Rotarians raising awareness for Global Polio Eradication

Fundraising event Wed., Oct. 24 at the chamber

By Diana Piñon Staff Writer

CHELAN – Rotary launched PolioPlus in 1985 to help immunize the children of the World against Polio. In 2017, only 22 cases of Polio were recorded, yet Rotary is committed to Polio eradication until the World is certified Polio-free.

In the United States Polio was gone by the 90's, so many of us might not exactly know what it is. "Polio is a virus, a lot of people can get exposed to the virus and they never have any disease, or they get a cold, a fever and their body clears it out," explained Lake Chelan Rotary President Ty Witt.

Out of 200 people who contract the virus, only one will have the disease. "The disease can be anything from just some weakness that goes away or if a child gets it, a leg or arm or part of their body completely doesn't develop, or they never be strong again," Witt added.

When the disease is more advance it can cause breathing difficulties or paralysis.

Manson Community Council Chair resigns, council hears of new planned resort

Two positions open for the upcoming December election

By Diana Piñon Staff Writer

MANSON – The Manson Community Council held their October meeting on Tuesday the 16th. Two members of the Council were absent, leaving Kathy Blum, Kathy Miller and Jorge Valencia conducting the meeting.

That evening, the public present was informed about Kim Ustanik's resignation as Chair of the Manson Community Council.

"We received a letter, that was delivered to us this evening that Kim Ustanik has resigned, effected immediately, dated October 16," stated Blum.

With elections coming up in December, the Council will have two open positions. Blum reported that Kathy Miller has decided to not run again for her position as member of the Council.

tions are where my heart is. I cannot give enough time for here ... I am going to go where my heart goes. I am not reapplying for my position," explained Miller.

Since 2015, Miller has been involved with the Tender Loving Care Program as part of the Senior Living Initiative. Miller volunteers her time as the TLC Manager, "it's really a lot of fun and you really get friendships with it ... I really enjoy doing it. I am also involved with the Senior Meal Program and I have been there for a long, long time."

Up for re-election is Valencia, after being appointed last year to the Council. He is still thinking about whether or not he wants to run again for spot in the Council.

Elections will take place on December 11, Blum encourages those who are interested to apply and run for a spot. She clarified if only two people run and there's two spots open they will automatically be appointed and elections will not take place.

Those who are registered Chelan County voters and live within the Manson School District can be mailed an application by contacting any of the current Council Members, applications will also be available online at mansoncommunitycouncil.com and at the Lake Chelan Reclamation Office.

"Nice to see everyone here it shows that there's a desire to know what is going with this community," said Miller.

Neighbors of Klate Road had updates for the Council regarding a 19 acres project on Griffith Ranch Road.

SLI Committee reviews September Summit

What's next for SLI?

CHELAN – Due to schedule conflicts, the Senior Living Initiative Committee met on Oct. 17 at Heritage Heights to review the summit's takeaways and plan a new workshop.

The evening of the summit, a Potential Topics for Community Forums survey was given to attendees. Only 10 of those surveys were collected back, the results as follows:

• Four of the 10 showed interest in Respecting Choices in the last one to two years of life workshop: Palliative Care, Home Care and Hospice, Funeral Planning

Other ideas included preventative health care, Medicare issues, grants to aid those who need in-home assistance.

"I am just bringing it to us, because if Senior Living Initiative wants to aid or see a priority for these topics that we should put them down and put some energy into organizing those," Mary Murphy stated.

"we had a wonderful presentation by her, she's the Okanogan County Palliative Care Nurse ... her background is 10 years at Jamie's Place and her brother had dementia ... she was also a Hospice Nurse ...very rural oriented, she understands some of the situations that are similar in Manson and Chelan."

Murphy is sure they could organize a panel of speakers, "we could probably craft a very good agenda to cover a number of those things and have a number of forms available for people to take away."

A separate time would be set up for such meeting. The next step is to find a sponsor for it, SLI is thinking that a health care organization is the best potential sponsor. Concie Luna will approach the Lake Chelan Wellness Foundation to see if they are interested in sponsoring the panel.

Swenson informed that TLC will take on Fall Prevention and SAIL exercises, "we will piloting that one next month." Murphy presented the results from the NCACH CHI survey, the survey involved a question regarding top barriers to health identified by county. In Chelan-Douglas Counties, Grant County and Okanogan SLI frequently hears about transportation issues and it is the second thing TLC volunteers tackle. The results from NCACH correlate to the some of the issues in town.

The committee then had a discussion about the summit. Amanda Ballou described it as, "intense, I thought people were very quiet and they were soaking it like sponges, no body left and everybody was very concentrated, it was really quiet. That was my take on it, they were very hungry for the information we presented to them."

She stated that the Board realized that "there's a sense of urgency, people want it to see it happening."

Ballou also noted that when the first summit was held in 2016, the people who attended wanted the Campus of Care for their parents, but now they want it for themselves.

"Personally I was disappointed that Rotary did not attend ... whereas the Rotary was well represented and enthusiastic during the first summit," Ballou added.

Kathy Miller thought there was confusion concerning different funding options. Murphy thought it was helpful to address the nonprofit status, the values and the vision. "There's different rules for different organizations and not everyone knows that," Murphy stated.

Based on past experience Ballou believes three million dollars could be raised in the community towards the Campus of Care facility, "we want to do that because people want

Tender Loving Care Program celebrates 1st anniversary

A year ago the TLC Programs first kicked off in Chelan, today they have 560 visits, 1.120 hours and 6,000 miles under their belt. With 23 active volunteers, three inactive and four to five pending, the program assess and visits seniors or chronically disabled clients. Most of the visits they provide are for companionship or providing support to client's caregivers so they can do errands or get a needed break.

They have also organized several Link Plus events to help their clients get signed up for Link transportation. TLC also works closely with the Lake Chelan Food Bank, volunteers are able to pick up food boxes for their clients, customized to their needs.

At the moment the TLC Programs aids 25 active clients and has three pending ones. TLC is in need for one or two male volunteers, contact Program Coordinator Claudia Swenson at tlcprogram4@gmail.com for more information and if you are interested in volunteering.

erty with the Department of Ecology and they found "the lowest arsenic was 35 parts per million, the highest was 135-140, we tested at least 40 spots ... lead was anything from maybe 250 being the lowest up to 1500 parts per million.'

The reason why the neighbors from the area were there that evening was to ask the Council to host a community meeting, "this is a pretty large plan that will affect the community simply because of the magnitude of the plan but it also shows what is potentially possible in any AZ land zoning. This tourism thing can kind of slip in there."

"We have nothing on that project, we have nothing, have not even heard from them," said Miller.

Sarah Cushing who lives around the area also had something to say, "it's all agriculture, orchards, there's owns this?" to this she answered, "it's called Magic Earth LLC and that's Mr. and Mrs. Ustanik."

Valencia claims that he heard that a couple of months ago, however he wasn't sure if that was true or not.

With this information given, the Council will now move forward. "I will contact the County and see where the package sits ... we can host it, we'll ask the Grange, but it will be up to you people to bring everything in, we will act as the host, we will certainly invite the owners of the property to also come and maybe have opportunity to explain to everybody ... and take questions from the audience," said Blum. In other business:

The Council presented a Treasure's report, with a balance of $462. The Council questioned the minutes level behind county and state road. Members were confused about whether or not a letter of approval was sent to Knauss supporting a zoning change. Miller made a motion to get letter mention in the minutes, Valencia seconded it and Blum voted against it. Blum voted against it because she doesn't understand what has happened with Knauss request.

The Council also commented on the PUD request on a Shoreline Substantial Development Permit that will allow the addition of two concrete steps at the Manson Bay Park Swim area. The project includes removing the sand, building the two steps and putting the sand back in, PUD is doing this renovation because of the erosion that has occurred in the swimming area. Kelly's Hardware celebrates 60 years serving the valley

By Diana Piñon Staff Writer

CHELAN – James Reed established Chelan Hardware 93 years ago, which in 1958, he sold to Wayne Kelly and became Kelly's Hardware.

Reed became the owner and manager of Chelan Hardware after working at various grocery and hardware stores for a few years and realizing he wanted a store of his own. "I approached my Dad, who agreed to finance me and to become my partner," he wrote.

After hearing and investigating about "a small hardware business in Chelan that was for sale" and liking it, he bought it adding inventory and fixtures.

Reed's first hardware store was a 20 by 60 foot frame building, with no running water or toilet. Reed wrote, "we had to use neighboring stores!"

Chelan Hardware's stock "consisted of simple hardware items: pipe, pluming supplies, pots, pans, nails, tools, guns, ammunition, fishing tackle, paint, rope" and so on.

After just three years, "the business proved even better than expected." This allowed Reed to move the store to "a building on the main street, with twice the floor space, running water and a toilet."

However, "the big nationwide depression hit Chelan in the early 30's." Due to this Reed had to let go of his only employee, "all business clacked off" during that time.

Reed and his Dad "carried on and managed to survive by hard work, long hours and being frugal."

After surviving the Depression in 1935, Reed felt that they needed "more and better space and that it was now time to build a facility of their own."

"We bought a 28 by 105 foot lot across the street from our present store, and built a 2,800 square foot building, with a full basement," described Reed.

After settling into the new store, soon more employees were hired. "Eventually, we bought two adjoining buildings and remodeled them into one store," this would give Chelan Hardware 6,000 square footage, including a full basement.

Throughout the years, improvements were made to the store, yet when World War II began in 1941 the Reed's faced another set of problems. "As shortages developed, I found it greatly to our advantage and very profitable to go myself differently to our supply houses to look for and buy anything I thought I could sell," Reed explained.

August 1958

In August 1958, after owning and managing the business Reed decided he had had enough.

"I sold to Wayne Kelly, who had worked for me since his discharge from the Navy in 1946

... We sold Kelly the business for a minimum down payment, the balance to be paid out of profits. He was a hard working smart young man, and paid off his obligation ahead of time."

Wayne Kelly started his journey at Kelly's Hardware in 1958 with an inventory "at that time of $50,000."

From there, "Dad had Gene come in, to see if he wanted to help because he was in Moses Lake," said Wayne's son Pat Kelly.

Gene Kelly agreed to help his brother, "I always wanted to get into business of some kind and this was an opportunity for me because I wanted to come back to Chelan because I born here and I wanted to come back and spend the rest of my life here and hopefully make a successful business out of it," said Gene.

As for every other business, Kelly's had a rough start. "We worked hard and tried to save up to make cashflow so we could buy more merchandise and expand the store," explained Gene.

It took a few years for the Kellys to lift the store and when they did Gene became more interested in it. Even though challenges faced the Kellys they were always able to overcome them. "I didn't have experience in the hardware and Wayne taught me a lot of things, how to handle people and take care of them, costumer service," said Gene.

Ever since the Kellys took over, they have seen a steady growth in the store. "We have been busier every year, it's due to the people supporting us locally here ... we have grown slowly which has been good," Gene explained.

After 60 years in Chelan, Kelly's Hardware has changed a lot. The store has now taken over the basement, Kelly's has expanded their plumbing and electrical departments. For example, the bolts and screws take up half of the basement, "there's more specialty, everything is broader," said Pat.

Pat started working at the Kelly's store since he was 12 years old. "I started working after school, dumping garbage and stocking shelves and fixing bicycles ... I would work every night after school from four to six and I worked every Saturday all through the school year and I work there every summer, all through college I did that," said Pat.

After his years in college Pat had a conversation with two professors at Western Washington University, "I told them about my dad and uncle having a hardware store and they said go in to the hardware store, that would be best thing to do ... they said anyone who has chance to be able to work and be around their family and live in the town that they grew up in, it will be silly not to do that."

The conversation lead Pat to move back home and work at the hardware store full-time, "I have been there ever since, it has been almost 30 years."

At the moment there are three Kellys working at the hardware store, including Gene, his daughter Stacey and Pat. By working there full and part-time the Kellys want to ensure all costumers are highly satisfied with the quality of the projects and service.

Gene did not think Kelly's Hardware was going to make it this far, "I thought I was going to retire 30 years ago, but I just didn't get it done because I enjoy my work that's the reason why

Photos by Diana Piñon Gene and Pat Kelly have worked at Kelly's for 60 and 30 years respectively.

I am still working."

Being around people, meeting them and helping them is Gene's favorite part of his job. Pat states, "there isn't a day that goes by that you don't feel good about what you do because you help people."

The Kellys have never had problem within the family members working at the store, "we always work things out and it's a privilege being able to work with your family. Very few companies can do it, we've been lucky, very lucky. We run it as a family store that includes employees," said Gene.

When the Kellys took over they started with four employees, they now have 18. The Kellys care about every single of their employees dearly, "if they have a problem, we have a problem, we try to help them out."

The Kellys want to thank costumers for their support all these years and all the employees. "We are not the store, it's the people who are there every day," said Pat.

Visit Kelly's Ace Hardware, 128 E. Woodin Ave in Chelan from 8 a.m. To 6 p.m. Monday through Saturday, call them at (509)682-2815, follow them on Facebook under Kelly's Ace Hardware and visit their website www.kellyshadrware.com.

MANSON - The lady Trojans played a really tough soccer game against the Lady Bears. In the first half Brewster score twice by taking advantage of couple mental mistakes made by the Lady Trojans and finishing the half with the score 2-0. In the second half Manson came out playing tough and not allowing Brewster to take clear shot at goal. Brewster score their third goal on a free kick just out side the 18 vard box. Manson came back by scoring a goal of their own to end the game with the score 3-1.

Lake Chelan Golf Club, Ladies Division donate $250 to food bank

SUBMITTED BY SHERRY FISK, LAKE CHELAN GOLF CLUB. LADIES DIVISION

CHELAN - The Ladies Division of the Lake Chelan Golf Club presented the Lake Chelan Food Bank with a check for $250. This money represents a sort of "swear jar" type of system. Instead of swearing, the women deposit money into a jar after play for each dreaded three putt. This adds up over the season. This year the club agreed to donate the fund to the Lake Chelan Food Bank.

The club president for 2019, Carol Ferguson, presented the check for $250 to the president of the Lake Chelan Food Bank board, Jim Batdorf on Monday, Oct. 15.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Need more safe methods of transportation

In light of last summer's roadside murder in Manson, I'm writing today to discuss Lake Chelan's transportation crisis.

It is unfathomable that a community of our size (including the summer tourists) does not have a safe, reliable way for folks to get around. With only a handful of unreliable and expensive taxis that usually need to be booked hours before needing a ride, we cannot depend on cabs to get us into town or back home. There is one Uber/Lyft driver (bless him!), but on busy Saturday nights, he's difficult to track down.

Our community's desire to bring in tourists from out of town (wineries! condos! restaurants! bars!) is underscored by our dangerous inability to create the necessary infrastructure for a safe environment. We promote our (truly excellent) wine and beer, but are unable to provide safe, affordable transportation to these places on demand. This transportation void presents a legitimate business opportunity for us. Why don't more people drive for Uber and Lyft? This is the perfect side gig for an intrepid person who has free time on weekends and would like to make some extra cash. Nationally, rideshare drivers make between $15-$30/ hour, and given our distances here at the lake, drivers stand to make a lot more, especially during holidays (like Winterfest), weekends, and peak times. Uber and Lyft have helped drop national drunk driving accidents and DUI rates around the country- don't we want to make our community safer? Aside from rideshare, a water taxi or a shuttle that runs from the State Park, to Chelan, Manson, and back would alleviate drunk driving temptations, and would make the city (or some entrepreneurs) money in the meantime.

Thank you for your consideration,

Elizabeth Ayer Chelan

Goehner, my vote going his way

Keith Goehner does not wish to set your child's broken arm for free.

However, having worked with him for 8 years on the moderate hazardous waste group, he does have a sharp vision of what is affordable, can be done, and the knowledge to get the job done with the consent of his colleagues.

Sixteen years working for you, learning government, making connections here, Olympia, and Washington D.C. he has the associations and firepower to represent our needs. Economic development, infrastructure, housing, water, tourism, agriculture, and education to name a few.

Conservative spending. smart spending are a keystone of his vision. Nothing in Olympia is done by yourself and his 16 years of making associations will serve you well if you like low taxes and smart projects, something an independent voice just doesn't have the governmental knowledge to do. With 12 years experience on the Chelan City Council my vote is going his way.

We need Dino Rossi

It causes me great concern when I see the TV commercials and hear the speeches of Dr. Kim Schrier as she campaigns for Congress. She wrongly maintains that it is the politicians that are keeping from getting things done.

This is the uninformed screed from a green, naive newcomer who has never been elected to anything of consequence. She has never worked on a legislative committee, never hammered out a compromise on a tax bill, and never represented everyday people in the 8th Congressional district. Or, anywhere else, for that matter.

In making such loose and inaccurate statements, Schrier shows how clueless this first-time candidate is about the political process. Schrier's insistence on raising our income taxes, payroll taxes, and energy taxes by thousands of dollars per family demonstrates how ill-equipped she is to lead us in the right direction.

We cannot send someone like her to represent us when the economy is booming, taxes have been reduced and unfair tariffs are stripped away. There is simply too much to lose.

We do need Dino Rossi, a smart, experienced former legislator to keep the economy growing.

Dear Chelan County voters

It has come to our attention that Judge Kristin Ferrera's appointment for Chelan County Superior Court Judge and now her bid to be retained for that position, has been called into question by her opponent. Judge Ferrera's opponent is implying that as an appointee of Governor Jay Inslee she must somehow be aligned with him politically. Judge Ferrera's opponent is hoping that the concept of being appointed means alliance, and he is hoping that idea will gain traction in this county. Thinking those first two sentences can be shaped into one.

This concept is not accurate. Judge Ferrara's appointment had nothing to do with her political viewpoint. We believe those kinds of comments have been made to mislead the voters into questioning Judge Ferrera s alliance with the Democratic party and Governor Inslee.

As an attorney and partner at Jeffers, Danielson, Sonn and Aylward for 10 years, Judge Ferrera has chosen to remain politically neutral. Kristin Ferrera has been a declared Independent for the 10 years of her legal practice.

Kristin Ferrera has numerous endorsers from both parties, who are working actively on her campaign. The judicial positions are all non-partisan by law, and it seems improper for any party endorsement.

When Judge Alicia Nakata announced her retirement from Chelan County Superior Court, Attorney Kristin Ferrera along with 11 other attorney's in Chelan County made application for the Superior Court position being vacated. The application form for attornev's interested in applying for the judgeship, is a six page general application addressing education, background, kinds of law practiced, etc. with no mention of political affiliation. Judge Ferrera's application was reviewed and addressed by the local Bar Association. They made comment on each applicant, then passed it on to the Washington State Judicial Application Committee who also pared the list of applicants down to two applicants.

Both Judge Ferrara and her opponent had an interview with Governor Inslee.

It is our belief that our Superior Court Judge needs to be politically neutral and Judge Ferrara is that.

Judge Ferrara has said "the current, bi-partisan, political war at the higher levels of our Court System, is not taking place at the local level courts. The local Superior Courts, do not make law or change law. They merely apply the existing laws to the situation."

Our families are supporting Kristin Ferrara's candidacy for Chelan County Superior Court Judge. We have known Judge Ferrara as an attorney for our mother and our family for four years. We can absolutely speak to her integrity, ethics, legal skills and fairness.

Something wrong with the Democrat party

Not with all democrats, but with the leaders. Why are they so far left? I think it's safe to say that they are all radicals and every thing they say must be carefully analyzed or we will all be fooled. It's clear we are being fooled by people who have been voted out of leadership positions and can't stand it. They can't believe that they were beaten by a stupid, dumb, New York businessman that knows nothing about running a nation. They can't accept the fact that Trump is eliminating liberal policies put into effect through deception and trickery (Obama Care). They cannot believe he is beating them by getting rid of corrupt bureaucrats and others in leadership positions. Trump's actions are stopping the leftward movement of things they love like bigger government, higher taxes, and liberal policies. Therefore, they believe he must be removed from power no matter how - by hook or by crook. Their illegal and corrupt attempt at overturning the 2016 Presidential election results are still ongoing. They manufactured the Russian collusion ruse by using the FBI and Department of Justice operatives to "investigate" Trump activities. After 18 months of searching, they have found nothing to hang on Trump, but they're still trying. Fortunately, Congress uncovered their "slick" activities. Many of the culprits have been fired and others are being investigated for their possible crimes. The Democrats have long used our judicial system to legislate policy items they can't push through Congress. Roe vs Wade and gay marriage are prime examples.

That's why they are so adamant in their opposition to Judge Kavanaugh. They are losing control of the courts and that cannot be tolerated. Progressives will do anything, legally or illegally, to maintain power. If anything or anybody gets in their way, they will act to eliminate the opposition. Remember Bork and Thomas and now they have tried again with Kavanaugh.

President Trump has made great changes in his first two years. He has been the most effective president we have had in my lifetime (85 years). Tax reduction, improved economy, increased energy output, lower unemployment and higher wages are all improvements he has made, and he has just started. His optimistic approach has given us a feeling of great pride in America and has overturned the pessimistic feeling of the Obama years. We must avoid any chance of losing the gains made by Trump. To do this, all men and women who love our country, all who value our Constitution, all who believe that fairness to all is as important as our right to free speech, should understand that these things are under attack. Certainly, there are moderate democrats and independents among us who recognize that this threat is real and we must stop it. The ballot box is the answer. We must elect people who value our freedom and will put policies into effect that do just that.
