. Ashley will be a key to the success of this year's team. -Coach Huddleston

8th grade Boys
Basketball - Ryan Rainville

Ryan has played great defense and team basketball all season long for the Chelan 8th grade A team. Ryan is willing to do whatever it takes to help his team succeed and has shown great leadership skills this season. Last week Ryan led the team with 16 points in their 51-20 victory over Eastmont. Through the teams' first 7 games, Ryan has been incredibly consistent averaging 12 points and scoring in double digits in all but 1 game. -Coach Boyd /Coach Reister
