New Start Clinic helps recovering addicts get a 'new start'

BREWSTER - The New Start Clinic, a treatment facility that is the first of its kind in this area, opened for business in the Brewster Medical Center building at 520 W. Indian Avenue, last October.

Brewster initiates customer income survey for water project

BREWSTER - The City of Brewster is looking for funding and grants to help finance the upgrade and improvements to the city's potable water and wastewater systems.

With funding assistance from the Department of Health, the city has contracted with the Rural Community Assistance Corporation (RCAC) a non-profit, impartial third party to conduct the survey.

Former Bears gather for Brewster Alumni Basketball Game

Brewster Bears basketball players from 1997 through 2015 brought their best moves to the 2017 Alumni Game at Champions Gym last Saturday.

Pateros City Council selects Mike Harding to fill vacancy

PATEROS - City council members interviewed prospective candidates to fill the council seat vacated by Ryan Greene at its regular meeting last Tuesday, Jan. 10.

"We had three very qualified candidates who applied for the position," said mayor Carlene Anders.

The candidates included Dena McDaniel, Kayla Johansen, and Mike Harding. Following interviews of each, council selected Harding to fill the vacancy.

Citizens urged to run water taps to prevent freeze-ups

BREWSTER - Business and residential water users in the Pateros-Brewster-Bridgeport-Mansfield areas are once again urged to allow water taps to run a small amount of water during the cold months to reduce the incidence of freezing pipes.

Brewster Public Works Director, Lee Webster said his crews have responded to dozens of calls to thaw or repair frozen water lines this season

First annual Las Posadas draws large crowd of carolers

BREWSTER - The first annual Las Posadas or Festival of The Inns drew a large and mixed crowd of carolers to the city's downtown Main Street last Friday evening, Dec. 23.

"We had a good turnout of 70 to 80 people including kids and adults from both the local community and outside the area," said Emmanuel "Manny" Hurtado who, along with brother Martin, organized the event.

Despite the freezing temperature the group gathered at La Milpa at 324 Main Street and began its caroling trek to business doors where, according to tradition, the wanderers were turned away until they found sanctuary at their final stop at the Armory at Sixth and Main.

"We were outside for 30 to 45 minutes and it was cold," said Hurtado, "but everyone was bundled up."

The carolers spent about two hours at the Armory, according to Hurtado, where everyone enjoyed the warmth, tamales, refreshments and piñatas.

"We also had a guest pastor from Spokane," Hurtado said.

Hurtado said the turnout was "better than expected" considering the cold weather and plans are already underway to hold the second annual Las Posadas next year.

Santa and his group of Brewster Fire Department elves

Santa takes a moment from his busy holiday schedule to pose with some of his special Brewster Fire Department helpers who spent the past month gathering toys to distribute to 16 needy families last Friday, Dec. 22.

Santa Claus, seen here hitching a ride in a Brewster Fire truck last Friday, was on his way to deliver toys to some lucky youngsters whose Christmas prospects just became a lot brighter.

City of Pateros proposes Triangle Property Development project

By MIKE MALTAIS STAFF WRITER

PATEROS - City council members heard a preliminary proposal for development of a long finger of land called the Triangle Property from City Administrator Jord Wilson at their monthly meeting on Dec. 18.

and the railroad tracks.

"I've included some of my thoughts on moving forward with development of the Triangle Property," Jordan told council members.

Elements of the proposed development include landscaping, expansion room for the Recycle Center, a Public Works Yard, County Sand Storage, Bulk Water Fill Station, and future Rail Loading Facility.

The Recycle Center would remain in its present location but include space for future expansion consideration.

A landscape buffer would front the Public Works Yard along E. Industrial Way and include a street equipment barn for snow equipment, material bins for gravel, sand and asphalt, security fencing, electrical facilities for lighting and equipment charging, a frost-free hydrant, optional sand storage and storage for park equipment.

The sand storage would accommodate sand shared by the city and county for winter use.

The bulk water station would be relocated from its present site at Ives Landing Park.

Proposed landscaping is

High-Five wait pays off

LEFT: Daxeau Taylor, son of Brewster assistant basketball coach, Michael Taylor, is perched on the shoulders of uncle, Travis Todd, as he waits for the Bears' varsity lineup to be announced during the final home game of the regular season against Oroville last Saturday...

RIGHT: ...and the wait pays off, as junior guard, Ramiro Rincon (4) gives the almost-three-year-old fan a High-Five as Rincon passes down the line of well-wishers just before the tip-off.

Icy crossing causes minor locomotive derailment

An icy crossing caused this Cascade and Columbia River Railroad locomotive to derail near Gebbers Farms cold storage and maintenance shop complex north of Brewster last Monday, Feb. 13.

BREWSTER – Workmen were busy on an early, foggy Tuesday morning, Feb. 14, trying to get a locomotive back on the rails following a minor derailment the previous day near the Gebbers Farms shop and warehouse complex north of Brewster.

The Cascade and Columbia River Railroad (CCRR) engine, headed southbound pulling a string of rail cars loaded with non-hazardous materials, encountered ice on a rail crossing while traveling at low speed, causing the two front axles to leave the track. The cars were loaded with calcium carbonate and lumber per the Okanogan County Emergency Management Facebook site.

Bears win CW2B title

Brewster senior Edgar Najera takes an Oroville steal to the basket for two of his game-high 29 points during the Central Washington 2B League championship game against the Hornets last Monday, Feb. 13. Playing his final game in Champions Gym, Najera led the Bears to a 73-41 win over Oroville, capping an undefeated 16-0 league season with the CW2B title.

Lady Bears dig deep, cage Tigers in 56-52 overtime win

BRIDGEPORT – The Brewster Lady Bears rallied to erase a third-quarter, six-point deficit, catch a tough Tonasket Tigers team, force the Central Washington 2B League Championship game into a 49-49 overtime, and win the title, 56-52, in Bridgeport last Saturday, Feb. 11.

Bears blow by Oroville, 73-41, to win CWB League championship

BREWSTER – Playing one of their best games of the season, the Brewster Bears combined an effective man-to-man defense with accurate shooting to easily defeat the Oroville Hornets, 73-41 for the Central Washington 2B League Championship at Brewster last Monday, Feb. 13.

School district board discusses bond passage, appoints director

BRIDGEPORT – Pit bull dogs will no longer be banned from the City of Brewster after a majority city council members voted to once again allow pit bulls, or mixes thereof, within city limits – with restrictions and conditions.

Bridgeport resident, Eduardo Orozco, raised the issue of the pit bull ban as he addressed council members concerning Luna, the female mixed pit bull he owns. Orozco told council he was not aware of the ban and asked member to reconsider the ordinance banning them.

Najera, Miller named MVP's in CW2B All-League nominees

BREWSTER – A pair of Brewster High School varsity basketball players - boys senior guard, Edgar Najera, and girls junior guard, Maret Miller - were selected as the Central Washington 2B League's Most Valuable Players by coaches and athletic directors last week.

Narcotics, cash, weapons, vehicles seized Bridgeport residents among nine arrested in investigation

BRIDGEPORT – Four current and two former Bridgeport residents were among nine suspects arrested, Feb. 24, by members of the North Central Washington Narcotics Task Force (NCWNTF) in a multi-jurisdictional raid that seized narcotics, cash, weapons and vehicles in Douglas and Okanogan counties and on the Colville Reservation.

Three Rivers non-profit foundation board to reconvene

BREWSTER – The Board of Commissioners of Three Rivers Hospital got the good news from CEO Scott Graham at its February meeting that the non-profit Three Rivers Hospital Foundation should soon be operational once again as an organization to promote and support the medical facility.

Math is Cool team wins Regional competition

BRIDGEPORT – Pit bull dogs will no longer be banned from the City of Brewster after a majority city council members voted to once again allow pit bulls, or mixes thereof, within city limits – with restrictions and conditions.

Bridgeport resident, Eduardo Orozco, raised the issue of the pit bull ban as he addressed council members concerning Luna, the female mixed pit bull he owns. Orozco told council he was not aware of the ban and asked member to reconsider the ordinance banning them.

High school hosts multi-agency training exercise

BREWSTER – Law enforcement, EMS, and emergency response teams conducted a Multi-Agency Training Exercise (MATE) at Brewster High School early Monday morning, March 27.

The monitored exercise was designed to assess the readiness and reactions of first-responders. Street accesses to BHS were blocked, checkpoints established, and a lockdown imposed on all unauthorized personnel. Those restrictions extended to a member of the news media - requested to participate in the same manner a real-life incident would predict – to test interactions with news representatives and access to designated sources.

Body found in Okanogan River south of Malott

OKANOGAN – A body recovered from the waters of the Okanogan River on March 16 is undergoing forensic examination to determine if the remains are those of a young Malott man who was reported missing last Dec. 14. Two boaters discovered the body near an area called Rattlesnake Point, 2.5 miles south of the town of Malott on Old Highway 97.

Bridgeport 'plugs-in' with new vehicle charging station

BRIDGEPORT – Electric cars will soon be a more frequent sight in Bridgeport thanks to a new car charging station that is nearing completion in Bouska Square in the city's downtown core.

The new station is a cooperative effort between the City of Bridgeport, the North Central Washington Economic Development District (NCWEDD) and its affiliate, Plug-in North Central Washington. Completion of the station will add Bridgeport to a network of outlets that will allow drivers access to power along State Route 17 and SR 174. Other stations are located in Pateros, Grand Coulee, Wilbur and Davenport.

Heavy rain on saturated soil triggers slides, washouts, closures

PATEROS – Heavy rainfall in the early morning hours of Friday, April 8, - too much for already saturated soil - caused debris slides, washouts and lesser water problems in several parts of Okanogan County late last week. Drivers from the Pateros-Brewster-Bridgeport areas found road closures or delays on both State Route 153 north of Pateros and State Route 20 west of Okanogan following the Friday morning downpour.

Don't drink and drive

Did you know that one alcohol-related crash occurs approximately every half an hour? That's right. There are about 48 alcohol-related accidents each day, 336 each week and 17,472 each year, and many of these result in fatalities.

The statistics don't lie. Drunk driving leads to thousands of injuries and deaths every year, particularly around the holiday season when parties abound and alcohol consumption increases. Don't let it happen to you. Drink in moderation this season, and in the event you are too intoxicated to get behind the wheel, give your keys to someone else, catch a ride with another person or call a cab.

Please have a safe holiday

Be responsible when you drink, let someone else do the driving!

Thank you to our holiday sponsors for this "Don't Drink & Drive" holiday message.

Bears edged out by Cashmere

Brewster's Isaac Baker begins his slide.....gets past a late throw.....and scores a Bears' run. The Bears lost to the Bulldogs 6-2 on March 30. See more Sports on pages 4-5.

Chamber breaks ground at site for new Pateros sign

The new Pateros sign will look like this when completed later this summer.

PATEROS – An excavator on the site of the new Pateros sign south of Pateros moved the first scoopfuls of dirt, Tuesday, April 11, marking the start of a construction campaign that is expected to be completed in time for this year's Apple Pie Jamboree in July. Steve Varrelman, owner of BTO Construction in Pateros broke ground for the new welcome sign that will stand near the site near the former sign that was destroyed in the 2014 Carlton Complex wildfire.

Candidate filing period open May 15-19

WATERVILLE-OKANOGAN – Candidates wishing to file for elective office for one of the many positions open this year in Douglas or Okanogan counties have from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday, May 15 through Friday, May 19 to submit online candidacy declarations.

Bears land six on CWB All-League teams

BREWSTER – Brewster sophomore, Joe Taylor, voted Most Valuable Player, leads this year's nominees on the 2017 Central Washington B All-League baseball teams. Joining Taylor from Brewster are freshman Corey Jarrell on the All-League First Team, sophomores Isaac Baker and Jeff Sonneman and freshman Kade Kelpman on the Second Team, and freshman Jorge Ramirez as Honorable Mention.

Tree City Pateros hosts annual Arbor Day observance

Three interested observers watch Isaac Wall, left, and Jord Wilson set a native pine in its new home at the Memorial to the Methow Park last Friday.

PATEROS – The observance and tradition of Arbor Day, first inaugurated in 1872 with the planting of more than one million trees in Nebraska, was well-celebrated in Pateros, one of 90 Tree Cities in the state, last Friday afternoon, April 2.

Hospital, school district, council positions seek candidates

OKANOGAN – Okanogan County Auditor announced a special three-day filing period after several elective positions in Okanogan County failed to attract any candidates for the Nov. 1, 2017 General Election, primary election. The special extension began Tuesday, May 23.

Boys and Girls Club holds back-to-back fund-raisers

BREWSTER – The Brewster Boys and Girls Club (BBGC) held back-to-back fund raisers at venues in Chelan and Brewster last Sunday and Monday, May 21-22.

Young Bears baseball team makes state Elite Eight

The Brewster Bears varsity baseball team poses before boarding the team bus to Ferris High School in Spokane for the first round of state baseball playoffs.

SPOKANE – With a team of only four players above the grade of freshman, the Brewster Bears defied the odds and opponents on older, more experienced teams to advance to the final round of eight in the state baseball championships at Spokane last Saturday, May 2.

Driver sentenced to 41 months for hit-and-run fatality

WENATCHEE – A young Bridgeport man charged with the hit-and-run death of Brewster resident, Gary Knowlton last July was handed a 41-month prison term at a sentencing hearing in Chelan County Superior Court last Thursday, June 1.

Jovany Lopez-Maciell, 22, received the maximum available term from Superior Court Judge Lesley Allan under the standard sentencing range.

Gary Knowlton

Maciel will receive credit for time served since his incarceration last September when he surrendered to authorities.

Memorial to Methow dedicated May 27

The completed Memorial to the Methow features life-size sculptures, teepee, barbecue pit, petroglyph walking path, sitting logs, and native plantings, among other attractions.

PATEROS – A large crowd gathered at Lakeshore Park last Saturday, May 27, to witness the official dedication of the city's latest attraction, the Memorial to the Methow installation on the shore of Lake Pateros.

The new park spearheaded by former Pateros High School graduate, Chuck Borg, now of Wenatchee, took about a year from conception to completion and will serve as a permanent reminder of the valley's early Native American culture.

American Legion Columbia Post 97 memorializes veterans

As the honor guard posted the colors a four-man firing squad fired volleys at Locust Grove Cemetery in Brewster.

BREWSTER – American Legion Columbia Post 97 color guard and firing squad, under the direction of Area Three Commander, Denny Pittman, devoted the morning of Memorial Day, Monday, May 29, to ceremonies honoring the areas deceased veterans.

Pittman and his crew began early Monday morning installing the large memorial flags, each labeled with a veteran's name, at Locust Grove Cemetery before departing for Pateros Cemetery at for the first of five ceremonies the group would conduct between 9 a.m. and noon.

Bridgeport Daze draws parade entries, vendors, spectators

BRIDGEPORT – Unlike the 2016 last-minute scramble to resuscitate and put on an earlier-cancelled Bridgeport Daze, this year's event was pre-planned and good-to-go as parade entries, vendors, participants and spectators converged in Bridgeport, last Saturday morning, June 3.

Parade participants were already lining up at 9 a.m. for the 11 a.m. parade start and as the minutes ticked by, more gathered at the old track field east of town for the march down Columbia Avenue.

Naturalization ceremony welcomes 35 new U.S. citizens

BREWSTER – A group of 35 new United States citizens were invited to join history's greatest experiment in human democracy at a naturalization ceremony held in the Brewster High School gym last Tuesday, June 6. In May of last year, BHS hosted a similar celebration for 43 new U.S. citizens.

Council takes outdoor volleyball court under advisement

BREWSTER – A standing-room-only crowd filled the meeting room last Wednesday, June 14, as the city council listened to a proposal for a new volleyball court, swore in a new police officer, heard a recycling update and discussed the upcoming Fourth of July parade among other agenda items.

Former Brewster graduate and community supporter, Karl Word, proposed a dual outdoor volleyball court styled after BREWSTER – Last March, Three Rivers Hospital (TRH) hired an individual to fill the position of Business Development Coordinator. Since then, Chris Majors, a California transplant, has been busy applying his professional background in photography, production and computer technology to let the community know about all the good work TRH is doing.

Majors, an alumnus of the San Francisco Art Institute brought his many years of expertise in photography, advertising and visual media to bear on a field that was new to him.

“I’d never worked in health-care before,” said Majors. “For me everything about this job was pretty new except that I know how to create things in visual media.”

One of the main 2017 goals set forth by the TRH Board of Commissions was to hire someone who could expand the public relations aspect of the hospital’s mission.

Majors came to his job while the hospital was in the early stages of some major renovations in its growth and service curve. The Three Rivers Hospital Foundation was in the process of reactivating and renewing its non-profit 501(c)3 status. He applied his skills to media issues in-house and became involved in outside community activities to bring TRH more exposure.

Majors designed the website for the Three Rivers Hospital Foundation (www.threeriverhospitalfoundation.org) and joined the Brewster Chamber of Commerce where he serves as the organization’s treasurer.

TRH has also been active in community parades throughout the Okanogan-Chelan-Douglas county area where the hospital float has become a regular fixture with Majors at the wheel of the vehicle pulling it.

The hospital has recently provided free sports physicals for school athletes in the district and participated in the Health Fair held at the Brewster schools and has been proactive with the city and school to provide flu shots.

“We had free health checks and had a large turnout from the Hispanic community,” said Majors. “People appreciate our participation with them.”

Majors calls his first year with TRH “an enjoyable challenge.”

“They really care about the community,” said Majors, “and to be able to help them get the word out and help us better connect with the community to let it know all the great work being one here has been an amazing experience.”

Since last June the hospital has been out of warrants with the county and for the first time in over a decade is on a profitable footing, though much remains to be done.

The hospital clinic and ER are also in the process of relocating, said Majors. The clinic will move to the administration space in the Hillcrest Building while the ER occupies the space vacated by the clinic.

Through all the changes, Majors is putting the best face on every aspect of hospital-community interaction through social media and his public outreach efforts.

Mustangs win, Fillies lose to Republic

By MIKE MALTAIS
STAFF WRITER

BRIDGEPORT – The Mustangs varsity basketball team went into Christmas break with their largest winning margin of the season after a 56-9 rout of a hapless Republic team that was missing three starters.

Coach Pat McFadden said the Tigers were “banged up” and had to bring up several eighth graders to fill out the varsity ranks.

“We played pretty well and were able to rest our starters for three-fourths of the game,” said McFadden. “It was a great opportunity to get my young players some much needed experience as undoubtedly we will need them down the stretch.”

McFadden said Manny Flores played well in his varsity debut and Carlos Flores led all scorers with 12 points.

McFadden said he was inspired by Republic’s willingness to fight despite the difficulties.

“They may not see it this way,” said McFadden, “but in the long run their program will be better for it - imagine if you had 5th year seniors playing for you one day - invaluable.”

The Mustangs are ranked seventh in the Central Washington 2B League with a 2-3 record.

Fillies fall

It was a different story for the Fillies who encountered a tough Lady Tigers team that carried the day with a 50-30 victory.

The Fillies are currently 2-3 and in sixth place in the CW2B, one game behind Lake Roosevelt who Bridgeport plays on Tuesday, Jan. 2.

Bridgeport was scheduled to host Entiat on Wednesday, Dec. 27, before traveling to Pateros on Thursday, Dec. 28.

Brewster varsity basketball continues undefeated season

By MIKE MALTAIS
STAFF WRITER

BREWSTER – Both the Brewster boys’ and girls’ varsity basketball teams remain undefeated at 6-0 in Central Washington 2B League play following wins over the Trojans at Manson on Wednesday, Dec. 15.

Coach Tim Taylors’ Bears outdistanced Manson by nearly 30 points with a convincing 62-37 road win.

Brewster will put its undefeated streak to the test at the SunDome in Yakima on Thursday, Dec. 28, when the Bears face Toutle Lake followed by Hoquiam on Friday, Dec. 29.

The Toutle Lake Ducks of the 2B Central League are ranked second in the 2B Central with a 4-1 league record.

The Hoquiam Grizzlies of the 1A Evergreen League stand in third place in their league with a 2-6 record.

The Bears will host second-place Tonasket at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 2.

Lady Bears win

The Lady Bears did reach the 30-point win margin when they outdistanced the Lady Trojans 60-28 at Manson. The point gap was typical of the margins by which Brewster has been defeating league opponents in their first six games of the season.

Lake Roosevelt has been the only team to come within 20 points of the Lady Bears as Brewster marches through league opponents again this season.

The Lady Bears will be off until Tuesday, Jan 2, when Brewster hosts Tonasket. Girls’ game starts at 6 p.m. and boys at 7:30 p.m.

SENIOR ATHLETE PROFILE

Emily Saucedo excels as multi-sport athlete

By MIKE MALTAIS
STAFF WRITER

BRIDGEPORT – A familiar face on the Bridgeport Fillies’ varsity basketball team this season is senior Emily Saucedo.

Saucedo, who is coming off her role as captain of the volleyball team, will turn out for track and field in the spring. In fact, Saucedo hopes to be completing in collegiate-level track and field on scholarship in 2018.

Saucedo is an academic leader and has been a member of the National Honor Society since her junior year.

Emily Saucedo, Bridgeport senior

She is currently enrolled in College in the High School and said that among her favorite subjects are College Humanities, College English and weight training. Saucedo said the latter class give her “an advantage in all the sports I participate in, especially track and field.”

Saucedo has been involved in college-level study since her freshman year.

“My freshman year I took one Advanced Placement class,” said Saucedo. “As a sophomore I took two AP classes, as a junior I took two college classes and this year I am taking five college classes.”

Saucedo is also an active member of Future Farmers of America (FFA).

“I have participated at the District and State levels in Parliamentary Procedure for two years,” said Saucedo. “Currently I’m our Bridgeport Chapter Treasurer.”

Saucedo is also a member of the Multicultural Club where “I do a lot of volunteer work that consists of translating for my peer’s parents.”

Among her future plans, Saucedo “will definitely attend college after graduating high school.”

The court would be named the Gary Knowlton Memorial Volleyball Court in honor of Brewster native, elementary teacher and Manson Pool lifeguard, Gary Knowlton, who was killed tragically in a hit-and-run accident near Chelan on June 16, 2016.

Brewster Wall of Fame honoree puts local history on display

Brewster School Superintendent, Eric Driessen presents the Brewster School District Wall of Fame Inductee Certificate to Ralph J. Fries at last Friday’s outdoor graduation ceremonies.

BREWSTER – History was literally on display at Brewster High School last Friday and Saturday, June 2-3, as Brewster alumnus, Ralph Fries brought a comprehensive exhibit of southern Okanogan life and profiles of early pioneer women to the school’s small gym.

Fries, a 1955 graduate of BHS and grandson of Ulrick Fries, author of “From Copenhagen to Okanogan” covered two walls of the gym with large poster boards full of stories, photos and information about Paradise Hill, Brewster Flats, Davis Canyon, the Chiliwist, Cougar Canyon, Monse, North Star, Harmony Heights, and Collee Flats.

Stray, unlicensed dogs plague Bridgeport streets, neighborhoods

BRIDGEPORT – At-large and unlicensed dogs are becoming a problem within the city limits. At its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, June 21, the city council pursued possible remedies with animal control contractor, Bill Zweigle, who also handles Mansfield dog issues.

Zweigle said that some 75 percent of the stray dogs he captures are Chihuahuas, and those he fails to catch escape into the area’s trailer courts.

Zweigle said he picked up his 21st dog on June 20, and averages 60 to 65 impounds in a year, so is a little behind the average.

Pateros loses non-league battles at Oroville

By MIKE MALTAIS
STAFF WRITER

PATEROS – The Billygoats varsity basketball team met its match in a 30-point, 76-46, road loss to the Central Washington 2B Oroville Hornets in non-league action on Wednesday, Dec. 20. But the Nannies almost pulled out a win against the larger 2B Lady Hornets who squeaked by with a three-point, 29-26, win.

Both the Billygoats and Nannies share 1-0 CW1B league records with Moses Lake Christian with the first six games of the season behind them.

Pateros hosts back-to-back games at home on Wednesday, Dec. 27 against Manson, and Thursday, Dec. 28 against Bridgeport. Girls play at 6 p.m. and boys at 7:30 p.m.

OBITUARIES &amp; DEATH NOTICES

Jacob (Jack) Max Goehry

Chelan, Washington

On Sunday, December 17, 2017, Jack Goehry died peacefully at the age of 100. Born in Oak Harbor, Wash. January 14, 1917 to Max and Hazel (Neil) Goehry. Jack's mother passed away in March from the 1918 flu pandemic. At age three his father remarried Dee Holden and moved to Brewster, Wash. where they added three siblings: Bob, Stan, and Kay. One of Jack's first jobs as a teen was building wooden apple boxes. He built 500 boxes a day for a penny a box until he graduated from Brewster High School in 1935. He then attended the University of Washington where he drove a topless 1929 Model A Ford over Highway 2.

In November 1941, weeks before the attack on Pearl Harbor, Jack enlisted in the Army Air Corps. Jack was a B-24 Bomber Pilot during World War II with the 513th Squadron, 376th Bomb Group. Stationed in Benghazi, Libya, the 376th flew missions over the Mediterranean Sea to strategic targets in Southern Europe. His combat tour finished with 33 missions and 305 combat hours. Jack was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross with Cluster, seven Air Medals, 2 Presidential Unit Citations and five Battle Stars. After returning from combat in 1943, Major Jack Goehry was assigned as a B-24 Flight Instructor where he met and married Betti Lou Schram. He returned to Brewster, Wash. where he worked as a car salesman for the family business.

During the floods of 1948, he flew a 2 seater Cessna into the Methow Valley landing wherever possible to deliver supplies and transport the injured. During the Korean War, Jack was called back into service and was stationed in Bermuda as a hurricane hunter for the U.S. Air Force. Jack married Elinor (Peg) Clinton, the love of his life, in 1957.

In 1965, Jack and Peg moved from Brewster into their newly built home on Lake Chelan where Jack enjoyed riding his snowmobiles on the beach, spending time with family and friends on the porch and growing the best tomatoes known to mankind.

Employment history after military service included diverse job experiences in Brewster and Chelan as a Car Salesman for Goehry's Incorporated, Apple Buyer for North Country Fruit, Ground Crew for Cascade Helicopter, Co-owner Chelan Concrete, and owner of Rapid Rental Storage.

Jack married Rebecca Creighton in 1994. He enjoyed gardening, reading, skiing, swimming, flying, snowmobiling, and cocktails at five. Civic duties were a large part of his life, including 73 year American Legion member, over 45 year Lions Club member, and many years as the Lake Chelan Sewer Commissioner.

Jack is survived by his children: Max Goehry, Patty Hughes Schmauder, Kim (Steve) Olsen, Clint (Maria) Goehry, 6 grandchildren, 4 great-grandchildren and sister Kay Welborn.

Jack was preceded in death by his brothers Bob and Stan, wives Elinor (Peg) Clinton and Rebecca Creighton.

Memorial Services will be held on Saturday, January 6, 2018 at 1 p.m. at Precht Rose Chapel in Chelan. A Remembrance to follow at the Chelan Senior Center. Memorials may be made to Lake Chelan Lions Club or Chelan Senior Center.

Please leave any thoughts and memories for the family at www.prechtrose.com.

Precht Rose Chapel of Chelan is entrusted with the services.

Jeffrey Dean Bailey

It is with great shock and sadness, that we announce the passing of Jeffrey Dean Bailey on December 6, 2017.

Please join us as we remember Jeffrey Dean Bailey on Saturday, December 30 at 1 p.m. at Community Log Church in Brewster.

Barnes Chapel of Brewster is assisting with the services.

Arthur Nordang

Arthur Nordang passed away in Spokane on December 17, 2017 surrounded by his loving family and friends. A celebration of his life will be held on Saturday, December 30, at the Pateros Methodist Church, at 11 a.m.

Please leave any thoughts and memories for the family at www.barneschapel.com. Barnes Chapel of Brewster is entrusted with the services.
