Old World Oxen camp comes to Pateros School

By MIKE MALTAIS
STAFF WRITER

PATEROS – Students at Pateros school experienced – and could even taste – a part of early western history during a day-long visit by Riverside resident Sheryl Curtis and her Old World Oxen Living History Display last Tuesday, Oct. 17.

Curtis, with her two oxen, Saul and Noah, in tow brought her interactive camp to the Pateros football field where alternating classes of students had the opportunity to prepare, mix, cook and sample everything from breakfast eggs over an open campfire to cricket soup.

Surprisingly, an entire pot of cricket soup remained unsampled. Perhaps they did not add enough rice and beans.

Curtis explained that crickets were among the fallback staples the traveling pioneers

Three Rivers Hospital hosts community walk in Bridgeport

By MIKE MALTAIS
STAFF WRITER

BRIDGEPORT – On a brisk, clear morning last Saturday, Oct. 14, nearly a dozen intrepid walkers gathered at Fireman Park for another of Three Rivers Hospital's Community Walks to raise funds for a worthy local cause.

Parents, with some children in tow, met at 9 a.m. on the corner of Columbia Boulevard and 10th Street for a two-mile stroll that took the party up to the far east end of town and the beginning of Foster Creek Avenue, then back down the avenue, with its two-dozen carved sycamore tree trunks, and through the city's main drag to their original starting point.

The event was free but TRH Administrative Assistant and walk spokeswoman Jennifer Best said any donations raised from the walk would go toward winter wear for Bridgeport school youngsters. Funds were originally earmarked to benefit the Bridgeport Food Bank but with the closure of that facility the week previous, Bridgeport school became the designated beneficiary.

Three Rivers Hospital held a similar community walk in Mansfield last June to benefit Mansfield High School. Last year a large in Brewster turnout raised funds for that city's food bank.

City burn ban lifted

Council surpluses old sweeper, welcomes renovated reservoir

By MIKE MALTAIS
STAFF WRITER

BREWSTER – The city burn ban was officially lifted by the Brewster's Assistant Fire Chief Dylan Gamble during this month's regular city council meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 11. That means that city residents can now burn leaves and brush, provided they secure the proper burning permit from city hall.

A city burning permit, good through the remainder of the calendar year, costs $34.

The city's new Global M3 sweeper has been busy at work on Brewster's streets and council approved an amendment to the city budget to finalize its purchase. Council also approved the surplus of the city's old unit, a 1974 Mobile Athey, with a minimum starting bid of $4,000.

Public Works Director Lee Webster said the used sweeper comes complete with many new or replacement parts.

The city's renovated water reservoir is nearing completion and about ready to hold water, Webster said. It is one of four that now provides the city with 1.5 million gallons of storage.

When Apollo, Inc. of Spokane began earlier this spring, city officials were not sure what tests would reveal about the condition of the structure's foundation and below-ground stability.

The interior wall of the reservoir was lined with a curtain of rebar onto which was applied a four-inch layer of shotcrete. Original estimates called for a holding pressure of about 5,000 pounds per square inch (psi) but the completed project tested at about double that at 10,000 psi.

The addition to the interior surface reduces the structure's capacity to slightly below 500,000 gallons, a small tradeoff for the extra water storage.

"It has been a great project," said Webster. "It went as planned and as hoped."

A combination of funding from a Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) and state capital budget appropriation helped pay for the reservoir repairs.

The Brewster City Council voted to surplus its 1974 Mobile Athey street sweeper.

New roofing bid awarded

Senior Center hosts another October Play Day on Friday

By MIKE MALTAIS
STAFF WRITER

BREWSTER – The Senior Center will host another of its October Play days this Friday, Oct. 20, featuring a pot of taco soup to warm things up and prepared by Center president and spokeswoman Kathy Lowry.

“I can smell it now; I have a good recipe,” said Lowry who hopes to add her food contribution to snacks others bring.

“Games have been fun and we are learning more domino games, one called Chicken Foot, which moves fast and one called Mexican Train which is very fun to play too,” Lowry said.

Play day participants do not have to be members to join in the fun.

“More people are learning the Wii game Bowling and seem to enjoy it,” said Lowry. “We find that the more you do it, the better you become.” The Halloween Day Chili Feed menu will include a bowl of chili, corn meal muffin, ginger bread cake, and either apple juice or apple cider. A donation of $4 would be appreciated.

“Come on down, see the pumpkin judging contest and grab a bowl of soup and a handful of candy for the young ones as you leave to do your Trick or Treating on Main Street,” said Lowry. The chili will be ready at 4 p.m. with pumpkin decorating and contest starting an hour earlier. Prizes will be awarded for first, second, and third places.

“Our activity is an event that is in conjunction with the Chamber of Commerce and Boys and Girls Club celebrations,” said Lowry. “The Chamber is starting their activities approximately at 4:45 p.m. and they will be having the Trunk or Treat at the American Legion.”

Maps showing participating businesses will be available.

The Center has accepted a bid from Smart Choice Insulation and Roofing, Inc. from Pateros to install a new roof.

Installation will have to wait until spring when the temperature stays above 65 degrees so the roofing can adhere properly.

“Smart Choice is a local company and they support several local events, including the Log Cabin Christian Church, Apple Pie Jamboree, Pateros Chamber of Commerce and Terry Troxell Hydro Races,” Lowry said.

The raffle drawing for the three-piece Weber BBQ is getting close.

“We need to sell about $85 more worth of tickets and hope we can make that on or before Halloween,” said Lowry. “It would be great to draw that on our fun night.”

Tickets are $5 each of five for $20.

Pateros Council approves resolutions following public hearings

By MIKE MALTAIS
STAFF WRITER

PATEROS –The City Council scheduled three public hearings during its regular meeting last Monday, Oct. 16, following which members approved resolutions for which public testimony was solicited.

Council approved Subdivision Ordinance 751 amending the Pateros Municipal Code to add a qualified exemption to the subdivision requirements of the subdivision ordinance.

Following a second public hearing which drew no comment, council passed Ordinance 752 that vacates a portion of the alley way between Warren and Ives streets that is accessed from Florence Street. Attorney and recording fees associated with the vacation will be covered by the property owner.

Council also approved Ordinance 753 that allows extension of water service to locations outside the city limits provided stipulations outlined in the ordinance are met. A clarification from city administration explained that the extension only applied to property that could not be annexed to the city and furthermore that a water main must already be in place to the property requesting said connection.

A resolution declaring as surplus property, lots 56-63, block 7, replat No. 3, was approved together with procedures for the sale of that property.

The next regular city council meeting will be at 6 p.m. Nov. 20, that will also include a public hearing on the 2018 city budget, fee schedule and proposed tax sources.

sometimes used when other food became scarce. Smoked mice and other goodies were used as well. Curtis said old diary accounts wrote of adding the crickets to a soup stock along with rice, beans and whatever else might be at hand to make a meal.

Another cooking adventure that Curtis related on the pioneer trail was preparing bread dough.

"Sometimes the mosquitoes were so thick that they would turn the bread dough black," said Curtis. "There was nothing that could be done about it."

Unfortunately, the students were unable to replicate those results. But they did learn how to erect a tent, churn butter, prepare fruit for drying, cook over an open fire, wash camp dishes and get their hands involved in a variety of other activities.

Curtis's two ton-plus oxen, 2,770-pound Saul and his larger span mate Noah, weighing 2,940 pounds stood calmly as sixth grade students Elpidio Pamatz and Ishmael Mireles brushed their sides. The oxen were a principal source of transport for westward pioneers in the 19th century.

Curtis last set up her camp on the ground at the 70th Okanogan County Fair in September.

You can't buy peace from barbarians

For decades our foreign policy has been built on the concept of buying peace. Years of negotiations with terrorists like Yasser Arafat, Saddam Hussein, Kim Jong Il and his marvelous son Kim Jong Un has produced nothing but increasingly greater threats.

The message should be clear to anyone who is paying attention. There are evil people in the world that cannot be trusted. These evil leaders will use any ruse to advance their own evil purpose.

President Trump is right. The Iran deal is the worst "treaty" we have ever been a party to. Ultimately it will lead to a nuclear conflict and once the first strike is launched it will be nearly impossible to keep it from spinning out of control.

It would be one thing if these

IN MY OPINION

evil dictators were simply trying to insure that they could defend themselves against a more powerful opponent. But a critical look at their history shows they want to change the face of the world.

They routinely cry death to Israel and death to America. More importantly, they mean it. Iran is the leading state sponsor of terrorism. And the dictator of North Korea is maniacal.

These so called leaders have no respect for human life including the lives of their own citizens. They use their own children as weapons and give financial rewards to the families of suicide bombers.

Whether their motivation is religious or just a quest for power is unimportant. These leaders will stop at nothing to force their view on the rest of the world.

The United Nations is also ineffective. Trump was right in speaking about North Korea when he said, "It is an outrage that some nations would not only trade with such a nation but would arm, supply and financially support a country that imperils the world."

Trump was also right in his assessment of the Iranian regime when he said, "It has turned a wealthy country with a rich history and culture into an economically depleted rogue state whose chief exports are violence, bloodshed and chaos."

The reality is diplomacy has already failed. These "rogue regimes" are simply using the treaties and negotiations to buy time while they build up their arsenal of weapons. Their intent is clear and we can no longer sit by while they build up their nuclear arsenal so they can take out Tel Aviv or Washington, D.C.

It is unclear to me if President Trump was playing "good cop/bad cop" when he told his Secretary of State that he is wasting his time trying to negotiate with Korea. What is clear is that former American Presidents have encouraged these evil dictators by acquiescing to their demands.

The only successful peaceful tactic that has worked in the past is economic sanctions. We must isolate these countries by cutting off all trade. Enforcing sanctions against North Korea will mean enforcing trade restrictions on China for continuing to support North Korea. And enforcing sanctions on Iran will require enforcing trade restrictions on European and Asian businesses that have been allowed to do business in Iran under the Iranian Nuclear Deal. In other words, enforcing economic sanctions on North Korea and Iran is likely to start a trade war, but that is much preferable to a nuclear war.

The economies of much of the world will suffer greatly if they are not allowed to sell their goods in the US. And yes, here at home the cost of goods and services will likely escalate. But higher prices are much preferable to a nuclear holocaust.

President Obama promised we could get these evil regimes to love and accept us. We just had to treat them with respect. He was clearly wrong. Now his kinder and gentler America is facing with two evil regimes that would gladly eliminate us from the face of the planet.

Do you want to continue to allow these neighborhood bullies to be able to punch us in the nose for lunch money or is it time to force them to join the civilized world? The stronger they become the more dangerous this game becomes.

Contact your congressional representatives today and tell them that they need to support President Trump by imposing sanctions on North Korea and Iran

Billygoats bump Republic, look ahead to Wellpinit

By MIKE MALTAIS
STAFF WRITER

PATEROS – It was anybody's game through three quarters of play as two well-matched teams from visiting Republic and host Pateros battled it out in non-league action last Friday, Oct. 13.

The Tigers with a 4-2 record in the 1B Northeast League gave a workout to the Billygoats who improved their overall record to 3-3 with the 32-24 win over Republic but remain in the Central Washington 1B cellar at 0-2. Pateros hopes to change that when it hosts 0-1 Wellpinit at 7 p.m. this Friday, Oct. 20.

"Our defense stepped up and kept us in the game," said Pateros coach Marcus Stennes. "We were led in tackles by Jeremy Piechalski with 11 and Andrew Gonzalez with 10.

Republic took a six-point lead into halftime and held on to it the Billygoats caught the Tigers in their headlights.

"Piechalski ran in 20 yards to tie the game at 24 with less than two minutes left," said Stennes. "He then made another huge play by running in the two-point conversion to put us in the lead."

Republic still had time to erase that slim two-point lead until the Pateros defense managed to get the ball back.

"We were able to get a little cushion after forcing a turnover," said Stennes.

An Andrew Gonzalez touchdown put Pateros up by eight points. The Tigers would have to score a TD and two-point conversion to tie the game.

Sophomore defensive back, Ivan Cenicerros took away that possibility with interception with 45 seconds left to seal the win.

League-leading Brewster down Bridgeport, 3-0

BREWSTER – A league volleyball clash between two teams at opposite ends of the Central Washington 2B rankings played out last Tuesday night, Oct. 10, as the undefeated Brewster Lady Bears hosted winless Bridgeport.

In a predictable outcome, Brewster won in three straight sets, 25-7, 25-21, and 25-16, but the game offered many exciting moments when the determined Fillies came up with some outstanding digs, difficult saves and extended rallies as they tried to counter the hard-hitting net game of the Lady Bears.

Bridgeport coach Paige Stevie, in her first year with Bridgeport, thought her team played well against the league-leaders. After a slow start in the first set, Bridgeport rallied in the second and third to make the Lady Bears work hard for their wins.

The game was a special one for the Lady Bears who took the opportunity to observe Cancer Awareness Night in honor of teammate Alexandra Vazquez who lost her battle with Diffuse Intrinsic Pontine Glioma, a rare cancerous tumor of the brainstem, last August.

Brewster students Maria Medina, Grace Becker, Abigail Boesel and Victoria Hull staffed a table in the gym to encourage donations from game spectators to help find a cure for all cancers including the type that claimed the life of their schoolmate.

Pateros volleyball loses mental match to non-league Republic

By MIKE MALTAIS

PATEROS – The Nannies varsity volleyball team let a highly regarded Republic team get into the heads and lost a non-league home stand by three identical set scores of 25-18 on Tuesday, Oct. 10.

Pateros coach Gene Dowers summed up the game in his typically analytic fashion.

"We heard a lot about Republic's offense, especially their big middle hitters," said Dowers. "I think we let their reputation sway our expectation of who was going to win."

However, about mid-way through the first set, the Nannies discovered that they were giving as well as well as they got in a straight up give-and-take with the Tigers.

"We were playing even with them and I started to think that we could take them," said Dowers noting that Republic's big offense never showed up. "One of our silver linings was (Taylor Harrild's) serving. She's been working really hard on getting into a good rhythm and it came together."

"Our game plan worked real well keeping them out of their system but we kept them in it with our errors," said Dowers. "As cleanly as we'd played against Riverside Christian, we went the other way in this one."

Against the Crusaders three days earlier, Pateros came back from being down two close sets against RC to win the next three and take the best of five match.

Pateros was scheduled to take its 5-2 league record on the road against Wilson Creek on Tuesday, Oct. 17, and will host undefeated league-leader

"The effort of playing their third three-set match of the day started to show in the Nannies at the end," said Dowers. "Omak was much bigger and that doesn't go away with fatigue. The Pioneers kept their composure and made fewer errors at the end."

Omak defeated Pateros 25-11, 23-25, 15-8, in the tournament championships Wilson Creek defeated Entiat in the third and fourth place match.

Omak C defeated Brewster C, 25-23, 25-18 in the match for fifth and sixth.

Brewster win ties Tonasket on CW2B ladder with 4-2 record

By MIKE MALTAIS
STAFF WRITER

TONASKET – The Brewster Bears varsity football team beat Tonasket, 24-21, on its home turf last Friday, Oct. 13, to pull even with the Tigers on the Central Washington 2B League ladder with identical 4-2 league records.

“Yes, it was an exciting win,” said Brewster coach Jake Johanson. “It was awesome to see our guys rally from down 14-3 and make two huge plays to score a touchdown before the half.”

Johanson said juniors Ernie Nanamkin and Joe Taylor came through with some huge offensive plays in the ball game that helped make the difference for the Bears.

Junior wide receiver, Quincy Vassar played his best game so far pulling down two big catches, said Johanson. Switching to the defensive, Vassar made another great play batting down a ball from his safety position.

“Alfredo Nila played a great game at linebacker, stuffing the run and collecting two interceptions,” said Johanson. “I am so proud of this group of guys and the resiliency that they showed in this game.”

Johanson noted that the Bears haven’t had a lot of close games. “This was a good one for us to battle and being on the winning side.”

Brewster will host 1-5 Waterville-Mansfield at 7 p.m. Friday, Oct. 20 for Homecoming.

“Waterville is a much-improved team from the beginning of the year so we need to bring our A game this week for Senior Night,” said

Johanson. “We still have some things to clean up but I’m excited about the direction that we are going.”

Pateros hosts Invitational Junior Varsity Volleyball Tournament

By MIKE MALTAIS
STAFF WRITER

PATEROS – The Nannies hosted their Invitational Junior Varsity Volleyball Tournament last Saturday, Oct. 14, drawing four teams from 1A, 2B and 1A schools around the area.

“The tournament provided a day of competition for two teams that don’t get as many matches as their schools’ JV and varsity,” said Pateros coach Gene Dowers.

Starting at 8 a.m. each team played best two-of-three matches in a round-robin pool of three to qualify for the championship brackets in the afternoon.

Pool One featured Pateros, Entiat, and Omak’s C squad.

“Pateros finished first in the pool with a 25-21, 25-11 win over Omak C and a 22-25, 25-12, 15-9 victory over Entiat,” said Dowers. “Entiat defeated Omak C 25-21, 25-17.”

Pool Two was Omak, Wilson Creek, and Brewster’s C squad.

“Omak finished first with a 25-10, 25-7 win over Brewster C and a 25-20, 25-23 victory over Wilson Creek,” said Dowers. “Wilson Creek defeated Brewster C 25-10, 25-8.”

The C squads finished third in their respective pools and met for their last match of the day for fifth and sixth place.

Semi-final cross-over matches between the first and second place finishers in each pool set up the final pairings.

In semi 1, Pateros defeated Wilson Creek 25-23, 20-25, and 16-14.

In semi 2, Omak defeated

Entiat.

“The match for third and fourth place was played between two teams that had both lost enough players to recent injuries that they cancelled their remaining JV regular season matches,” said Dowers. “For the P.I.T., they both brought down a couple of varsity starters to allow the JV kids to play in this tournament. Those older kids played out of their normal roles and put in a long day to make sure their teammates got to play the day.”

In the tournament final, the Pateros girls rebounded from a first-set loss to win the second set after building up a big lead behind the serving of libero Jahaira Hernandez.
