OCCAC grants aimed at helping homeless youth

By MIKE MALTAIS

OKANOGAN – The Okanogan County Community Action Council (OCCAC) took a big step forward recently to help homeless students in the county through a pair of grants from the Washington State Department of Commerce, Office of Homeless Youth, and Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

“Together these grants total over $480,000 to be devoted to helping our youth who are homeless over the next two years” said Lael Duncan, Executive Director of OCCAC.

One grant, the Homeless Youth Division Program grant was awarded through the state

Office of Homeless Youth, said Duncan. The other, the Office of Homeless Youth Street Outreach Services grant “was made directly to our agency,” Duncan said.

Data from the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction reveals that 423 homeless youths are enrolled in local schools.

“That is for Okanogan County and it is a count for the entire school year,” Duncan told The Quad last Tuesday, Nov. 4.

The Point in Time Count of the Homeless in January 2020 will be more extensive than ever to try and get a more comprehensive count of

turned out in numbers, Thursday, Oct. 31, and Brewster appeared to be hub of Spook Central as youngsters by the hundreds took over the town for a few hours and showed the adults how to have a party.

Brewster Mayor Art Smith – he was the one dressed up like a mayor - with city and council officials turned out to judge the costume contests held at Legion Park before the herd of trick or treaters migrated down Main Street and picked the town clean like a flock of happy vultures.

Pumpkin carvers get creative at Senior Center

By MIKE MALTAIS
STAFF WRITER

BREWSTER – The Brewster-Pateros-Bridgeport Senior Center not only provided a bright and warm place for trick or treaters to escape the cold and get a bowl of chili, it also hosted a Pumpkin Carving Contest where visitors were invited to vote for their favorite among several clever creations.

Center president Kathy Lowry reports that the winning carvers were: 1st Place: Jordi Talavera, 2nd Place: Sue Burgess and 3rd Place: Megan Moore.

“We had a great night, lots of trick or treaters and I think this was the most pumpkins we have received in our four years of doing it,” said Lowry. “The chili feed was successful as well. I hope someone will take this on again from the Center next year.”

Lowry reminds readers that November includes the election committee meeting to find candidates for vacant senior Center offices.

“We will have at least four spaces available, so, we would really like to see some new faces who might be able to help make the Center a viable organization again,” said Lowry. “Our meeting will be held at 10:30 a.m., Wednesday, Nov. 13.”

The Armory located at Sixth and Main offered up its parking lot as a site for the outdoor carnival so Martin Hurtado, Heather and Justin Carrington, council member Manny Hurtado and other volunteers got to work and created a fun spot for games, activities and prizes for passing trick or treaters.

The Pateros-Brewster-Bridgeport Senior Center was open for bowls of chili and pumpkin contest judging and the Brewster FFA hosted hayrides in the city park. The Brewster Fire Department was parked in front of the Armory and many businesses had doors open to welcome the flood of fun-seekers.

Nearly 350 business, professional, education, training and military representatives attended this year's Career Connections Expo.

Career Connections hosts 2nd Expo

OKANOGAN – The second annual Career Connections Expo held at the Okanogan fairground Agriplex on Tuesday, Oct. 29

“This was our second year holding this event in partnership with the Okanogan County Economic Alliance and the Apple STEM Network and were overwhelmed with the response that we received from our vendors, schools and community members,” said career connection specialist Kristi O’Neill of WorkSource Okanogan County.

O’Neill said more than 850 students from 11 school districts attended the three-hour event. Students from Liberty Bell, Tonasket, Oroville (plus 8th graders), Wilbur-Creston, Omak, Brewster, Okanogan, Bridgeport, Lake Roosevelt, Republic and Curlew made the trip.

“We opened up the morning with a welcome and blessing from Lucy Luevano from the Colville Confederated Tribes History and Archaeology Program,” said O’Neill. “Lucy did a wonderful job reminding all of us of the importance of supporting our youth with their career and education goals.”

O’Neill said more than 250 local and statewide professionals, 70 local and statewide businesses, 27 education and training representatives and four military branches were represented at the Expo.

“The Okanogan PUD had staff from energy services, engineering, operations, information services and communications there,” said O’Neill. “Their line crew had a timed competition for high school students to switch out a fuse.”

The USFS brought Smokey Bear along to help connect with students who are interested in careers with the Forest Service and Lifeline Ambulance provided students with an opportunity to practice their CPR skills inside one of their ambulances.

As an added bonus Okanogan mayor Jon Culp hosted the voter registration table and signed up more than 40 students to the voting rolls.

Local sponsors included the North Central Educational Services District, Colville Confederated Tribes Tribal Employment Rights Office, Family Health Centers, Okanogan Behavioral Health Centers, Washington Tractor, Microsoft, Wenatchee Valley College, Molina Healthcare, Economic Alliance and the Okanogan WorkSource.

“We always welcome volunteers in this effort” Duncan said.

“The eligible activities and services provided with this funding include rapid rehousing assistance, deposits, rental assistance, tenant and landlord mediation, rental areas (to maintain stable housing), moving costs, utility deposits, utility reconnection fees, utility/fuel assistance, clothing, food/nutrition resources, obtaining identification/birth certificates, and other necessary resources to support education and employment goals,” said an OCCAC media release. “In addition, transportation assistance (bus/fuel vouchers) will be necessary to assist clients in connecting with community agencies, access to healthcare (medical/dental/mental), attending their appointments and obligations, seeking employment, seeking education, and maintaining a productive lifestyle to encourage whole person health and stable housing,” the release added.

“Our youth service programs focus on positive, supportive relationships among youth, families, schools, and community resources throughout Okanogan County” Duncan said.

OCCAC anticipates that these newly established youth services programs will work to increase outcomes for the youth (ages 13-24) by improving the quick identification of homeless and unaccompanied youth so they can receive needed service and resources, both at home, school, and in the community. Additionally, a collaborative effort with partners such as Okanogan Behavioral Healthcare, Family Health Centers, School Districts, HopeSource of Ellensburg, Room One, local landlords, and many others - aims to strengthen homeless and unaccompanied youths’ ability and willingness to access the services they need when they need them.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Veterans Day November 11, 2019

November 11, 1921 was the first Veterans Day. Armistice Day, as it was then called, was set aside by Congress to honor the veterans of World War I and marked the fourth anniversary of the signing of the Armistice with Germany. In June 1954, President Eisenhower signed a bill to honor all veterans on that day & the holiday was officially renamed Veterans Day.

Because of our veterans, we are united and live our lives in freedom, enjoying the rights guaranteed by our Constitution. Some may think Veterans Day commemorates great victories or honors great war heroes or glorifies war. Veterans Day is more than that...it honors our citizen soldiers, the millions of Americans who served and are still serving their country when asked & the thousands who have died.

Since the Revolutionary War, ordinary young citizens have quietly put their affairs in order, kissed their families goodbye and put on uniforms. That takes courage when you’re only 18-20 years old & filled with hopes & dreams & plans for the future.

These men and women are heroes. Because of their sacrifice and courage, our country is free today. Because of them, we have the rights and privileges we have always held more dear. Freedom is not a cheap commodity. Throughout our nation’s history, veterans have paid a heavy price. That is why we honor them. As we celebrate Veterans Day, keep in mind the enormous debt we owe to the veterans of this nation.

It is the VETERAN, not the preacher, who has given us freedom of religion.

It is the VETERAN, not the poet, who has given us freedom of speech.

It is the VETERAN, not the campus organizer, who has given us the freedom to assemble.

It is the VETERAN, not the politician, who has given us the right to vote.

It is the VETERAN, not the protester, who has given us the right to burn the flag.

It is the VETERAN, who lives by, respects & salutes the flag, who serves under the flag, whose coffin is draped by the flag!

Lake Roosevelt to close their regular season schedule last Friday, Nov. 1.

The Bears, currently third in the CW2B are not done yet as they face the White Swan Cougars, No. 3 in District 5 standings on the road at White Swan at 6 p.m., Friday, Nov. 8. The loser is out of post season play and the winner advances to state.

Brewster had league wins over Manson and Oroville this season.

Undefeated Lady Bears roll through volleyball rivals

BREWSTER – Despite some prolonged volleys and impressive digs of hammered shots by the Lady Bears at the net, the Waterville-Mansfield Shockers could not get a set past the strong defense and attacking offense of the undefeated Lady Bears who took the match, 3-0, last Saturday, Nov. 2.

The 4-4 Shockers were scheduled to face Liberty Bell at Brewster on Tuesday, Nov. 5, followed by 6-2 Lake Roosevelt against Brewster. The top three teams will advance to District play in Wenatchee on Thursday, Nov. 7.

Billygoats lose joust with Knights at Homecoming

By MIKE MALTAIS
STAFF WRITER

PATEROS – The Billygoats varsity football team saw a first quarter 20-8 lead vanish after the visiting Sunnyside Christian Knights converted a trio of onside kicks into touchdowns during last Friday's Homecoming game, Nov. 1.

"I'm proud of my seniors for the four years they have played, and they went out in a good game against the Knights," said head coach Marcus Stennes. "We didn't have a problem moving the ball offensively but did struggle with securing onside kicks."

The Knights charged back from a 20-8 deficit at the close of the first quarter when they recovered three of four onside kicks and scored four consecutive touchdowns to take a 36-20 lead into halftime. An onside kick must travel past the receiving team's restraining line – normally 10 yards – or the ball must be touched by an opposing player prior to that distance, before the kicking team can regain possession. The strategy worked to the Knights' advantage as they rode the momentum of their comeback to an eventual 58-32 win.

Pateros quarterback Ivan Cenicerros connected on 13 of 30 passes for 242 yards and three touchdowns, one each to receivers Kobe Thixton, Lucas Miller and Ramiro Ambriz. Thixton scored on two additional rushing TDs.

During halftime Homecoming ceremonies the junior class came out on top of a week's worth of event competitions to see their royalty representatives, Lucas Miller and Jillian

The Billygoats will lose four seniors, Cenicerros, Thixton, Ambriz and Erich Foster to graduation next June.
