

Missouri River Country

Come Explore 100 Remarkable Miles of Adventures, Culture, Sight Seeing, and Festivals!

It all starts just minutes from St. Louis!

Seven majestic Missouri River Towns offer you the ability to getaway and discover the stunning beauty and culture of Missouri River Country.

Augusta

Defiance

Hermann

Marthasville

New Haven

St. Charles

Washington

Taste award winning wines, enjoy great restaurants and boutiques, and experience thrilling interactive events. Whether you're looking for fun things to do in a day or an evening, want to get away for the weekend, or are planning an entire vacation - Missouri River Country is waiting!

Explore all there is to do, and plan your adventure@ MORiverCountry.com

7 Fascinating River Towns with Unforgettable Adventures

River towns
to visit

Scattered along the last 100 miles of the Missouri River, just before it spills into the Mighty Mississippi, are seven of the most alluring river towns you could experience. Each boasting its own unique culture and unforgettable entertainment.

Whether you're an activity seeker looking for your next adventure, an avid festival fan, or prefer a more relaxed activity like sipping wine while taking in breathtaking views – there is something for everyone in each of these charming Missouri River Country towns.

Augusta

Located on the beautiful bluffs above the Missouri River Valley along the Katy Trail, August is known for its viticulture. Home to the best in Missouri wineries and breweries, you can enjoy the flavors of the community while strolling around this quaint German village. Enjoy outdoor activities, seasonal events, golfing, and wine!

Defiance

The “Gateway to Missouri Wine Country”, Defiance is a spectacular destination! Follow in the steps of Missouri’s earliest pioneers, bike the Katy Trail, or enjoy the many eateries and wineries the area has to offer. Defiance is easy to visit and hard not to love.

Hermann

Named “Best Small-Town Destination,” and “Best Day Trip from St. Louis” in AAA’s Best of the Midwest poll. Known for festivals such as the renowned Oktoberfest, the locally famous “Wine Trail” featuring 20 miles of local wineries, quaint shops, access to the Katy Trail, and golfing, no Missouri River Country tour is complete without exploring Hermann!

Marthasville

A hidden gem rich in history and charm! Known as Daniel Boone's home, the location along both the Daniel Boone trail and Katy Trail make Marthasville a historian's dream. The small river town also boasts outdoor recreation, peaceful wineries, and distilleries!

New Haven

On the National Register of Historic Places, New Haven has magic that captivates visitors. With a thriving arts district, centuries of history, wineries, distilleries, the Levee River Walk, and diverse events, like balloon races or film festivals, this river town truly has something for everyone.

St. Charles

A true "river city" with a unique historical perspective, beautiful sights, festive night life, and friendly people; St. Charles invites you to launch your excursion where Lewis and Clark started their own exploration of the Missouri River. Featuring a thriving riverfront, restaurants, riverboat casinos, activities, and first-rate accommodations, there's something for everyone!

Washington

Visitors come back time and again to enjoy Washington's German heritage and revitalized riverfront. Home to unique boutiques, riverfront music, and festive eateries on the Missouri River, visitors to Washington leave enchanted by this one-of-a-kind river town.

Unforgettable Festivals and Things to Do Just Minutes from St. Louis

▲
Winery Tours

▲
Distilleries

▲
Katy Trail Tours

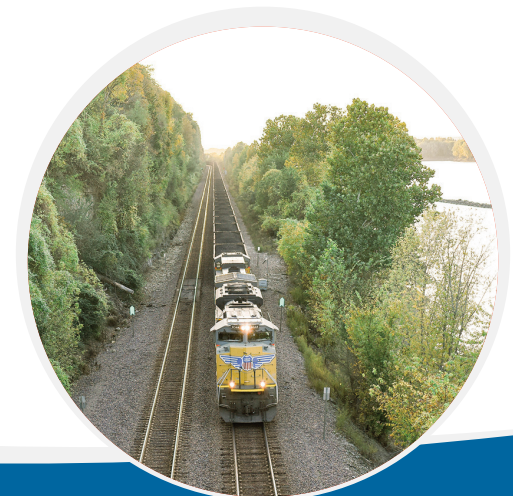

▼
Boutique Shopping

▼
Delectable Dining

▼
Countryside Train Rides

There's a million ways to explore and enjoy all the amazing things to do in Missouri River Country - and with all the seasonal events and festivals, no day is ever the same! From discovering the Katy Trail or ziplining through the trees, to exploring festivals, shopping boutiques, or relaxing at one of the many vineyards, there is truly something for everyone.

Explore the Missouri River Country
Travel Directory for more information!
MORiverCountry.com/explore

Upcoming Festivals:

- Augusta Plein Air Art Festival - April
- Washington Art Fair and Winefest - May
- Caboose on the Loose Motorcycle Run - June
- St. Charles Riverfest - July
- Marthasville Summer Concert Series in the Park
- New Haven Balloon Glow, Race and Festival - September
- Hermann Oktoberfest - October
- Defiance Christmas Festival - December

▲
Lewis & Clark Exploration

▲
Ziplining

▲
Golf

▼
Bed and Breakfasts

▼
Casinos

▼
Seasonal Events and MORE!

Distinguished Dining and Drinks: Taste the Culture!

The communities dotted around the last 100 miles of Missouri River Country are known for German Heritage and all the fantastic foods, beverages, and festivals that come along with it.

From romantic dining on the riverfront, to fun festivals featuring cultural food and drinks, Missouri River Country restaurants and wineries never disappoint!

Come visit during a festival, on a weekday, or on a weekend, and be ready to find your new favorite dish!

Explore the extraordinary restaurants, wineries,
and distilleries in Missouri River Country!
MORiverCountry.com/explore

Come Stay Awhile in Missouri River Country

After an action-packed day of outdoor activities, a romantic day at the wineries, or an evening of wine and beer tasting, relax and unwind at one of Missouri River Country's outstanding places to stay.

From St. Charles heading west to Hermann, you'll find an incredible array of unique lodging sprinkled along the Missouri River. From quaint bed and breakfasts to historic inns, cabins, and even 5-star casino hotels we have overnight accommodations to fit any style and any number of people.

Come find your new favorite place to stay!
MORiverCountry.com/explore

Enjoy Retail Therapy at the Unique Boutiques

The shopping in Missouri River Country is one-of-a-kind. You won't find many department stores, outlet malls, or shopping centers selling standard wares, but you won't miss them!

Each river town features their own eclectic mix of fabulous boutiques peddling amazing items. From candles to antiques, and fashion to hand crafted pieces, art, wines, and cigars you'll enjoy everything Missouri River Country shopping has to offer!

- Antiques
- Fashion
- Candles
- Galleries
- Jewelry
- Foods
- Crafts
- Cigars
- Wine
- Hand Blown Glass
- Woodworking
- and MORE!

Explore some of the unique boutique shopping in Missouri River Country! MORiverCountry.com/explore

