Bridgeport couple perishes in house fire

COMPILED FROM REPORTS BY DOUGLAS COUNTY SHERIFF KEVIN MORRIS

BRIDGEPORT - A Bridgeport couple perished in a house fire on Old Highland Orchard Road on the south side of Bridgeport, Sunday, Sept. 16.

Douglas County Sheriff Kevin Morris reported that investigators located two bodies inside a burned residence at 760 Old Highland Orchard Road and while positive identification is awaiting the coroner's autopsy, the bodies are believed to be those of Paul S. Desjardins, 53, and his wife, Sandra L. Desjardins, 57. Two other occupants of the residence were able to escape the flames.

Speaking before the Bridgeport City Council on Wednesday, Sept. 19, Morris said the fire burned unusually hot which made both access to the scene and victim identification difficult.

"It was an extremely hot fire and it burned stuff you wouldn't believe would burn," said Morris. "We had the Fire Marshall, ATF there for the fire side of the investigation and it was difficult for them to determine certain things."

"An investigation into the cause of the cause and circumstances of the fire is still ongoing," Morris wrote in his official report.

Subsidized apartments ending Market value rentals catch up with Pateros affordable housing

BY MIKE MALTAIS STAFF WRITER

PATEROS - The competition to find affordable housing, or any housing for that matter, in the City of Pateros just ramped up a notch as the 16 residential units in the rent-subsidized Pateros Garden Apartments revert to market value Oct. 1.

Terms of an FHA loan secured by the building's purchasers years back stipulated that the living units in the complex would be rent subsidized for the duration of the loan. The loan now paid, the units can now be let at market value, though the owner said existing lease agreements will be honored until they expire.

Gene Dowers, director of the Pateros-Brewster Community Resource Center said that while the tenants had "very fair warning" that the rent structure would change, that does not make the search for other affordable housing in the area any easier.

Brewster Boys and Girls Club seeks new Director

BY MIKE MALTAIS STAFF WRITER

BRIDGEPORT - The Brewster Boys and Girls Club (BBGC) is seeking a new director following the departure of Brian Paine last week. BBGC staffer Heather Carrington is acting as interim director while the search begins for a new replacement.

The Brewster club opened in March 2015, and Paine took the director's reins in June 2015, after serving as CEO and Executive Director of Everybody Can Win (ECW) for five-and-a-half years. ECW addressed the epidemic of childhood obesity issues through a whole child model program.

At BBGC Paine worked to expand programs for youngsters in the Brewster-Bridgeport-Pateros area and was a regular speaker at Chamber of Commerce and other community meetings to promote the message and vision of the boys and girls clubs.

Carrington, who is among those applying for the permanent director's position, said the club is currently busy planning upcoming events including the Fall Harvest Carnival in October, and Christmas Shop in December.

Brewster City Council hears update on Airport Master Plan

BY MIKE MALTAIS, STAFF WRITER

BRIDGEPORT - Members of the Brewster City Council heard the latest developments on the Airport Master Plan for Anderson Field at their regular monthly meeting on Sept. 12.

Consultant Steve Marshall of J-U-B Engineers, Inc. in Spokane brought Working Paper No.1 of the project that he said is about 35 percent on the road - or runway - to completion.

Marshall's reported touched on all the key players in the Plan's development:

- The Airport Committee serves at the Technical Advisory Committee (TAC) that makes plan recommendations to the City Council.
J-U-B in guiding the process refers exhibits, drawings, presentations, and recommendations to the TAC.
The Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) approves plan forecasts, comments during the process, and reviews plan updates.

Arnold Cleveland to appear at Fort Okanogan Center

BY MIKE MALTAIS, STAFF WRITER

BRIDGEPORT - Colville Confederated Tribal member Arnold Cleveland will be the featured speaker at the Fort Okanogan Interpretive Center at 1 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 29. The Interpretive Center is located at 14379 Highway 17 in Brewster near the junction of State Route 17 with U.S. 97.

Arnold will share stories of his youth growing up as a native on and off the Colville Reservation that included time at St. Mary's Mission and traveling with his family on the "fruit tramp circuit" as Cleveland describes it.

Cleveland's mother worked in the fruit packing sheds when he was a baby tucked in a

not required to pay more than 30 percent of their income for rent. A qualified renter receives a Section 8 voucher to cover the difference.

The Housing Authority of Okanogan County (HAOC), whose stated mission is to assist residents of Okanogan County to acquire and retain affordable housing opened a voucher program Sept. 10 that runs through Oct. 10 for Gardens residents to apply for voucher renewals, Dowers said.

"The risk is they go into a pool of people on the waiting list for vouchers," Dowers said.

The owners have indicated that they will put the property on the market, and Dowers said his office has been advocating for HAOC to secure funding to purchase the building. The agency has met with the USDA Rural Development to explore funding options.

Recent figures for the city of Pateros claim that 28 percent of homes in Pateros are vacant. Under that definition homes that are occupied less than two months a year are labeled vacant.

"You can't get a rental in Pateros," said Dowers. "The owners of those second homes are out-of-towners so they skew the numbers quite a bit. Our vacancy rate is artificially high."

Dowers said his office is downsizing housing in Pateros and 100 percent of the renters there said they would not be able to pay market value.

While HAOC continues to explore possible purchase funding, Dowers said the estimated $500,000 valuation of the Gardens property doesn't guarantee that competitive bidding won't drive the value higher. Located just across the street from Pateros Memorial Park on the corner of Lakeshore Drive and Dawson Street, the site is a prime waterfront property location.

ing council members that NCRL has 30 locations in five counties, Douglas, Okanogan, Chelan, Ferry and Grant.

NCRL was created in 1960 and serves more than a quarter million users in its 14,000-plus square mile service area with a selection of more than 700,000 books and materials. Covering one-fifth of Washington's geographical area, NCRL is the state's largest library.

Walters acknowledged the great job being done by Bridgeport's librarian, Michelle Orocco, and said one of her goals is to try to hire more staff to help associates like Orocco, the only paid employee at the Bridgeport branch.

Walters spoke about the NCRL's STEM program, summer reading, bilingual, audio and eBooks, school outreach, and other services.

The council continued to wrestle with a resolution to property on Atomic Way where owner Scott Wright wants to combine two lots he owns to make the site usable, buildable, and more of an asset to the city.

An Atomic Way Study Committee comprised of council members Anthony Perkins and Phil Lee has been examining options to satisfy the interests of private property owners, the city, and the PUD.

Council member Matt Schuh reminded everyone that the property in question is zoned tourist/commercial rather than residential.

Public Works Superintendent Stuart Dezelle clarified that Atomic Way is a designated road.

"It's a platted right-of-way, so it is a road," said Dezelle. "It's not developed for vehicular traffic, but it is a road."

Dezelle advised against regulating one or two blocks of property without taking similar actions on other similar parcels in the city.

"If you are going to narrow setbacks it needs to be done throughout the entire zone," Dezelle said.

Wright said if he can acquire Atomic Way he will pursue the purchase of the adjacent parcels to make it one large piece of property.

"The way it is it can't be built on because of the setbacks from the street," said Wright adding that combining the parcels "would make one of the nicest pieces in the town of Bridgeport."

Committee member Phil Lee said the city has three options as he sees the dilemma.

"We can either vacate that whole thing or vacate part of that street and retain 10 or 15 feet of it for access to the river," said Lee. "The third alternative is to go on like we are."

"A right-of-way is a legal abstract that lays on top of the dirt," said Dezelle. "the vacation removes that legal ownership to the city and the dirt is adjoined and becomes fee land."

Following a prolonged discussion about easements, rights-of-way, property setbacks, appraisals, and liability issues the council decided to confer with city planner Kurt Danison and advise Wright of further developments.

In other business, council members set budget workshop dates for 6 p.m. on Oct. 2 and Oct. 22, and a public hearing for testimony on the 2019 preliminary budget at 7 p.m., Oct. 17.

Conklin asked council members to consider entering into an interlocal agreement with the Town of Mansfield for animal control services on an on-call basis. Conklin agreed that the extra travel and administrative costs to Bridgeport would be calculated and included in the proposal.

Dezelle shared results of a three-day radar speed control survey made on the 700 block of Columbia as one example of traffic flow and speeds in the city.

The results showed that 85 percent of the traffic traveling Columbia in a 12-hour period from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. drove at 30 miles per hour, five mph over the posted speed limit.

"In three days, we had 3,831 traffic counts, that's 1,300 a day," said Dezelle. "What this tells us is that we may need to raise the speed limit from 25 to 30 miles per hour on Columbia."

the plan process and reviews the plan update.

The Brewster City Council gives the final approval. Marshall's review revealed that 32 based aircraft, including 12 helicopters, use Anderson Field and that Life flight and wildland fire aircraft are important users.

Marshall's projections estimate that based helicopters will increase from the present 12 to nearly double that, 21, in 20 years.

Among the topics the plan will address for the next update will be Global Positioning System (GPS) approaches, more airport apron space for helos, long-term runway length, land use and zoning, and FAA design standards.

The Airport Master Plan was undertaken "to provide the city with a development program to meet aviation needs in the short, intermediate and long-range planning periods," the Working Paper said. The plan will also help city administrators use the data to guide local decisions regarding airport infrastructure investment.

Berm breaches will connect Cassimer sloughs to Okanogan River

By MIKE MALTAIS
STAFF WRITER

BREWSTER – A Douglas County Public Utility District (PUD) contractor is at work just south of the Highway 97 Bridge at the confluence of the Okanogan and Columbia rivers creating two breaches in the berm at Cassimer Bar.

The contractor, EcoGrind Site Solutions, LLC from Chewelah, is removing two 40-foot sections of the dike along the south bank of the Okanogan River at the Cassimer Bar Wildlife Management Area. The area is a shoreline-riparian-wetlands unit on the Colville Reservation managed by the PUD in cooperation with the Colville Confederated Tribes on the Colville Indian Reservation.

According to the formal bid request document tendered by the PUD the berm work “consists removing two 40-foot long dike sections to allow two sloughs to connect with the Okanogan River by way of the new water passages. The dike openings will be spanned by two pedestrian bridges.

The contract work also includes grading the dike at both openings and placement of cobble material on the slopes, repair of the dike roadway, and construction of concrete bridge abutments to accommodate the bridges.

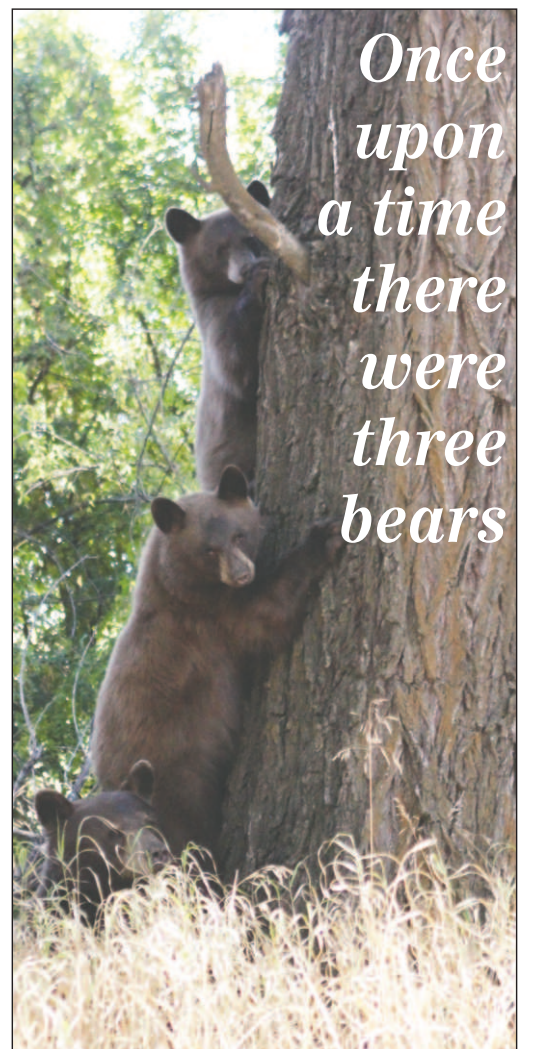

Ecogrind was the lowest of three bidders for the contract with a bid of $209,000.

WHAT IS THE VOLUNTARY STEWARDSHIP PROGRAM?

Washington State Farm Bureau understood that the Critical Areas Ordinance associated with the Growth Management Act was a regulatory threat to agriculture's viability. Realizing that farmers and ranchers desire to maintain their property to both maximize production of quality food products while contributing to the environment, WSFB worked with the state legislature to come up with a program where the agriculture community could be recognized for its contribution to the environment and access programs that would protect or enhance the environment while benefiting agriculture production.

The outcome of this effort is the Voluntary Stewardship Program (VSP) which provides an alternative to traditional top-down regulations for the protection of critical areas on agricultural lands. It is enabled under the Washington State Growth Management Act (RCW 36.70A). The VSP uses a collaborative, stakeholder-driven process to identify, coordinate, and build on existing programs and practices that address agricultural effects on critical areas. These practices are to be implemented by individual farmers through voluntary, site-specific stewardship plans. Maintaining agricultural viability while protecting critical areas is a key component of the VSP program and this Work Plan.

Okanogan County commissioners chose to participate in the VSP program in 2012 under resolution 10-2012. The commissioners in 2016 initiated the VSP work group to produce a plan that implements the provision of this RCW. The work group is made up of key stakeholder representatives. The work group will be submitting its completed plan by June 7th to Washington State Conservation Commission. The goals of the VSP are:

- Protect and enhance critical areas where agricultural activities are conducted, while maintaining and improving the long-term viability of agriculture and reducing the conversion of farmland to other uses;
- Focus and maximize voluntary incentive programs to encourage good riparian and ecosystem stewardship as an alternative to historic approaches used to protect critical areas;
- Leverage existing resources by relying upon existing work and plans in counties and local watersheds, as well as existing state and federal programs to the maximum extent practicable to achieve program goals;
- Encourage and foster a spirit of cooperation and partnership among county, tribal, environmental, and agricultural interests to better ensure the program success;
- Improve compliance with other laws designed to protect water quality and fish habitat; and
- Rely upon voluntary stewardship practices as the primary method of protecting critical areas and not require the cessation of agricultural activities.

The Farm Bureau along with the VSP work group stresses that participation is voluntary, and the program is focused on a county wide scale. Essentially the VSP intent is to maintain the 2011 environmental baseline assessment for the county with no net loss to critical areas which intersect with agriculture. The Work Group was also animate that the protection and enhancement measures should be based upon best agriculture management practices. The protection and enhancement strategies chosen are based upon NRCS stewardship practices. These are easily accessed with technical assistance and funding to facilitate implementation.

It is essential that individual ranchers and farmers participate. Two levels of knowledge and participation are sought for the program: 1) identification of practices you already are doing that are not known by our lead entity which is the Okanogan Conservation Commission and 2) choosing to participate in a stewardship practice. This information is used to go into our monitoring data that supports our objective of no net loss of critical areas. The effectiveness of the VSP work plan is monitored on a 2, 5, and 10-year basis on a watershed scale, rather than a parcel scale. This is done to protect landowner privacy and is not to be used by any person or agency for regulatory purposes.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

has my vote

I have served Okanogan County as a Deputy Prosecuting Attorney for over 14 years. During this time, I have worked with all of our local law enforcement agencies in countless cases, ranging from traffic infractions to Class A felonies. I have never publicly endorsed a candidate for any local office for obvious reasons. I decided to write this letter because this race has become more about misinformation and politics, than about who the best person is to become our Sheriff.

Tony Hawley has my vote and endorsement for Sheriff without any hesitation.

This decision is based on my vast experience in working with him. I have personally observed Tony's work in all aspects of his job first-hand. These observations include: serious crime scene processing, completion of complex investigations, testifying in motion hearings and trials, and supervising other sheriff deputies as a current Ser-Paid Political Advertisement geant. Tony is dedicated to his job and he always makes himself available to myself and my office, even when needed after hours on his own time.

I have a deep respect for Tony personally as well. As a member of this community, I would want Tony in charge if I were to be a victim of a crime. My observations of Tony are that he is always professional, courteous, and fair in his dealings with all, while maintaining the authority necessary in each situation. We have a crucial decision to make in November. Tony is the best choice to lead our county as our next Sheriff.

OBITUARIES

Beverly Lou
Waggoner

Beverly Lou Waggoner died peacefully at 83 in Olympia Wa.

Bev was raised in Mallot

Wa, married Dick Waggoner in 1953, raising three children in the Brewster area. Bev retired from the Brewster School District as a Bus Driver. Bev was known for her loving, outgoing and adventurous spirit. This feisty little lady will be missed by her community, friends and family.

Bev was one of Jehovah's Witnesses. After retirement she volunteered 70 hours a month to talk to others about God's Kingdom and his purpose for the earth. Her greatest joy was found in helping others learn Bible truths.

Bev found great joy in her seven Grandchildren, 13 Great Grandchildren, and one Great Grandchild.

Bev was preceded in death by her mother, Elinor Boub,

Father, Norman Ostenberg, Husband, Dick Waggoner, Sister, Judy Ostenberg, and Grandson, Brittan Schmidt. Survived by her three children, Rick Waggoner, Cindy Lou Schmidt, Tammy Lunda, stepdaughter, Terry Waggoner Wrench, and sister, Jackie Boub Walker.

Bev's memorial is Saturday October 20th at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses on the Bridgeport Bar. Until Jehovah God calls her name, she'll rest in his memory.

Iranian chickens are home to roost

The Iranian Ayatollahs are spinning on their prayer mats with fear and confusion because they never figured the millions of terrorists they have funded all over the world would ever come home to roost.

Well, they have.

A military parade in late September was the target and more than two dozen were killed. I remember when another military parade took the life of Anwar Sadat in Egypt. It was 1983.

I remember it vividly because I was attending the Defense Information School (DINFOS) when it was in Indianapolis. I was a Marine sergeant and my specialty was photojournalism.

An officer in the Egyptian armed forces was also attending class at DINFOS. I know that because I saw one running full speed down the hallway when he heard about the incident. He was headed to the airport to get back to Cairo. His world was suddenly upside down.

Here we are 35 years later and another Middle Eastern country may be close to collapse. If only a little American know-how nudge could be employed to make that happen?

I laugh at those who think Trump is an idiot or doesn't understand world affairs. Here's what's going to happen within

APPLES
APPLES
Gary Bégin

the next two years. America will actually support anti-Mullah forces in several countries (including it's own ally and NATO member Turkey).

This is what former President Barack Obama could've done years ago, but he didn't. I believe Trump will. What I really mean is that I believe Mike Pompeo will do it regardless of whether Trump or Pence is president.

Pompeo will surreptitiously aid the forces of democracy against the tyrannical Mullahs.

These so-called "men of God" have been funneling millions if not billions of dollars and personnel into places like Yemen, Syria, Lebanon, Palestine, Iraq, Egypt, Turkey, Afghanistan and even more.

The Mullahs agitate their base with hate speeches. America is the "Great Satan" and Israel must be wiped off the map. These are not people-friendly concepts.

Here's what my crystal ball sees: Another Iranian Revolution to shift the balance of power back to the civilian middle and upper classes. These are non-clergy, Westernized people sick and tired of carrying water for the elitist religious factions.

There was an old rock song by the British band 'The Clash' back in the '80s. It had lyrics like these: "The Shereef don't like it! Rockin' the Casbah, Rock the Casbah!" It involved jet fighters and religion - so what's not to love?

Iran's wish to portray us as Satan will materialize when its leaders end up in the fire of the masses wanting true freedom. Our intel, weapons, tacit approval and covert ops will help Turkey as well to depose its Tyrant. Another one of these gangsters that hide behind "men of the cloth."

The reason it will happen within the next two years is because 2020 is the next presidential election and America will take its gloves off when dealing with these international religious fascists.

That means the American people will vote to keep the GOP in power as is customary for the electorate to do during times of war. Yes, we will indeed be at war again before the next presidential election.

Part of the reason for that is simple. The Middle Eastern religious zealots will take revenge on us by utilizing a rash of terrorist attacks, which will only harden our souls and confirm our reason for regime change in the first place.

Israel, the only democracy in the region, will continue its overt and covert efforts at maintaining a firewall against radicals Islamic terrorists. When 9-1-1 first happened 17 years ago I wrote a column advocating for all American muslims to consider joining the CIA or FBI to help stop terrorism both foreign and domestic from the inside as undercover operatives.

I am sure a few of them have joined these vital agencies and I am sure they have helped thwart both foreign and domestic incidents that we will never know about.

The Iranians ought to understand that when Americans are threatened we come together to stop evil in its tracks. We did this against Hitler and we will do it again against religious zealots whose philosophies belong in the Dark Ages.

America itself was started by those fleeing religious persecution and there are enough Westernized Iranians already in country and waiting for real help to overthrow the tyrants that head their country.

What goes around, comes around.

Lady Bears catch Fillies, remain undefeated in CWB

BREWSTER – They had to come from behind to do it, but the Lady Bears varsity soccer girls recovered from a scoreless first-half to catch and pass the visiting Bridgeport Fillies, 2-1, to preserve their undefeated record in the Central Washington B-2B League last Thursday, Sept. 20.

Bridgeport, riding a 2-1 CWB record with wins over

Lake Roosevelt and Manson, was looking for its third league win when the Fillies let their 1-0 lead slip away in the second half.

Brewster head coach Alex Sanchez said a score by Kim Nila at the 50-minute mark in the second half knotted the game and Kelsey Ochoa's goal 10 minutes later put the Lady Bears up for good. The two scores were part of 15 shots on goal from Brewster's offense.

Bridgeport, with losses to Brewster and Liberty Bell is now 2-2 in fourth place in the CWB-2B behind 2-1 Tonasket. The Fillies were scheduled to host the Tigers on Tuesday, Sept. 25, and travel to Oroville on Thursday, Sept. 27.

Brewster will be on the road for its next three games, meeting the Trojans at Manson, Tuesday, Sept. 25, St. Georges, Saturday, Sept. 29, and Tonasket next Tuesday, Oct. 2.

Bears roll to first league win over Tonasket

By MIKE MALTAIS
STAFF WRITER

TONASKET – Two weeks ago following Brewster's 48-8 football win over Mabton, head coach Jake Johanson said he was looking ahead to the Bears' first league game on the road against Tonasket.

"They are always tough, and we are going to have to bring it all week in practice to prepare for a tough league game," Johanson said back then.

Turns out the Bears were more than up for the challenge. Brewster held the Tigers to a single six-point touchdown while they racked up 41 points and a fast start to their league run.

"The whole team came out fired up from the opening kickoff return and we were able to shut the door on them in the second half," said Johanson. "I was really proud of our offensive line and everybody that ran the ball. That was a total team effort to get that big win."

With Homecoming just ahead and 0-2 Liberty Bell coming to town this Friday, the Bears see a good chance at extending their league record to 2-0 "if we can put together a good week of practice," Johanson said.

Alfredo Nila and Jeff Sonneman led the defense with five tackles each and "played really good from their linebacker spots," Johanson said.

The Bears' varsity wasn't the only winner. The JV team beat Tonasket, 32-8. Javier Rosario scored two touchdowns including one for 97 yards.

Pateros Homecoming festivities soothe Odessa-Harrington loss

By MIKE MALTAIS
STAFF WRITER

PATEROS – A week of Homecoming activities culminating with the coronation of this year's king and queen during football halftime provided some balm to soothe the bruises from an 80-6 loss to Odessa-Harrington last Friday, Sept. 21.

The Billygoats' varsity football team saw its two-game winning streak built upon Curlew and Yakama Tribal come to an end as the O-H Tigers took control of the game from the opening seconds and never looked back. O-H scored in the first 15 seconds of play, added another TD less than two minutes in and held a 46-0 lead at halftime.

Junior wide receiver Kobe Thrixton made it into the Tigers' end zone in the third quarter for the Billygoats' only TD of the game. Senior quarterback Jeremy Piechalski completed 9 of 25 passes for 52 yards.

The Homecoming theme this year was "We Got Game"

and came with five dress-up days including:

Monday: Candy Land, Sweet Dreams-Pajama Days

Tuesday: Scrabble-Dress as anything that begins as the same letter as your first name.

Wednesday: Cranium-Nerd Day

Thursday: Guess Who?-Masquerade Day

Friday: Battle Ship-9th/10th wear Gold, 11th/12th wear

Purple

Other Homecoming activities included Blind Musical Chairs, Hidden Spirit Stix, Lip Sync, Obstacle Course, Tug-of-War and Pep Assembly, the latter held before Friday's game.

Fillies volleyball chasing its first win in early season matches

By MIKE MALTAIS
STAFF WRITER

BRIDGEPORT – The Fillies varsity volleyball team is still looking for its first win of the season following a string of five losses, the latest two a 3-1 decision at Soap Lake on Sept. 18, and a 3-1 home loss to Liberty Bell last Thursday, Sept. 20.

The Fillies stayed close through the first game, knotting the score at 21-21 before the Lady Lions edged ahead to take the game 25-23.

Bridgeport has dropped its last four games against Watterville-Mansfield, Tonasket, Soap Lake, and Liberty Bell by 1-3 margins.

Bridgeport was scheduled to host Omak last Tuesday, Sept. 25, followed by Lake Roosevelt at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 27.

Red Cross: Blood, platelet donations needed in wake of Hurricane Florence

Thousands of lifesaving blood donations have gone uncollected due to drive cancellations forced by the hurricane, but patients still need critical medical care

SUBMITTED BY AMERICAN RED CROSS

RICHLAND and YAKIMA, Wash. - As the American Red Cross responds to Hurricane Florence, providing food, shelter and comfort to those affected, individuals outside the affected areas are urged to help by giving blood or platelets to care for patients in the storm's path and across the country. People can also help by making a financial donation to support relief efforts.

Hurricane's impact on blood and platelet donations

Hurricane Florence's wrath left catastrophic damage behind and also took a toll on blood and platelet donations. Nearly 200 Red Cross blood drives in the Southeast were forced to cancel, resulting in more than 5,200 uncollected blood and platelet donations.

"Natural disasters like hurricanes can disrupt blood drives and prevent donors from giving, but hospital patients still depend on lifesaving transfusions," said Cliff Numark, senior vice president, Red Cross Blood Services. "There is an especially critical need for platelets to help cancer patients and type O blood donations for ongoing patient care and emergencies. Every donation can be a lifeline for patients."

How to help

Donors of all blood types are urged to help restore hope to patients across the country by making an appointment today to give blood or platelets. Appointments can be made by using the Blood Donor App, visiting RedCrossBlood.org or calling 1-800-RED CROSS (1-800-733-2767).

Financial donations are also needed and allow the Red Cross to provide disaster relief immediately. Help people affected by Hurricane Florence by visiting RedCross.org, calling 1-800-RED CROSS or texting the word FLORENCE to 90999 to make a $10 donation.

Up-to-date information about how the Red Cross is responding to Hurricane Florence is available at RedCross.org.

Douglas County

East Wenatchee

10/15/2018: 2 p.m. - 7 p.m., Holy Apostles Catholic Church, 1315-8th N.E.

How to donate blood

A blood donor card or driver's license or two other forms of identification are required at check-in. Individuals who are 17 years of age in most states (16 with parental consent where allowed by state law), weigh at least 110 pounds and are in generally good health may be eligible to donate blood. High school students and other donors 18 years of age and younger also have to meet certain height and weight requirements.

Blood and platelet donors can save time at their next donation by using RapidPass® to complete their pre-donation reading and health history questionnaire online, on the day of their donation, before arriving at the blood drive. To get started, follow the instructions at RedCrossBlood.org/RapidPass or use the Blood Donor App.

About the American Red Cross:

The American Red Cross shelters, feeds and provides emotional support to victims of disasters; supplies about 40 percent of the nation's blood; teaches skills that save lives; provides international humanitarian aid; and supports military members and their families. The Red Cross is a not-for-profit organization that depends on volunteers and the generosity of the American public to perform its mission. For more information, please visit RedCross.org or CruzRojaAmericana.org, or visit us on Twitter at @RedCross.
