

Cashmere City Council Meeting

BY KIRK BECKENDORF
Correspondent

With a 4:1 vote, the Cashmere City Council approved the annexation of properties that are owned by the Christ Center Church and Mark Spears. The properties are located at 5800 Kimber Road and the corner of Kimber and Evergreen Drive, and will enter the city, zoned as single family. Chris Carlson voted against the annexation, all other council members voted to approve the ordinance. Mayor Jim Fletcher explained that the two property owners had asked to be annexed into the city.

The vote followed a public hearing during which four individuals argued against the annexation and other individuals stood to express their support for those arguments. Additionally, the city received written comments from two of the individuals who spoke, and from one other citizen, each voicing opposition to the annexation.

Potential impacts to nearby neighborhoods, and to the city, resulting from any development on the two parcels was the significant concern described by the speakers. Gina Quinn, who lives in the Urban Growth Area (UGA), spoke at the hearing, and in a letter to the city she said, "I am writing to preserve the quality of life in my rural neighborhood and to fight for neighborhood stability." She added that "the annexation and single-family zone change allowing smaller building lots is NOT compatible with our existing "neighborhood." Tomasz and Vicky Cibicki asked that the Council keep the city from "unsustainable growth and keep the city from losing its safe, friendly small town" character. The amount and speed of traffic due to the increase in population was also described as a significant concern.

Addressing a broader view of development, Jeff Johnson spoke against the annexation and recommended that the city follow the model of "growth paying for growth". He said that developers who are going to profit from any new development, should pay the costs of providing services for new customers, not city residents.

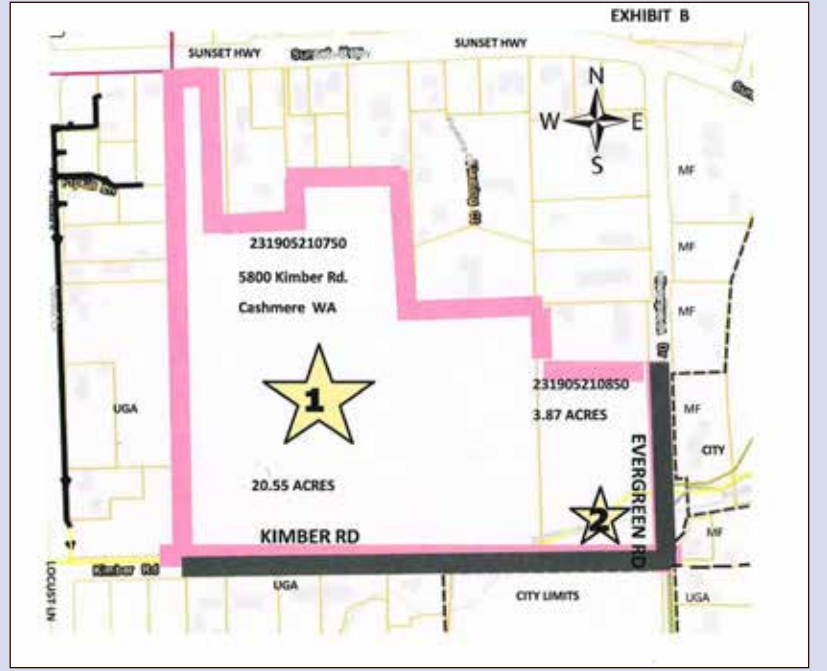

Following the hearing Tammy Miller, Cashmere's Permit Specialist, explained to the Council that both properties are currently served by city water and sewer services, she noted that the church had paid for the extension of those lines from Pioneer, up to Evergreen. According to Miller, if annexed, both properties would enter the city zoned as single family residential. She said that Spears has already begun making plans to develop his property, following the County's process. However, Miller added that the County does not have the updated city codes, as a result, the lots in his development would be about 10,000 sq. ft. She told the Council that he is permitted and will likely build the subdivision whether he is annexed or not. The approved Ordinance states that if he applies to the City for the development prior to January 2024, he will be able to build following the codes for suburban residential zoning. Council member Jayne Stephenson asked Miller to address the concerns that were expressed during the Hearing, regarding the properties becoming zoned multi-family. She replied that the default for the zoning is single family, they could apply to be rezoned, but that would have to be approved by the Council. Fletcher provided further clarification, saying that the annexation process is separate from the development process, where environmental and other standards are addressed, and public hearings are held. This is also a separate process from a change in zoning.

In response to a question from Council member Chris Carlson, Miller replied that Spears' development would have about 11 lots. If the Christ Center Church decided to subdivide their property it could have 17-19 lots. Fletcher explained that a lot of people want to live in and around Cashmere. He said that in his opinion growth is going to happen, and we can see it all around us. He said "we can receive it unregulated; we get whatever the developers want, and we have to live with the results, or we can get ahead of the curve and we can plan for the growth" to try and control it, to keep the city the way we want it.

Stephenson asked about comments made during the Public Hearing, that the City was not following its Comprehensive Plan. Fletcher explained that the Plan is the visionary guiding document used to develop the city codes, which are the actual rules that must be followed. He added that this annexation had been reviewed by the city attorney.

Council member, Derrick Pratt, commented that historically Cashmere has let in property owners who asked to be annexed. He suggested that annexation would have a minimal impact on the number of homes that will be built, and that the benefit of annexation is that the City gets to make the development decisions, not the County. Carlson said that people want to be in Cashmere because it is a small town, and he sees the annexation as a degradation of that. He added that public opinion also seems to be against the annexation. Council member, John Perry, argued that the property will be developed anyway and that annexing the property can provide additional revenue for Cashmere, to help pay for city services, such as the pool and wastewater expenses. He said that he does not want more people to move to town either, but that wishing for people to stop moving to Cashmere, won't keep them from coming. Council member, Shela Pistoresi, agreed that development will happen anyway. Stephenson said that when she joined the Council, she came in with a vision of what the city will be like in 20 years and knows that constant change will be happening. Following the lengthy discussion, the Council approved the annexation.

In other business, unanimous approval was given for a Special Use Permit for Founders' Days, which will close Mission Street. The Executive Director of the Cashmere Chamber of Commerce, Rachel Lippert, addressed the Council explaining that the closure will help drive traffic to family-owned businesses in the Mission District. Lippert said that the Festival will again include the Ping Pong ball drop and a car show with over 200 cars.

The Council unanimously approved a contract with Hurst Construction, Inc. to complete the 1050 Zone Improvements for $248,364. Four bids were submitted with Hurst being the lowest bidder.

Red Barn Event: Nexus Ski Film with Sasha Dingle

Thursday, March 23, 7-8 p.m.

Join WRI and Leavenworth professional skier, Sasha Dingle, to watch the new ski film, Nexus! It is an action sports film documenting five distinct groups of skiers, their connection to the mountains, and how skiing shapes their relationships. This film is produced and directed by women.

Introduction to Wildlife Tracking Class

Saturday, March 25 and Sunday, March 26

WRI invites you to a weekend introduction to the language of wildlife tracking with Adam Martin. Throughout the weekend, you'll gain a basic understanding of how to identify and interpret the commonly left tracks and sign of the birds, mammals, and insects of our region.

Red Barn Event: Geologic Fluids and Plant Life

Wednesday, March 29, 7-8 p.m.

Join WRI, Washington Native Plant Society, and local geologist, Ralph Haugerud for a Red Barn event where you'll learn about the four types of geologic fluids. The effects of these fluids govern how water moves in and through our landscape, thereby shaping our plant communities.

Garden Planning Workshop

Thursday, March 30, 5-6:30 p.m.

Have you always wanted to grow your own food, herbs, or flowers, but have never known where to start? Or maybe you were worried about not having enough space for your dream garden. This is the workshop for you.

Native Plants with Cascade High School

In a new program, WRI is working with the Plant Science class at Cascade High School to help design and develop a native plant garden on the hill side on the WRI campus. Currently, there are four 12'x6' plots and students can plant up to 8 species in each plot. The group of 11th and 12th grade students learn more about plant biodiversity, native plants, how to perform site evaluations, and which plants may grow better together. The students will design, plant, and manage the garden throughout the year, gaining community service hours to place towards graduation, college applications, and more. Stay tuned for updates as the garden continues to develop.

Commissioners consider draft agreement for Confluence Parkway proposal

SUBMITTED BY RACHEL HANSEN

Chelan PUD commissioners are considering a land exchange agreement with the City of Wenatchee that attempts to strike a balance between regional transportation needs and stewardship of public lands.

The City of Wenatchee's Confluence Parkway project is a proposed 2.5-mile bypass to alleviate traffic congestion along North Wenatchee Avenue. The two-way arterial would run along the edge of Horan Natural Area and Confluence State Park, which are owned by Chelan PUD.

The land exchange would trade a long, narrow parcel of land along the western edges of Horan Natural Area and Confluence State Park – about 5 acres total owned by the PUD – for roughly equivalent property from the City.

The draft agreement includes a range of mitigations intended to address concerns brought forward by more than 1,000 public comments, and a year of due diligence. The measures include:

Noise abatement: The City will build a noise wall and earthen berms with landscaping in areas where road noise is expected to have the greatest impact.

Trail improvements: The City will reroute the Apple Capital Recreation Loop Trail away from Hawley Street and the railroad tracks for better safety and user experience. The new pedestrian bridge will be about twice as wide as the existing one.

The draft agreement also commits the City to reimburse the utility to relocate two water wells that support Confluence State Park, and replace state park staff housing that is in the path of the proposed roadway. In most cases, the city will cover the relocation of electrical transmission and distribution lines in coordination with roadway construction.

Several people spoke in favor of Confluence Parkway, citing reduced traffic accidents, improved response times for first-responders, better options for bus and bike commuters, and improvements to the Loop Trail.

Commissioners deliberated and voted March 20 on the draft agreement, which must also be approved by the Wenatchee City Council.

Chelan PUD is one of several key agencies involved in the review process. Over the next year, the project will require approval from the Federal Highway Administration and Federal Energy Regulatory Commission.

Spring into action: Give blood with the Red Cross

SUBMITTED BY BETSY ROBERTSON

Spring is here! As the seasons change, the American Red Cross is reminding the public that the need for blood doesn't take a break. Blood and platelets remain at risk of running low this month. Donors are crucial to helping the Red Cross avoid a blood shortage in the weeks to come. Donors of all blood types, especially type O donors and platelet donors, are encouraged to make and keep appointments to donate. Book a time to give by visiting RedCrossBlood.org, downloading the Red Cross Blood Donor App, or calling 1-800-RED CROSS.

When donors lend an arm this month, the Red Cross will lend a hand. All who come to give blood, platelets, or plasma now until March 31, will receive a $10 Visa® Prepaid Card by email. Plus, they'll be automatically entered for a chance to win a $3,000 Visa Prepaid Card – which could help toward expenses like gas or groceries. There will be five lucky winners. Details are available at rcblood.org/help.

Upcoming Cashmere Blood Drive: March 23, 10 - 3 p.m., Cashmere High School, 329 Tigner Rd.

How to donate blood: Simply download the American Red Cross Blood Donor App, visit RedCrossBlood.org, call 1-800-RED CROSS (1-800-733-2767) or enable the Blood Donor Skill on any Alexa Echo device to make an appointment or for more information. All blood types are needed to ensure a reliable supply for patients. A blood donor card or driver's license or two other forms of identification are required at check-in. Individuals who are 17 years of age in most states (16 with parental consent where allowed by state law), weigh at least 110 pounds and are in generally good health may be eligible to donate blood. High school students and other donors 18 years of age and younger also must meet certain height and weight requirements. Blood and platelet donors can save time at their next donation by using RapidPass® to complete their pre-donation reading and health history questionnaire online, on the day of their donation, before arriving at the blood drive. To get started, follow the instructions at RedCrossBlood.org/RapidPass or use the Blood Donor App.

Amplify your impact – volunteer! Another way to support the lifesaving mission of the Red Cross is to become a volunteer blood donor ambassador at Red Cross blood drives. Blood donor ambassadors help greet, check-in and thank blood donors to ensure they have a positive donation experience. Volunteers can also serve as transportation specialists, playing a vital role in ensuring lifesaving blood products are delivered to nearby hospitals. For more information and to apply for either position visit redcross.org/volunteertoday.

Foggy Road

I was in the driver's seat heading down the road with Grandpa Truman on the passenger's side of the car when he noticed the dense fog overhead. He said, "If that fog settled, we'd need radar."

"Or at least a compass and a good map," I said remembering the classes he once taught to high schoolers on how to navigate a boat through rocky narrows in the fog or in the dark. He taught in the day light but he'd cover the windows of our boat, the Shelly Too, with paper maps to keep the students from seeing outside then teach them how to use a compass, a map and the passage of time to get where they needed to go. (Of course, one of the maps over the windows had a small flap he could flip to view outside as a safety measure.) "Compass wouldn't do any good," Grandpa informed me. "Yep, you're right. We're traveling too fast." I replied. I looked up; considered the density of the fog and said, "if the fog settled, I'd pull over, get well off the road, and wait for the sun to shine through. I don't like to be on the road if I can't see at least two car lengths ahead. When I can't see I pull off."

"I agree with you there." Grandpa Truman said as he nodded towards the sky, "it's that kind of fog that makes for a 60-car pile-up if it gets down on the road."

"Well," I replied, "I can't see staying on any road no matter what speed I'm traveling if I can't see what's ahead of me."

He nodded and we traveled in silence for a while. I got to thinking about fog. On the paved highway I can pull my vehicle off to the side and wait in relative safety. On the water with constant currents there is no pulling a marine vessel over to wait for better weather conditions once the boat leaves harbor. As a captain of the boat, responsible for souls on board, not only did Grandpa have to make the decision on when to leave harbor he also had to have the skill to guide us safely through rocky waters when the weather conditions enveloped us in fog. And he did.

Grandpa Truman is happily retired. Now Uncle Larry is the captain and Sonny is one of the souls aboard his boat. I am glad Grandpa Truman was there to teach Uncle Larry; glad that my brother was humble enough to learn; glad that the Good Lord allowed Uncle Larry to become Captain Larry; glad that my son is now learning from Captain Larry. It is good to have solid captains who model solid behavior for the next set of souls who will become guides on these shifting tides of life. My son is heading out into the sea of life. His journey beyond the stability of my land locked highway has begun and pulling off the road isn't going to be an option for him. Yes, radar would help but only if the captain is willing to teach and knows how to operate it... and I don't... but Captain Larry does and he'll teach Sonny the things I can't.

Tomato Based Captain's Stew

- Cup or 2 of the catch of the day (salmon, crab, halibut, clam) cleaned and ready to cook.
- 1 to 2 Tbsp. oil or fat
- 32 oz canned tomato product (about 4 cups),
- A couple 15 oz. cans of veggies (canned potatoes even)
- Water (optional)
- Salt and Pepper to taste.

Sauté the catch of the day in a Tbsp. or two of oil. Add the 32 oz. can of tomatoes (or two 15 oz. cans) product. This can be diced tomatoes, stewed tomatoes, salsa, tomato sauce, spaghetti or pizza sauce, even canned tomato soup. Then add the cans of veggies, liquid, and all. Stir; heat; eat.

Note: this recipe works with canned fish and other meats like tuna, sardines, chicken, Vienna sausage, whatever is on hand in the galley and fresh veggies can be substituted for canned ones.

If the tomato product of choice is tomato paste it needs to be diluted about 1 to 1 with water or another liquid to be used for this stew.

Humane Society ED focused on bringing pets and people together

SUBMITTED BY NEIL NEROUTSOS

As Wenatchee Valley Humane Society's Executive Director James Pumphrey approaches three months in his new role, he emphasizes it's the success of WVHS's core programs that ensures the agency continues to bring value to pets and people throughout the community.

"Our animal welfare programs are pro-pet and pro-people, and they're designed based on best practices and science based sheltering," says Pumphrey. "We're equally guided by a commitment to being humane in our work to guarantee the highest standards of care. Our purpose is to bring pets and people together and keep pets and people together."

Some of the key programs of focus for WVHS include: Clinic Services: WVHS delivers high quality clinic care with the goal of making veterinary services affordable and accessible to the entire community. Examples of services include exams, x-rays, spay or neuter surgery, vaccinations, treating broken bones, skin conditions, and ear and eye infections.

Adoption: WVHS has an open, conversation-based adoption process, matching the lifestyles and expectations of adopters with the needs of homeless pets. Adoption fees include spay or neuter surgery, initial vaccinations for dogs, microchips, general well-health exams and options for pet health insurance.

Foster Program: This is designed to increase the number of animals that WVHS can help by allowing foster families to host animals and help ready them for later adoption. The program expands the capacity of care that can be provided for injured and homeless animals.

Animal Care & Control: WVHS provides services to the cities of Cashmere, Chelan, East Wenatchee, Entiat, Leavenworth, Rock Island, Wenatchee, Waterville and Chelan and Douglas counties. Its mission is to help protect the safety and well-being of the citizens and animals of these areas through compassion, education and law enforcement.

Key 2022 Measures:

- 2,474 animals adopted
- 3,500 spay and neuter surgeries
- 564 lost pets returned to owners
- $402,173 spent on medical care

"Our success wouldn't be possible without the many volunteers who work in countless ways on the behalf of pets in our community," says Pumphrey. "They are dog walkers and trainers, socialize cats and small critters, help support our clinic and facilities and volunteer at events. And they do so with the greatest compassion and care." To explore volunteer opportunities at WVHS, people can complete an online application or email volunteer@wenatcheehumane.org.

Wenatchee Valley Humane Society builds a community of responsible animal owners by providing education and outreach, animal care and control for protection, and rescue and adoption services.

DOH's successful Say Yes! COVID Test program to finish May 11

More than 15 million free at-home tests distributed since Jan. 2022

SUBMITTED BY WSDOH

OLYMPIA—The Washington State Department of Health (DOH) is announcing its free at-home testing program Say Yes! COVID Test (SYCT) is ending May 11. Since its launch in Jan. 2022, the program has:

- Processed more than 3 million individual orders for at-home test kits.
- Distributed more than 15 million individual tests.
- Served nearly 1 million households throughout Washington state.

Washingtonians may continue ordering free COVID-19 home test kits from the Say Yes! COVID Test website. As the COVID-19 pandemic moves into a state of recovery, eligibility will change to focus on Washington communities that are most in need. Criteria will be based on public health measures that help identify communities with more disadvantaged households. Please visit the SYCT website to see if you are eligible to place a single monthly order for five test kits, which are delivered to the requester's home or work address free of charge.

Federally supplied free at-home tests remain available to order for all while supplies last. Insurers are still required to cover the cost of eight at home tests per covered member per month until the end of the federal public health emergency on May 11.

"Thanks to the incredible partnership between the DOH Say Yes! COVID Test team and our partners, as well as close collaborations with the public health and healthcare systems, communities, and individual Washingtonians, our state has achieved one of the lowest COVID-19 death rates in the country," said Tao Sheng Kwan-Gett, MD, MPH.

"DOH will continue to support Washingtonians to keep their communities healthy and protect the elderly and those with chronic conditions who are most vulnerable to the severe impacts of COVID-19."

DOH launched SYCT Jan. 2022 in partnership with the National Institutes of Health, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Care Evolution, Amazon, and a variety of community partners to provide Washingtonians with another way to quickly access free testing for COVID-19.

DOH will continue to collaborate with local health jurisdictions, tribes, and community partners to support equitable access to testing supplies and services through existing services. Please visit the DOH COVID-19 landing page for more information and resources, including testing and free telehealth treatment options.

Youth Firesetter Prevention

SUBMITTED BY WA STATE FIRE MARSHAL'S OFFICE

Olympia – When children are exposed to flame or fires, their curiosity might be peeked. Children may find fire fascinating because it engages all five senses; sight, sound, smell, taste, and touch. They may not understand that fires used for cooking, heating, or other reasons are controlled and used for specific purposes. They may not understand the devastation hostile fires can cause like the loss of property, injuries, or death.

From 2019 through 2021 local fire agencies in Washington State reported 764 fire incidents that began by the playing of a heat source, resulting in over $5 million in damages. To help prevent youth firesetting, the Washington State Fire Marshal's Office asks that you take the following steps:

- Keep matches and lighters out of the reach of children, up high, and preferably in a locked cabinet.
- Closely supervise children, making sure that they are kept away from other fire sources, including lit candles, cigarettes, bonfires, and stoves.
- Establish clear rules and consequences about unsupervised and unauthorized uses of fire.

- Teach children that they must tell a grownup when matches or lighters are found.
- Talk with children about what they are seeing online in video games, on TV, in movies, and on social media, and teach them specific ways to resist the peer pressure to misuse fire.
- Give praise for showing respect and age-appropriate responsible behavior toward fire.
- If needed, contact your local fire department to see if they have a youth firesetting program.

For more information, contact the State Fire Marshal's Office at 360-596-3929.

The Alphorn Association thanks the City of Leavenworth for funding this event.

Nominations Open: Bird Fest Founders' Award

Help the Wenatchee River Institute and North Central Washington Audubon Society celebrate and honor volunteerism. The Founders' Award was inspired by the team of people who came together in 2003 to launch the very first Leavenworth Spring Bird Fest. Nominations are open for two categories.

Award decisions will be based on one or more of the following criteria:

Provided a significant amount of time and energy in support of Bird Fest goals and tasks.

Developed a policy or process change which has contributed to the more efficient and expansive operation. Longevity of volunteer service to Bird Fest.

Contributed significantly through community science efforts in support of mission objectives. This could be in the development of field trips, the collection and analysis of data, or other ways.

Nominations are open until April 2 Learn more and make your nomination for the Founders' Award here: https://wenatcheeriverinstitute.org/bird-fest/founders-award.html. Contact: Rebecca Ryan rryan@wenatcheeriverinstitute.org 509-548-0181 ext. 2.

Upper Valley Scholarship for Women Returning to Higher Education

Applications are now being accepted for the Upper Valley Scholarship supported by P.E.O. Chapter JF, Leavenworth, WA. The purpose of the scholarship is to assist women in need of financial help in returning to higher education at an accredited university, college, or technical school in the State of Washington. This needs-based scholarship must be used for school expenses and will be paid directly to the school. Applications must be received for consideration by April 30, 2023. Scholarship funds will be available by the Fall of 2023 and be sent directly to the school financial department upon confirmation of enrollment. Women applicants must be seeking further higher education at either the undergraduate or graduate level and meet the following criteria: Applicant must be age 30 or above and reside in Chelan or Douglas County, WA. Applicants must be currently enrolled in or returning to a higher education program after a two-year or more absence. The colleges, universities, or technical schools where applicants have been accepted must be fully accredited and within the State of Washington, however, out-of-state on-line accredited schools, are acceptable. Applicants may re-submit applications each year until they complete their programs of study.

Women interested in applying for the scholarship may receive more detailed information concerning the application process, as well as request the application forms by sending an email to the Scholarship Committee at the following address: peoleavenworth@nwi.net

History of National Women's History Month

On March 8, 1908, 15,000 women marched in New York City demanding decent wages and working conditions. Their bold action inspired International Women's Day (IWD), celebrated worldwide since then. In 1980, Sonoma County, California expanded IWD to Women's History Week, and in 1987, Congress declared March as National Women's History Month

Wanted: Lego creations for 2023 Nick's Bricks

SUBMITTED BY CAITLYN CLEVELAND

Pybus Market

Nick's Bricks, the Annual Lego Event at Pybus Public Market, returns this spring. On Saturday, June 3, the Nick's Bricks and Pybus team will open the doors for the live in-person exhibit held in the LocalTel Event Center. The planning committee is currently searching for fun and imaginative displays to feature for the event. This is a great opportunity for Lego enthusiasts to showcase their creativity and show-off their talent. There are unlimited possibilities for any theme. Each builder can draw inspiration from Harry Potter to Star Wars, Lego movie, Princess, Community, and more.

We encourage you to reach for the sky and use your imagination to create your dream Lego build. Local businesses are also welcome to participate, as Nick's Bricks is a highly attended event it is a perfect occasion to advertise and support the community.

If you have something you believe is worthy of sharing please contact Kevin Vitulli at kvitulli@hotmail.com. Please include a brief description of your entry, your contact information, and an estimate on the size/footprint of your display.

Nick's Bricks is named in memory of Nicholas (Nick) H. Vitulli and is an event that he would have loved. Nick passed away in 2016 at the young age of 24 while hiking in Africa. Nick was gentle, kind, joyful and loved life. He was curious and creative and was never afraid to explore possibilities. Nick's faith, family, friends and fun were most important to him in his life.

Nick loved LEGOS, playing board games and his favorite book was Lord of the Rings. Nick was also known for rocking the flannel, for his love of music and playing the bass. His fantastic imagination and love of play allowed him to maintain and never let go of his childlike heart. Nick's parents, Kevin and Jayne Vitulli of Wenatchee, WA created the Nicholas H. Vitulli Memorial Fund at CFNCW to honor their son by sharing his love of Legos and play with all children in our region.

"We would like to thank the many community sponsors that help make Nick's Bricks possible," said Jayne and Kevin Vitulli.

About Pybus Public Market: Pybus Public Market is built in the historic Pybus steel warehouse located next to the Columbia River at the foot of Orondo Street in Wenatchee. The property is a year-round marketplace for restaurants, wine, fruit and vegetable vendors, meats and cheeses, baked goods, oils, other foods, flowers, retail sales and local craftspeople. It also serves as the permanent home for the Wenatchee Valley Farmer's Market. Pybus Market opened May 11, 2013. Pybus Market is governed by a 20-person board of directors of Pybus Market Charitable Foundation, a 501c (3) non-profit.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

Swim season is fast approaching. I would like the City to return our morning lap swim from 6-8 a.m. as it was pre-COVID. I'm unable to make the 5-6 p.m. session due to work logistics and I have not been in a pool now for three years due to the City pool being closed (COVID and lack of lifeguards for the morning swim). The morning lap swim sessions are lovely. It is wonderful to exercise before a workday, early in the morning with the sun rising and the bird dawn chorus. Most of the time, the water temperature is warmer than the air, and the mist coming off of the water is magical. It's a glorious way to start your day! Sometimes, it's a bit too cold, but cold therapy is great for one's mental health. However, the elderly may not like it. Bobbie Fuller, a wonderful lady back in the day, had to stop swimming when it was below 70F. But she always left with a smile and said to me, "Is that all you got, kid?" I realize the city is not making money off of the pool, but the pool is a wonderful benefit to our community. The sewage plant doesn't make a profit, having sidewalks and nice roads don't make a profit. This is what our taxes can pay for...benefits. The swimming pool is a benefit to those in Cashmere. It has never made a profit. It teaches children and adults how to swim, keeps the citizens active and healthy, develops camaraderie between folks that go there, reduces poor physical and mental health. Please start interviewing lifeguards now to prep for the 2023 summer pool season so that interested applicants can register for upcoming spring lifeguard classes. Cashmere Baptist Church (CBC) recently ran on its reader board: Need a lifeguard? Reach out to Jesus. Get a flier to Cashmere High School students requesting applicants for lifeguards. Let's get the CBC, the 7th Day Adventist Church and the school district office to use their reader boards with this message: Our city pool needs lifeguards. Apply now at City Hall. Ask the Cashmere Valley Record to run a story on the upcoming pool season to generate awareness. The City needs to get the word out. Here are a few suggestions.

Get fliers to all Cashmere school students about the upcoming season by April 1, do free public service announcements on the local radio stations, post fliers around town, run a story in the Cashmere Valley Record, Leavenworth Echo, and the Wenatchee World. The City of Wenatchee swimming pool closes mid-August and Wenatchee swimmers come to the Cashmere pool when their pool closes ~8/15. Lap swimmers often come because they are competing in swim competitions such as triathlons. Target that audience. Hang a flier at the Wenatchee pool prior to their pool closure. I don't want this to be my fourth year with no swimming.

Vicky Cibicki, Cashmere

Obituary & Memorial Policies

NCW Media, Inc.: Leavenworth Echo, Cashmere Valley Record, Lake Chelan Mirror, Quad City Herald. An Obituary is a way for family member(s) to commemorate a loved one's life and to notify the community of the passing of the loved one. Obituaries are also used for historical and ancestral data. Memorials are another way to let the community know about the life and memories of the person who has passed. A Memorial is different from an Obituary. An Obituary is usually current, while a Memorial can be written later. Obituaries and Memorials need to be typed and emailed as a Word Document. They can be placed in one or more papers - all publish weekly on Wednesday. Obituaries are priced by the number of words and include one color photo and go online at no extra charge. Memorials are priced per column inch. Please call for cost. *Payment is due at the time of placement. *Exception: Chapels, funeral homes who have an account, can be billed. There is no charge for a Death Notice - information is limited. Deadline is 4 p.m. on Friday - some exceptions may apply. Cashmere Softball hosts Brewster High School for doubleheader

The Cashmere Bulldogs (1-2) held a doubleheader against Brewster (2-1) on Saturday, March 18. The girls were coming off a huge 35-2 season opening win against Liberty Bell, looking to improve their record to start the season. The first of the two games were mostly in favor of Brewster. Starting pitcher Macie Zimmerman held the Bears to just one run through the first two innings, however, gave up 9 runs going into the third. This inning made a comeback harder to secure, as the deficit was large for the majority of the game. They ended with a final score of 14-2, falling to Brewster in the first game. Motivated by the loss, the Bulldogs came into the second game feeling rejuvenated and ready to hit. They were able to string together 10 runs, effectively beating Brewster in the second game of the day with a final score of 10-6. Cashmere proved their ability to bounce back on Saturday afternoon. They looked rather cohesive and strong as a group, rallying around each other in order to split the doubleheader against the Bears. The Bulldogs look to build from this experience as they travel to Tonasket High School on March 23 to face the Tigers (0-1).

By JUSTIN PARDINI, REPORTER

Athlete: Reed Lewis

Coach: Trevor Kert
Reason: Reed started the tennis season by showing that he put in some work in the off season. At our first competition, which was a jamboree in Chelan, Reed won pre-sets in both singles and doubles. He is off to a great start as a sophomore and has a work ethic that is going to help him improve each week.
Parents: Dan Lewis & Allison Lewis
Grade: 10th
Sports: Football and Tennis
Future Plans: College

Student: Stephanie Duarte-Barragan

Reason: Stephanie is a Junior, and a dedicated student her at CHS. I chose Stephanie for several reasons, but the main one is her attitude. No matter the challenge or subject, Stephanie brings her best efforts and determination forward, and inspires others in the process. She is always willing to volunteer, for class or outside needs, and brings a light into any room she is in. I believe that her dedication to uplifting others is inspiring, and I truly believe she will change the world!

Lauro Olmos Olmos and Evangelina Olmos (collectively, "Purchaser") has failed to timely make monthly payments of $351.03 per month. (Contract, para. 3). The last payment, received January 5, 2023, is current through September 14, 2021. (2) Late fees. Purchaser has failed to timely pay late charges of $17.55, which is 5% of the $351.03 monthly payment. (Contract, para. 3). The last payment, received on January 5, 2023, is current through September 14, 2021. (3) Contract collection fees. Purchaser has failed to timely pay monthly $3.50 contract collection fees, Purchaser's equal share of the total collection fee. (Contract, para. 4). The last payment, received on January 5, 2023, is current through September 14, 2021. (4) Property taxes and assessments. Purchaser has failed to pay before delinquency property taxes and assessments assessed for the years 2020, 2021, and 2022. (Contract, para. 5). (5) Insurance. Purchaser has failed to deliver to Seller all policies, amendments and renewals relating to insurance of the Property for "all risk" or extended coverage. (Contract, para. 7). E. The Contract will be forfeited if all defaults listed in paragraph D, above, are not cured on or before June 16, 2023, a date that is not less than ninety (90) days after this Notice of Intent to Forfeit is recorded in the official records of Chelan County, Washington. F. The forfeiture of the Contract will result in the following: (i) All right, title, and interest in the property of the Buyer, and of all persons claiming through the Buyer or whose interests are otherwise subordinate to the seller's interest in the property, shall be terminated; (ii) the Buyer's rights under the Contract shall be canceled; (iii) all sums previously paid under the Contract shall belong to and be retained by the seller or other person to whom paid and entitled thereto; (iv) all of the Buyer's rights in all improvements made to the property and in unharvested crops and timber thereon shall belong to the seller; and (v) the Buyer and all other persons occupying the property whose interests are forfeited shall be required to surrender possession of the property, improvements, and unharvested crops and timber to the seller ten days after the declaration of forfeiture is recorded. G. Itemized Statement. The following is an itemized statement of payments of money in default and, for defaults not involving the failure to pay money, a statement of the action required to cure the default: (1) Monthly payments. For October 15, 2021 - February 15, 2023, the total of monthly payments that are in default is $5,967.51. (2) Late fees. For October 25, 2021 - February 25, 2023, the total of late fees that are in default is $298.35. (3) Contract collection fees. For October 15, 2021 - February 15, 2023, the total of collection fees that are in default is $59.50. TOTAL AMOUNT DUE SELLER IN DEFAULT (Items G.(1) - G.(3)): $6,325.36 (4) Property taxes and assessments. Property taxes for 2020, 2021, and 2022, plus any interest and penalties thereon, must be paid in full, in the amount owed at the time of payment. (5) Insurance. All of the following must occur: a. Insure all buildings on the Property insured to their full insurable value against loss or damage by fire, windstorm, and all other casualties covered by "all risk" or extended coverage endorsements available in the State of Washington, in a company acceptable to the Seller and for Seller's benefit as Seller's interest may appear, b. Pay all premiums therefor, and c. Deliver all policies, amendments and renewals to the Seller. H. Itemized statement of other charges. The following is a statement of all other payments, charges, fees, and costs, if any, or, where indicated, a reasonable estimate thereof, which must be paid to cure the default; Item Amount 1. Cost of litigation guarantee from First American Title $582.63 2. Service/posting/publishing of Notice of Intent to Forfeit (est.) $500.00 3. Attorney's fees (est.) $2,000.00 4. Recording fees (est.) $220.00 TOTAL: $3,302.63 The total amount necessary to cure the default is the sum of the amounts in paragraph G and H, is $9,627.99, plus the amount of any additional taxes, payments on purchaser's behalf, default interest, and other costs under the contract arise after the date of this Notice of Intent to Forfeit and on or prior to the date the default is cured. You must cure the default prior to June 16, 2023. In addition, because some of the charges can only be estimated at this time, and because the amount necessary to reinstate may include presently unknown expenditures required to preserve the property or to comply with state or local law, it will be necessary for you to contact seller's agent below before the time you tender reinstatement so that you may be advised of the exact amount you will be required to pay. Monies required to cure the default may be tendered to: Overcast Law Offices; Attn: Laurence P. Chamberlain; 23 S. Wenatchee Ave., Ste. 320, Wenatchee, WA, 98801 If default includes a default other than payments of money when due, then you must also cure such other defaults as specified in paragraph G. by June 16, 2023. I. Rights to Contest or Seek Extension of Time. You have a right to contest the forfeiture, or to seek an extension of time to cure the default if the default does not involve a failure to pay money, or both. To do so, you must commence a court action by filing and serving the summons and complaint on the seller or seller's agent or attorney before the declaration of forfeiture is recorded. NO EXTENSION OF THE TIME FOR CURE CAN BE GRANTED FOR DEFAULTS THAT ARE A FAILURE TO PAY MONEY. However, you may not be in default if you have a claim against the seller that would release, discharge, or excuse the default. J. Right to request a court order. The person to whom the notice is given may have the right to request a court to order a public sale of the property. Such public sale will be ordered only if the court finds that the fair market value of the property substantially exceeds the debt owed under the contract and any other liens having priority over the seller's interest in the property. The excess, if any, of the highest bid at the sale over the debt owed under the contract will be applied to the liens eliminated by the sale and the balance, if any, paid to the Buyer. The court will require the person who requests the sale to deposit the anticipated sale costs with the clerk of the court; and that any action to obtain an order for public sale must be commenced by filing and serving the summons and complaint before the declaration of forfeiture is recorded. K. Final notice. This is your final and only notice. No other notice of default is required to be sent to you or any other person before the declaration which completes the forfeiture is given.
