Pateros Chamber of Commerce announces suspension of operations

By MIKE MALTAIS
STAFF WRITER

PATEROS – The Pateros Chamber of Commerce announced that it is suspending operations indefinitely according to an announcement posted on the Chamber's Facebook site on August 21.

"Our main goal was to get the Pateros sign back up and finished," read the announcement. "We did just that with the help of many people."

The Chamber posting added that a sign dedication ceremony will be held sometime down the road "and we will be sure to let y'all know."

Chamber members began laying plans, securing authorizations, raising funds, and making contacts for a new Pateros sign after the iconic original was destroyed in the Carlton Complex wildfire in July 2014. In the summer of 2016 members voted to move ahead with engineering and contracting cost estimates. By the spring of 2018 all was ready for landscaping and footing work. As soon as the weather allowed the foundation was poured and lettering and design elements were added in May of this year.

While the new sign marks the chamber's legacy project, the group also worked tirelessly to promote community involvement with holiday functions during Halloween and Christmas. The Chamber also promoted monthly Business After Hours gatherings to encourage networking between businesses and residents in the community.

The Chamber will be deactivating its Facebook page this month in the absence of volunteers to maintain it.

"If at any time anyone would like to step up and reactivate this page of the Pateros Chamber of Commerce, please contact Libby Linder Harrison or Joni Parks for more information." Harrison can be reached at libbylou22@gmail.com and Parks at joni@iciclebroadcasting.com.

"As far as events go, we will be making a Pateros community events page to keep you all up to date on any events that will be taking place in the City of Pateros," the announcement said.

This design concept created by Greybeal signs shows what an installation at Bridgeport City Hall might look like, provided the city's application for DCRC funds to purchase and place the sign is successful. Rough sign measurements as shown are 3.5 feet high by 8 feet wide for the reader board with a total height of 11.5 feet from base to top.

Bridgeport Council amends CFP, seeks DCRC grant

By MIKE MALTAIS, STAFF WRITER

BRIDGEPORT – The City Council convened a special public hearing last Friday, August 31, to take comments about amending the city's Capital Facilities Plan and allowing city officials to apply for grant funds from the Douglas County Regional Council (DCRC) by Wednesday, Sept. 5.

No member of the public showed up to comment; the council approved the CFP amendment, and Mayor Janet Conklin will apply for some of the $175,000 the DCRC is making available for community improvement projects.

Douglas PUD awards bid for Conklin RV Park upgrade

This PUD design drawing shows elements that will be incorporated into the development of 17 RV spaces at Conklin Landing

By MIKE MALTAIS, STAFF WRITER

BRIDGEPORT – Following a review and revision of the original bid proposal, the Douglas County PUD awarded the contract to upgrade and expand RV facilities at the Conklin Landing RV Park to Hurst Construction, LLC of Wenatchee.

The contract, scaled back from a more ambitious version that included more amenities than the engineer's estimate covered, will still give the city 17 RV spaces at the landing where none exist now. Of those spaces, the PUD committed to 10 and the city joined in the project to add seven more.

In August 2017, the city council voted to allocate $225,000 of its own funds to cover the costs of the seven RV spaces when it was apparent that piggy-backing on the PUD contract was the most efficient way for the city to build the extra spaces.

Earlier the city was awarded a grant from the Washington State Recreation and Conservation Office (RCO) for $264,000 to cover Bridgeport's portion of the costs, but the state had failed to approve the 2018 capital budget, so the funds were in limbo. The city decided to proceed on its own if necessary.

I don't want us to miss out on this opportunity just because the state couldn't get its act together," said council person Matt Schuh at the time.

Last January, the Legislature approved the $4 billion, freeing up the funds.

Bridgeport officials requested a few amenities to the PUD upgrade but when the bid request went out to contractors, those that came back were well above the PUD's estimated cost. The project parameters were revisited and revised, cutting out unnecessary items to lower the overall cost estimate. Gone was the laundry room, landscaping, and picnic area among other perks. A block retaining wall originally conceived to conceal the garbage dumpster was scaled back to a screening fence.

Delays in the original construction timetable resulted in cost increases so last August, PUD commissioners negotiated an agreement with the City of Bridgeport to increase the city's contribution by $50,000.

The second bid request resulted in the selectin of Hurst for $1,075,000.

The original construction scheduled called for the project to be done by this fall. Now, it is estimated to be completed in May 2019, Mayor Conklin said.

BREWSTER – Former Brewster resident and South Okanogan County historian Ralph Fries served up early pioneer stories along with the refreshments at the annual Pie Socials he has hosted since 2006 at his family homestead or at Brewster High School.

This weekend, Fries will introduce his extensive history of South Okanogan County pioneer life at a new venue when he participates as a featured guest in The Pioneer Project in the Commercial Building at the 71st annual Okanogan County Fair from Thursday, Sept. 6, through Sunday, Sept. 9. Also appearing as part of The Pioneer Project will be the Smoke and Reflections display of 2014 Carlton Complex and 2015 Okanogan Complex wildfire stories, photos, art, and artifacts compiled by the Okanogan County Long Term Recovery Group (OCLTRG).

OCLTRG debuted Smoke and Reflections last July on the fourth anniversary of the Carlton Complex wildfire in the Rising from the Ashes Recovery Reunion and Celebration that invited victims and volunteers to a week-long observance of events.

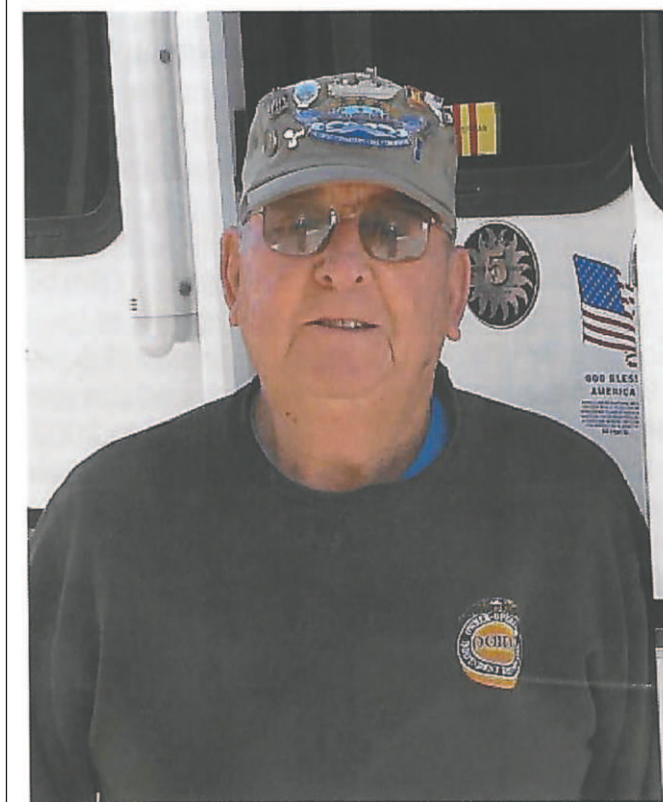

In 2006, Fries began compiling stories and photos about homesteads and pioneers in South Okanogan County within a 15-mile radius of the homestead of his grandfather, Ulrick E. Fries, author of the book "From Copenhagen to Okanogan." That same year, Fries began hosting an annual Pie Social on the family homestead, a tradition that continued through 2014, when the Carlton Complex wildfire destroyed his work in progress to that date.

Fries reconstructed the exhibit from computer archives and for the past two years had held the display and Pie Social at Brewster High School. BHS is not the custodian of Fries' extensive collection of South Okanogan histories that the administration hopes to incorporate into the school's history curriculum.

2017 BREWSTER SCHOOL WALL OF FAME HONOREE

In 2016, Fries was the 12th BHS alumnus since 1915 to be inducted into the school's Wall of Fame.

Fries and BHS will bring some three dozen 4x8-foot poster boards of material mounted on easels made in the school shop to the Fair this week. Stories and photos will document early homestead families, pioneer women, and local Native Americans among other subjects.

Other Pioneer Project participants include the Old Oroville Depot Museum, National Archives, and the Okanogan Language Preservation Program.

New to the Fair this year is Horse Nation, the National Indian Relay Races that will compete at 1 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 8, and 11 a.m. Sunday, Sept. 9, at the north end of the fairgrounds.

goal is to add another avenue of communication with Bridgeport residents to help the community stay informed of city developments. With ordinance revisions like new junk vehicle and nuisance dog mandates, the reader board would offer one more way to let residents know what's going on.

"There's nobody reading papers," said Conklin. Nobody's reading our postings that we put up and that way any coverage we have we can put it on there."

At the regular council meeting on August 15, council member Matthew Schuh wanted to defer any quick decision on the mayor's request in the absence of a city sign ordinance.

"I want to see consistency in our signs across the city," said Schuh. "If we don't have a sign ordinance and we put up one then they're going to start popping around the

Schuh said he was concerned that an LED sign, with the brightness similar to the one installed at the Hope Lutheran Church along U.S. 97 at the west end of Brewster, could compromise the quality of privacy for nearby residents during hours of darkness.

The DCRC opportunity prompted another discussion by the council. The mayor learned about the DCRC monies during the 30-day interim between monthly council meetings and had to respond quickly to meet the early September application deadline. That event gave rise to the suggestion that the council consider bimonthly meetings. After a prolonged discussion, Mayor Conklin recommended that the meeting format remain as it is with special meetings called as needed to address issues requiring quick action.

Phone and Internet Discounts Available to CenturyLink Customers

The Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission designated CenturyLink as an Eligible Telecommunications Carrier within its service area for universal service purposes. CenturyLink's basic local service rates for residential voice lines are $23.50 per month and business services are $35.00 per month. Specific rates will be provided upon request.

CenturyLink participates in a government benefit program (Lifeline) to make residential telephone or broadband service more affordable to eligible low-income individuals and families. Eligible customers are those that meet eligibility standards as defined by the FCC and state commissions. Residents who live on federally recognized Tribal Lands may qualify for additional Tribal benefits if they participate in certain additional federal eligibility programs. The Lifeline discount is available for only one telephone or broadband service per household, which can be on either wireline or wireless service. Broadband speeds must be 15 Mbps download and 2 Mbps upload or faster to qualify.

A household is defined for the purposes of the Lifeline program as any individual or group of individuals who live together at the same address and share income and expenses. Lifeline service is not transferable, and only eligible consumers may enroll in the program. Consumers who willfully make false statements in order to obtain Lifeline telephone or broadband service can be punished by fine or imprisonment and can be barred from the program.

Washington joins Undetectable = Untransmittable HIV prevention campaign

SUBMITTED BY WASHINGTON STATE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH

OLYMPIA - The Washington State Department of Health announced recently that it has joined the HIV prevention campaign Undetectable = Untransmittable, also known as U=U.

U=U describes the scientific findings that people living with HIV, who have undetectable levels of HIV in their blood, have effectively no risk of transmitting HIV to their partners. Because treatment keeps these people from transmitting the virus, the concept is known as "treatment as prevention."

"People living with HIV continue to live with the stigma that they are infectious and possibly harmful to their partners. This new evidence is critical to changing public perception of HIV transmissibility" said John Wiesman, Washington's secretary of health.

As work to End AIDS in Washington continues, it's crucial to promote consistent and correct condom use, routine HIV screening, pre-exposure prophylaxis (PrEP), and post-exposure prophylaxis (PEP) to prevent sexual transmission of HIV.

Washington is the sixth state health department to join the campaign along with 18 other state and local health departments, and more than 700 organizations from 90 countries. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the National Institutes of Health endorse the science behind U=U.

Sen. Hawkins to conduct second 12th District 'listening tour', will be in Bridgeport Sept. 13

I learn by listening

BY SEN. BRAD HAWKINS

One thing that I have learned throughout my public service, both during my school board years and in the Legislature, is the importance of being a good listener. Unfortunately, I think we have all observed politicians who mistakenly think that "talking" is their most important skill. It's actually the "listening" that helps people become good policymakers.

That's why I am excited to share news about my second annual 12th District "listening tour" scheduled for Sept. 11 through Sept. 14, during which my staff and I travel throughout the district to hear directly from you. The listening tour idea was something I started last year to be creative, and people responded very positively.

The listening tour requires plenty of advance planning and coordination and is a busy time, but the feedback I receive and the things I learn help me to serve you better. It also provides my staff and me an opportunity to prepare legislative ideas and budget requests prior to the start of session.

Our tour schedule will take me to all four counties in our district, including a Sept. 13 visit to Bridgeport for meeting appointments at the City Hall from 12 to 1 p.m. Other communities I'm visiting are Leavenworth, Cashmere, Wenatchee, Chelan, Coulee City, Soap Lake, and Waterville, concluding in Twisp. The stops are not town halls, so please plan ahead with us to schedule your appointment.

Last year's tour wrapped up with a community hike up Saddle Rock, which proved to be a fun way to enjoy a great outdoor recreational opportunity and to connect with each other in a special and unique way. We'll conclude the tour this year on Sept. 14 at 10 a.m. with a similar idea involving a community hike up the Patterson Mountain trail near Winthrop.

If you want to experience breathtaking views of the Methow Valley, please join us. The trail is located near Sun Mountain Lodge. Easy access to the trailhead is provided via Patterson Lake Road or Twin Lakes Road. Discover Pass holders are encouraged to park in the trailhead parking lot; others may park on the road shoulder nearby.

Last year's tour provided me an opportunity to meet with many constituents (individuals, employers, local governments, and community groups) and some of those discussions led to successful passage of legislation and budget requests.

If you or your organization would like to meet with me and my staff at any of the community stops, please contact my office by e-mail at brad.hawkins@leg.wa.gov or by phone at 360-786-7622 to make an appointment.

There's no reason you need to drive all the way to Olympia in the middle of winter just to share your thoughts and ideas with me. I've made that drive several times and, unless you want to see and experience the Capitol, keeping things local is the better option.

I pride myself in being accessible to you - the people who elect me - and hearing your thoughts and ideas. Whether here in the district or in Olympia, please feel free to contact me anytime. Thank you for the opportunity to serve you as your 12th District state senator.

OBITUARY & MEMORIAL POLICIES
NCW MEDIA, INC.

An obituary is a way for family member(s) to commemorate a loved one's life and to notify the larger community of the deceased. Obituaries are also used for historical and ancestral data.

Memorials are another way of letting the community know about the life and memories of the person who has died. A Memorial is different from an obituary. An obituary is usually current while a memorial can be written later.

Obituaries and memorials need to be typed and emailed no later than Friday by 4:00 p.m. to be placed in the next available issue(s). Please call for cost of an obituary and which NCW paper(s) that it will be placed in to.

Cost of the obituary/ memorial is due at the time of placement. Funeral homes and chapels can submit obituaries by Noon on Monday, unless a holiday.

Obituaries are priced per word while Memorial ads are per column-inch.

Nanamkin, Taylor score long TDs

Bears drop non-league season opener to Chelan 47-27

By MIKE MALTAIS, STAFF WRITER

CHELAN – Despite three spectacular touchdown plays and a first-quarter lead, the Brewster High School varsity football team came out on the short end of a 47-27 score against the Chelan Goats when turnovers from fumbles and interceptions worked against the Bears. In the face of a large group of return Chelan veterans, Brewster got on the board first with a TD mid-way through the first quarter to lead, 6-0. Chelan responded with its own score and extra point to take a 7-6 lead as the quarter ended. After a tough defensive stand deep in their own territory the Bears got the ball on their own 12-yard line at the start of the second quarter. Following a first down on the 22-yard line, quarterback Quincy Vassar connected with senior Joe Taylor for an 82-yard pass play and the first of Brewster's three long touchdown plays in the game. Chelan capitalized on two

Bears' turnovers and converted them into touchdowns to carry a 20-13 lead into the half. Early in the third quarter Brewster's third fumble on its own 21-yard line ended with a 12-yard score and 26-13 Chelan lead. Senior Ernie Nanamkin sparked Brewster's offense when he took the Chelan kick-off 90 yards for the second big Bears' TD play of the game and bring Brewster within six of the Goats, 26-20. The Goats later answered with a 30-yard pass play to go up 33-20. Chelan scored again on a QB keeper early in the fourth quarter to increase its lead to 40-20. With nine minutes left in the fourth, Nanamkin grabbed the Goats' kickoff and sprinted 90 yards for the final Bears' highlight play of the game. Chelan responded with another QB keeper to ice the game 47-27. Pateros opens road season with 56-12 win over Curlew

CURLEW – The road was good to the Pateros Billygoats last Friday, August 31, as the varsity football team caged the Curlew Cougars on their home field, 56-12. Coach Marcus Stennes was happy with the win but was already looking ahead to a tougher opponent. "We have lot we need to work on this week with Republic coming to town on Friday," Stennes said. Jeremy Piechalski led the Pateros offense, connected on 12 of 14 passes for 202 yards, five touchdowns, and one interception. Senior wide receiver Andrew Gonzalez pulled down six catches for 86 yards and two scores. Junior wide receiver Ivan Cenicerros caught five passes for 112 yards and two touchdowns. Junior Kobe Thrixton led the ground game with 13 carries for 80 yards. "This helped open up the passing lanes," Stennes said. Sophomore defensive back Eric Espino had a heads-up pass interception that he returned 75 yards for a score in the third quarter. Pateros plays at home for the next three games, with Republic at 7 p.m. Friday, Sept. 7, Yakima Tribal on Sept. 14, and Odessa-Harrington, Sept. 21. Pateros: 20-22-14-0 56 Curlew: 0-6-6-0 12

Jim Baum to present concert on Sept. 8 at Methodist Church

Taught music in Bridgeport

SUBMITTED BY
VICKI OLSON CARR

CHELAN - Retired music educator Jim Baum will be in concert at Lake Chelan United Methodist Church at 4 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 8.

Baum is a well known organist, pianist and vocalist in North Central Washington, and enjoyed his many years of teaching music in Waterville, Mattawa, Mabton and Bridgeport.

Baum has been a lay speaker in the United Methodist Church and other local churches since 1982. He is also an expert in the history of church music, particularly the many women who wrote hundreds of hymns for the Protestant faith.

Baum's concert will feature secular as well as music of faith, and he will sing along as he plays many of his pieces. He hopes the concert's good will donations will bring in funds needed for minor repair to the Chelan church's organ.

All are welcome to enjoy Jim Baum's music and talent at the Lake Chelan United Methodist Church in downtown Chelan, near the U.S. Post Office, on Johnson Avenue.

Hawk Migration Festival roosts at Pateros Sept. 14-15

Pateros and Brewster libraries to host presentations

BY MIKE MALTAIS, STAFF WRITER

PATEROS -- The ninth annual Chelan Ridge Hawk Migration Festival is coming to Pateros Memorial Park all day Friday and Saturday, Sept. 14-15.

The family-friendly event organized by the Chelan and Entiat Ranger Districts, North Central Washington Audubon Society, and Hawk-Watch International will combine interpretive booths, live raptors, vendors, and activities for kids at Pateros Park with trips to Chelan Ridge to learn about raptor migrations.

On Friday night, Hawk-Watch International will host a raptor migration and field identification workshop in preparation for the trip to Chelan Ridge, where the organization has been monitoring raptors since 1998. The trip to and from the ridge requires four hours and may include observation of banded raptors being released. Another field trip to Wells Wildlife Refuge is scheduled from 8 a.m. to noon on Saturday.

Information and online registration for the workshop and field trips, contact Richard Scranton at rscrana435@yahoo.com.

Hawk-Watch International senior scientist Dave Oleyar will host presentations at 11 a.m. at the Brewster Public Library at 11 a.m., Thursday, Sept. 13, and at 4 p.m. at the Pateros Public Library, Friday, Sept. 14, and later at the Pateros Firehouse at 7 p.m., Friday.

The program, Raptor Rendezvous, will include a history of Hawk-Watch International's work, on raptor migration with an update on ongoing research, and a discussion of conservation issues relative to birds of prey.

Hawk-Watch's annual bird count began at Chelan Ridge in August and will continue through October.

How service leadership prepares today's students to succeed

(StatePoint) Students are more successful when they practice leadership outside of the classroom. A recent survey conducted by Harris Poll found that 91 percent of respondents agreed with this statement.

This survey was conducted on behalf of Lead2Feed, a free student leadership program attracting more than a million students and over 6,000 educators across all 50 states.

There's already real-world evidence supporting the survey data's sentiment. Participants in Lead2Feed thought critically about their role in their communities, and say they gained the following benefits:

- Engaged teachers. The Lead2Feed Student Leadership Program takes students through the steps to design and implement an effective, relevant service project. Teachers and advisers can enter their student teams into the Lead2Feed Challenge, where they can win grants for their school and charity.

When teachers participate alongside students, the entire classroom is given an opportunity to transform their way of thinking.

"What I realized was that

the leadership principles I was trying to teach my students had actually began to transform me as well," says Mrs. Allison Silverman, a teacher at Port Chester Middle School where students have earned more than $50,000 for charity and more than $15,000 in technology grants for their school over the six years they've been involved in the program. "I gained renewed confidence in my work and in my profession," says Mrs. Silverman.

- Relevant lessons. Classroom learning can often feel theoretical. When students lead their own community service projects, they have an opportunity to directly engage with real-world issues that have received national attention. Students at Miami's Design and Architecture Senior High (DASH, one of the winners of the Lead2Feed Challenge), sought to address the issue of mental health that has consumed the nation's psych through a project called "No More Stalling." They created signs for school bathroom stalls with hotlines for tough issues students may be facing.

"The class of 2021 was transformed into problem solvers and they emerged with a vision," says DASH teacher Mrs. Zudannie Nuñez-Hernandez.

- 21st century skills. Working with fellow students to complete a project develops critical thinking, collaboration and communication skills, fostering the necessary attributes for students to become leaders within their classrooms and greater communities. Before completing the Lead2Feed

Democrats are favoring socialism in 2018 elections

Is this year's crop of Democrat candidates for various local, district-wide and national offices marching under the banner of socialism? Life gives us clues, but one must take the time to see the forest and the trees to get a clear vision of this reality.

Bernie Sanders, with his promises of free education, free medicine and a chicken in every pot is back. He is actively supporting whoever calls themselves a socialist.

APPLES TO APPLES
Gary Bégin

This campaign season is even more "tyranny by the mob" as many Democrats are calling for the abolition of ICE - U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement. These folks are leaping off the cliff like lemmings to the sea, but most Republicans and many independents aren't buying the bill of goods.

Is this the result of too many millennials still mooching* off their poor parents by living in the basement? Is this the result of too many teenagers being handed college tuition, a car and a credit card before they go to college to learn how to ru(i) n our lives?

I thought Bernie was an abomination and just a footnote from the 2016 presidential primaries, but heeee's baaaack!

Even Bernie didn't ask for disbanding ICE. What are these crazies trying to do to our society? Without ICE we have no border patrol and without a secure border we will soon have no country at all.

I am not in favor of wasting money on a wall to stop illegal immigration, but I would never allow just anyone to traipse across the Rio Grande or for that matter, Niagara Falls either.

There is no doubt in my mind that the extreme left has all but hijacked the Democrat Party. Many immigrants come from a life where socialism was the norm and now their American allies are eager to recreate that atmosphere in America.

Ask yourselves a simple question: Why would they want to come here if the socialism back home was all that great? This mob of political revolutionaries wants to destroy capitalism and literally give away the farm.

I wouldn't be surprised if the Russian and Chinese communists were donating to the cause of these so-called American trouble makers. Last year I exposed the fact that the "Anti-Fa" flag (Anti-Fascist) was eerily similar to the Communist Party flag of the 1930s. I can't take credit for that, it came to me from Matt Shea, Republican legislator from Spokane Valley. Shea was on a tour of Eastern Washington to try to convince folks to sign petitions to make Eastern Washington the "51st State."

I went to one of his meetings sponsored by the Douglas County Republican Party. Cary Condotta was there and so was Mike Steele among others.

Not everyone wanted to be in the photo I shot of Shea supporters. This movement, this idea of a new state it may never come to pass, but hear me out. I would rather we join that movement then to succumb to socialists and communists headquartered on the Western side of the hills. For the last many years, American blood and treasure has been lost to communists of varying stripes.

Now these loonies are inviting them to take over the country. I am not screaming that there's a commie behind every bush, but holy cripes, these kids have already forgotten the Cold War, Korean War, Vietnam War and the many skirmishes in between all over the world.

So the Westsiders are happy to give everyone outlandish gifts just for being alive. Free. Free. Free. They could care less who pays for it all.

I can see another bunch of unfunded mandates from Olympia headed to the ballot box. The goal will be to raise our taxes to pay for all this free stuff. A levy for this. A levy for that. The homeowners, farmers, orchardists and anyone who holds significant wealth, income or land will be levied to death.

To even the playing field and maybe change a few minds, I am in favor of at least two years of mandatory federal or state service performed by persons between the ages of 18-26. This would allow sufficient time for college or vocational school and also allow these young citizens to choose what type of service on behalf of the greater good they wish to do.

I would abolish the selective service system if the two-year idea above finds fruition.

At first I thought that those who don't want to donate two years of their lives will lose their voting privileges until they do, but many youngsters could care less about voting so that wouldn't be a punishment at all. Therefore a better penalty is to have a giant "M" tattooed or branded on their foreheads (their choice) signifying "Mooch."

The rest of our society will then see who really doesn't care about democracy. Let them be pariahs, they are already proven to be sponges, sucking the life's blood from the average working man who understands why taxes exist. Let them take their fantasies to Canada or Europe. They understand socialism over there.

Taxes, my friends, are all that separate America from anarchy. Remember that and pay your fair share, but vote your wallet and reject socialistic candidates at every level in November.

We all work too hard to give in to the spend and tax crowd.

Can I have an amen.

*Mooch is slang for parasite. According to the Center for Disease Control, a parasite is an organism that lives on or in a host and gets its food from or at the expense of its host. Parasites can cause disease in humans.

Fire behavior allows recreationists to access portions of Entiat River Valley

SUBMITTED BY USFS

ENTIAT – Recreationists longing to visit their favorite campsite in the Entiat River Valley are able to do so as of August 31. The successful construction of fire containment lines and decreasing fire activity have allowed a partial re-opening of the Entiat River Valley.

While some areas will remain closed for public safety, Fox Creek, Lake Creek, Silver Falls, and Cottonwood campgrounds will reopen Friday. Shady Pass Road #5900, North Fork Entiat Trailhead, and trails within the Glacier Peak Wilderness area on the Entiat Ranger District will also be open and accessible. In addition, the Chiwawa River Road, and campgrounds and trails off that road, will be open for use.

"Public and firefighter safety remain our number one priority, so we encourage people to use caution as fire fighters and fire vehicle traffic will be in the area," Entiat District Ranger James Simino said.

To ensure public safety, road and trail closures remain in effect in the Tommy Creek, Mad River, Upper Mad River, Potato Creek, and Mud Creek areas. Ongoing suppression actions continue to occur in those areas.

Forest visitors are encouraged to view the interactive closure map, located on the Okangan-Wenatchee National Forest website, before traveling to the national forest. This map shows areas of the national forest that are closed to public use, it is available at <https://bit.ly/2vpoLOz>. There are many area closures in effect due to wildfires. Check to make sure the area you want to visit is open.

Please contact the Entiat Ranger District office at (509) 784-1511 for more information.

Applications open September 17 for hundreds of Forest Service summer jobs

SUBMITTED BY USFS

WENATCHEE - Do you want to work in the great outdoors in the summer of 2019? With more than 100 jobs available in positions ranging from archeology to trails to fire, there are plenty of opportunities to care for the land and serve people across the Okanogan-Wenatchee National Forest. This year, all summer job applications must be submitted online at www.usajobs.gov between September 17 and October 12, 2018.

"These are amazing opportunities along the Cascades to serve public lands and communities alike," said Deputy Forest Supervisor, Erick Walker. "If you want to work for the Forest Service in the summer of 2019, now is the time to prepare your resume and other materials for USAJobs."

From the Canadian border to the Goat Rocks Wilderness south of I-90, seasonal Forest Service employees help provide clean water, abundant wildlife habitat, sustainable forest products, wildfire support, incredible recreation, and much more across 4.2 million acres.

Applications will be accepted only through the USAJobs website. Potential applicants are encouraged to access the website early to allow time to create or update their user accounts.

Job announcement numbers, an interactive job map, and other resources are available at go.usa.gov/xUSTA.
