Shooting trap at the Cashmere Sportsman's Association Range during the annual November Turkey Shoot

A Real Turkey Shoot

By JOHN KRUSE

Call it a slice of normalcy in this otherwise surreal year dominated by the Covid-19 pandemic, politics and innumerable sad and stressful events that have plagued 2020. This event is a fun one. It's the annual Turkey Shoot put on by the Cashmere Sportsman's Association and this year, it took place November 15.

The small range, located on Turkey

Shoot Road outside of Cashmere, boasts two trap houses and is open the bulk of the year. The general public is always invited to shoot clay pigeons for just $4 a round on Thursday evenings starting at 7 p.m. During normal years, there are also school shooting nights where youth between the 5th and 12th grade come out and shoot too. Brian James, secretary for the club, said 10 to 15 kids will participate in these shoots and the association itself has some 60 members.

Trap is a deceptively simple game. A squad of up to five shooters occupy five different designated stations located 16 yards behind the concrete trap house. Inside the trap house is a machine that throws clay pigeons at different angles at a speed of 42 miles per hour. Each shooter fires five times from each designated position, and each position gives you a slightly different angle when it comes to shooting at the launched bird. Whoever hits the most pigeons out of the 25 shots fired wins the round.

Serious trap shooters invest in over and under 12-gauge shotguns with long 30-inch barrels. More casual shooters will show up with their 12 or 20-gauge hunting firearm whether it be an over and under, semi-auto or pump shotgun.

This year's Turkey Shoot drew participants from as far away as Yakima and the Tri-Cities. The 110 attendees, socially distanced and coming and going over a several hour time span, each paid $30 for a punch card ticket that guarantees the shooter their choice of a slab of bacon or a hefty frozen turkey which by itself is worth the price of admission. You get to shoot five abbreviated rounds of trap with this $30 punch card. Each round consists of just 10 shots, with two fired from each of the five stations behind the trap house. There are often ties which are settled by a tie-breaking shoot-off and if you win more than one round you can win additional turkeys or bacon!

In addition to this there is a raffle with prizes which raises money for the youth shoots that occur here. There was a diverse crowd of men and women at this year's event. I'd like to tell you I shot well but the fact of the matter is a 70+ year old longtime shooter named Steve from Yakima made me look like the rank amateur trap shooter I am, as did several high-school aged young men and women who had no problem breaking clay pigeons on a regular basis.

Whether you're a good shotgunner or not though you'll find this low stress shooting event is a lot of fun and better still, literally everyone who buys a $30 ticket ends up as a winner!

A similar event, the Steak Shoot, is scheduled to occur at the Othello Gun Club on Sunday, December 20. Shooting starts at 9 a.m. and for $35 you are guaranteed to win at least a two-pack of ribeye steaks. The games rules will be similar, 5 rounds per punch card with 10 birds thrown for each shooter per round. Breakfast and lunch will also be available for purchase. It is unclear at this time, given the current Covid-19 restrictions, whether this event will take place.

In addition to the gun clubs found in Cashmere and Othello there are also ranges with trap shooting available throughout Washington State. Some of them, like the Fort Colville Gun Club near Colville and the Ephrata Sportsmen's Association Gun Range, offer not only trap shooting but also skeet, rifle and pistol shooting too. A detailed list of where other ranges and gun clubs are located can be found is at <http://shooting.org/ranges>

Escape to magical Lake Chelan for Small Town Holidays

Celebrate the magic of the holiday season in the Lake Chelan Wine Valley

SUBMITTED BY HISTORIC DOWNTOWN CHELAN ASSOCIATION

LAKE CHELAN VALLEY - Lake Chelan will kick off a new annual event this holiday with Small Town Holi-days in the Lake Chelan Wine Valley Nov. 27 - Dec. 31. The Lake Chelan Valley will be blanketed in magical holiday lights, fireworks every weekend, as well as local boutiques, wineries and restaurants dressed up for the holidays. Whether you are visiting for the first time, consider Lake Chelan your second home or are lucky enough to live here year round - the holidays feel a little more magical in Lake Chelan.

Small Town Holidays in the Lake Chelan Wine Valley is a month-long celebration. The event kicks off the day after Thanksgiving in downtown Chelan and the celebration continues throughout the weekend in the wineries of Lake Chelan and downtown Manson. Event highlights include:

- Hot Friday Shopping in Historic Downtown Chelan Starting at 6 a.m.
- Santa Neighborhood Tours 3 p.m. every Friday and Saturday
- Wine Barrel Train Rides 1 p.m. in Downtown Manson every Saturday
- Light Up the Lake Grand Lighting 5:30 p.m. All Around the Lake
- Fireworks Every Weekend
- Lady of the Lake Holiday Boat Parade Every Weekend
- Holiday Lights at the Lake Driving Tour
- Historic Downtown Chelan Parade of Windows Competition

Lake Chelan Wine Valley wineries will open with take away options as well as a variety of outdoor, tented, heated, cozy spaces with fireplaces, and holiday lights

This year's event theme is local. Swing into downtown Chelan or Manson and find that uniquely curated gift in one of their shops; grab take-out at any of the restaurants around the lake and enjoy at home; or stop by one of our wineries to take in the views and enjoy an award-winning glass of wine. There is nothing like a local experience in our charming small town. Join us in focusing on local shopping, dining, sipping and more this holiday season!

Small Town Holiday events and activities have been designed with current health and safety restrictions in mind so patrons have a safe and enjoyable experience in the Lake Chelan valley.

For more information visit smalltownholidays.com or the Lake Chelan Chamber of Commerce office on 216 E. Woodin Avenue, Chelan.

Cashmere Chamber of Commerce brings Santa on a drive by Parade through town

Cashmere, WA. The Cashmere Chamber of Commerce invites you to celebrate the season in a new way - be on the lookout as Santa and friends will be headed through neighborhoods on Saturday, December 5. Starting at noon, listen for the firetruck sirens - you'll know Santa will be coming around the corner shortly.

Route will include:

- Starting at Riverside Park
- Up Cottage Avenue to round-about
- Continue up Pioneer Drive to Wescott Drive

- Back down Sunset Hwy to Riverside Park

Grab the family, bundle up and see us outside as we bring just a little holiday cheer for the season.

The drive by parade will include a few firetrucks as Santa and North Pole friends socially distance.

This event could not be possible without the support of our community volunteers and the Cashmere Fire Department.

Organized by the Cashmere Chamber of Commerce. We encourage you to mask up and support local when you can. Consider gift cards from your favorite local establishments and take out from our local eateries.

- 1. Make both cans of French loaf as directed on cans; cool completely on cooling rack. Reserve 1 teaspoon cream cheese; cover and refrigerate for later.
- 2. In large bowl, mix remaining cream cheese, the shredded cheese, bacon and green onions. Beat with electric mixer on medium speed 1 to 2 minutes, scraping bowl

- occasionally, until mixed well. Cover and refrigerate about 2 hours or until mixture is firm enough to shape into ball.
- 3. Meanwhile, in 8-inch nonstick skillet, melt butter over medium heat. Add bread crumbs; cook 3 to 4 minutes, stirring frequently, until golden brown. Spread onto large piece of waxed paper; cool completely.
- 4. Shape cheese mixture into large ball. Roll in toasted bread crumbs; place on serving plate. Discard any remaining crumbs.
- 5. Using photo as guide, decorate turkey cheese ball. Cut head and three feathers from red bell pepper. Cut 2 feet, 2 feathers and small beak from yellow bell pepper. Attach candy eyeballs and beak to head using reserved cream cheese to secure, and carefully insert head into cheese ball. Carefully insert feet and 3 rows of feathers and pretzels into cheese ball to look like a turkey. Cut each French loaf into 12 slices. Serve cheese ball immediately with sliced bread and leftover bell pepper, or loosely cover and refrigerate until ready to serve.

Say your piece but say it in love

Tensions have been running high for a while now and it doesn't look like we are going to get any reprieve soon. People are tired, anxious, depressed, and discouraged, and I for one, don't blame them for feeling that way. We are living in some trying times and it is easy to forget the one thing we must do and that is to love one another as

A WALK WITH PASTOR JOHN SMITH

Christ commanded (Jn. 15:12, 17). For all the good that social media can do for the Kingdom, it does present an opportunity for sinful tendencies to manifest. In the past several weeks, I have seen corrosive language spewed on newsfeeds and a lack of grace and restraint regarding other people's opinions. In my observations,

I wonder if we are seriously taking into consideration what Christ said, "by this [love] all people will know that you are my disciples if you have love for one another." (Jn 13:35)? For example, take any social feed about any hot button topic that Christians engage in and you will find accusations, name-calling, and even cursing one another. Regrettably, I have even fallen prey to the combative nature of my own heart and have had to repent of what I have said or more accurately, typed.

There is a lesson that a dear brother and mentor taught me as a younger man, that you can be right and still be wrong. Sounds contradictory but let me explain, you can have the truth and even speak the truth but the spirit behind the words can be just downright mean and disrespectful to the person you're interacting with. Now don't misunderstand me that I am encouraging all of us to just play "nice" or that the epitome of Christian virtue is being the "nice guy". That couldn't be farther from the truth. In fact, I would suggest that more damage has been done to the church by Christians wanting to be "nice" because they didn't engage or confront errors when they should have. However, in recent days, the tendency for Christians to be acidic to one another requires that we add a little bit of base to balance the proclamation of truth.

The Bible calls us to be "peacemakers" (Matt. 5:9) and so what does that look like in a period where peace is absent?

It begins by loving your neighbor as yourself (Lev. 19:18). Those individuals who hold to differing opinions and are just as strong in their convictions as you are, are indeed your neighbor. Yes, it is challenging to love an individual when they aren't so "neighborly", however Christian, look past what is on the surface and see that they are a fellow image-bearer of God, deserving of care and respect.

Second, be willing to go the extra mile with an individual (Matt. 5:41) and bear patiently with them. For many, what is informing them is a past hurt or current struggle. I know in my own experience, the things that I have said or reacted to very strongly which resulted in less-than-kind words were from an internal struggle that I was currently dealing with.

This leads me to another point, it is important to check our own hearts before we engage each other, especially when there are so many opportunities to give our twocents. As Luke 6:45 says, "out the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks." Asking simple questions like, "Is my heart in the right place?" or "Am I personalizing the issue?" is crucial because undoubtedly, if your heart is not right, it will come out in how you communicate.

Lastly, be willing to walk away or stop engaging. I have spent so much time and energy in conversations that were just arguments for argument's sake. The tit for tat can go on for hours to the detriment of not only your relationship with this individual but also to your mental, emotional, and spiritual health. Yes, the idol of "the last word" is so tempting, but what is the point? Say your piece and be willing to go in peace.

As things continue to develop within our world today that demands our attention, let us remember that when the opportunity arises to give our input or dialogue with another, that we do it in a way that honors Christ and loves our neighbor.

Chelan Veterans Service Office features 'Navigator' Mortensen

Most folks think about ships and/or planes when the word navigator is bandied about, but Trent Mortensen's life as the new Chelan County Veterans Service Office Veterans Corps Navigator still means guidance and direction, but on a different level.

Part of his duties will be to take part in the newly established Washington Department of Veterans Affairs Vet Corps Navigator program occurring every Tuesday and Thursday via Zoom - meeting ID: 86358564972.

First go to us02web.zoom.us and then input meeting ID number.

The meetings take place from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. and will feature Navigators like Mortensen as well as Veteran Service Officers Tony Sandoval (Chelan County) and Sarah Simonson (Douglas County).

Trent can be reached by calling the CCVSO: 509-664-6801 for more information.

History of The Pratt Building – Past to Present

Earlier known as: The Ellis Forde Building – 1907-1924, The Ludington Building – 1924-1974

Bill Pratt arrived in Cashmere in 1971 and leased the NW corner of the building for his Chiropractic business. In 1974, Pratt bought the property from Claire Musson. Pratt moved his business to the east side of the building in 1977. The Division Street side of the building was converted to a restaurant in 1981. A second story was added to the building in 1984. Bill Pratt still owns the building today (2020).

The following is a chronological list of the businesses that have been located on the old Ellis-Forde property/building beginning in 1926-1927. Addresses for the different segments of the building over the years are: 102/104/104 Division Street, and 100/102/102 Cottage Avenue.

Note: Cashmere street addresses did not exist until 1927. They are referenced here in the early years for location purposes only. Businesses occupying the building prior to late 1926 were listed in last week's edition.

Celebrate the holidays grill-side with these tips

STATEPOINT - Health experts recommend taking festivities outdoors this holiday season, which means your grill may take center stage. "You can master some impressive culinary feats on your grill, especially with hardwood pellets that add rich, wood-fired flavor to winter dishes," says Ben Madden, product manager at Bear Mountain BBQ Woods, crafter of gourmet, hardwood pellets. To celebrate grill-side, Madden offers these recommendations: Smooth and Smoky It's the ideal season to indulge in smooth, smoky flavoring. Achieve this robust flavor profile with the new Bourbon BBQ Craft Blend from Bear Mountain. Straight from barrel to BBQ, these hardwood pellets work well with a variety of meats, rubs and sauces. They're the secret seasoning in this delicious recipe for Bourbon Pineapple Glazed Ham, created by James Brown of GrillNation. Total Cook Time: ~6 hours

- Ingredients: • 20-pound ham • 1 cup pineapple juice • 2-3 tablespoons mustard.

- 4-5 tablespoons Java House Seasoning For Pineapple Bourbon Glaze: • 2 cups brown sugar • 1 cup bourbon • 1/4 cup pineapple juice • 2/3 cup pineapple, chopped • 2 tablespoons butter, unsalted • 4 tablespoons spicy brown mustard

- Directions: 1. Thaw ham in fridge for 2-3 days, then in sink for 24 hours. Once thawed, remove both skin and silver skin. Inject ham with cup of pineapple juice. Place in fridge for 12-24 hours. 2. Place at room temperature for 1 hour. Then, cover surface with 2-3 tablespoons mustard. Season generously with Java House seasoning. 3. Set smoker to 250 degrees. Let seasoning rest on meat 20-30 minutes. Place ham in baking pan with wire rack. Place in smoker. Then, pour pineapple juice in pan. 4. Check temperature periodically. Spritz ham every 30 minutes after first 90 minutes. 5. When internal temperature is 140 degrees, make glaze. Place saucepan over medium heat for 10 minutes. Combine pineapple bourbon glaze ingredients. Simmer for 10 minutes. Remove from heat and let thicken. Glaze ham never use regular ice again: Prep time: 30 min Freeze time: ~ 4-5 hours

- Ingredients: • Water for ice • Bear Mountain Bourbon Craft Blend Pellets • 2 ounces bourbon • 1 teaspoon water • 3 dashes Angostura bitters • 1/2 teaspoon sugar • Orange peel for garnish

- Preparation: 1. Start grill. Set to smoke. Add enough water to aluminum baking pan to fill 1-2 ice cube trays. 2. Smoke water for 20 minutes (more or less, depending on smokiness preference). Remove from grill. Pour into trays. Freeze.

- 3. Combine sugar, water and bitters in rocks glass. Stir until sugar dissolves. 4. Add ice to glass. Add bourbon. Lightly stir. 5. Run orange peel around glass, give quick squeeze and drop in. Enjoy! Gift Grill Gear. For gifting and recipe ideas, visit bearmountainbbq.com.

A delicious holiday meal made simple

STATEPOINT - When planning your holiday menu, consider selecting one ingredient to be the star of the show. Not only is this a good way to simplify your shopping list during a busy time of year, it will unify your meal with complementary flavors. Need some inspiration? Consider sweet tea. Not just a hot or cold beverage, sweet tea can be used in cooking and baking to deepen the flavor profile of mains, sides, desserts and more. For holiday ease, purchase a ready-to-drink version like Milo's Famous Sweet Tea—it's available nationwide and is fresh brewed daily without any added colors or preservatives. Get started on your holiday meal prep by wow your family with this simple recipe for a Sweet Tea

- Turkey Brine: Ingredients: • 1 gallon Milo's Famous Sweet Tea • 1 cup kosher salt • 3 large sweet onions, quartered • 4 lemons, sliced • 8 garlic cloves, peeled • 5 sprigs rosemary • 10 cups ice • Whole turkey Directions: 1. In large stockpot over medium-high heat, combine sweet tea and kosher salt; stir frequently until salt is dissolved. Add onions, lemons, garlic and rosemary. Remove from heat; let cool to room temperature. 2. When broth mixture cools, pour into clean 5-gallon bucket. Stir in ice. 3. Wash and dry turkey. Remove innards. Place turkey, cavity-side up, into brine to fill cavity. Cover and place bucket in refrigerator overnight.

- 4. Remove turkey, carefully draining excess brine; pat dry. Discard excess brine. 5. Cook turkey, as desired, reserving drippings for gravy. For those in need of a pick-me-up before or after dinner, try this recipe for Milo's Holiday Hot Tea: Ingredients: • 12 cups Milo's Famous Sweet Tea • Two 12-ounce cans frozen limeade juice concentrate • Orange, thinly sliced (reserve 1 slice for garnish) • 12 whole cloves • 4 cinnamon sticks • 1 teaspoon vanilla • 1 cup fresh cranberries • 1 cup ginger ale

- Directions: 1. Combine all of the ingredients in a large crockpot and stir. For easier serving, place the cloves into a tea ball or a double layer of coffee filters and close with kitchen twine. 2. Heat combined ingredients on high for 30 minutes, then reduce to low for an additional 2 hours; or heat on low for 2 hours then reduce setting to warm overnight.

3. Optional serving garnish: garnish rim of glass with remaining orange slice and sugar in the raw or brown sugar.
