Firefighter Christian Johnson succumbs to injuries Oct. 2

Services set for Oct. 24

SEATTLE – Christian Johnson, 55, of Okanogan, Assistant Chief with Okanogan County Fire District #3, who was severely injured while fighting a wildfire last month, succumbed to his injuries at Harborview Medical Center on Wednesday, Oct. 2, surrounded by his wife, Pam, family and friends.

Johnson suffered second- and-third degree burns over more than half of his body while engaged in the Spring Coulee fire that ignited at 4 p.m., Sunday, Sept. 1, just off B&O Road North between Fletcher Loop Road and Spring Coulee Road. He was airlifted to Harborview Medical Center in Seattle where he was placed in a medically induced coma.

In a statement from the Department of Natural Resources, Commissioner of Public Lands Hilary Franz said: “Everyone at DNR is holding the family of Assistant Chief Christian Johnson in our hearts. Christian, an Army veteran and a member of Okanogan County Fire District 3, is a hero.”

Johnson, an Army sergeant, deployed to Baghdad, Iraq, from November 2003 until May 2005 with the Washington State National Guard. He retired after 22 years of military service and volunteered with the Okanogan Fire Department for 20 years.

In an Oct. 3, media release Maurice Goodall with Okanogan County Emergency Management wrote: “The family is grateful for the loving care Christian received from Harborview Medical Center staff and the unwavering support they received from the Washington State Council of Fire Fighters Burn Foundation.”

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the Washington State Council of Fire Fighters Burn Foundation, Washington Wildland Fire Foundation or the Red Cross.

A celebration of Johnson’s life is scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 24, at a time to be determined in the Agriplex at the Okanogan County fairgrounds.

BREWSTER – The results were announced last Friday, Oct. 4.

When the votes were counted following a nationwide online elimination, Brewster resident and National Finals Rodeo veteran singer Alexandria (Allie) Burgett emerged among the top two finalists who will perform The Star-Spangled Banner during the 2019 National Finals Rodeo competition in Las Vegas from Dec. 5-14.

It is the second time in four years that Burgett, a Brewster High School and Gonzaga University graduate, has been selected by popular vote to perform at the NFR. Her first appearance was in 2016.

Burgett made the top 30 finalists in the first round of online voting from August 30 – Sept. 12. The concluding round of voting from Sept. 26 – Oct. 3, determined the two finalists. Burgett grand prize includes airfare to and from Las Vegas, two nights hotel accommodations and two NFR tickets on the night of her performance.

When contacted by The Quad, Burgett said she will learn this week which dates she will be performing in December.

Brewster project makes 2020 Prioritization List

An Economic Alliance selection

By MIKE MALTAIS

BREWSTER – Improvements to Old Highway 97/Hospital Way emerged as one of eight projects on the list of year 2020 priorities selected by the Economic Alliance to present to the Okanogan County Commissioners as one of the most important to address in the county next year.

City clerk/treasurer Misty Ruiz said the corner where Old 97 meets Hospital on the east side of town requires a better fix than the city can provide to handle the volume of traffic and amount of heavy truck use at that location.

“We’ve been applying chip seal to streets all over town, but chip seal just does not hold up,” said Ruiz of the Old 97/Hospital Way junction. “It needs some kind of application the county can’t do.”

“The Economic Alliance’s Infrastructure Committee met on Sept. 23 and listened to presentations by advocates of each project, scored and ranked projects according to the criteria for evaluation projects,” an agency media release said.

Contract city planner Kurt Danison appeared before the committee on behalf of Brewster to pitch the Old 97/Hospital Way repair.

Bridgeport awarded $275,000 in state grant funds

By MIKE MALTAIS
STAFF WRITER

BRIDGEPORT – The City of Bridgeport is one of 25 rural cities and counties that has been awarded more than $10.5 million in Community Development Block Grants (CDBG) by the Washington State Department of Commerce (WSDOC).

In an Oct. 3 media release, WSDOC announced that Bridgeport will receive $251,188 for fire protection equipment plus $24,000 for a downtown revitalization plan. Mayor Janet Conklin said the fire funds will be applied toward upgrading firefighter gear and support equipment.

“This will allow us to outfit all our firemen with new turnout gear,” said Conklin. “Previously we could only pay for part of that and when we got the money to do the rest, the earlier gear we upgraded was already out of date.”

A portion of the funds will purchase new oxygen tanks along with the compressor to fill them, Conklin said. The money will also facilitate the purchase a commercial washer and dryer for uniforms.

At a recent city council meeting, contract city planner Kurt Danison presented a proposal for Bridgeport to pursue a revitalization strategy for its State Route 173 corridor that runs through the city’s downtown business district. Last June representatives from the Port of Chelan, Port of Douglas County and Douglas County Commissioners encouraged city officials to reach out to their offices for assistance with projects and planning for revitalization and development projects.

Conklin said the $24,000 CDBG funds will be used to hire a consulting group to study a revitalization plan for the city.

The WSDOC selected 27 projects from 41 grant applications requesting more than $20 million and will fund community facilities, fire protection, water and sewer systems, fire protection, affordable housing, and community planning.

“Partnering with local governments to create infrastructure is essential to our mission of strengthening communities,” said WSDOC Director Lisa Brown. “The grants...will result in cleaner water, safer streets, and ultimately, a higher quality of life in towns, cities and counties across Washington State.

Projects in Okanogan County also receiving funds include Nespelem, Okanogan and Omak.

Prior to enactment of The Legion Act, American Legion membership eligibility was restricted to military service during the following periods:

WWI: April 6, 1917 – Nov. 11, 1918

WWII: Dec. 7, 1941 – Dec. 31, 1946

Korean War: June 25, 1950 – Jan. 31, 1955

Vietnam War: Feb. 28, 1961 – May 7, 1975

Lebanon/Grenada: Aug. 24, 1982 – July 31, 1984

Panama: Dec. 20, 19089 – Jan. 31, 1990

Gulf War/War on Terrorism: Aug. 2, 1990 – Present.

The new law redefines the eligibility date from the above seven to two; WWI, April 6, 1917 to Nov. 11, 1918, and WWII, Dec. 7, 1941, until a time determined by Congress when the U.S. is no longer at war. The new law also honors thousands of veterans killed or wounded while serving during periods not previously designated as a time of war.

“Recognizing the service of these wartime veterans is the right thing to do and it is long overdue,” said National Commander Brett Reistad on the American Legion website, legion.org. “The families of those who were killed or wounded during these wartime acts should take pride in knowing that we recognize their sacrifice and service.”

Veterans in the Quad City area can sign up immediately online at legion.org/join or contact Area Three Commander Denny Pittman at 503-670-3904 for details regarding membership in Columbia Post 97 in Brewster, the only American Legion post in south Okanogan County.

While existing Legion membership applications are being updated, applicants can enter “Legion Act” into the eligible date section of the current document.

“We have 140 members,” said Pittman of the current Columbia Post 97 enrollment.

“There are about 75 SAL (Sons of the American Legion) and about 50 in the Legion Auxiliary.”

Pittman said the posts in the small outlying areas have seen declining memberships over the past years. The Bridgeport American Post 218 closed its doors last year after 68 years in operation citing lack of new members. The post was formed in June 1950 and closed one year before the American Legion celebrated its 100th anniversary.

“There are 600,000 veterans in Washington State,” Pittman said of the potential pool of new Legion members.

The American Legion was founded in 1919. Today there are more than 13,000 posts with two million members worldwide.

The American Legion Auxiliary was also formed in 1919 and the Sons of the American Legion in 1932. The Legion Act changes the eligibility criteria for descendants of military veterans and extends membership privileges to that group as well.

250 Montana Grizzly Bears: Yum-yum sayeth state poor

Washington state has been asked a favor by a fellow Western state --- Montana. Montana has a surplus of 250 Grizzly Bears. Each of them bad boys averages 1,200 pounds MOL.

They are killing machines between the huge teeth and the huge claws and the unbelievable speed for such a massive animal. Fight or flight for a Grizzly usually means if you’re are too close then ... oops, you lose.

My neighbor thinks each Grizzly ought to be given to whatever Seattle neighborhood wants to adopt one. She calls them “sidewalk bears” and that neighborhood will be responsible for the care and feeding, waste management and any liability issues for their adopted bear.

Remember, some folks think it takes a village ... so we shall see.

Give the tree hugging left what they want. A warm, furry, cuddly ferocious animal that they will attempt to domesticate because they are idiots. After a handful of human deaths and poodle deaths and horse deaths and cow deaths ... well, maybe someone will decide to transfer said bears to Alaskan or Canadian socialists, because that’s what Canada is anyway - Socialist. Alaska is probably a close second.

The aforementioned political entities, being socialist Meccas, gives me certainty these bears will receive free medical care, a stipend for life in the form of raw honey, free grub and maybe even a rent free cave. Perhaps those governments will even engage in match-making with Canadian or Alaskan bears.

Back to the butchering: Subtract the items of the carcass nobody wants, which isn’t much, and let’s say we are left with 1,000 pounds of things edible. Bear meat for the poor is ours for the asking. I believe our Olympia socialists can figure out a way to provide the poor with barbecue sets and the homeless can just cook the bear out on the sidewalk and sell it to wealthy liberals in all the big cities of the state.

Those with the cash can enjoy the fruits of their animal largesse. I am sure with my special solution to feeding the poor and adopting Montana Grizzlies, at least for a bit, will be beneficial to Washingtonians and that the poorest and richest among us will benefit.

As usual, to heck with the middle class and to heck with vegetarians and to heck with those unwilling to sample God’s menu that was put on Earth for all of us to enjoy.

That’s one reason I love watching Alaska the Last Frontier and Mountain Men, “Survival 101.”

When I visited the Philippines 39 years ago, “meat on a stick” was a common vending item on the streets of Olongapo and Angeles City.

I can’t wait until America starts having the same treats available to its citizens.

I also realized the streets of that far away place had no dogs or cats roaming the city and one time I saw a huge rat scurry under the swinging kitchen doors of a restaurant making me glad I ordered fish.

I looked at my brother Marine and said to him, “I know what fish looks like and tastes like, but good luck on your hamburger.”

All Americans should learn to eat rats, bugs and other such savory things anyway because once Trump is kicked out of office, a great depression will take place and food is food after all.

Those too proud to eat snake or weeds will have a rough go.

Bears dine on Trojans at Homecoming

Homecoming royalty Antonio Pamatz and Daniela Rosales won it all for the Brewster High School junior class.

Jorge Ramirez and Kelsey Ochoa represented the BHS senior class.

BREWSTER – For the first half of the opening quarter it looked like the visiting Manson Trojans might upset the football Homecoming celebration at host Brewster High School last Friday, Oct. 4, as Manson put two touchdowns on the scoreboard with just under six minutes left in the quarter. The Bears rallied, however and with a minute remaining in the first tied the game 14-all.

The Bears took a 20-14 lead with eight minutes remaining in the second quarter and never looked back as Brewster allowed Manson one more TD as it took control of the second half to a 35-21 victory. Junior defensive back Cade Gebbers stopped two Manson drives late in the second quarter with two interceptions of Trojan attempted passes.

Junior linebacker Arnie Arevalo led the team with 20 tackles.

“That was by far his best game this season from his LB spot,” said head coach Jake Johanson. “Anthony Talavera had a big sack/fumble.”

“We played well and were moving the ball really well early on but had three first half fumbles that could have put the game out of reach early on,” said Johanson. “Defensively we played much better but still can improve on our tackling.”

Johanson said he was excited to get the big win for Homecoming.

During halftime festivities, juniors Antonio Pamatz and Daniela Rosales were crowned Homecoming king and queen. Their royalty court included seniors Jorge Ramirez and Kelsey Ochoa, sophomores Jose Nila and Giselle Camacho, and freshmen Christopher Perez and Victoria Hull.

The Manson win “puts us right back in the mix for being a top team in league,” said Johanson. “We turn around and are up at Oroville Friday with a chance to get to 2-1 in league

Lady Bears stand third in CW2B soccer league

BY MIKE MALTAIS
STAFF WRITER

BREWSTER – The Lady Bears have some ground to make up if they hope to catch the undefeated Tonasket Lady Tigers who are 5-0 at the top of the Central Washington 2B league ladder. Brewster, third at 3-1 is a game behind second-place Liberty Bell.

After losing to Tonasket 6-1 on Sept. 28, the Lady Bears have notched a 7-1 win over Manson, Oct. 1, and a 1-1 tie with non-league Chelan on Oct. 3. Brewster was scheduled to host Tonasket on Tuesday, Oct. 8, before travelling to Oroville on Thursday, Oct. 10, and Liberty Bell, Saturday, Oct. 12.

Bridgeport in the middle of the CW2B pack at 1-3 was scheduled to host fourth-place Lake Roosevelt on Tuesday, Oct. 8, before three road games at Liberty Bell, Lake Roosevelt and Okanogan.

The second-year Pateros Nannies, on the road for all their soccer games this season, are still looking for their first win as they tackle the Brewster, Cascade and Bridgeport JV's in their next three outings.

Mustangs, Billygoats, Shockers lose on the road

BY MIKE MALTAIS
STAFF WRITER

QUAD CITIES – The road has not been kind to three Quad Cities teams for the past week and then some.

The Waterville-Mansfield Shockers varsity football team was shut out on the road at Wilbur Creston, 44-0 on Sept.

20, and it did not get much better at Soap Lake the following week when the Shockers could only manage one touchdown in a 47-6 loss to the Eagles.

The Shockers host Almira-Coulee-Hartline at 7 p.m. Friday, Oct. 11.

Bridgeport is 0-4 in the Central Washington 1B league after sustaining a 58-12 loss at Wilbur-Creston last Friday, Oct. 4.

“Miguelangel Orozco returned a fumble for 90 yards for a TD, while Julio Sanchez caught a 56-yard TD pass from Miguel Mendoza,” reported Mustangs head coach John McDougal of the two scores by his team.

Bridgeport will be at Pateros at 6 p.m., Friday, Oct. 11, looking for its first league win.

Pateros was in the hunt at Liberty Bell but faded later in the game to take a 40-20 loss from the Mountain Lions.

“We lost a tough one against Liberty Bell,” said head coach Marcus Stennes. “We were in it until the fourth quarter but ran out of gas and dealt with some injuries which allowed them to score 16 points.”

“It was a good game for us, we were balanced on both sides of the ball,” said Stennes. “We did a good job defensively of taking away the run and forcing them to throw but again just couldn't close it out.”

BCA Caring Role

GREENSHOOT MEDIA - Coping with illness can be a difficult undertaking, especially with something as serious as breast cancer. When someone close to you is suddenly diagnosed with breast cancer, you may be left wondering how to help.

Whether you're giving emotional support, assisting with doctor appointments or doing everyday chores that your loved one is unable to complete, you are a caregiver. Accepting the new role of caregiver may be tough. You may experience a total lifestyle change and try to put your loved one before your own needs. Ignoring your own needs can cause you to become less effective as a caregiver.

A CAREGIVER'S ROLE

The role of a caregiver varies by situation. The National Cancer Institute defines a caregiver as "the person who most often helps the person with cancer and is not paid to do so." Caregivers typically serve as aides or companions and assist with cooking, transportation and everyday chores. A good caregiver is crucial to the emotional and physical support system for a cancer patient.

CARING FOR YOURSELF

It may seem that your wants and needs are second-tier to those of your affected love done. The experts at The National Cancer Institute point out that fulfilling your own needs will make you a more effective caretaker.

It may be hard to talk to your loved one about how you're feeling when you know that they are dealing with so much already. But having an outlet to express yourself and your feelings can help you maximize your ability as a caregiver. Support groups can offer a great amount of therapy as you can discuss your feelings with people in similar situations. Talking with others can be a way of forcing yourself to relax. This can be difficult with the amount of stress and feelings you may be experiencing, but even a weekly group setting can help you put things in perspective.

THE WASHINGTON OUTDOORS REPORT

It's the perfect time of year for a hike

By JOHN KRUSE, THE WASHINGTON OUTDOORS REPORT

There's something about September if you like to hike the mountains and forests of our state. Perhaps it's the crisp feel of the air in the morning in the lowlands and in the mountains throughout the day. Maybe it's the softer light that shows off the pastel of changing colors of the foliage to yellow and scarlet. Or maybe it's just the fact that hordes of summer hikers are by and large off the trails after Labor Day.

Whatever the reason, it's a good month to go hiking. One great destination this time of year is found at Stuart Lake in the Alpine Lakes Wilderness. The trailhead to Stuart and Colchuck Lake southeast of Leavenworth is a popular one, so much so the U.S. Forest Service had to institute a no-parking policy along the side of the gravel road leading to the parking lot. Having said that, if you can visit mid-week, you'll still find quite a few cars at the trailhead but surprisingly few hikers heading towards Stuart Lake as their destination. The reason? Most hikers are heading up the trail 2 ¼ miles to Mountaineer Creek and taking a left on a trail that takes them to Colchuck Lake. This lake is a beautiful destination in its own right and also the gateway, via Aasgard Pass on the far side of the lake, to the Upper Enchantments that draw thousands of hardy visitors every year.

Of the hikers that stay straight on the trail to Stuart Lake you'll find many of them are climbers, not interested in spending time at the lake but instead, interesting in testing themselves on the granite rock face of nearby Mount Stuart. That's why, even with a parking lot full of cars, you may find yourself alone or with very little company along the shoreline of Stuart Lake.

Take the time and linger over the picnic lunch you hopefully brought along to enjoy after the 4 ½ mile hike in with a 1,665-foot elevation gain from the trailhead. The views of the lake and towering mountains are amazing and at this time of year you'll see the changing colors of the larch trees turning from green to bright yellow to gold.

The fishing for cutthroat trout can be good too. Try casting a 1/8-ounce Roostertail, Mepps or Promise Keeper spinner or if fly fishing, an attractor fly like a Royal Wulff to draw strikes. The trout population is healthy but not endless so if you want to keep a couple for a shore lunch over a gas stove that's fine but otherwise consider catching and releasing these fish that measure anywhere from 7 to 13 inches in size.

A Forest Service Recreation Pass is required in your vehicle for the Stuart Lake trailhead. You'll also need an overnight permit (available but in high demand) from the Leavenworth Ranger District Office or through an online lottery since Stuart Lake lies within the Enchantment Zone of the Alpine Lakes Wilderness. On the other hand, you only need to fill out a free permit at the trailhead and deposit the stub into the box there for a day hike.

More September hikes

Looking for other fall hiking opportunities? We reached out to Anna Roth with the Washington Trails Association to learn about some of her favorites which include:

NE Washington - Whisler Canyon Trail
This little-known destination is located near Oroville. You'll burn some calories as you gain up to 3,000 feet of elevation along this 12-mile long trail which is part of the Pacific Northwest Trail. Its open to hikers and horses and offers stunning views of the Okanogan Valley and Osoyoos Lake along with a chance to see a variety of wildlife species from wild turkey to mule deer to mountain goats.

Olympic Peninsula Quinault National Recreation Trails

Located near Lake Quinault, enjoy a 4.25-mile round trip hike that takes you along an interpretive nature loop amongst giant Sitka spruce and western hemlock. Other parts of the trail follow the shore of Lake Quinault and alongside Falls Creek. This is a family friendly hike with only 350 feet of elevation gain.

Hunting Seasons underway - colors to wear

If you go hiking this September remember there are several hunting seasons underway in our National Forests so hot pink and blaze orange are not only fashionable, but smart choices for hikers to wear.
