Manson Park to give online booking a try

BY DIANA PIÑON STAFF WRITER

MANSON - The Manson Park and Recreation board unanimously voted to authorize Director Robin Pittman to negotiate a purchase agreement for Leffler Field's acquisition.

"It has been interesting to see how this has come about to get to this point," said chair Rob Campbell during the March 14 meeting. He suggested to look carefully at the timing of the project and to ask questions, "maybe we can use the money for matching funds of an RCO Grant," he said. Campbell shared how surprised he was on the outcome of priorities from the community during the public forum on March 6. "After hearing what terrible shape our playground at Singleton is in, it was the number one voted to get it repaired," he said. The development of Leffler Field came in last, which to Campbell is good since he mentioned the Park District currently has a lot of issues

Two major PUD projects proposed in Chelan area

BY DIANA PIÑON STAFF WRITER

CHELAN - An informational drop-in session was held at the Lake Chelan Chamber of Commerce on March 13 by the Chelan County PUD as an effort to talk to the community about future projects.

A group of PUD staff was available for two hours, to discuss two major projects for the PUD including a new Chelan Dam substation and the Chelan transmission fire hardening.

"The last time we did strategic planning, customers were interested in replacing or rerouting infrastructure to protect it from fire and storms," said PUD's Transmission and Compliance director Chad Bowman. Wildfires become a huge problem as it kept on damaging infrastructure. As an example, in 2015, a number of poles burned down and it took over 36 hours to get service back to Chelan.

The PUD "started a fire risk assessment at a county wide basis to look where are the areas in the county that the most destructive fires might occur that might affect our transmission lines," Bowman explained.

Results from the assessment highlighted Chelan being in top three. According to Bowman, the study findings validate spending some of PUD's money to fix that problem. "We would put in steel poles instead of wood and we would follow the original alignment," said Bowman. He also mentioned that the steel pole might be a little bit higher than the current wooden poles.

There are a couple of transmission lines that could potentially get upgraded. "From our perspective it makes a lot of sense to go back to hydro down in Chelan Falls and rebuild one of those lines in steel all the way to Union Valley which is up by the hospital," said Bowman.

Port of Chelan County to fund airport acquisition

BY DIANA PIÑON STAFF WRITER

CHELAN - Councilman Ray Dobbbs was the only one who voted against finalizing and executing the interlocal agreement between the Port of Chelan County and the City of Chelan to purchase the Kelly property near the Lake Chelan Municipal Airport.

The Chelan City Council meeting on March 12, was the end to back and forth negotiations between the two parties. "We have been working on this non-stop since the previous council meeting, we heard the conversation with the council and we tried to address each of those items ... but I feel much confident that we have reached an agreement that we should all be happy with," said City Administrator Mike Jackson.

He informed the council members that the Port's sole purpose for the purchasing the property is so they can turn it back to the airport as soon as possible. "They are not trying to use it for other purposes, so we have built safe guards to this interlocal to make sure the property transfers to the airport," he clarified that night.

The agreement's intent is to have the City purchase the property but it would be entirely funded through the Port of Chelan. "The purchase price would $294,500, the extra $500 that we have not discussed before is for the consideration for an extension of a closing date deadline," said City Attorney Quentin Batjar. He said that Mr. Kelly wanted $500 to move forward with the extension.

Once the property is purchased the property would be assigned to the Port, then they would administer the property and do their storage business. The payoff made whole to the Port would be taken from the revenue created of the three acre property. Total payback of the property should be by Jan 1, 2035 or sooner with 2.5 rate in return on purchase price. "Some of their expenses are going to be operating and maintenance and capital expenses, they have a load of trailers there that they are going to do something with. That's going to cost them money," said Batjar.

If the Port doesn't recover their money from the storage revenue by the date agreed, the City wouldn't have to pay the reminding balance.

Jackson mentioned that Port Director Jim Kuntz proposed investing money into the storage units and concrete floors. "They are looking at about $100,000 in capital expenses in 2020."

For councilman Tim Hollingworth, the Port and the city have a good division of labor. "It's closer to the Port's mission to take on a long term development at the airport, as a city we have a lot of demands on our capital budget, so I think this is the Port doing what its mission tells them to do and the city is going along with that," he stated. Chelan Mayor Mike Cooney, referred to the deal as a good partnership, "they are thinking of it as growth, they are thinking of it as potential," he said.

With the council's approval, the item will move on to the Port of Chelan Commissioners. They were scheduled to meet on March 19 to hear on this item. The next City Council meeting is scheduled for March 26 starting at 6:00 p.m.

InBody270 attracts many for a new fitness challenge

By DIANA PIÑON STAFF WRITER

CHELAN - This year's 60-day fitness challenge is designed for participants to take action in achieving a better health, with the help from the Lake Chelan Community Hospital and Clinics InBody 270.

In 2018, LCCHC didn't have a challenge for the community. "We found the InBody270 and we took the funds from the Health and Wellness Foundation that they would normally give us to do the challenge, plus applied for a grant to purchase this piece of equipment," said Wellness and Outreach Director Agustin Benegas.

The InBody 270 is a machine that has the ability to examine individuals body compositions while assessing their percentage of body fat, muscle distribution and their body water balance. "It gives you the report based on your height, your age, gender and it gives a recommendation on where you need to be," Benegas explained.

On March 10 and 11 free scans were performed and people were able to sign up for the challenge. As of March 14, 81 people are enrolled in the challenge. However, Benegas explains that he has performed 341 scans since January. From a 10 year old to a 93 year old, people of all ages have given the InBody a try. "We have a lot young folks that are working on their fitness and they are trying to gain muscle mass," said Benegas.

For this challenge, Benegas mentioned that LCCHC is only offering participants nutritional information. Nutritionist Abby Patterson will be giving a Nutrition 101 course on March 20, in which participants and the community can ask dietary questions. "If they have an email, we send out information on tips of healthy fitness," he said. In terms of exercise, "everyone is a little different so we do not give it out any workout schedules."

Instead, participants do something they enjoy and combine it with the nutritional piece. The challenge is broken down into weeks allowing the participant to create an action plan each week, that will help them reach their goal.

Benegas wants the challenge to be more of a learning curve to help participants understand their own body. Due to this, he has created a point system that allows everyone to accumulate points regardless of weight loss. "With action plans and baby steps we are going to help you get there," said Benegas.

Benegas is continuing to do scans for the challenge. "People who want to join still can," he said. "Even after the 60 days are over, I would like to continue to track our participants and anyone who wants to see where they are at," he added.

Individuals with medial implant devices such as pacemakers, or essential support devices such as patient monitoring systems, must not take the test.

Contact Agustin Benegas at (509) 682-8525 or email him at ABenegas@lcch.net if you are interested in giving the InBody 270 a try.

PROJECTS

At the moment the PUD just wants to get the word out on the project as they are on the lookout for input from the community. "We will listen to what the community has to say and maybe next year start a design," Bowman clarified.

Similarly, PUD wishes engage with the community to evaluate options as they find a location for a new substation and transmission line near the Chelan Dam. Currently there are two substations serving Chelan (Union Valley and Chelan Substations), and they are running out of capacity to serve residents in the south shore area. "By building the new substation it off loads Union Valley and the Chelan Sub," said Bowman.

The PUD already owns quite a bit of land near the top of the gorge which could be a contender location for the substation. "From an engineering model perspective, we think it is a good location for the substation. The substation is 250 by 250 square and somehow we need to get transmission lines through it," Bowman explained.

So far four optional transmission routes have been identified by the PUD, however everything is preliminary and PUD has not sited any infrastructure at this point.

Chelan turned green with Shamrock Shuffle Run and Top Dog Parade

It would not be an Irish celebration without the notes from the Uilleann pipes.

A three man band sang a few melodies and cracked a joke here and there.

Photos by Diana Piñon

The Lake Chelan Lions Club sponsored the second Shamrock Shuffle 5k Fun Run, that took place on March 16, at Riverwalk Park. This fun run is for Diabetes Awareness and raises funds to send local students with Diabetes to a Lions Club sponsored camp in Spokane. This year, the numbers were a little down compared to last year, however the cold temperatures didn't stop 111 participants, from babies to grownups, from completing the course.

It is never too early to parade Downtown Chelan, it is even better if you don't have to walk.

to address. Pittman informed the board that so far 29 kids have registered for the ice skating event Manson Parks is holding at Town Toyota Center. In terms of chaperones, they have a handful ready to go. "We are doing really good on chaperones which is usually a hard one to find," said Pittman. She also mentioned that the district was approached by RoverPass, a company that manages campground reservations. "Basically they would set up a system where we would put up a little button on our website saying 'Reserve Now'," said Pittman. If the customer decides to reserve online, RoverPass would charge them a $6 fee she explained. Park wouldn't need to enter a contract and they would open up the possibility to online booking. "It gives us a lot of flexibility and we still have admin stuff on our side we still have to input, but we are not spending 15 minutes on the phone with a customer," she said.

Commissioner Tyler Quigley, showed support to giving online booking a try "sounds like a good idea specially if takes a load of your back," he said. Park has been looking into adding online reservations to their system but that would take changing the whole website said Pittman. "Try it for a year and see how it works out," said Campbell. The rest of commissioners also said to give RoverPass a try. The next Park meeting is scheduled for April 11, at 4:10 p.m. 142 Pedoi Street in Manson.

The proposed Lake Chelan School District bond issue is far reaching

GUEST OPINION

Jim Busey, Chelan

Thanks to everyone that has asked questions, and offered your additional insight and perspectives on the proposed LCSD bond issue. I offer the following thoughts based upon those communications:

1. The proposed bond issue is far reaching; extremely far reaching. Simply, the enrollments in the LCSD show virtually no growth, and projecting trends are lower. Therefore, to add another new entire campus is not a need whatsoever at this time. The existing buildings/grounds need some additional maintenance attention and have received some upgrades with two tax issues (that I am aware of) in the past 10 years. That debt was structured short term to keep the LCSD debt free. That school board philosophy seems to have recently changed.

2. If this bond issue passes, the board adopted resolution states that this debt will not be retired for 21 years; as many of you have shared, if there is another new campus, the maintenance and operations of an additional campus will cost about the 30% more than today. That will have to be paid for each and every year in perpetuity. *Think about that; if the 1998 bond issue would have been successful (remember there were more students being served in the LCSD 20 years ago than today), what would have been those costs to the taxpayer for debt retirement and M&O...for the immediate past 20 years?

3. Recently, while looking at real estate projects on the west side of the state, I will share some insight on the Chimaicum School District.

It is a beautiful area on the north Puget Sound, and highly impacted by a retirement community population. The student enrollment has dropped over 20% (from over a 1000 students to now 805) in the past 4 years. They are now faced with closing campuses and buildings that just are not needed. Do not build buildings that are not needed.

4. Student enrollment growth drives needs for new classrooms and buildings; it is that simple. Without student growth, maintain and update the buildings/properties the best you can. Use existing funds and resources, and when there is a need for some small projects, complete those in a timely and least expensive manner.

5. I do understand some people's desire to have new buildings and facilities; just like a new home, they would be nice to have. But the key question is; what is the true need? My opinion is to, again, make those small improvements with exiting revenues, the net rents from the "Old HS" facility, and if needed, some small capital improvement tax levies over time, keeping the LCSD debt free.

Hopefully this short email addresses some of the input and insight over the past 24 hours. As always, please feel free to share this information as you wish with others. If you need more clarification, please do not hesitate to ask. I have also attached documents that were sent yesterday, as some have asked for those again.

Trojan baseball hungry for a shot at playoffs

COMPILED BY DIANA PIÑON
STAFF WRITER

MANSON - The Trojans opened up the 2019 season with the first practice of the season on Monday, Feb. 25. Twenty-four players have turned out with five returning seniors: Avery Thompson, Jose Pascasio, Victor Calderon, Jake Ludwig and Bryan Bernardo.

The Trojans are coming off of their best season in over a decade with an 11-7 record in 2018, and with narrowly missing the playoffs in 2018. The team is hungry for a shot at the playoffs in 2019.

The Trojans will be lead by captains Jose Pascasio, Avery Thompson, Jake Ludwig and Parker Schoenwald. Pitching and defense look to be the team's strengths this season, so coaches are looking to see who can provide some timely offense.

Efforts are underway to clear away snow and early games look to be rescheduled.

The 2019 schedule can be found on CWBathletics.com. Updates and game write-ups can be found on the team's Facebook under Manson Trojan Baseball.

Lady Trojans with 14 seniors in softball roaster

BY DIANA PIÑON STAFF WRITER

MANSON - Hayli Libbey-Thompson and Leslie Burns have united forces as they coach the 2018-2019 Manson Trojan softball team.

Twenty-seven Lady Trojans are getting ready for some softball action as they work hard to win more than games than last year. "Last year we won two games, it was a big improvement over the season before," said Libbey-Thompson.

The coaching staff is working on developing a large pitching crew, as well as continuing to teach and learn the game. Burns clarified that they are also working on developing the young players in the team, as they will be losing 14 senior players this year. "We are trying to give the young players experience and knowledge and playing time," said Burns.

So far the girls are looking a lot better than what they all had anticipated. Do to this, both coaches want, "to beat more than one team, we want to end the season with our heads high."

The Lady Trojans are loud and have great amounts energy, they also have "strength and muscle." The players create a supportive atmosphere which will help them on the field as they compete this season.

A lot of the softball games have already been rescheduled for the Lady Trojans due to the weather. At the moment it looks like the team will be playing a double-header against Oroville in Manson, however it all depends on the field conditions.

Trojans boys' soccer team brings their unity to the field

BY DIANA PIÑON STAFF WRITER

MANSON - Junior Valdovinos a graduate from Manson High School will coach the Trojan boys' soccer team as they battle on the field this 2018-2019 season.

Since day one, the boys have shown coach excitement to learn new skills. Overall, the Trojan team is fairly young team, with only three seniors in the roaster out of the 26 players. Regardless of the young age, coach states, "every player is valuable, very players bring something to the table that we can use and fits with the style of play we are going for."

In the previous season, the Trojans faced Cascade High School for a spot at state. That game ended 3-0 and the Trojans were unable to make it to the next round. This year Valdovinos wants to switch things around, "since we are new to each other, it's going to some time to build, but I am confident we will have a good season and finish with a winning season," he said.

So far, the whole team and assistant coach Gabby Lopez have ben very welcoming to new coach Valdovinos. "They have open arms and they are accepting that this year is going to be different from last year," Valdovinos mentioned.

The team has great unity outside and inside of the field, they communicate well and push each other. On Thursday, March 21 the Trojans will get a chance to debut in front of the home crowd against Brewster, if weather permits.

Manson Trojans to hit the track with 34 in roaster

By DIANA PIÑON STAFF WRITER

MANSON – The 2018-2019 Manson Trojan track team is back in action for this new spring season. With an overall roster of 34 student athletes, this year's team is a big one with 17 returning students and 14 seniors.

For the first time Joey Johanson is co-coaching the Trojans along with Kurt Toolson who has been a coach in previous years. "It has been tough to start the year with the snow, but every other school and sport is in the same situation," said Johanson.

The team has been doing a lot of indoor workouts, however a couple of days ago "we shoveled two lanes around the whole track, so progress is being made," said Johanson.

The teams strength is the experience that the kids are bringing back. Both coaches have high expectations for the boys' and girl's teams as they have a great group of long distance runners and many athletes with State experience in relays and shotput.

On the boys side they Trojans have a great group of seniors and of long distance runners. Senior sprinter Marco Sanchez along with long distance runners Bailey Cameron and Connor Torgesen are key participants. Top hurdler Cole Beazley, throwers Jojo Morales and Christian Montes are also highlights of the teams.

Returners Evelyn DeJesus, Zoe Thomas, Nadia Verduzco and newcomer Cara Hutton are also looking like high contenders on the girls side. State high jumper and state 400m runner Kendall Petre is also back to compete in state.

Assisting Johanson and Toolson with the team are Mason Cameron and Kevin Amsden working with throwers, Tori Carpenter working with the long distance runners and Lauren Johson working with jumpers.

The Trojans first meet was last Friday, March 15 at Wahluke High School, their next meet will be Tuesday, April 9 in Bridgeport. "We are super excited to hit the track," said coach, "we to see athletes succeed and win, but we just want to introduce and cultivate a lifestyle of exercise and well-being," he added.

Entiat High School Spring Sports

Less than a dozen players make up the Entiat tennis team

By DIANA PIÑON STAFF WRITER

ENTIAT – The Entiat Tigers have only practiced outdoors in the courts twice this season, due to the cold temperatures and the snow. Head coach Lee Southard states that the team has had to share and rotate the gym with middle school volleyball and the high school track, "which isn't as good but it will do."

Four boys and seven girls make up the high school tennis team for the Entiat Tigers. The team is mainly underclass men with only one senior in the roster this year. More than half of the team are returning students with only five being first time players.

Juniors Jaime Padilla and Yancy Ayala are two high competitors this year along with sophomore Libby Southard and freshman Cyrene Ramirez.

"To get better and improve everybody," are some of coach Southard's expectations. He also wants the team to work hard, "we have a good group, kids are wanting to learn and practice," he said.

Since the team has a lot of first year players assistant coach Mandy Southard explains that they work on learning the rules, etiquette and footwork. The kids all have great attitudes and are adapting to obstacles presented by the weather, "they are willing to shovel and then practice ... it shows them wanting to be here," said coach.

Last Friday, March 15 the Tigers faced Omak and according to the coaches the team did alright for not being on the court too often yet. The next match for the tennis team will be at home on Thursday, March 21 against Tonasket.

Entiat Tigers track and field looking to win regionals

By DIANA PIÑON STAFF WRITER

ENTIAT - Julie Cannon along with her coaching staff are back for another season with the Entiat High School track team.

The team this year is composed of 36 students, 15 of them girls and 21 boys. "We are looking pretty good, we think we can cover most events," said coach Cannon.

The Tigers have been waiting to hit the track as the snow continues to melt throughout the area. "It's been tough we have been doing what we can, but can't do the things we would like to do,"

she explained.

Last year, the boys finished fourth in state and were regional and district champions. On the girls side, last year the Lady Tigers were district champs. "We had a very successful year, last year," said coach.

Cannon's expectations for this year is for both teams to repeat as district champs. "If we do not have any serious injuries both teams should be competing for the regionals championship," she added.

The boys' team is well rounded, the Tigers have, "good distance runners, good sprinters, good throwers, good jumpers." The Lady Tigers have to fill some whole here and there however, they already "have experienced relays, experienced throwers."

Weather permitting, the Tigers will hit the track as they visit Eastmont High School on Tuesday, March 26.

Lake Chelan Ladies Golf Club membership open for 2019 season

SUBMITTED BY SHERRY FISK, LAKE CHELAN LADIES
GOLF CLUB

CHELAN - If you are looking for a great group of women to hang out with this summer, look no further. Sign up for golf with the Lake Chelan Ladies Golf Club at the Lake Chelan Municipal Golf Course. It's a diverse group of women of all playing levels. There are three different levels; something for everyone. Some have been participating for years, while others just joined last year. We love new members and even have a designated "Greeter" to show you the ropes. You don't have to play every Thursday either. Lives are busy and this is a great way to have a standing tee time with like-minded women if you are in town on a Thursday.

The cost to join is $70. Most of this fee goes toward the USGA ghin fees so you can obtain a handicap after 5 rounds of 18 holes. The rest goes toward our weekly competition winnings, a fun member/guest tournament, a fabulous Invitational tournament, scholarships for local high school athletes and more.

During the busy tourist season in Chelan it's sometimes difficult to get a tee time. Our club has a designated Thursday morning tee time; it's a great way to get on the course.

Bottom line: it's a great way to spend your Thursday mornings in Chelan and gain 60 plus new friends. Email our president, Carol Ferguson, at carolferguson@live.com for a membership form.

The cost of individual or family green fees and cart rental is in addition to the club. Call the Lake Chelan Municipal Golf Course pro shop for the 2019 rates at (509) 682-8026.

In the past, scholarships have ranged from $500 to $3,000 a year, depending on monies available, number of applicants, and if applicants are attending school full-time or part-time.

Applications are also available for continuing education for healthcare professionals who live or work in the Chelan Valley. Scholarships are given throughout the year when funds are available. These are for workshops, seminars, and classes for those who already are in a healthcare field or plan to return to healthcare.

In addition, a $500
