

Brewster Marketplace owners announce acquisition of Brewster Drug

Controlled substances currently unavailable

By MIKE MALTAIS

BREWSTER – Customers of Brewster Drug and True Value Hardware will find a new look and new name to go along with new ownership and management as Brewster Marketplace owners Sabrina O’Connell and Yvonne and Victor Vargas assumed the day-to-day operations of the store on Monday, Nov. 6.

The trio had been in negotiations with Brewster Drug and True Value owner Brian Johnson since about Sept. 1, to purchase the next-door business with a projected closing date of Dec. 1 of this year.

Unanticipated developments earlier this month prompted O’Connell and the Vargas’s to accelerate their involvement in the hardware and pharmacy to avoid an interruption of services to the community.

“Brian came to us on Nov. 1 and said that he had some medical reasons that he was going to need to physically step away with a two-or three-day window,” said O’Connell. “On Saturday, Nov. 4, we executed a special power of attorney that he and his wife signed that gave my sister and I and Victor acting management duties in his absence until the purchase and sale can actually close.”

Until the new owners are approved for their pharmacy license, the store cannot dispense controlled substances. The initial closing date has been extended to accommodate the extra time needed to acquire a new pharmacy license.

“That process takes anywhere from eight to 12 weeks, so the purchase and sale will have to coincide with the issuance of the license for the pharmacy,” said O’Connell “so that’s why we had to stretch that out.”

O’Connell said that as soon as they have the license to own and operate the pharmacy they can proceed to the next step of applying for the Drug Enforcement Agency registration that will allow the ordering and dispensing of controlled substances.

The new name of the business will be the Brewster Marketplace Pharmacy and True Value Hardware.

“We actually have filed that name and UBI tax number with the Secretary of State,” said O’Connell. “We had to do that as part of our application for the pharmacy license.”

To help with the transition process, Trent Danielson, owner of Okanogan Valley Pharmacy will serve as pharmacy manager while the owners search for a permanent one.

Pateros resident, Thomas Steggall, has been brought in as store manager.

In the meantime, it’s “boots on the ground,” said O’Connell as the new owners take it one day at a time, cleaning, rearranging, moving overflow inventory and making the aisles more accessible for those using wheelchairs “which has been a problem in the past,” O’Connell said.

Store hours and staffing remain the same as the new

Area schools observe Veterans Day in Nov. 9 assemblies

At Bridgeport, Pateros, Brewster and Mansfield

Bridgeport -- The American Legion color guard representing Columbia Post 97, Brewster and Post 218 in Bridgeport made its first call at Bridgeport High School at 9 a.m. Thursday, Nov. 9, at the first of three school assemblies observing Veterans Day.

Bridgeport did not have to look far to find a qualified guest speaker. Bridgeport native Pat McFadden a former nationally-ranked decathlete who now coaches Mustang varsity football and basketball, entertained the students with stories about his military career as a Navy pilot.

McFadden said that after receiving his engineering degree from the University of Idaho he realized he wanted to do something more than spend the next 40 years at a desk.

“I always had something inside me that wanted to serve my country,” said McFadden “and I watched the old World War II movies with my dad, seeing guys fly cool airplanes around and I thought ‘that’s what I want to do’.”

McFadden aced the Navy’s aviator exams, completed officers’ candidate school and flight school and was assigned to fly the P-3 Orion spy plane.

“I’ve been intercepted by Russian fighter jets...chased Russian submarines...I’ve got to do a lot of cool things,” McFadden said and told the students what it requires to excel.

“Anything worth doing in this world is hard and you guys need to know that,” said McFadden “but it starts right here with the people support-

Brewster council moves forward with Vista Park Homes transfer

Fire Chief announces retirement

By MIKE MALTAIS
STAFF WRITER

BREWSTER – The city council said good-bye to its long-term fire chief, held four public hearings, and moved forward with the ownership transfer of the Vista Park Homes complex to the Okanogan County Housing Authority.

After 41 years with the Brewster Fire Department, many of those as chief, Fire Chief Mike Webster tendered his official notice of retirement to the council with said departure effective at the end of the year.

Webster leaves the department after 41 years of service to the community. Dylan Gamble has been named as Webster’s replacement.

During public comment Manny Hurtado proposed a Christmas caroling group performing around town in conjunction with the Holiday Shop being held at the Brewster Boys and Girls Club on Dec. 16. Hurtado inquired if a city permit would be required to hold such a gathering.

Council advised Hurtado that provided the caroling group was small and manageable, no permit is required.

“But if you all of a sudden find out that you’re going to have large numbers, let us know,” Mayor Art Smyth said.

Smyth recapped city representatives’ attendance at the annual Infrastructure Assistance Coordination Council (IACC) in Wenatchee late last month where Brewster received the organization’s Drinking Water Award for its renovation of a 500,000-gallon storage reservoir.

The award was passed around to council members and spent the remainder of the meeting on the council table.

Council held public hearings on the EMS Tax Levy, Property Tax levy, 2018 Preliminary Budget, and Mac & Cass Partnership Development Agreement but received no public input.

Following the hearings, council members approved Ordinance 896 amending the Mac & Cass Partnership Brewster Fire Chief Mike Webster officially notified the city council of his pending retirement at the end of this year.

Development Agreement to allow construction of an additional building.

ing you in school.”
McFadden encouraged his listeners to take advantage of all the freedoms and opportunities available to them
“Dream big,” McFadden

told the students. “If you shoot for the stars, maybe you’ll land on the moon.”
Pateros
Pateros rolled out the purple carpet at its 10:30 a.m. veterans assembly. Pateros alumnus Chuck Borg (1956) a former Vietnam Airborne Ranger and U.S. Army Lt. Colonel (retired) was on hand to introduce the 18 veterans in attendance. Included among those was the only World War II veteran Walt Peckham, whose presence brought the audience to a standing ovation.

A creative touch to the event was a small soldier figurine presented to every participant together with a written reminder to “take a soldier home and place it somewhere that will remind you to pray for those who serve our country.”
Patriotic numbers played by the Pateros school band, a fifth-grade presentation with flag folding and a candlelight vigil during the concluding Taps were also part of the morning’s ceremony.

Brewster
Brewster’s 1 p.m. celebration of band, chorus, and spoken recitals included an address from guest speaker John Kirk, an aircraft mechanic who served in the Air Force active duty and reserve from 1966-2003.
A poignant part of the ceremony was student readings of war correspondence from WWII through Afghanistan including letters from:
• A father to his son serving in WWI to advise that he had a five-day-old daughter “but your dear wife has passed to the other side today.”
• A WWII soldier first telling his parents of his shrapnel injuries that were “really very slight wounds and nothing at all to worry about.”
• A soldier in Vietnam who, after losing both legs below the knees, tries to raise the spirits of his family: “I always feel guilty when I write you guys, because I know how bad you feel, and how well I feel.”
• A soldier in Afghanistan writing to his mother prior to leaving for Bagram to flush out 600 Taliban soldiers from the mountains: “Mom, I’m not afraid to die for something that is right...I just hope that I made you proud.”

In a departure from the recorded Taps normally used, Brewster junior trumpet player Juan Garcia-Salas played live Taps before the colors were retired.
Mansfield
The Columbia River Quilt Guild made a special appearance at the Mansfield High School’s 1:30 p.m. Veterans Day assembly. The Guild presented commemorative quilts to two Mansfield military vets. Also in attendance were some 20 Mansfield veterans who were the guests of honor.
Speaker for the occasion was Physical Education teacher and Athletic Director, Jody Flaget, who served six years in the U.S. Marine Corps. Flaget addressed the audience on what it means to be a military veteran.

BREWESTER – Ford Motor Company and the Boys and Girls Clubs of Washington State are teaming up once again with the Ford Focus on child Hunger campaign. Brewster Boys and Girls Club Director Brian Paine said the club received $1,000 from Ford that is being applied to help feed needy families in the Brewster-Pateros area. Jess Ford is the local dealer working with BBGC in this area. Paine is working with school district personnel to identify those needy families as the food collection campaign takes place from Mon. Nov. 13 though Friday, Nov. 17. Once the food is collected at the BBGC building, Monday, Nov. 20 will be set aside for volunteers to put together food boxes from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Students, clubs, volunteers and all others interested in helping are invited to stop by the BBGC during that time to lend a hand. Boxes will be delivered either Monday afternoon or Tuesday, Nov. 21, and arrangements will also be made for families who want to pick up boxes at BBGC headquarters. Those wishing to make cash or check donations may make checks payable to the Brewster Boys & Girls Club. A tax identification number Zimmerman requested, and council approved a five-member Housing Authority Board to conduct the requisite board meetings that will facilitate the transfer. Public Works Director Lee Webster reported that the arborists hired by the city to prune 16 problem trees are already at work in Columbia Cove Park. Webster said the hydrogeologist from J-U-B Engineers and representatives from the State Department of Health have approved the locations of the city’s proposed new well sites, allowing that project to move forward. Work is also underway on airport signage and runway lighting at Anderson Field. Webster said the airport is currently open, but the runway is closed until about Dec. 7.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

A Solution to Fighting Forest Fires

The concept is simple to understand. Using the concept of a crop sprayer aircraft, spraying insecticide on a crop and use this concept to fight forest fires. Instead of a 2,000 pound aircraft, you use an 800,000 pound aircraft like a 747 and you are spraying vast amount of water on a forest fire.

To convert, one takes a used aircraft like a Boeing 747, removes all unnecessary items like seats, all interiors including insulation, ceiling material, storage bins, and even the carpet leaving the interior essentially just skin and frames. Optional items that could be removed are the windows, window frames, (skin over the window holes), the air conditioning packs, and more with cost being a deciding factor. The weight of the removed items can then be added to the maximum water weight possible. Then after engineering analysis and the structure modification are made, one installs the two 12 to 15 inch diameter spray booms through the fuselage and extending out each side of it. Each piece is about 20 feet long joined in the middle by a tee. There is plumbing connecting the huge pump, the boom and to the nozzles mounted through the bottom skin. Since the aircraft will only need a fuel range of around 1,000 miles, the extra unneeded tankage is converted to water tanks and change the plumbing accordingly. Next the water weight is calculated to bring the aircraft up to or near its design gross weight and then tankage for that capacity is added. Finally other plumbing and controls are added.

Recognizing that the slower the airplane flies and the bigger the pump, the more water per square foot is distributed. The stall speed of a 747 is about 145 MPH, but if the pilot flies full flaps and slats just during the spraying operation, the minimum safe flying speed is estimated at 120 MPH. An analysis assuming 120 MPH speed, a huge 15,000 GPM pump and a width of 60 feet will result in a calculated value of .05 inches of water. With enough passes, the fire can be totally extinguished and all from the air and probably in less than a day with no firefighters required on the ground.

If they are able to extinguish all forest fires in their infancy, then there will be no more "major" forest fires. That will be wonderful.

This concept is magnitudes superior to any other system flying today.

Finally one recognizes that the 2018 fire season is not far off and if there is to be enough of this equipment available in time, much has to be done. Time is critical. Urge the decision makers and others to make it happen.

One thing is for certain, if nothing changes, the 2018 fire season will be similar to the 2017, which was similar to 2016, and on and on.

Much ado about nothing

The NFL players have been expressing their displeasure with America. Make no mistake about this. They claim they are just expressing their concerns about social injustice but they chose to express that concern by showing disrespect for our flag and our national anthem.

Military veterans in the meantime have expressed their disgust with the lack of respect shown to those who have made the ultimate sacrifice to make sure these pampered activists have the right to express their opinions no matter how misinformed those opinions might be.

Nothing could be a better demonstration of the cultural divide we now share. The players are continuing to express “solidarity” by locking arms or kneeling instead of standing. Veterans have declared they are boycotting the NFL.

Neither side has had any real impact.

Attendance at NFL games

IN MY OPINION

through the first 9 games is down a little over 2 percent. That has little to do with veteran protests and a lot to do with poor attendance at Rams games in LA. Low attendance for the Rams has little to do with upset veterans. For various reasons LA has been a poor football town but their dislike for the returning Rams in particular is historical.

From the activist side nothing has really changed in the social war against hate and racism. Nor is it likely to any time soon. The unfortunate truth is you cannot legislate love and understanding.

The problem we face in this country is we have become overly focused on defining every problem as racially motivated. Don't misunderstand here. We have had issues of racial injustice in our history. But when every conflict comes down to being defined as the result of racial hatred, we are not building understanding. We are building a wall.

The great majority of American people are not hateful or prejudiced. Accusing them of ignorance and intolerance does not build understanding it ends the discussion.

As a veteran I am offended by how the symbols of our great country have been abused by those who claim to be concerned about improving our society. When we trash the symbols of our collective values we are tearing at the fabric of our common history.

Last week I was reminded of the Code of Conduct for Members of the United States Armed Forces (see sidebar). Every member of the military is required to memorize that code. It says nothing about race. And every veteran I know never considers the color of their military companions when following the tenants of that code.

The NFL players who choose to disrespect our National Anthem or the college students who stomp on our flag do offend most of us who have served. In doing so they have not built concern or respect for their cause.

It is easy to get attention from the National Media. They will sensationalize any controversy to build their ratings. It is much more difficult to have real impact on the human heart. It is much more difficult to build understanding and create real change.

Alienating those most likely to support your cause is not a good way to create change.

It is far past time that we learned making real change is less about stirring controversy and more about building understanding.

Lady Bears’ state quest ends in clash with Kalama

Reach quarterfinal round

By Mike Maltais
STAFF WRITER

YAKIMA – The Brewster varsity volleyball team that headed to Yakima with high hopes for a shot at the state trophy, ended out of the running for hardware at the 2017 WIAA Volleyball Championships at the SunDome last Friday, Nov. 10.

The Lady Bears, who held opponents scoreless while winning 42 consecutive sets through the regular season and into District competition, met their match at State against Mossyrock, 3-1, and came up short against Kalama, 3-2.

Earlier, the Lady Bears locked up the Central Washington 2B League title and defeated Bi-District 5/6 opponents Dayton, Tri-Cities Prep and Kittitas to take that trophy. As the state brackets filled and the quality of competition ramped up, Brewster was paired up with the Raymond Seagulls from the 2B Pacific in the first round of 16 played Thursday, Nov. 9.

In a three-set 25-21, 25-17, 25-15 sweep, the Lady Bears sent the Seagulls flying to the consolation round while Brewster advanced to the quarterfinals and Mossyrock, who won over Walla Walla Valley Academy, 3-2, and ascended a rung on the bracket ladder.

Stats v Raymond
Brooklynn Boesel: 15/15 serving, 4 aces, 13 kills, 16 assists, 14 digs.
Marta Martinez: 11/12 serving, 1 ace, 4 kills, 2 assists, 5 digs.
Sammi Emigh: 6/8 serving, 1 ace, 2 kills, 1 block, 4 digs.
Maret Miller: 6/7 serving, 8 kills, 13 assists, 7 digs.
Karste Wright: 7/8 serving, 1 ace, 11 kills, 12 digs.
Elizabeth Stam: 1 kill, 1 assist, 1 dig.
Karina Martinez: 5 digs.
Abby Urias: 24/24 serving, 3 aces, 6 digs.
Anah Wulf: 1 dig.
Zulema Sotello: 1 dig.
Mossyrock

The 10-1 Mossyrock Vikings of the 2B Central attacked with a vengeance in the first set and handed Brewster an 11-25 defeat but could not capitalize on the momentum. The Lady Bears dug in and rallied to a two-point, 25-23 win in the second and served notice that they did not take losing lightly. The next two hard-fought sets were decided by seven points in Mossyrock’s favor, 25-23 and 25-20.

“We struggled to pass off serve receive,” said coach Marcy Boesel, “and while we had five kids with double digit digs, we had a lot of holes in our defense.”

The loss sent the Lady Bears into the consolation bracket while Mossyrock reached the state finals and finished second to undefeated

Stats v Mossyrock
Boesel: 16/16 serving, 1 ace, 13 kills, 13 assists, 18 digs.
M. Martinez: 9/11 serving, 1 ace, 2 kills, 1 assist, 10 digs.
Emigh: 15/15 serving, 1 ace, 5 digs, 3 stuff blocks.
Miller: 11/12 serving, 1 ace, 11 kills, 15 assists, 12 digs, 2 stuff blocks.
Wright: 8/10 serving, 9 kills, 13 digs, 1 stuff block.

Stats v Kalama
Boesel: 18/18 serving, 22 kills, 30 digs, 21 assists, 2 stuff blocks.
M. Martinez: 5/6 serving, 1 ace, 2 stuff blocks, 2 assists, 12 digs.
Emigh: 21/21 serving 2 aces, 10 digs, 3 kills, 1 stuff block.
Miller: 15/16 serving, 4 aces, 9 kills, 22 digs, 23 assists, 2 stuff blocks.
Wright: 13/15 serving, 13 kills, 1 stuff block, 15 digs.
Stam: 18 digs, 3 kills, 1 stuff block.
K. Martinez 3 digs.

Urias: 13/13 serving, 1 dig.
Wulf: 3 digs, 17/18 serving, 4 aces.

“When looking back to where we were as a team a year ago at the state tournament, we’ve come a long way,” said Boesel. “We still have a lot of work to get where we want to go.”

Brewster breezes by Crosspoint in State quarterfinal match

BREWSTER – Behind a strategy of aggressive offense, the Lady Bears varsity soccer team kept the visiting Crosspoint Academy Warriors on the defensive during a 2-0 shutout in state quarterfinal competition last Saturday, Nov. 11.

With a shallow bench that allowed only one substitute, the Warriors did not have an answer to the pressing attack of the Lady Bears and spent most of the game defending its goal as Brewster repeatedly maneuvered for shots at their opponent’s net.

Senior forward Yalina Vargas lifted the ball over the head of the Crosspoint goalkeeper with 23 minutes remaining in the first half for the only score in the first 40 minutes of the game.

At almost the same point in the second half, senior midfielder Marlisa Garcia went one-on-one with the Warriors’ goalie and sank the second goal with 22 minutes remaining in the game.

Crosspoint seldom got the ball onto Brewster’s end of the pitch and when the Warriors did there was seldom more than one player to pursue the offensive while most of the team remained in defensive mode.

The win catapults Brewster into the semifinals against defending champion St. George’s at 2 p.m. Friday, Nov. 17 at Sunset Chev Stadium in Sumner. Early in the season the Lady Bears defeated St. George’s, 3-2, on Brewster’s home pitch Sept. 16.

Adna will play Life Christian Academy in the other semifinal game at 4 p.m. The winners will meet in the championship round at 2 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 18.

Orozco makes 2nd appearance at state championships

By MIKE MALTAIS
STAFF WRITER

BREWSTER – Brewster High School senior, Tessa Orozco, made her second appearance at the state swimming championships this season and placed ninth in the 100-yard butterfly with a personal best time and 13th in the 50-yard freestyle.

This year’s championships were held at the King County Aquatic Center in Federal Way, where Orozco scored her PB butterfly of one minute, 1.43 seconds.

Orozco started swimming competitively as an eight-year-old on the Bearacudas summer league team, and continued with them for 8 seasons

Orozco joined Velocity, the year-round club team in Wenatchee in the fall of her sophomore year. Upon learning that Eastmont High School accepted co-op swimmers, and with help from both schools’ athletic directors, she joined the Eastmont school team as a junior.

Even though Orozco practices with Eastmont as part of the 34-girl swim and dive team, she competes for Brewster.

At state in 2016, Orozco placed 17th in the 100 butterfly and eighth in the 50 freestyle.

Owing to her participation at state, Orozco was invited to join the Washington Cultural Exchange for a 10-day swim trip to China last April 1-10.

This year Orozco won first in the district 5/6/7 50 freestyle and 100 butterfly. To qualify for state a swimmer must either make the state time or place in the top three at districts.

Orozco is enrolled in Running Start at Wenatchee Valley College in Omak.

“I am planning on swimming in college,” said Orozco. “but I haven’t decided where yet.”

Orozco said she will compete in either D2 or D3 swimming and will start visiting schools this winter.

Sunnyside Christian stops Pateros short of state playoffs

By MIKE MALTAIS
STAFF WRITER

SUNNYSIDE – The Pateros varsity football team saw its season come to an end with a 66-16 loss on the road to a powerful Sunnyside Christian team last Friday, Nov. 10.

The Billygoats were just one win away from the quarterfinal round of the WIAA 1B State Football Championships at the Tacoma Dome when they ran into the Knights.

“We played a good team that should go deep in the playoffs,” coach Marcus Stennes said.

Sunnyside opened with a first-quarter surge that put 36 points on the scoreboard while the Billygoats struggled to get their teamwork in sync.

“First drive we were able to take it down to their three-yard line,” said Stennes, “but then we fumbled and that killed our momentum for the rest of the game.”

Sunnyside added 18 points in the second quarter to take a 54-0 lead into halftime.

Senior center Doug Viebrock punched into the end zone for the Billygoats’ first points in the third quarter. It was his first career touchdown in four years and “a great moment,” Stennes said.

“We just could not get our running game going at all which led to our struggles through the air as well,”

Stennes said.

Andrew Gonzalez caught four passes for 102 yards and rushed for 35 more that included a TD in the fourth quarter.

Senior quarterback Jeremy Piechalski connected on six of 15 passes for 160 yards that included two interceptions.

“They were able to jump out on us and we could never make it up,” said Stennes. “I’m proud of my guys this year putting themselves into position to play for something these last two weeks.”

Announcement from Shell Energy North America (US), L.P.

Filled Final License Application

Hydro Battery Pearl Hill Project, FERC Project No. 14795

On November 1, 2017, Shell Energy North America (US), L.P. (Shell Energy) filed a final license application with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) for the 5-megawatt (MW) pumped storage hydro project. The Pearl Hill Battery Storage Project (Project) is a proposed pumped storage hydroelectric project located on the south bank of the Columbia River, about 7.5 miles upstream of Chief Joseph Dam along Rufus Woods Lake. The Project would consist of a power generation platform (77 by 77 feet) mounted to the shoreline with a partially buried penstock (36-inch diamated and 5,800 foot in length) water line extending up the hill to a water storage tank (approximately 20 feet tall and 300-foot-diameter). A buried transmission line would extend along the penstock route to an existing Douglas County PUD power line along Road L in uninorporated Douglas County. The project will cycle water from the Columbia River on a daily basis to provide grid availability-services as needed. The Project is being developed to help maximize the potential of renewable energy resources in the region. The final license application can be reviewed on the FERC website, as well copies of the application is being sent to the registered stakeholders for the project, and a copy can be found at the Bridgeport Public library 1206 Columbia Ave, Bridgeport, WA 98813. The c ommission will publish subsequent notices soliciting public participation, questions and commnets regarding the application should be directed to Mr. Kent Watt, External Relations Advisor at (832) 337-1160 or at Kent.Watt@shell.com. Published in the Quad City Herald November 9 and 16, 2017. #80284
